CANADA PROMINENT AT ASTRONOMICAL UNION

Our Observatories Will Co-operate in Research Work With Other Countries

Canada's position in the realms of astronomical research is indicated by the leading part taken by the Canadian delegates at the second triennial meeting of the International Astronomical Union held at Cambridge, England, from the 14th to the 22nd of July, 1925. The Union, which was formed in 1919, is now composed of twenty-two countries; Canada has been a member since 1920. General meetings of delegates are held every third year for consultation and the arrangement of international co-operation in astronomy. In the intervals between meetings international co-operation is looked after by twenty-eight standing committees covering the various fields of astronomical research. Canada is represented at present on nine of these committees and, considering the Dominion's population, this is perhaps the largest representation enjoyed by any country.

Canada's membership in the Union is on behalf of the Government, through the Department of the Interior. The Department has also caused to be organized a Canadian National Committee of fifteen members to carry on the business of the Union as it affects Canada.

Five Canadian delegates attended the recent meeting in Cambridge. Two of these, Mr. R. Meldrum Stewart, Director of the Dominion Observatory, Ottawa, and Dr. J. S. Plaskett, Director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory Victoria, British Columbia, were officially designated as Government delegates; the others were Prof. C. A. Chant, and Prof. J. C. McLennan of Toronto University and Dr. F. Henroteau of the Dominion Observatory. The total number of delegates and invited guests was nearly two hundred.

The formal business of the Union was carried on largely in the meetings of the various committees, which were, naturally largely of a technical character. Even more useful than these formal meetings were the opportunities for discussion of common problems and for arrangements for co-operation afforded by so large a gathering of astronomers. An example of this is the informal arrangement, on the initiative of the Dominion Observatory, for the co-operation of some twelve or fifteen observatories in attacking a particular problem in connection with available stars of short period.

One of the most interesting developments was the announcement of the success of a difficult observational experiment to test the Einstein theory of relativity, which was carried through with the 100-inch telescope on the Mt. Wilson Observatory in California. One of the predictions of Einstein, that of the change in wave-length of light emitted from a star of great density, was definitely verified in the case of the close companion of the star Sirius, which on account of peculiar conditions was particularly well suited for the test. This forms the most definite proof yet adduced for the Einstein theory. Incidentally the star was found to have a density some four thousand times greater than that of iron.

It was decided that in the fall of 1925 a number of nations would cooperate to observe a girdle of longitude stations encircling the earth, in order, among other things, to provide data for an ultimate decision on Wegener's hypothesis of an extremely slow but progressive drift of the continents relative to one another. In this undertaking it is expected that the Dominion Observatory will take part; the connection of the various stations will be effected by the use of wireless telegraphy.

In the discussions on spectral classification of the stars, as well as in other committees on astrophysics, the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, which has done intensive work along these lines, took an important part.

The question of the admission of former enemy nations into the Union aroused considerable discussion and somewhat divergent views found expression. No definite decision was arrived at, but it was the consensus of opinion that the time was at hand, if not already here, for steps in that direction.

The next meeting of the Union, on the invitation of the Dutch Government, is to be held in Lieden, Holland, in 1928.

You're behind the times if you don't know that Cod Liver Extract is one of the greatest flesh producers in the world.

Because it contains more vitalizing vitamines than any food you can get.

You'll be glad to know that McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets come in sugar coated form now, so if you really want to put 10 or 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh on your bones and feel well and strong and have a complexion that people will admire—ask your druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

It isn't anything unusual for a person to gain 10 pounds in 30 days, and for old people with feebleness overtaking them they work wonders.

A young couple had just been married, and on arrival from the church the bridegroom was asked to make a speech, but he declined. After a bit of coaxing he stood up, placed his hand on his wife's shoulder, and remarked. "Ladies and gentlemen, I am not very good at speech-making, but this thing has been forced upon me."

Thames Magistrate — Were you drunk?

Man—Well—I am a seaman.

Peevish, pale, restless, and sickly children owe their condition to worms Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will relieve them and restore health.

Husband in Sussex—My wife lets me go to the club one night a week, but I always go with that "prisoner on Jail" feeling.

No Asthma Remedy Like It. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is distinctly different from other so-called remedies. Were this not so it would not have continued its great work of relief until known from ocean to ocean for its wonderful value. Kellogg's, the foremost and best of all asthma remedies, stands on its reputation founded in the hearts of thousands who have known its Benefit.

Cuts and Bruises Disappear. — When suffering from cuts, scratches, bruises, sprains, sore throat or chest pains, use Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Its healing power is well-known in every section of the community. A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil should be in every medicine chest ready for the emergencies that may always be anticipated.

Man in Surrey—He gave me two black eyes, and when I got home my wife threw a pail of water over me for not defending myself. It was a perfect day.

IT WILL RELIEVE A COLD — Colds are the commonest ailments of mankind and if neglected may lead to serious conditions. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will relieve the bronchial passages of inflammation speedily and thoroughly and will strengthen them against subsequent attack. And as it eases the inflammation it will usually stop the cough because it allays the irritation in the throat. Try it and prove it.

Snappy Young Wife—"To be frank with you, if you were to die I should certainly marry again."

Harassed Husband—"I've no objection, I'm not going to worry about the troubles of a fellow I shall never know."

Miller's Worm Powders are the medicine for children who are found suffering from the ravages of worms. They immediately alter the stomachic conditions under which the worms subsist and drive them from the system, and, at the same time, they are tonical in their effect upon the digestive organs, restoring them to healthful operation and ensuring immunity from further disorder from such a cause.

Wife—Oh dear! The cook says she is going to leave, and she has been here only two days."

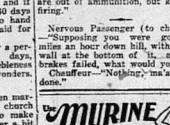
Husband—It's all your own fault, Maria. You never will learn how to manage servants. Why, my mother once kept a cook nearly a month.

Captain—"What is strategy in war?"

Sergeant—"Well, strategy is when you don't let the enemy discover you are out of ammunition, but keep on firing."

Nervous Passenger (to chauffeur) "Supposing you were going 50 miles an hour down hill, with a stone wall at the bottom of it, and your brakes failed, what would you do?"

Chauffeur—"Nothing, ma'am. It's done."



MURINE NIGHT & MORNING KEEP YOUR EYES CLEAN CLEAR AND HEALTHY

PERSISTENT BEAVERS.

A Battle of Wits Between the Animals and the Engineers.

When the Grand Trunk railway ran its line across a swamp in a game preserve on the line of the Alberta Rockies there was a wonderfully constructed beaver dam holding the water back to flood the swamp.

This in the eyes of the game warden was pure waste, and he ordered the engineers to proceed with without harming the beavers. Of course the dam could have been blown up with dynamite, but that would have meant the death of most of the little animals and death very likely in great pain at that.

So the engineers cut an opening in the dam. The mud had become almost as hard as concrete, and it took the men three days to get the water running out steadily. Then, thinking their troubles with the industrious little fellows over, they started work on the railway through the swamp.

Soon the water began to rise, and the work was stopped in a few hours. The engineers made all haste to the dam and found the animals had repaired the cut and made it tight again.

A fresh cut was made, but after the men had gone the beavers busied themselves and made it stronger than ever. Work was again stopped on the railroad within a few hours.

Then a deep hole was made in the earth far under the dam. The beavers were much puzzled. Never before had they seen water go down into the ground and come up far away. But they lost their whole attention to the problem, and the work on the railroad was again stopped as a consequence and the foundations soaked with water.

Then followed an engagement of wits between the beavers and the engineers. But every time the men found a way to cut the dam in a new place the beavers found a way to stop it.

The road was finally constructed by working a few hours at a time, and the loss to the contractors amounted to more than $5,000.—Detroit Free Press.

Nervous Depression

Why People Are Low Spirited and Depressed

Nearly all women and most men suffer at times from this or depression and low spirits. Everything seems a burden; then come periods of nervous irritability, headaches and weariness. People who suffer this way lack vitality because their blood is poor and nerves are starved in consequence.

The only way the nerves can be reached is through the blood. By enriching the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the starved nerves are supplied with just the elements they need. This is proved by the experience of Mrs. J. E. Dadson, 12th Ave., East, Vancouver, B.C., who says:—"About three years ago I became very weak and nervous. I had pains in my side and back, and was suffering from frequent pains in the back of my head and neck. I was hardly able to do anything about the house. I would wake with a start in the night and get so I was afraid to go to bed for almost choked me. I tried much doctor's medicine but it did me no permanent good. One day I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give them a trial. These pills proved such a benefit and change in a short time that I kept taking them until I had used a dozen boxes. By this time there was such an improvement in my condition that friends would ask me what I was taking, and of course I was only too pleased to tell them it was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am now feeling like a new person and am doing my own housework. We would not now be without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the house."

You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FATTENING CHICKENS

All chickens intended for market should be crate fattened. They will gain about a pound each in two or three weeks if properly fed, and will present a much more attractive appearance, thus commanding a better price. Fattening crates should be eighteen inches wide, twenty inches high, and eight feet long, divided into three compartments which will each hold five birds. The crate is made of slats running lengthwise on all sides except the front where they should run up and down. A trough is placed along the front.

A good fattening ration consists of equal parts of corn meal, middlings and buckwheat meal, to which is added enough sour milk to make a batter. Another suitable ration is finely ground oats two parts, finely ground buckwheat two parts, and one part of finely ground corn, moistened with milk. Ground barley may be used instead of corn. Never feed whole grain to chickens that are being crate fattened. A little grit should be given once a week. When the birds are put in the crates, they should be fed very lightly at first, and the amount of feed gradually increased as long as it is cleaned up in fifteen or twenty minutes. Well fattened poultry, properly dressed, will bring the highest price. Anyone desiring a demonstration on killing or plucking chickens should get in touch with J. Laughland, Agricultural Representative.

Missionary Convention

At Hay Bay United Church Was Well Attended

The thirty-first and last annual Convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Napanee District, was held in Hay Bay United Church, on Thursday, October 8th, 1925. The large number of delegates and visitors present showed an unusual attendance. The church was filled to its doors, and one was at once attracted with the arrangement of many hued flowers, which of themselves betokened a welcome outside of the cordiality of hand-shake and greeting voice.

The officers, Mrs. G. I. Perry and Mrs. I. Asselstine, filled their respective places and conducted the opening exercises which always inspire the meeting, and as it were sets the spiritual seal for the day's proceedings. After appointment of Press Reporter, the numerous Auxiliary delegates came forth in alphabetical order with reports of such a nature as to give zeal and quicken interest in our work. A reported increase of thirty-two members, means an increase in attendance, interest, finance and prayer. The various Auxiliaries raised the sum of $762.87, a slight increase over last year. Some notes of Auxiliary doings may interest readers. Selby has been building, reporting eight new members; Wilton, the union of Presbyterian and Methodist W. M. S., for increased spiritual work; Morven has fifty-three Little Light Bearers linked up in their work; Grace Church increased efforts to promote Christian Stewardship. Other reports showed interesting programmes and ways of increasing funds.

The Circles and Bands still retain their standing with unslackened efforts and report interesting meetings, good attendance, and cheerful giving. After singing of Hymn, the Superintendents reported on Little Light Bearers, Christian Stewardship and Associate Helpers. The first two gave encouraging reports of their work, and Associate Helpers must have developed in full membership, there being no reports given. Business consisted of a unanimous vote for present officers to retain their office for ensuing year, thus testifying their efficiency in the work.

Just here it was moved by Mrs. E. Wright, and seconded by Mrs. W. Fretts, that a letter of love and sympathy be written Mrs. A. Peterson, President of Hay Bay Auxiliary, who is ill in Kingston hospital. Carried.

"Thanks for Mission Bands" by Mrs. E. Alkenbrack, was based on the great fundamental invitation, "Suffer the children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven". Then again, "Whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein". These were the strongholds on which she based the responsibility of Band Leaders and their opportunities for service in Christ's Kingdom. One thought was early training in missionary interest, when the mind was most susceptible and retentative. She then said this was the time for developing interest to be a true missionary worker and then follows a true Christian. Her one beautiful thought for a guide to those who work with boys and girls was to remember the perfect foundation led to the perfect life.

Training in proper, systematic and cheerful giving, parents' interest, and many other thoughts were dealt with in a manner most impressive and serve as food for many a struggling Band Leader.

Solo, "He Died of a Broken Heart", by Mrs. H. Stainton, was much appreciated for its appropriateness and feeling expression.

Mrs. Dawson's "Suggestions for Mission Circles", was to secure some capable and experienced Circle Leader, with all or a portion of her Circle, and give a program as it were for instructions. This imparted knowledge of the ways and means to organize and conduct a successful Circle. Then to build up and keep interest quickened she suggested roll call to be answered by verses of Scripture, beginning with some certain letter of the alphabet. This was a training in accordance to Paul the Apostle, "Search the Scriptures", etc. Then birthday boxes, some system of tithing, a light lunch for social development, along with a different committee being responsible for each month's program, that all may have a part, which is a satisfying system among members.

The Quiet Half Hour was in charge of Mrs. R. J. Merriam. The first hymn of Consecration was sung, which is always an impetus to love and sacrifice. Prayer by Mrs. Joyce that as women we consecrate ourselves anew to His service. In a manner so devout and tender she spoke to us from St. Mark's Gospel, 14th chapter, and set forth Mary's devotion to her Christ in those days being all unconscious of her acts passing down two thousand years and through Christ commending them made it possible for us to render the highest service in His Great Command.

Mrs. A. C. Parks, in behalf of the entertaining Auxiliary, welcomed us whole heartedly to their church and to partake of lunch prepared for the occasion and for a time of social intercourse. Then to remind us of the other purpose she touchingly asked for prayer in tremulous words, those who labor for souls, labors for two eternities, for the eternity of that soul and the eternity of its influence.

The afternoon Devotional was conducted by Mrs. W. G. and Mrs. E. B. Fretts, of Hawley Auxiliary. "A Story to Tell to the Nations" was so fittingly chosen for the work we represent and likewise the Scripture lesson, 8th chapter Luke, Parable of the Sower, and was so compared with our every day life of opportunity and our neglect or rather indifference to sow the true seed of Christ on fertile ground rather than by the wayside, upon rock or even among thorns. Her earnestness for sowing on good ground springing up and bearing an hundredfold was typical of our responsibility and careful-ness in the plan of God's great work. The prayer in closing by Mrs. E. B. Fretts, was a petition for a closer walk with Christ and His Cause. Mrs. W. G. Fretts then conducted Roll Call, after which our Secretary came forward and read the Memorial of deceased members, after which Rev. Mr. Merriam led in prayer and touched upon the day of training, the day of activity and day of eternal rest.

Minutes of morning session were read and adopted. Reply to Greetings by Mrs. A. W. Babcock, in an appreciative manner, voiced the feeling of the gathering. Her first words of not having to wait until the noon hour for welcome, but felt the warmth of missionary hospitality prevailing on entering the door. In looking about she mentioned men leaving tasks for a worthy cause to enjoy convention in Christian fellowship. The lavished food was not overlooked, and the outer man had such a satisfying portion that Hay Bay ladies' generous lunch, along with their many other offerings so hospitable would be a long remembered gathering to those present.

Mrs. Dawson's solo, "Thy Will Be Done in Me", was much appreciated. The Home Base, consisting of four three-minute papers, set forth spiritual strength in missionary work to last a great deal longer than the twelve minutes required to give it.

"The Greatest Difficulty in Our Missionary Work and How to Meet it", was given by Mrs. J. C. Hudgins, telling us we should be proud of our Society, the character and vastness of its work. Churches, schools, hospitals and devotional centres established through missionary efforts would only have its revelation in eternity. As a great company we were beset with common problems, each Auxiliary had its difficulties, one common cause leadership followed by keeping up interest, attendance, and finance. Attendance important for the touch of spirit to spirit quickens and an organized body with full attendance can accomplish ways and means to meet the work's demands through prayer, belief and accordance.

"Something We As Missionary Workers Stand in Need Of". The three great essentials, Mrs. Fred Wales, who was in charge of this paper, set forth were prayer, knowledge and interest. Her stronghold that we did not lack ability but interest was set forth by putting money in bank, had to put in to get out. Just so with our work in Missionary lines, the more we put in the stronger we become, the more Christian we become, and that is our need, to become more alive in time, work, giving and prayer.

"How to Interest the Uninterested", by Mrs. T. V. Anderson, was the old story told, but well told. Her thought of having burden rest on a few could be remedied by everyone having "a something to do", which awakens interest. Members for years not a little interest, was not a valuable asset to any Auxiliary. Willing workers were made more willing often times by doing a stranger's work, because they are willing and know the work, it is easy to have them do it. Ability is often overlooked until some opportunity presents itself to know they are capable ones, and could be interested.

"Does the District Convention Help the Auxiliary as it Should?" This was given by Mrs. Geo. Clark, and was, to use the term, a snappy little paper. Then it once roused the members and officers to a thinking condition as she followed down the program given from time to time with its wealth of helps and suggestions in papers and addresses. The deepening of the spirit in Quiet Half Hour, benefits derived from discussions on Question Drawer, interesting reports of sister societies in conducting their work, raising funds, retaining interest, etc. These, along with many others, convinced those present that our Conventions had a spiritual and beneficial influence that kept fresh our zeal.

Solo, by Mrs. B. Elliott, who delighted the audience with her power of song.

"Looking Backward", by our Superintendent, Mrs. G. I. Perry, was a carefully prepared but brief resume of the Conventions and various officers since its organization in Trinity Church some thirty-one years ago.

Miss Clazie, returned missionary from Formosa, under Presbyterian Society, but now of United Church, then held our Convention with her word pictures of Formosa, its inhabitants, customs and religion, being described in a vivid manner. After the geographical position had been given, 1872 marked the date of first missionary to go over fifty preaching places; nine have their own pastor; yet there are villages never touched by the gospel. Hospital closed six years, short of official staff, no doctor, prospects are now good for opening. The hospital is one great way of reaching the people, curing of one result in forty seeking for Christ. There are only twenty-seven missionaries, need so great, workers so few, only about fifty thousand. The larger part of population is Chinese. Quite a number of Japanese, who have introduced education, sanitation, telegraph and telephone, but have said "Civilization is not Christianity".

Ancestral worship is one religion. Its influence social and political has its place in every home, a table or shelf with different idols or gods arranged thereon is a part of every household. The tablet finds first place. They never step on their threshold, but over, thinking the evil spirit will be left behind. Very often you see as many as one hundred families under one roof, while as another member brings in his wife, they continue to build still another bowl or room in connection until the whole covers quite an area. New Years is their day of the year and time of feasting and offering prayers for care during the year to ward off evil spirits. Date for celebration is the 3rd day of the 3rd month. All sorts of noises, for the same purpose to frighten off evil spirits. As she further told us of things too numerous to remember, the prospects now good for opening. Just here it was announced that the day's finances amounted to $94.25, the largest sum on record raised by our Convention gathering.

After singing hymn and Rev. Mr. Merriam leading in prayer, there closed a Convention whose two sessions were full of a wonderful spirit of love and fellowship, and all went home feeling they had received an inspiration to start in the new way, and thanking God that we were just beginning in a larger sphere.

JUDICIAL SALE

Pursuant to a Judgment of the Supreme Court of Ontario made in the matter of the Estate of Mary Amarilla Schryver, and bearing date the 25th day of September, 1925, there will be sold by Public Auction with the approbation of the undersigned Master at Napanee at his Chambers in the Court House, in the Town of Napanee on Friday, the 30th October, instant, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following valuable farm and town property:

Parcel No. 1.—Part of the East half of Lot 18, in the 2nd Concession of the Township of Fredericksburgh, in the County of Lennox and Addington, being all that part of said lot lying south of Big Creek, and containing about 75 acres more or less.

Parcel No. 2.—Commencing at a point on the north boundary of said Dundas Street, a distance of 49 feet East from the intersection of the said North boundary of Dundas Street with the Eastern boundary of John Street, thence North at right angles to the said North boundary of Dundas Street, a distance of 58 feet, thence East at right angles to last mentioned course a distance of 21 feet to brick building known as Chambers Block, thence South at right angles to the last mentioned course a distance of 58 feet to Dundas Street, thence West along the North boundary of said Dundas Street a distance of 21 feet to the place of beginning, together with the right of way running from the East side of John Street to a point 33 feet from the corner of John and Dundas Streets 10 rods South and running easterly 70 feet more or less to Chambers Block in common with the other owners of parts of said Lots 4 and 5 by grants to one John W. Milligan.

Parcel No. 3.—All those parts of said lots 4 and 5 lying North of the above described lands not heretofore conveyed by the said John W. Milligan together with the right of way running North along the Western limit of the lands owned by one Hulda Chambers, which said right of way is particularly described in a deed from John W. Milligan to the said Hulda Chambers, dated May 26th, 1902, and registered in Book 13 for the Town of Napanee as No. 6164. The foregoing two parcels of land are described in a deed from John W. Milligan to Anabel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver, dated the 17th of October, A.D. 1906, and registered in Book 14 for the Town of Napanee as No. 6924.

Parcel No. 4.—All that part of lot 5 on the North side of Dundas Street in the said Town of Napanee, described as follows: Commencing on John Street 68 feet North of Dundas Street at the intersection of the right of way with said John Street running between the property hereby conveyed and the property immediately to the South thereof, then along John Street 33 feet more or less, then East parallel to Dundas Street 45 feet more or less, then Southerly parallel to John Street 33 feet more or less to said right of way, thence West parallel to Dundas Street 45 feet more or less to the place of beginning, said parcel of land being more particularly described in a deed from John W. Milligan to Anabel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver, dated the 1st of June, 1906, and registered in Book 14 for the Town of Napanee as No. 7152.

The last three parcels of land are intended to include all those parts of said lots 4 and 5 belonging to Anabel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver at the time of his death.

Upon Parcel No. 1 are erected a frame dwelling house about 30x32, cottage roof; a frame barn about 60x40 with leanto about 40x28, also a hog pen and hen house about 24x24, all in good repair. The land is well fenced and well watered by Big Creek and two wells.

Upon Parcel No. 2 is erected a brick building, two storeys, 21x38, now occupied by the Dominion Stores, Limited.

Upon Parcel No. 4 is erected a rough frame building lined on the outside, about 32x44.

The property will be sold subject to reserve bids fixed by the Master, and Parcels 2, 3 and 4 separately or en bloc, at the option of the Master.

Terms of Sale:—Ten per cent. down and the balance within one month thereafter without interest.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale shall be the standing conditions of sale of the said Court.

Dated the 14th day of October, 1925.

S. S. LAZIER,
Master.

"Start a great big immigration movement into Canada, of people not only willing to work but for whom profitable work can be found, and all the pressing problems that now beset our country will be well on the way to solution."

—What Everybody Says.

Fine—let us do so! But to be sure we're on the straight and sure road to our goal, let us begin by doing some clear thinking—some hard thinking—on these two important questions:

1. What class of immigrants do we want? 2. How are we going to attract them?

Valuable Lessons to be Learned from Past Failures.

Heretofore we have always taken it for granted—without much careful thought, perhaps—that it was farmer immigrants we most wanted,—people who would settle on our vacant land in the West, and produce more from the soil.

And complaints being loud and numerous that farming in Canada was not as profitable as it should be, we have tried to convert an unattractive situation into an attractive one by lowering the tariff on manufactured goods, in the hope of thereby lowering farm production costs, and so increasing the farmer's net.

Has that plan gotten us anywhere?

In 1924, despite tariff reductions made ostensibly to benefit agriculture, there were actually fewer farm immigrants than in 1923! And when, against the total immigration for 1923 and 1924, we offset the total emigration from our towns and cities, we find that the country has suffered a net loss!

So, obviously there is something wrong—somewhere—in the plan we have been following,—either in the assumption that it is farmers we most want, or in our method of attracting them. Perhaps it's a combination of the two.

Population Increases Should be Properly Balanced.

In shaping our policy as above, we have certainly overlooked one very important point. Farmers as a rule don't sell to farmers, but to town and city folk. So when we try to increase farm population by methods that operate to decrease town and city population, we are actually making things worse for the very people we are trying to benefit. We are curtailing a domestic market that our farmers can control, and we are increasing their dependence upon an export market over which they have no control!

An Alternative Plan that Promises Better Success.

Let us now go back to the beginning again, and start from the alternative assumption that it's primarily town and city population we want to attract.

Are 63 Countries Wrong and Only Canada Right?

While Canada has been lowering her tariff, these 63 countries have been raising theirs:—

Algeria	Japan
Argentina	Latvia
Australia	Luxembourg
Austria	Madagascar
Belgium	Malta
Bolivia	Mesopotamia
Brazil	Mexico
British East Africa Dependencies	Netherland East Indies
British Guiana	Newfoundland
British Honduras	New Zealand
British West Indies	Nigeria
Bulgaria	Norway
Chile	Paraguay
China	Persia
Colombia	Peru
Czecho-Slovakia	Poland
Ecuador	Portugal
Egypt	Roumania
Esthonia	Russia
Finland	Samoa
France	San Salvador
Repub. of Georgia	Sarawak
Germany	Serb-Croat-Slovene State
Gold Coast Colony	Seychelles
Greece	Sierra Leone
Guatemala	South Africa
Holland	Spain
Honduras	Sweden
India	Switzerland
Irish Free State	Tunis
Italy	United States
	Uruguay

And now even the United Kingdom has begun to protect her home markets.

63 Countries have been making it more difficult for Canada to sell in their markets, while Canada has been making it easier for the whole world to sell in hers!

Have they all blundered? Has Canada alone shown wisdom?

Obviously the way to attract that class is by switching from a policy of lower duties to one of higher duties. The one thing above all others that the immigrant wants is the assurance of a steady job at good wages. Give him that, and he will come in his thousands,—yes, in his tens of thousands! And in a policy of higher tariffs he will have his guarantee that steady work at good wages will be awaiting him.

"Yes," you say, "but what about our farm population? We want it to increase too!" Of course we do! But with town and city population increasing, can farm population do other than increase in proportion? With more customers for farm produce, and with a higher purchasing power per customer due to higher wages, isn't it inevitable that a domestic supply will be forthcoming to meet a domestic demand, particularly if we protect farm products in the same way that we propose to protect manufactured products?

A Precedent That Shows What Can Be Done!

We have tried the plan of lower tariffs, as a means of attracting farmer immigration, and we see that it has signally failed, and we know the reasons why it has failed.

Why not now try the alternative plan of higher tariffs, as a means of attracting urban immigration, when it seems perfectly clear that it must bring farmer immigration in its train?

Even if the latter were mere theory, that would be no valid reason for rejecting it in favor of a policy we have tried, and found to be barren of results.

But we know that it is far beyond the theory stage. The United States offers a practical demonstration of its success! By the plan of higher tariffs, to benefit all classes of population, the United States has managed to attract the biggest and longest sustained immigration movement the world has ever known!

What better example does Canada want?

Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheumo.

Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family.

Rheumo is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia.

It is a wonder-worker; it never falters, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body.

Rheumo acts on stomach, liver, kidneys and bladder all at once and quickly brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. WALLACE'S DRUG STORE and all good druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't satisfactory.

"My", said the husband, "that was a good sleep. I slept like a log."

"Yes," answered the wife, "with a saw going through it."

Fighting For Baby's Health

Is the Constant Care of Every Young Mother

The young mother has a constant care in looking after the welfare of her little ones. Childhood ailments come on so suddenly — sometimes without a minute's warning — the mother may have a very sick baby on her hands before help can be obtained. That is unless she has a remedy in the house which will safely give the baby for any of the many minor ailments of babyhood and childhood.

Such a remedy is found in Baby's Own Tablets. Thousands of mothers throughout the country always keep a box of the Tablets on hand and they proclaim them to be without an equal for sweetening baby's stomach; regulating his bowels, and thus driving out constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers, and making the dreaded teething period easy. Baby's Own Tablets are an absolutely safe remedy. They are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any other narcotic drug which are so harmful to the future welfare of the baby. Mothers, if you value the life of your little ones give him Baby's Own Tablets when he is ill, or, better still, give him an occasional dose of the Tablets to ward off illness. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or will be sent to any address, post paid, at 25 cents a box by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every law-suit and pays all damages up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your car.

THE WAR AGAINST INSECTS

It is estimated that from 10 to 25 per cent of all crops grown in Canada is lost by the ravages of insects and that the annual loss in value each year reaches the enormous total of over one hundred million dollars. The crusade against this devastation, which is carried on by officers of the Dominion Entomological Branch at Ottawa, and in the various provinces, is thus of a herculeam character. As circumstances warrant it whole districts are brought under quarantine to prevent the pests in particular localities being shipped out on products upon which they prey. Trenches miles in length have been dug to trap the horribly destructive army worm; poison gas has been experimented with to kill grasshoppers; parasites of different species are bred and used as auxiliaries in this gigantic warfare, and drugged baits are distributed at strategic points, that is where it is thought their use will be most effective. In no division of the work has greater activity and power been shown than in fighting the vicious corn-borer. Cities have practically been placed in a state of seige by men being stationed with rights of search to enforce the regulations and to see that no transportation of corn contrary thereto takes place. All of this important work has resulted in the saving of crops worth millions of dollars. The farmer, fruit grower and citizen generally are appreciating more and more the assistance rendered by the Dominion Entomologist and his officers.

Overcoats for Men and Younger Men

OUR advice is that you come in now and pick out your Coat while the selection is good. The best always sell first—so protect yourself.

For Younger Men

We are showing the popular Three-Piece Belt Ulster, with set-in sleeves or Raglan shoulders. Shades are Lovats (light green mix), Heather Brown, Fawn and Navy Blue; and the prices are from $13.75 to $25.00.

For Men

The general trend of color is toward the medium shades—rich Browns, Fawns, Greys and Blues. We are showing many lines of tall Ulster Coats, and several Slip-On Coats—the easy fitting style with the box back. Prices are $13.75 to $25.

For the man who wants a well tailored coat made from good weight material, we would recommend any of the splendid coats we are showing at $25.00. These are well worth the money, and will appeal to the man who knows quality and will pay a reasonable price for a good article.

BOYS' COATS at $7.75, 8.75 and $9.25.

Narrow Escape.

On Sunday evening, a buggy driven by Mr. Harold M'Greer, was run into by a passing motor car, and what might have been a very serious accident resulted. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hawley and Mr. M'Greer were all thrown from the carriage when the car struck, taking off a wheel. All three passengers were badly bruised. The driver of the motor continued his speeding and has not yet been heard from. The accident took place in front of the residence of Mr. Herbert Daly, on Piety Hill.

INDOOR BASEBALL

The Indoor Baseball fans of the town received an unexpected treat on Tuesday evening, when a double-header was played in the Armouries, St. Pats vs Grace Church was the first on the program, and these girls played pretty snappy ball, in spite of not being used to electric lights. The "Saints" won the game handily, but Grace Church girls plugged away even though they were behind, and pulled off some real brainy plays. The feature of the evening was an unassisted triple play by Miss Harrigan, playing shortstop for Grace Church. With men on 1st and 2nd and none out, she made a beautiful catch of a liner, stepped on 2nd and ran down the other girl who had left 1st. She received well deserved applause for making such an unexpected play. Agnes Cavanaugh twirled good ball for the Saints and fanned 12 men, while Irene Embury did the receiving in fine style. "Tommy" Johnston on first lived up to her reputation as a sure fielder and hitter and her all round playing could not have been improved upon. Dorothy Richardson and Miss Kilborn worked around 2nd like veterans, while Katherine Gleeson held down the "hot corner" in finished style. The outfield composed of Marion Embury and Beatrice Brady, and Eileen Murphy shone in the field as well as at bat. D. Richardson and B. Brady were the "Ruths" of the evening, both connecting for homers, while D. Johnston slammed out a three-bagger.

Hazel O'Neill twirled very effectively for "Grace", whiffing 8 men. Mary Stinson held up the receiving end to a nicety, while Evelyn Mills' play around first was something for the "book". The Harrigan sisters covered 2nd in a finished style, while Dorothy Lucas covered the hot corner as good as any man. The outfield composed of Elsie Root, Mildred Loucks and June Thompson made the crowd sit up and take notice.

There was a crowd of about 100 fans present and they certainly made themselves heard.

After the girls' game two picked teams from "B" Company entertained the crowd. These two teams played fast and snappy ball in the first three or four innings. The game then developed into a slug-fest, and resulted in a win for the team captained by Harry Babcock.

As evidenced by the large number of spectators, indoor baseball has gained a place in the town sports, and without doubt standing room will be at a premium for the next game which is scheduled for some time during next week.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Paul Huyck passed away at the residence of her son, Mr. Benjamin Huyck, on Saturday last, at the advanced age of 92 years and 11 months. She was born and always lived in Hay Bay district, being one of a family of fourteen children, only one of which survives, Mrs. Edmund Rombough. She leaves to mourn besides a large circle of friends, an only son, Mr. Benjamin Huyck, with whom she has lived. The funeral was conducted at her late residence on Monday, by her Pastor, Rev. E. J. Merriam, interment taking place at Bethany Church cemetery.

Death of Gladys McTaggart.

A sad death occurred on Monday, October 12th, 1925, at Port Colborne, when Gladys, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McTaggart, passed away. She contracted scarlet fever at school and although all the other patients had it very lightly, little Gladys had a very bad attack, which resulted in her death the seventh day after taking ill. A sad feature of the death was that the family being quarantined, no one could go in, although they did all they could to help. Gladys was a very lovable child and will be sadly missed by her host of friends and schoolmates. She is survived by her parents and one sister, Flora. Another sister, Nina, predeceased her nearly seven years ago. The funeral was private at the house, and was conducted by the Rev. Dr. P. K. Dayfoot, burial taking place at Oakwood cemetery, where a large number of friends gathered to pay their respects to a child who was loved by all who knew her.

GRACE CHURCH ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Will be held on Sunday and Monday, October 18th and 19th. Dr. A. E. Lavell, of the Provincial Parole Board, will preach, and Carrick Douglas, Soloist of College St. (United) Church, Toronto, will sing. On Monday the Ladies' Aid will serve a grand Tea at 6 p.m. At 8 o'clock the program will begin. Carrick Douglas, who won the Gold Medal in the Baritone Class at Toronto Exhibition this fall, will sing. Dr. Lavell will speak and musical numbers will be rendered. Tickets for the Tea and Concert, 50c. The Grace Church people will highly appreciate the good will of their friends in sharing with them these delightful services and the Monday evening's Tea and program. 42a

BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE HOLDS FIRST SESSION

The first meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church in Canada met in Peterboro' last week. About four hundred delegates, equal number of lay members and clergymen, constituted the new body, and all morning and afternoon of the first day was given over to the meetings of the five Presbyteries which constituted the Conference. These met separately, and besides the routine business were addressed by members of the United Church Executive on the Maintenance and Extension Fund. The United Church for the fifteen months will need for current expenses four million dollars. The Bay of Quinte share of that is three hundred and sixty thousand dollars. The various charges within the immediate vicinity of Napanee have been allocated amounts, which are the equivalent of 75% over the amounts allocated last year. If we will constitute the sole appeal to the United Church for the current year. The Presbyteries accepted the allocation and have set out in a fine spirit to underwrite the amounts set opposite the various pastoral charges.

In the evening the meeting was held in Simcoe Street United Church. The building was crowded to the doors, and a simple but beautiful period of service was full-orbed. It consisted in an inaugural ceremony, much on the line of the inaugural of the church on June 10th. This was followed by a communion service, conducted by Rev. Principal Taylor, of Queen's. Forty elders and stewards distributed the elements to the twelve hundred communicants, which was done with the utmost dispatch and reverence.

The evening sermon set a high standard and aim for the church and Gospel well for the future success of the work within the bounds of the Conference.

Wednesday morning was given up largely to the election of officers. The election was by ballot without nomination, and it fell to Rev. Dr. Bird of Belleville Presbytery to have the honor of a president to the first Conference, chosen out of one of its members. Rev. J. M. Barrett, of Stirling, was the choice of the Conference, and at once assumed office. The secretary chosen was Rev. Mr. Mackinnon, of Peterboro, and Dr. Daley, of Port Hope, the assistant.

In the afternoon a nominating committee was appointed, whose duty it was to nominate the various standing committees. It was the business of this committee to act as will chosen at the session. They had permission to retire, and all through the evening and late into the night they worked over their problems. And early the next morning they were ready to report. Committees were chosen and at once were permitted to retire and get to work on their particular tasks, and it speaks volumes for the earnestness and efficiency of the men constituting these committees that though there were about ten of them, they all met and reported before the close of the Conference.

On Wednesday night, Dr. Pidgeon, the Moderator of the Council, addressed an audience which taxed the capacity of Knox Church. It was the high-water mark of preaching. Dr. Pidgeon, in a scholarly and attractive manner presented the message from the study book of the year, Ephesians, from which he developed the theme of the Divine economy and the Divine grace. It is safe to say that no simple utterance made at the Conference had such a deep effect on the whole body as this address of the Moderator.

The morning and afternoon of Thursday was given over to the reports of committees, and the appointment of delegates to the next general Council. According to the ruling of the last Council one minister is chosen out of every eighteen in the Church, with an equal number of laymen. The Conference dissolved into Presbyterial Committees, and each Presbytery nominated its quota to the Councils. These were then declared by the Conference, the elected delegates. Those from the Belleville Presbytery chosen to represent the Presbytery at Montreal in May are Revds. C. W. Barrett, A. J. Wilson, H. B. Kenny, D. C. Ramsay, and Messrs. H. C. Martin, H. K. Denyes, T. Ackerman and Mr. Gordon.

In the evening, addresses were given by Dr. Gunn, Dr. Graham and Dr. Laird. These addresses were informative and inspirational and made a fitting climax to the three days' meetings.

The people of Peterboro' showed remarkable interest in the meetings, and a great spirit of kindness to the delegates. One of the memorable features of the gathering was the address of welcome from the Mayor. Instead of the formal statement which one is accustomed to hear, the Conference listened to a deeply spiritual address of high order.

The Ministerial Association brought greetings through its President, the Anglican Clergyman of the city, who in gracious language, wished the Conference God's blessing, and expressed the personal hope for the speedy re-union of Christendom.

One of the most astounding features of the whole Conference was the ease with which the work was expedited. It is safe to say that fifty per cent of the men did not know the other fifty per cent, and yet there was such a fine spirit of Christian comradeship that committees were formed and work done with the same dispatch as though the Conference had been in existence for years. This enlarged fellowship, the kindly feeling of courtesy and service brought with it a spiritual atmosphere and dynamic which is bound to have a lasting effect on all the charges represented there.

The next Conference meets in Kingston at a date to be set by the President.

NEWBURGH

Mr. and Mrs. A. Joyce, of Rochester, N.Y., motored to Newburgh and spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. A. Madden.

Miss Margaret Mitchell, Queen's, Kingston, Sundayed at her home.

Quite a number of the villagers attended the funeral of the late Andrew Ramsay on Saturday last. Mr. Ramsay died of acute indigestion, being sick only a few minutes. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Spencer, of the Anglican Church. The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Miss Hannah Paul is this week addressing meetings each night in the interests of the W. M. S. of Cobourg district.

Mr. John Cameron is improving, after his recent illness.

Mr. T. I. Winter is also reported to be improving.

Dr. Mounce addressed the Young Peoples' meeting on Monday evening, taking as his subject the Tuxis Boys' motto, "Jesus Grew in Wisdom and Stature," which was well received by the audience. Robin Fluke and Miss Edith Breeze were appointed leaders in a contest to improve the interest and attendance at the meetings.

The service in the Mission Hall on Sunday afternoon was conducted by Rev. Mr. Bray, in the absence of the regular leader, Mr. Smith, of Odessa.

Mrs. Ed. Rook, of Strathcona, and Mrs. Stafford, of Smith's Falls, visited with Mr. John Madden on Wednesday.

Miss Huxtable, of Toronto, is visiting for a time with Miss Brisco and Mrs. G. A. Aylesworth.

Miss Jessie Wilson left on Monday to resume her duties as school teacher in Saskatchewan.

The Messrs. Winter, of Selby, and Mr. and Mrs. Ashley visited at the home of T. I. Winter on Sunday.

The choir of the United Church, under the leadership of Miss Ramsay, are preparing for a Hallowe'en Concert on Friday evening, Oct. 30th.

ELECTORS OF LENNOX

Owing to the short time at my disposal since receiving the Conservative Candidature, it will be impossible for me to call on a great many people whom I would have liked to see personally.

The Redistribution Act has made this Riding a particularly difficult one to canvass. I trust the Electors will understand the situation and will turn out on Election Day, Oct. 29th, and cast their votes in favor of a sane and economical government that will bring the prosperity to this country which it deserves.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN HUBBS,
Conservative Candidate.

THE GLOBE AND THE KING GOVERNMENT

It is a heavy handicap that the King Government is carrying on account of the lack of support from The Globe. Without going into details (good it may be, as well) that The Globe was not willing to sacrifice its high principles to the support of a party dominated by Quebec politics. As a last resort Senator Murphy (then Postmaster General), the Japanese of patronage for Ontario, along with the other High Priests of the "Laurier or Nothing" brigade, decided to hold a pistol to the head of The Globe. But the pistol was loaded with only a blank cartridge. It was thus. Editor Lewis threatened to resign from his position in The Globe if full and enthusiastic support was not given to Mr. King. The Globe refused to be held up and Mr. Lewis was able to demand his reward, whether promised beforehand or not, in the shape of a Senatorship. To the Senate with him went the Hon. Chas. Murphy, whose plan failed so utterly. From this we sustain that they are still trying to dominate the King Government.

WEDDING BELLS

Vigrass—Weese.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weese, Camden, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, October 17th, 1925, when their daughter, Miss Kreella, became the wife of Mr. Norman Arnold Vigrass, of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vigrass, of Willowdale. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. H. A. Colesworthy, assisted by the Rev. Asa Bristone, Selby. Miss Edna Vigrass played the music for the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her wedding gown of white radium crepe with the veil held in place by a lovely orange blossom wreath, and carrying a magnificent bouquet of Ophelia roses.

After receiving the congratulations of the company, about twenty-five near relatives and friends, a dainty buffet luncheon was charmingly served by three girl friends. After a merry time had been spent, Mr. and Mrs. Vigrass left for a trip by motor to Brockville, and from there, to the Adirondack Mountains. The bride travelled in a beautiful dress of crepe satin bokara, trimmed with fur, a rust suede coat with stone marten trimming, and a becoming hat, and carrying the groom's gift, a very handsome French beaded bag. Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Vigrass and daughters, Clare and Edna, of Toronto, and Miss Pauline Anglin, of Battersea. On returning the young couple will make their home in Toronto. The very best wishes of hosts of friends follow them.

CAMDEN EAST

Parrott.—Mr. John Orr, of Vancouver, visited his aunt, Mrs. Dickson, and son, Alex., for the past two days, returning to Montreal on Thursday.—Mrs. Martha Switzer is spending this week at Moscow with her daughter, Mrs. John Bell.—Mrs. John Simmons, who has been seriously ill, is a little better at time of writing, with Dr. Horton, of Enterprise, in attendance.

A SAD CATASTROPHE

Wilbert Robinson, Aged 13 Years, Burned to Death in a Fire Which Consumed His Father's Barn.

One of the saddest things that has occurred in Napanee in many a day was the death of little Wilbert, aged 3 years, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Robinson, who was burned to death in the fire that destroyed his father's barn at the family home in South Napanee, on Wednesday afternoon.

The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved parents in this their time of woe, but it may in some measure assuage their grief to know that they have a host of friends who feel for them and will do all in their power to alleviate their sufferings.

The origin of the fire is not known but the supposition is that the two little boys, Percy aged 5 years, and Wilbert, aged 3 years, who went out to play after dinner, went to the barn and possibly had matches in their possession. Anyway when their mother went to look for them about 2 o'clock she discovered that her sons were in the barn and the barn was ablaze. Her screams were heard by the neighbours and by her father-in-law, 80 years old, who all assisted in the attempt to save the boys.

The eldest one, Percy, was not far from the barn door and escaped, but Wilbert, who was at the other end, could not get out owing to the dense volume of smoke and flames which cut off his chance of exit, and presented anyone from getting near him.

The Robinson home is beyond the town limits, therefore the Fire Brigade and little chance to quell the blazing fire. They, however, used the chemical engine to such good purpose that the body of the little victim was soon recovered.

The Coroner, Dr. Cowan, and the undertaker did their duties. Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, M.A., read and for and the service for the burial of the dead was said, after which, about 5 o'clock, the remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.

Percy Robinson, father of the boy, served overseas for the duration of the World War, and was held in high esteem by his officers and comrades for service, courage and valor. He is now Quartermaster Sergeant of "B" Company, Frontenac Regiment, stationed here.

OBITUARY

Mr. Hugo B. Sherwood.

Mr. Hugo B. Sherwood, a resident of Napanee for the last half century, died at his home on East St., where he had been living with his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Allison, on Oct. 17th, 1925. He had been in failing health for about one year and his passing was not unexpected. His wife, Esther A., predeceased him by only three months. On October 14th they would have completed 52 years of married life.

Mr. Sherwood was born in Auburn, N.Y., and was a son of Lauran Sherwood, a lawyer, who moved to New York City shortly after Hugo B. was born and practised his profession in that city, where the family received their education. At the age of 18 years Hugo B. joined his uncle, the late H. B. Rathbun, in Deseronto, then Mill Point, and was with the latter in the lumbering business for some years. In 1873 he married Esther A. Andrus, daughter of Colonel Mrs. David Andrus. From 1875 to 1881 he was an successful business man in Napanee and New York, at the latter year returned to the employ of the Rathbun Company as superintendent of the Bay of Quinte Railway, then being constructed. He occupied that position including the time that the C.O.R. took over parts of the Canadian Northern System, until his retirement from active business life in 1915.

He was an Episcopalian and a long time member of the Mary Magdalene Church; in politics he was a Liberal and an ardent admirer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

He leaves three children, Miss Leah Sherwood, of New York; Mr. Lauran Sherwood, of Ottawa, and Mrs. J. B. Allison, Napanee.

Mr. Thomas G. Hinch.

Mr. Thomas G. Hinch passed away at his home in Ernestown, at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, October 18th. Deceased was the only son of the late John and Miranda Hinch, of Camden East, and was about 59 years of age. He was of a quiet and obliging disposition and was well liked and will be sadly missed by his many friends and acquaintances. He is survived by four sisters, Susan, Lucinda, Martha, Emma, all of Ernestown, and Mrs. Arthur Hawkin, of Watertown, N.Y.

TAMWORTH WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

To show that the Women's Institute of Tamworth have not been asleep all these years let us tell of something they have been doing.

Covering a period of over thirty years our village has been visited from time to time by disastrous fires, which, owing to the absence of any sort of fire protection save that provided by nature, "Salmon River", have been the means of much loss of valuable property as well as of many homes.

The last fire which destroyed the sheds of the Union Church property and threatened the destruction of the church, parsonage and other surrounding buildings, caused a few to sit up and do some thinking. That few, who chanced to be a handful of women, (some thirty or more), who call themselves the Women's Institute, backed up by "indispensable man", of whom we are proud to say our village boasts a number, decided to put their thoughts to some purpose. Accordingly, at the August meeting held at the summer home of Mrs. Tucker, Mr. Spencer, of Napanee, (by request), was present, and explained the many virtues of a certain fire fighting apparatus sold by his firm.

After going into the matter thoroughly it was finally decided that we purchase one.

Ways and means were then discussed and a field day suggested by one of the "indispensables" was thought the best means of giving everyone the privilege of helping in this good work.

The Principal of the Continuation School here very kindly offered to share their Field Day with the Institute, asking only that the pupils receive the prizes as usual for sports. The remainder of the proceeds to go to the Institute. Several liberal donations were made by the town people towards the prizes.

September 30th was the day set, and proved to be a success in every way. Sports, ball games, and by no means the least, was the demonstration of the fire extinguisher upon the building erected for the purpose, furnishing entertainment for the large crowd present. With the refreshment and ice cream booths on the grounds, and the concert at night, the proceeds amounted to about $150.00.

As the Institute has very carefully hoarded its dollars until some worth while occasion should arise in which to invest them, this with the proceeds of field day enabled them to pay for the fire extinguisher with the appurtenances, and still leave a fair balance in the bank.

We would also like to call attention to our annual Hallowe'en Party to be held in the Assembly Hall, on October 31st. Prizes given for the best costumes. Refreshments: pumpkin pie, sandwiches and coffee. Admission 25c. and 15c.

$100.00 In Prizes For Best Letters

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Offer Twenty-Eight Prizes in a Letter Writing Competition

Some years ago the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of Brockville, Ont., offered a series of prizes to residents of Ontario and Quebec for the best letters describing benefits obtained through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Hundreds of letters were submitted in this competition, and yet there must have been thousands of other users of the pills who did not avail themselves of the opportunity to win a prize. To all these another letter-writing competition is offered. Thousands have benefited through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills whose cases have not been reported. These will furnish the material for letters to be written in this contest. There is no demand upon the imagination; every letter must deal with facts and facts only.

THE PRIZES.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of Brockville, Ont., will award a prize of $25.00 for the best letter received on or before the 21st day of November, 1925, from the residents of these provinces on the subject: "Why I Recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills". A prize of $15.00 will be rewarded for the second best letter received; a prize of $10.00 for the third best letter, and twenty-five prizes of $2.00 each for the next best twenty-five letters.

THE CONDITIONS.

The benefit derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills described in the letter may be in the writer's own case, or that of some one in the writer's home.

More than one case may be described in the letter, but every statement must be literally and absolutely true.

Every letter must be signed by the full name and correct address of the person sending it. If it describes the case of some person other than the writer of the letter, it must also be signed by the person whose case is described, as a guarantee of the truth of the statements made.

The writer of each letter must give the name of the paper in which he or she saw this announcement.

Fine writing will not win the prize unless you have a good case to describe. The strength of the recommendation and not the style of the letter will be the basis of the award.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. shall have the right to publish any letter entered in this contest, if they desire to do so, whether it wins a prize or not.

The contest will close November 21st, 1925, and the prizes will be awarded as soon as possible thereafter. Do not delay. If you know of a good case write your letter NOW. Observe the above rules carefully or your letter may be thrown out.

Address all letters as follows:—

Staffords, Wed 40 Years, Receive Gift From Friends

Mr. and Mrs. James H. I. Stafford, hosts to some fifty of their friends and neighbors on October 6th, their fortieth wedding anniversary, at their home, 321 McClelland Street, Watertown, N.Y., were surprised when they received a telephone table and stool, given in remembrance by the residents of their neighborhoods, who had organized and named a committee to give attention to this feature.

Their pastor, Rev. Hezekiah L. Pyle, of Emmanuel Congregational Church, made the presentation, referring to the long married career of the couple and to the esteem in which they are held by their many acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford replied briefly, too surprised and pleased for many words.

Another feature of the reception with which the couple was unfamiliar was the introduction of a large wedding cake, sufficient in size for the considerable gathering. Most prominent, as it was placed in the centre of the table, were doll representations of the bride and bridegroom of 40 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford were married at Napanee, Can., October 6th, 1885. For six years they lived at Kingston, Ont., coming to the United States and to Watertown 34 years ago. For 34 years Mr. Stafford was foreman at the plant of the H. H. Babcock Company. Three children are living, Lloyd Stafford, of Detroit, Mich.; Ruben G. Stafford, of Cleveland, O., and Arthur Stafford, of Watertown. A daughter, Mrs. Bertha Couch, died about two years ago.

EUROPEAN CORN BORER

This, the worst insect pest that has ever appeared in Ontario, has wrought havoc with the corn crop in the south western counties, moved eastward to Hastings, and will no doubt soon be found in the vicinity of Napanee. The caterpillar, as it attacks the corn, is about one inch long, brownish white, or in some cases, almost white with a brown head and numerous brown spots on the body. It makes holes and tunnels in the corn stalks and ears, causing the plants to break over, leaving the field a tangled mass, when infestation is very bad. If corn anywhere in the county is found to be attacked by insects, specimens of the insects and samples of the injured corn should be sent immediately to J. Laughland, Agricultural Representative, Napanee. The principle means of combating this pest consists in destroying all corn stalks or corn refuse in the fall or previous to June 1st in the following spring. All borers are killed in corn that is put into the silo. They are carried over the winter mainly in corn stubble or refuse left on the field. If the corn is cut low, so that the stubble can be well covered when plowing, and the fields thoroughly cleaned up, most of the borers will be destroyed. Those that are plowed under never come to the surface unless the stubble is dragged out when using a sharped toothed cultivator.

Some farmers were spending a jolly night at the Inn of Glanis, cracking jokes and telling stories. One of the number, who had a great opinion of his own voice, offered to sing. He was greeted at by the others. This insult was hard to bear, and he made a bet of a bottle of brandy that he could prove he had the only song before the Queen, but had also slept in the same house.

The wager was immediately taken, and to the satisfaction of all present the farmer proved that he had been to the Kirk of Crathie on the previous Sunday, and in the presence of Her Majesty Queen Victoria he had done both.

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

Ended by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fusilier, Sask. — "For days every month I had pains in my back and sides so I could not do anything. I was very nervous and irritable, and quietly in bed. I was thin and pale. I was told that I was worse off than I was when on a farm with five miles to the nearest doctor. I wrote to Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co. and asked them to advise me, as I thought I would try it. My sister-in-law had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to try it. I have been taking it for about three months and I can truly say that I am a well woman and I can do my housework and help with the chores and do anything that is required of me. I also recommend the Compound to my friends and others and have done so. You may use my testimonial." — Mrs. [illegible], Fusilier, Saskatchewan.

Often some one medicine will relieve a general upset of the system, but when symptoms as nervousness, sleeplessness, irregularity, backache, headache, indicate some form of female trouble, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given a fair trial.

Women so bothered should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped thousands of women and it is reasonable to expect that it will help you. Try it today. Your druggist sells this medicine.

Guard The Baby Against Colds

By Keeping Baby's Own Tablets in the House at All Times

To guard the baby against colds nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a mild laxative that will keep the little one's stomach and bowels working regularly. It is a recognized fact that where the stomach and bowels are in good order that colds will not exist; that the health of the little one will be good and that he will thrive and be happy.

Thousands of mothers have become convinced through the actual use of the Tablets that there is nothing to equal them in banishing constipation and indigestion; breaking up colds and simple fevers; expelling worms and making teething time easy. Among the thousands who praise Baby's Own Tablets is Mrs. Alex. J. Perry, Atlantic, N.S., who says :—"I always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house as I know of no other medicine for little ones to equal them."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Unfair Deal
Canadian Farmers are Getting

Back in 1921 we sold the United States agricultural products to the value of $146,539,883. After the Fordney U.S. Tariff of 1922 went into effect in the United States we sold them only $51,337,733 worth.

By raising their tariffs the United States farmers have put about $100,000,000 per annum more into their pockets and the Canadian farmers have lost it.

What is the lesson to the Canadian farmer?

On what terms is the Canadian farmer competing with the farmer of the United States? They are terms that not only forbid the sale of his products in the United States but compel him at the same time to witness United States farm products replacing his own in the home markets of Canada. Let us examine some of these terms.

PRODUCTS	For Entrance into Canada the Americans pay:	For Entrance into the United States the Canadians pay:
Potatoes	35 cts. per 100 lbs.	50 cts. per 100 lbs.
Eggs	3 cts. per doz.	8 cts. per doz.
Butter	4 cts. per lb.	8 cts. per lb.
Cheese	3 cts. per lb.	5 cts. per lb.
Cattle	25%	40%
Hay	$2.00 per ton	$4.00 per ton
Wheat Flour	50 cts. per barrel	$2.04 per barrel
Wheat	12 cts. per bushel	42 cts. per bushel
Corn	Free	15 cts. per bushel
Grain Fruits	25%	35%

The United States raised their tariff, in order to protect the American Farmers, and the purchasing of foreign farm products was reduced. It was, therefore, to the American farmer's benefit.

And we prove it. In the next column we list a few Canadian products imported by the United States under the 1921 tariff and under the raised tariff of September 1st, 1922. These figures are quoted from the "Commercial Intelligence Journal" published by Ottawa Government (26th September, 1925, page 324).

Canadian Farm Exports to the United States, 11 months ending August 1921 and 11 months ending August 1925

Articles	1921 U.S. Tariff	1921 Quantity or Value	1925 U.S. Tariff	1925 Quantity or Value
Horned cattle	Free	$14,970,944	1½ to 2c. per lb. plus $2 per head	$2,897,753
Poultry	1c. per lb.	769,060	3c. per lb.	611,529
Sheep	Free	1,184,950	$2 per head	219,878
Oats (bushel)	6c. per bus.	2,822,129	15c. per 32 lbs.	389,280
Wheat (bushel)	Free	47,735,082	42c. per 60 lbs.	3,408,152
Fresh Beef chilled or frozen (quintals)	Free	237,782	3c. per lb.	63,408
Potatoes (bushel)	Free	2,581,037	50c. per qtl.	566,115
Eggs (doz.)	Free	264,675	8c. per doz.	62,887

And now a great reduction has been made by the Canadian-Australian Treaty which just went into effect on October 1st, 1925. Under this treaty Australian (and New Zealand) farm products will enter Canada at the following tariffs.

PRODUCTS	For Entrance into Canada the Australians pay:	For Entrance into Australia the Canadians pay:
Eggs, per doz.	Free	18 cts.
Cheese	Free	6 cts. per lb.
Butter	1 ct. per lb.	6 cts. per lb.
Honey	1 ct. per lb.	4 cts. per lb.
Bees Wax	Free	3 cts. per lb.
Fresh Meats	½ ct.	5 cts. per lb.
Canned Meats	15%	40%
Canned Poultry	15%	40%
Lard	Free	4 cts. per lb.
Tallow	10%	1 ct. per lb.
Canned Vegetables	Free	30 cts. to $2.10 per doz. cans of ½ to 4 pints
Apples and other Dried Fruits	10%	8 cts. per lb.
Quinces, Pears & Apricots	25 cts. per 100 lbs.	$1.50 per 100 lbs.
Canned Fruits	½ ct. per lb.	30 cts. to $2.10 per doz. cans, according to size

Canada will be flooded with farm products from other countries at these low rates, but Canadian farm products are shut out of other countries by high tariffs.

Meanwhile half a million Canadians have moved to the United States because of the tariff reductions that have closed up or slowed down hundreds of factories.

That is, half a million buyers of Canadian farm products have been lost. The farmers are hit twice.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mrs. Willis Unger, who died October 25th, 1924.

"Gone, but not forgotten."
This day brings back sad memories,
Of one who has gone to rest;
And those who think of her to-day
Are those who loved her best.
Swift and sudden was the passing,
Taken home without a sigh;
We could not think her life was ended,
For she never said good-bye.

Sadly missed by Mother, Husband, Sisters and Brother. 43ap

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of John W. Gates, who departed this life October 25th, 1924.

Dearest father, thou hast left us,
And our loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again, we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
When in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

"IN THE PUBLIC EYE" By Leslie Lewis

AGE IS THE DARKENING CURTAIN

OUR eyes have been pointedly called the windows of the souls, and rightly so, for any strain and neglect here so soon endeed the eye muscles that control longer accommodation to the eye with the proper lenses, an optician first should be consulted. He will give your eyes a thorough examination, and if you need glasses he will prescribe the proper ones for you.

DESMOND

What might have proved a serious accident happened when Mrs. Simon Shane, with her daughter, Mrs. Okel Drew and baby boy, were driving from Yarker. The horse became frightened and ran away, throwing the occupants out of the buggy and severely bruising them. Although no bones were broken, the baby had to have several stitches put in a cut under his chin. Messrs. H. F. Bell, Fred Bell, Fraser Bell and Richard Quinn attended the ploughing match on Brockville on Thursday of last week.—Mr. Drew's sister and family, of Chatham, are visiting them.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Switzer spent Sunday at Mr. Buck's, Sydenham.—Watch for the date of our annual tea-meeting in the near future.—Mr. Fred Bell and family spent Sunday at Mr. Geo. Finlay's, Strathcona.—Mr. Drew's and visitors spent Monday at his brother's, Mr. Davy Drew's, Tamworth.

NEWS OF TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

Enthusiasm for and devotion to the ideals and principles of the United Church of Canada were very manifest at the inaugural session of the Bay of Quinte Conference, held last week in Peterboro'.

The minister regrets very much that he had to be absent while the W. M. S. Convention was being held in Tamworth, but upon his return from conference was glad to learn that it was in every way an unqualified success.

At a meeting of the Official Board of the Pastoral Charge, held last Saturday in Tamworth, a committee consisting of George Milligan and R. J. Wilson were authorized to sell the building in Tamworth formerly used as a manse, and another committee consisting of Albert Hughes and Robert McGregor were authorized to sell the building in Croydon formerly used as a Methodist Church.

Our Communion Service for the second quarter of the conference year will be held in Tamworth at 2.30 p.m. next Sunday, preceded by a preparatory service on Thursday evening.

The minister will conduct anniversary services next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. in the Reidville Church. R. C. Moss will take the evening service at Marlbank.

Remember the supper and concert given on Monday night in connection with the anniversary services at Reidville. The choir of Grace Church, Napanee, under the leadership of Mr. Black, will have charge of the program. For particulars see another column.

John Summerville and Mrs. S. Dyer of the Maribank congregation, are seriously ill.

Jacob Anderson, of the Tamworth congregration, passed from earth away last Tuesday morning, and the funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon. We tender to the widow the sympathies of the congregation.

TAMWORTH

October 14th was a Red Letter Day in the history of the Parish of Tamworth, when a splendid gathering of women took place at the Autumn meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Deanery of Lennox and Addington. The day commenced with a celebration of the Holy Communion in Christ Church, at 10.30 a.m. The Rector, the Rev. J. A. Poston, was celebrant, assisted by the Rev. C. E. S. Radcliffe, Deseronto; the Rev. H. Pringle, Adolphustown; the Rev. R. W. Spencer, Camden East, and the Rev. W. G. Swayne, Bath, and a large surpliced choir. Mr. Swayne preached an excellent sermon to a big congregation from the text, "What Think Ye of Christ?" About one hundred and fourteen received the Holy Communion. After the service a sumptuous dinner was served in the Town Hall by the ladies of Tamworth, Marlbank and Enterprise.

At 2 p.m. the business meeting held in the Oddfellows' Hall began with Mrs. C. C. Abbott, of Kingston, Diocesan Vice President in the chair, and Mrs. C. E. S. Radcliffe, of Deseronto, Acting Secretary. Interesting reports of the past year's work were read by the Secretaries of the Deanery Branches of the W. A. Mrs. Coleman, of Napanee, was the Convenor of a deputation of the Woman's Auxiliary of the M. S. C. C. of the Church of England in Canada to the Indians of the Bay of Quinte and were fully reciprocated by a deputation of ladies from the W. M. S. of the United Church, Miss Gandier, of Newburgh, being the Convenor.

After the business session the ladies served tea to their guests. Before closing, most cordial votes of thanks were tendered to the Rector and Choir of Christ Church, Tamworth, the ladies of the congregations who made the visit of the delegates to Tamworth so enjoyable, to the Rev. W. G. Swayne, Bath, Miss Ida Blois, Kangra, India, and Miss Edith VanStranbenzee, Kingston, for their helpful addresses. The offerings, which were liberal, were voted for the work in the northern parts of the Diocese of Ontario.

Mrs. Radcliffe was elected Deanery Convenor, and an invitation from the Rev. R. W. Spencer to hold the next meeting in the Parish of Camden was accepted.

MOSCOW

Quite a number from this place attended the Pork and Bean social at Enterprise on Monday night.—Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nicholson, of Kingston, spent Sunday at M. I. Huffman's.—Mrs. Lyall Milsap entertained some friends on Wednesday evening.—All are looking forward to the Hallowe'en Party to be held at the home of Mrs. G. W. Lampkin, on October 30th, under the auspices of the Women's Institute.—Mrs. J. A. Amey, Moscow, and Jas. Wheeler visited their brother in Watertown for a few days.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Tuesday evening, October 6th, a number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peters to bid them farewell and good luck prior to their removal to Yarker. After a pleasant social evening together, the following address and presentation was made:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Peters and Clara.

Dear Friends,—We, your neighbours and friends, have learned with regret that you are about to leave us for your new home in Yarker.

While we regret very much to lose you, we feel sure you must feel that it is for the best, and we can only hope that your highest expectations will be realized, and certainly you can depend on the best wishes of your neighbours and friends at Thorpe following you wherever you go.

We ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, to accept this chair, and Clara this purse, not for their monetary value but for the good wishes they carry with them.

Signed on behalf of your neighbours and friends at Thorpe,

WILLIAM RAIL.
PERCY LEMMON.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters wish to thank their many friends for the beautiful presents and many kindnesses.

NAPANEE MUSICAL AND LITERARY CLUB

The annual meeting of the Napanee Musical and Literary Club was held in the Board Room of the Public Library on Tuesday afternoon, October 20th, with only a few interested members present. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Herrington presided, and the year's work gone over, resulting with a fair balance on hand.

A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring President, Mrs. Sneath, the Treasurer, Miss Thompson, and all the members of the opera "Iolantha".

The following officers were elected:

Honorary Pres.—Mrs. W. S. Herrington.

President—Mrs. Cameron Wilson.

1st Vice President—Mrs. J. G. Daly.

2nd Vice President—Mrs. George Thompson.

3rd Vice President—Miss Light.

Secretary—Mrs. J. W. Robinson.

Treasurer—Miss Alma Thompson.

The new President took the chair, and some discussion followed, regarding the year's work.

It was decided not to have any membership fee this season, but that the Club would endeavor to present a few first class artists from time to time, and in this work they trust the community will give their best support.

JUDICIAL SALE

Pursuant to a Judgment of the Supreme Court of Ontario made in the matter of the Estate of Mary Amarilla Schryver, and bearing date the 25th day of September, 1925, there will be sold by Public Auction with the approbation of the Local Master at Napanee at his Chambers in the Court House, in the Town of Napanee on Friday, the 30th October, instant, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following valuable farm and town property:

Parcel No. 1.—Part of the East half of Lot 18, in the 4th Concession of the Township of Fredericksburgh, in the County of Lennox and Addington, being all that part of said lot lying south of Big Creek, and containing about 75 acres more or less.

Parcel No. 2.—Commencing at a point on the north boundary of said Dundas Street, a distance of 49 feet East from the intersection of the said North boundary of Dundas Street with the Eastern boundary of John Street, thence North at right angles to the said North boundary of Dundas Street, a distance of 58 feet, thence East at right angles to last mentioned course a distance of 21 feet to brick building known as Chambers Block, thence South at right angles to the last mentioned course a distance of 58 feet to Dundas Street, thence West along the North boundary of said Dundas Street a distance of 21 feet to the place of beginning, together with the right of way running from the East side of John Street to a point 58 feet from the corner of John and Dundas Streets 10 feet wide and running easterly 70 feet more or less to Chambers Block in common with the other owners of parts of said Lots 4 and 5 by grants to one John W. Milligan.

Parcel No. 3.—All those parts of said lots 4 and 5 lying North of the above described lands not heretofore conveyed by the said John W. Milligan together with the right of way running North along the Western limit of the lands owned by one Hulda Chambers, which said right of way is particularly described in a deed from John W. Milligan to the said Hulda Chambers, dated May 26th, 1902, and registered in Book 13 for the Town of Napanee as Number 6104. The foregoing two parcels of land are described in a deed from John W. Milligan to Asahel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver, dated the 17th of October, A.D. 1906, and registered in Book 14 for the Town of Napanee as No. 6924.

Parcel No. 4.—All that part of lot 5 on the North side of Dundas Street in the said Town of Napanee, described as follows: Commencing on John Street 68 feet North of Dundas Street at the intersection of the right of way with said John Street running between the property hereby conveyed and the property immediately to the South thereof, then along John Street 33 feet more or less, then East parallel to Dundas Street 45 feet more or less, thence South parallel to John Street 33 feet more or less to said right of way, thence West parallel to Dundas Street 45 feet more or less to the place of beginning, said parcel of land being more particularly described in a deed from John W. Milligan to Asahel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver, dated the 1st of June, 1908, and registered in Book 14 for the Town of Napanee as No. 7172.

The last three parcels of land are intended to include all those parts of said lots 4 and 5 belonging to Asahel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver at the time of his death.

Upon Parcel No. 1 are erected a frame dwelling house about 30x32, cottage roof; a frame barn about 60x40 with leanto about 40x28, also a hog pen and hen house about 24x24, all in good repair. The land is well fenced and well watered by Big Creek and two wells.

Upon Parcel No. 2 is erected a brick building, two storeys, 21x58, now occupied by the Dominion Stores, Limited.

Upon Parcel No. 4 is erected a rough frame building tinned on the outside, about 32x44.

The property will be sold subject to reserve bids fixed by the Master, and Parcels 2, 3 and 4 separately or en bloc, at the option of the Master.

Terms of Sale:—10 per cent down and the balance within one month thereafter without interest.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale shall be the standing conditions of sale of the said Court.

For further particulars apply at the Law Office of Messrs. Herrington, Warner & Grange, Napanee.

Dated the 1st day of October, 1925.

MAKING OUR RAILWAYS PAY

The sure way—the only way—that our perplexing railway problem can ever be solved.

Temporarily our Canadian National Railway system is in a hole. To deny the fact would be rank untruthfulness, to belittle its importance would be sheer folly.

But this huge public ownership enterprise CAN and MUST be pulled out of the hole, and it's up to the men and women voters of Canada to do it!

A Loaf Big Enough for Two

If our foresight had been as good as our hindsight, we would never have built the excessive railway plant we have today. But what is done cannot be undone. There is no use crying over spilt milk. The problem now is to chart for ourselves the course that will most quickly and most surely place the Canadian National Railways on a paying basis.

Thus far the main effort of its management has been to get more business—freight and passenger—for the C.N.R. by taking it away from the C.P.R. By that method, the cost of securing business is greatly increased for both systems, with no real advantage to either. They are merely fighting over the division of a loaf, which isn't large enough to provide sustenance for both.

The only way our railway problem will ever be solved is for the voters of Canada to see to it that our railways are given a bigger loaf to divide—a loaf of freight and passenger traffic that will be large enough for both systems to thrive on.

We Have the Acorn, We Must Grow the Oak

How to increase freight traffic—that is the kernel of our problem! The average Canadian freight train earns $5.00 per mile travelled; the average passenger train earns only $2.00. So it's upon the freight end of the business that we must concentrate.

Of course, some kinds of freight are more profitable than others. There is very little margin of profit in carrying grain, first because the rates applicable to it are lower per ton per mile than the rates on any other commodity, and second because the grain movement is a peakload traffic, calling for an enormous investment in cars that are idle the greater part of the year.

But there is a substantial margin of profit in hauling general merchandise. What can we do to ensure our railways getting more of it?

Higher Tariff the Cure

Increase our population—start a big immigration movement—and the rest will follow as a matter of course! Easier said than done? Not at all! All we have to do to start the tide of immigration flowing through our ports is to hold out to the prospective immigrant the assurance of a steady job at good wages, or the chance to engage profitably in farming or some other form of production or service.

A higher tariff, that will be a real Protective Tariff, will give him a guarantee covering every point. And nothing else under Providence will!

A Lower Tariff is Poison

A Tariff policy that allows the Canadian market to be supplied more and more by outside workers, automatically operates to reduce the freight traffic available for our railways. When for instance, due to insufficient tariff protection, the Libbey-Owens glass factory in Hamilton was forced to surrender the Canadian field to its sister plant in Belgium, Canadian railways lost the hauling of 2,000 carloads of raw material per year!

If Canadian cotton and woollen mills only had the making of the textiles that we import every year, our railways would have the hauling of another 50,000 carloads per year of raw material freight.

Picture to yourself the scores of other things that under a low tariff policy we import, when under a higher tariff policy we would be making them in our own workshops, and you can hardly fail to realize that the sane—the sure—solution of our railway problem is all ready-made for us, and awaits only our order via the polls to put it into operation. The necessary traffic is there. All we have to do is reach out and get it!

Increasing Imports Mean Bigger Railway Deficits

Every time that low duties take away a portion of the domestic market from a Canadian industry and give it to a foreign industry, our railways suffer in four ways.

1. They lose the hauling of the raw material that such industry would have used.
2. On the finished product, instead of the full local rate, they get only their proportion of the through import rate—a much lower net.
3. When it results in the Western Canadian market being supplied from a U.S. factory, they lose the long East and West haul, and get only the short haul from the international boundary.
4. They lose the hauling of all the merchandise that would have been consumed by the workers who, due to the resultant unemployment, emigrate to the United States.

Lower duties throw people out of work. They just as surely throw railways out of work. We can never save our railways by giving them less work. We must use our brains and our courage to secure them more work—better paid work! Higher tariffs will do it.

RED BLOODED MEN AND WOMEN

Get More Pleasure Out of Life and Are of More Use in the World Than Sickly, Run Down People

Help for Nervous People.

Are you pale and weak, tired most of the time, out of breath on slight exertion?

Are you nervous, is your sleep disturbed so that rest does not refresh you?

Is your appetite poor, your digestion weak, and do you have pains after eating?

If you have any of these symptoms you need the help of such a reliable tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Read what Mr. W. W. Francis, of Calgary, Alta., says of this tonic. "After returning from overseas" writes Mr. Francis, "my whole system was in a badly run down condition. I became nervous, irritable, pale and lost weight. Of course I was given treatment and recommended many tonics, some of which I took, but with no apparent result. At last I could not even sleep. My sister, who is in England, wrote and urged me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and I can scarcely say how glad I am that I took her advice. My friends were surprised at my complete recovery, but I assured them it was due entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I now always keep a box on hand in case of emergency."

Keep Your System Toned Up.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills assist digestion, correct the lassitude, the palpitation of the heart, shaky nerves and the pallor of the face and lips that the the results of thin, impure blood.

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. Get a box and begin this treatment now.

Send For These Health Books.

Two useful books, "Building up the Blood," and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., if you mention this paper.

YARKER SOUTH

We are having ideal fall weather, with a hint of the approaching winter in the air.—The threshing machine has been in the neighborhood, and potato digging is now the order of the day.—Mrs. Wesley Salisbury is in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, and has had an operation for tumor. We hope for a speedy recovery. — A gloom was cast over this vicinity on Thursday, when the news reached here of the death of Mrs. James Irish, at the home of her son, A. Irish, Belleville. Mrs. Irish formerly lived at Brookside, and was beloved by all who knew her. The remains were conveyed to Yarker on Friday afternoon by motor hearse from Belleville, and the funeral services were held in the United Church. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, a former pastor on the Yarker circuit. She leaves to mourn her loss three daughters, Mrs. Brad Shaw, of Kingston; Mrs. Arch MacLean, of Harrowsmith, and Mrs. Casin Davy, of Yarker South, and one son, Arthur, of Belleville. The remains were interred in the White Church burying ground beside her husband.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huff and Mrs. M. Love spent Sunday at Joseph Newman's, Wilton West. — Many are looking forward to the fowl supper at Yarker, on Oct. 29th. It promises to be the treat of the season. Don't miss it. Come and enjoy a good supper, and a rousing programme.—Mr. and Mrs. Sperry Hayden are to give Mr. Hayden's father, Mr. Charles Curl.—Mr. H. W. Huff and Mr. Cyrus Edgar have commenced work on the extension of the hall at Yarker.—Miss Ruby Davey and Mrs. M. Bradshaw spent the week end at Mr. Davey's.—Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Love, were in Napanee on Saturday. —Mr. and Mrs. George Lee at Joshua Switzer's, recently.—Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Davy and Ruby and Mrs. Jane Davey and Mrs. M. Bradshaw spent Sunday at Moscow. — Mrs. Harold Huff spent Monday with her parents at Camden East.

KINGSFORD

Miss Christinia Smith, of Ottawa, is spending the holidays at her mother's, Mrs. Dowdle.—Ross Winter was home last week from Kingston.—Miss Mary Carrpll, of Tamworth, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Eldon Hewitt.—Mrs. Edw. Hewitt and Earle attended a wedding anniversary of a friend in Prince Edward County, and also visited for the week.—Ross and Wilma Marshall spent Sunday with their parents.Miss Kate Sexsmith, of Rochester, N.Y., is on a month's holiday to her parents and other friends.—Mr. and Mrs. N. Hewitt entertained some friends on Monday evening.—Mrs. J. McAlister is on the sick list. We hope she will soon be well again.—Several attended the supper at Empey Hill on Monday night.—Mr. and Mrs. R. Murphy and son attended the mission meetings in Napanee all last week.—Miss Grace Winter, from near Erinsville, spent over Sunday at home.— Mr. Jas. Schermerhorn, of Belleville, and daughter, Mrs. Petit, and children were at the funeral of Mr. R. Sampson, on Tuesday.—Miss Evelyn Dowdle, of Kingston, spent Sunday at home.— Several attended the Conservative meeting in Forest Mills hall Monday evening.—Messrs. Will and George Sexsmith are home from Western Manitoba for the winter.—The funeral of Robt. Sampson took place on Tuesday afternoon. Deceased had been ill but a short time.—Mr. and Mrs. G. Sampson, Camden East, attended the funeral of the late Robt. Sampson.

ELMBROOK

Mr. W. C. Blakely has his new barn completed. —Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dodge, and family spent a day recently with her father, Mr. Geo. Burley.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Unger and daughter motored to Napanee and Morven and spent the week end with Mr. Willis Unger.—Mr. Clarence Hoag, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leavitt on winning first prize on their son at Picton baby show.—Mr. Thos. Aikenhead has started his new barn. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Davis McDonald on the arrival of a baby boy on October 1st.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sills spent Monday at Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Unger's.—We are pleased to see Mr. W. Barker home again, after a pleasant holiday in the West.—Mr. and Mrs. Casey Donison, of Napanee, and Mr. Norman Moore, of Brockville, were the guests of Mrs. Levi Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, one day last week.—The W. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Delbert Vanmeer on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 14th, at 2 o'clock. Please bring in your membership fees. All the ladies are cordially invited.—Don't forget the Young People's service on Friday evening, when the annual election of officers will take place.—A very nice Rally Day service was held in Fairmount Church on Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. A. Brechen gave a splendid address, and the pageant was very interesting and instructive.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDonald attended Robbins Mills fair on Saturday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sills and family, Napanee, also Mr. and Mrs. Sills, Johnson St., Picton, motored to Madoc fair on Wednesday of last week. Each called at Mr. Henderson's for dinner and tea.—A very cold wave made its appearance in this section on Friday and Saturday of last week, doing much damage, and reminding us of the need of gathering in all vegetables and fruits.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

The mother of two boys aged respectively 5 and 7 had a hard question to settle the other day. The younger boy came in her crying with exasperation that he was "a nickel short."

"Well, what's the use of yelling about it?" said his older brother, who was calmly eating candy. "You don't think I took it, do you?"

"I don't say you did," the little fellow replied, "but I'm a nickel short and you're eating candy."

Spare the children from suffering from worms by using Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge with which to combat these insidious foes of the young and helpless. It is an excellent worm destroyer, and when its qualities become known in a household no other will be used. The medicine acts by itself, requiring no purgative to assist it, and so thoroughly that nothing more is desired.

ARDEN

Who said they thought Arden was dead? It sure is everything but dead. Just so busy there was no time to write, but hope to see the Arden news in print from now on.—The cold rainy weather has been most depressing to our people here, but we are enjoying now these Autumn days.—We are all very sorry to hear of the bad luck Mr. Wesley Halls had on Saturday evening last, about 12:30, when their barn was burned to the ground. Everything in the barn was burned, including four milking cows, hens, hay, machinery, etc. As luck would have it his horses happened to be outside that one night. Much sympathy goes out to these two old people in their great loss. Also a small barn owned by Dutch Godfrey was burned the same night. Theirs being covered by insurance.—The Literary meeting held at Dr. Paul Hallowell's, on Thursday evening, was well attended. The young people have something to look forward to during the winter months. —Miss Lillian Boomhour spent the week end in Belleville. — Quite a number of the young people attended the dance at Sharbot Lake, on October 16th. One Good Cow is worth Two Poor Ones

RELIABLE statistics show that the average cow produces only 3,000 lbs. of milk and 100 lbs. of butter in a year.

By the careful selection of better-grade animals for your herd and better feeding, the yearly production of milk and butter can be doubled easily, resulting in increased profit to the dairy farmer.

Weed out the culls, breed by a good sire and save your best heifers.

Hip and Leg Broken.

On Thursday morning a young son of Mr. Harry Lowry, Kingston Road, met with an unfortunate accident. He was on his way to school and had secured a ride on a milk truck. In getting off the truck he ran across the road, towards school, directly in front of a Montreal car, breaking his leg and hip. The unfortunate lad was taken to Kingston for treatment.

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The October meeting of Conway Women's Institute was held on October 20th, at the home of Mrs. M. Shelter, with thirteen members and four visitors present. After the opening ode and the Lord's Prayer, the Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Fraser, read the minutes of the September meeting, also the roll call.

Various items of business of interest to the Institute were discussed. Then the President, Mrs. A. P. Young, called on Mr. Laughland, the Agricultural Representative, from Napanee, to address the meeting.

Mr. Laughland gave a very interesting and instructive address. He touched on the value of being good citizens in our rural communities and the value of a good education towards the making of a good citizen.

He spoke of various means of interesting the boys and girls of our rural communities in advancing the standard of agriculture. He would like to see more boys interested in sheep and live stock and ploughing matches and have them attend the classes in Agriculture which are held each year. He would also like to see the girls attend the classes where such subjects as home economics, home nursing, dressmaking, millinery, poultry raising, etc., are taught. Attending these classes gives the boys and girls a better chance. A club might be formed of junior agriculturists. At their meetings debates could be held and public speaking contests. All this would be of great benefit to them in after years.

A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Laughland for his valuable address, after which Mrs. Shelter's twin nephews, the Lowry brothers, gave delightful music and singing. Mrs. John Young read current events, which were up to the minute, then after more music by the Lowry twins, the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem, and the hostess served a dainty lunch.

GRACE CHURCH ANNIVERSARY.

The day was fine, and the addresses by Dr. Lavell, Parole Commissioner of Ontario, were humorous and heartening. Before the war he had travelled extensively in Europe, Palestine, and Africa. He gained Major's rank for service in Macedonia. If God be intensely interested in humanity, the work of helping the unfortunate, the foolish and the criminal to stand upright upon his own feet, is a task of consuming interest and infinite worth. Among some of the classes he personally deals with 85 per cent have justified the confidence placed in them, and among other classes 94 per cent have done so. Such facts go far to make us confident that the proper redemption agencies are to an unbelievable degree productive of good, not only to the criminal himself, but to his dependents.

The baritone soloist, Carrick Douglas, demonstrated that, given a voice of high quality, thoroughly trained, the general public warmly appreciates high class selections. He did not let down either himself or his audiences. The personality of the youthful soloist was most pleasing.

The choral work was of a high order. The Orchestra, composed largely of the younger people, numbered fifteen, and conducted themselves creditably.

The Sunday evening attendance, through the withdrawal of Trinity and of St. Andrew's, and augmented by visitors, was nearly nine hundred.

Though not advertised as a fowl supper, the supply of fowls was ample for all. The tables never looked finer, the warmest compliments coming to the President of the Ladies' Aid, and to her efficient helpers. The total intake for the Monday evening amounted to $250.00.

The piano duets by the Choir Leader and the Organist of the Church were warmly encored.

The audience on Sunday and Monday was thoroughly and unusually representative and appreciative.

In the afterglow it seems to us that we have never had a more successful anniversary Sunday, nor a Monday evening's program more worth while.

BASKETBALL.

N.C.I. vs. P.C.I.

The first girls' home game of the Bay of Quinte League was played in the Armouries on Saturday, October 17th, between Senior and Junior teams of the Picton Collegiate and Napanee Collegiate.

The Senior girls played first, and Picton's forwards were very quick and sure, and were successful in scoring 10 points to Napanee's 9.

In the second period the girls came back strong, and were able to change the score in Napanee's favour, 20 to 18. The playing was very even throughout, although Picton had the advantage in height. During the last period the Napanee girls might have secured several more baskets, but were very unfortunate in their tries for the basket. The final score was 27 to 24, in Napanee's favour.

Napanee scored five of these points on errors from Picton.

The Junior girls were far outclassed in height, but showed great pluck in meeting their opponents. Picton's forwards quickly shot for the basket and the score at the end of the first period was 10-4, in Picton's favour. The second period was very close, both sides adding 4 points to the score. Picton girls easily secured the ball and passed it to their forwards who shot cleverly. The final score was 24 to 14, in favour of the visiting team.

Both teams were handicapped by the slippery condition of the floor, which made the playing very dangerous. No points were secured in the Junior game through errors made although several tries were given.

Miss Cheetham, of Kingston, referred the game in a very satisfactory manner. The N.C.I. girls served lunch to the visitors.

The line up was as follows:—

Juniors.

Picton—Forwards, K. Graves and M. Williams; Centres, R. Welsh and R. Clapp; Defenses, M. Carson and T. Palmer.

Napanee—Forwards, K. Gleeson and C. Cavanaugh; Centres, E. Switzer and D. Johnston; Defenses, M. Grass and M. Douglas; Spare, E. Yourex.

Seniors.

Picton—Forwards, M. Insley and R. Herrington; Centres, J. Insley and G. Wannamaker; Defenses, R. Mc-Kibon and H. Mills.

Napanee—Forwards, R. Daly and D. Hepburn; Centres, M. Herrington and R. Irwin; Defenses, G. Boyce and R. Creegan; Spare, K. Woodruff.

Lest We Forget. Memorial Parade.

"B" Company Prontenac Regiment will furnish a firing squad for the annual memorial decoration, which will take place on Sunday, November 8th. Route of march will be from the Armouries to Dundas St., along Dundas St. to East St., up East St. to Thomas St., to Memorial. All societies are requested, if sending a wreath, to have same at the Armouries Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, Nov. 8th. Individual wreaths will be placed on Memorial during service. The Napanee Brass Band will head the parade.

EIGHT WEEKS TO-DAY

The weather will be cold then. Those fortunate enough to have a full coal bin, and a well stocked larder will be enjoying the cosy grate fire, and partaking of the annual Christ- mas dinner. The kiddies in the home well provided for will be sort- ing over the Christmas gifts and commenting on the generosity of Santa Claus, and the strange way in which he is able to give the very thing they wanted.

But some homes, even in Napanee, will be a bit shy of coal. In some homes, too, the Christmas dinner will be little different from any other, and the kiddies will wake wondering why Santa Claus has forgotten.

To make it possible for every child to have a visit from Saint Nicholas, THE BEAVER continues the policy begun last year and which proved a boon to many. From now on The Beaver will receive donations of money to "The Beaver Santa Claus Fund".

A careful survey of conditions will be made by those best qualified for the work, and the money will be handed to a committee of ladies to administer. All receipts and expen- ditures will be carefully audited and the results as last year published when the final report is given.

Please get the subscriptions in early and make them as generous as possible.

BATH PASTORAL CHARGE

Unabated enthusiasm characterizes the church work among all depart- ments on this field.

Beulah.

Owing to the storm of last Sab- bath the Anniversary Service of Beu- lah was postponed until next Sunday, when the annual Thanksoffering will be received. However, the fowl din- ner and entertainment was carried out on Monday night as announced, and proved an unqualified success from every point of view. While there is neither hall, kitchen, or base- ment in connection with, or available by the church, still the ladies ar- ranged and served such a dinner as would do credit to any town or city congregation with all their usual equipment. All preparation was made in the afternoon, and every waiter assigned his or her particular section of the church, so that when the time came to serve, perfect order and dispatch were in evidence. An idea of this may be formed from the fact that about 250 persons partook of dinner in perfect order, in a building whose seating capacity does not exceed the above number. The following program was furnished by the Choir of Princess Street United Church, Kingston:—Piano Solo, Mr. Madrand; Mixed Quartette; Solo, Mrs. Archibald; Reading, Miss Pringle; Duett, Mrs. Archibald and Mr. H. Wiskin; Mixed Quartette; Reading, Miss Pringle; Solo, Mr. H. Wiskin; Piano Solo, Mr. Madrand; Mixed Quartette; Solo, Mrs. Archi- bald; Reading, Miss Pringle; Mixed Quartette; Solo, Mr. H. Wiskin. All the above were received with enthus- iasm and appreciation. By a previous arrangement the Pastor acted as chairman, and the order was excel- lent.

Bath.

The Ladies' Aid of Bath United Church held their bazaar on Tues- day afternoon and evening, and like Beulah, the splendid effort was crowned with success. Tea was served from 1.30 p.m. until 7.30 p.m., and many beautiful and useful articles were sold. The ladies are to be congratulated on the splendid ar- rangement for the bazaar, and the fine weather; also on the financial success.

We might also note that the Unit- ed Church in the village has been beautifully painted on the outside at a cost of $175.00, and the parsonage also, both inside and outside, the cost of which is not yet estimated. The congregation is delighted with the work on both church and manse. The people are manifesting great interest in the church, and large and appre- ciative congregations greet the pas- tor each Sabbath.

Communion Service will be held at Bath next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock. Anniversary Service at Beu- lah at 2.30 p.m., and regular service at Hawley at 11 a.m.

CAMDEN EAST

We had a heavy rain nearly all day last Sunday, turning colder at night. —Miss M. Hawley, of Sharbot Lake, visited her cousin, Mr. Norman Blak- ley, and family, for a couple of days last week.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reid, he received. However, the fowl din- ner and entertainment was carried W. Saul and Mrs. Cameron, on Sun- day last.—Mrs. John Simmons, who was seriously ill last week, is a little better this week. Her grand- daughter, Mrs. Gray, of Mountain Grove, has been at her bedside for the past week.—Mrs. L. Hartman en- tertained several of her lady friends to dinner on Thursday last.—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. C. Histed, motored to Bethel Street East on Sunday last, and vis- ited Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jeffrey and Mrs. Myrtle MacWilliams.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

YARKER SOUTH.

We were visited with a heavy rain- storm on Sunday, which made the ploughing much easier. — A number from here attended the Anniversary Services at Yarker on Sunday, and the fowl supper on Monday evening, and report a good time was spent. $103.50 was realized from the sup- per.—Mrs. Harold Huff and daugh- ter, Dorothy, are spending a few days in Kingston with Mrs. Huff's sister, Mrs. Claude Hinch.—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown, of Napanee, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John Love.—Mr. Reuben Curl at Mr. Chas. Curl's, for a few days.—Mrs. John Love spent Saturday at Mrs. Miles Wilson's, Yarker.—Mrs. Josh Swit- zer is ill with a cold. — Miss Annie Love spent Monday afternoon with Miss Pansy Curle, Yarker.

DESMOND

Service will be held here Sunday evening at 7 o'clock instead of Sun- day afternoon as regularly.—Mr. and Mrs. Marshall King and son, Ross, are spending a few days visiting his brother at Shannonville.—Mr. George Drew's friends from Chatham re- turned home this week, after visiting relatives for a fortnight.—Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Switzer took tea Sunday evening at Fred Switzer's.—Misses Muriel Bell and Della Drew spent the week end at their respective homes. —Several from here attended the fowl supper at Yarker on Monday night.—Don't forget our annual tea on Friday evening, Nov. 6th. A good time is ready to all who come and spend the evening with us. Admis- sion, 40c.; children 20c.

ENTERPRISE UNITED CHURCH

The Anniversary Services here on October 18th, were well attended. The sermons delivered by the Pastor were well received. The special music by the Choir was much appreciated. An offering of $250.00 was asked for, the greater part of which was subscribed.

On Monday evening, October 19th, the Ladies' Aid held their annual Pork and Bean Supper and concert. The weather was responsible for there not being a larger crowd in at- tendance, but those who came were well repaid for their efforts. The supper was up to its usual high standard of excellence. The program was provided by the Orchestra of St. Andrew's Church of Napanee, and was well received.

On Wednesday evening the Young People met and organized a Young People's Society, with Miss Elizabeth Mellow as President, and Mr. Hugh Sine as Secretary. The first meeting, which was of a social nature, was held on Wednesday, October 28th.

Mr. Elgin Vanest and family re- turned from a two months' trip to Western Canada last Thursday. They report rather backward conditions for threshing, although the crops were good.

Mr. Elgin Vanest and Mrs. W. H. Vanest, together with Rev. H. A. Bunt, attended the County Sunday School Convention of the O. B. E. C., at Sillsville, on Tuesday.

MOST FREQUENT CAUSE OF DWELLING FIRES

Defective chimneys and flues are responsible for more home fires than any one other cause. In the past decade they have caused a loss estimated at $181,500,000. Unnumbered lives, mostly women and children, have been lost in fires due to this most unnecessary cause.

So easily prevented by common sense in constructing chimneys and keeping them clean, it is amazing that we should continue to build them in a fashion that engenders such tragedies and losses.

Wooden chimneys, at one time generally used, were prohibited by ordinance in New York City in 1871. But flimsy, unlined brick chimneys, wooden beams projecting into chimney walls, chimneys built on wooden supports and like defects in construction cause present day fire departments infinitely more trouble than the one-time wooden chimneys did the Colonial bucket brigades.

Everybody ought to learn, remember and enforce the main factors contributing to safe flue construction which are designed to make the smoke, flame, heat and gases of combustion go into the open air through the top of the chimney rather than into the building through its sides. Because fires from defective flues start underneath roofs, back of ranges, under hearths, and in other places not in plain view, it does not follow that there is anything mysterious about them or that they cannot be really prevented.

Smoke Pipes.

Smoke and stovepipes should be frequently inspected to make sure that they are in good condition, substantially supported in place, and safely away from woodwork and other combustible material. Rusted pipes should be replaced at once.

Stovepipes should never pass through combustible partitions unless protected by a galvanized iron thimble, at least twelve inches larger in diameter than the pipe. Thimbles should have double walls with ventilation through the air spaces.

Hints on Extinguishing Chimney Fires.

First, call the fire department. While awaiting the firemen, close off in as air tight a way as possible, all openings into the chimney, including fire places, smoke pipe holes and clean out doors. In the absence of better means, wads of wet burlap or blankets may be used for this purpose.

A few pounds of salt or a pail of sand thrown down the top of the burning flue is often effective. A chemical fire extinguisher is better.

Prevent These Fires.

Chimney fires and fires due to defective chimneys are among the easiest kinds of fires to stop before they start. Fires in the chimney proper are due to dirty chimneys and can be prevented by the simple expedient of regular and thorough cleaning. Fires which ignite the dwelling because the chimney is defective can be prevented by strict attention to construction details.

A Fable for Builders.

By Franklin H. Wentworth.

Last summer a good citizen of a certain town not over a hundred miles from almost everywhere, built a wooden house for a friend and neighbor children. He built the chimney right where he had to. The chimney was able to stand alone, so he did not have to prop it with wood. But the floors of the house would not stay up without props. The good citizen saved a dollar by using the chimney as a support to the floors. He nestled the ends of the floor joists nicely in the brick of the chimney. He covered up the job and got his money.

The rains fell and the winds blew in the most Biblical manner, and winter came after its fashion. The chimney settled a little; and there was a tiny crack.

One morning the woman woke up with fire all about her. She tried to get her children. If she got to them no one ever knew it. The good citizen who built the house was not arrested for manslaughter. He is building other houses of the same kind for other unnumbered and children. He is making his living by it.

COBALT - FRONTENAC MINING COMPANY

Afternoon of Surprises — Mining Camp Furnishes Food for Thought —Work to Extract the Yellow Metal.

A visit to a mining camp is always interesting, but more so when precious metals are to be found in the bowels of the earth in close proximity to one's home town or city. Nature has endowed northern Canada with untold wealth, and a visit to one of these deposits convinces the visitor in his optimistic belief that within the life of the present generation this northern portion of Ontario will be dotted with mining camps and what are now villages will be thriving populated cities. Unfortunately capital has been hoarded up, the speculator desiring to invest to-day and reap returns to-morrow. This is particularly noticeable in districts where the hidden wealth is to be found. A knock is administered more often than a boost.

On Tuesday last the editor of the Advocate was invited to accompany Mr. C. G. Henderson of Haliburton, a director of the Cobalt-Frontenac Mining Company, and look over the property of that company. The property is situated 7½ miles from Kaladar and is called the Golden Fleece Mine.

Mr. Henderson, who is an optimist as well as a careful autoist, took the wheel of his car and while on the way to Flinton narrated the progress in development of the mine and gave the writer an illustrated booklet issued by the Cobalt-Frontenac Company. Being skeptical of highly colored literature I wished to be convinced of the reality of the enravings as pictured. There was no delusion, the rich rock formation showing there was no exaggeration.

Arriving at Flinton, 20 miles from Tweed, the journey of 2½ miles to the mining camp was completed. Mr. D. H. Fletcher, Secretary-Treasurer and Managing Director, met us on alighting and explained the uses of the various improvements to be seen about the property and gave us over to Mr. Cotton, the foreman, who is a gentleman of long experience in mining operations. Descending to a depth of 100 feet by way of ladders, for electric power is not necessary for present operations, three of the principal veins were disclosed, composed of quartz and sericite schist, all of which is well mineralized. No. 1 vein, in which the main shaft is sunk has a width of over 20 feet. No. 2 vein is parallel to and a few feet easterly of No. 1 vein and has an average width of about 30 feet. No. 3 vein is about 50 feet easterly of No. 2 vein, and is from 12 to 15 feet wide. From 40 to 50 feet further east a number of quartz stringers occur at which point work was stopped. The schist between the veins is also mineralized and carries gold values as is shown by assays. A number of feet still further east the main lode or strike of the mineralized zone for a distance of about a mile and in each case a vein exposed, which is probably the continuation to the north, and south of that now being developed.

The main shaft, 6x11 feet, one compartment and ladder way, at a slope of 63 degrees to the horizontal, has been sunk to a depth of 100 feet, with a 10-ft. sump.

Average assays show $6 to $9.60 per ton. Blocked out are 100,000 tons of ore reserve. All necessary mining and refining machinery are to be found on the premises. Working conditions are good as the mine is located in a settled district.

Hydro-Electric power is supplied from a 600 horse power plant installed by the company on the Skootamata River at Flinton, 2½ miles distant. A concrete dam and necessary equipment are found here.

A short distance from the Cobalt-Frontenac Company mine an artificial lake has been converted from a creek, the lake being about half a mile in length. Through pipes the water flows down to the mine, a liberal supply being always available. The company have storage dams erected at Long Lake, some 12 or 13 miles up stream, as a reserve.

The most prominent mining engineers have reported favorably upon the possibilities of the Cobalt-Frontenac mine and reports issued by them all go to show that at no distant date this mine will show results equal, if not better, than many of similar nature now said to be turning out large dividends and equally large bars of gold.

In addition to the mill there are usual mining camp buildings, consisting of office, boarding house, bunk house, store house, blacksmith shop, well equipped assay office, powder magazine, three staff dwelling houses and stable.

For Sprains and Bruises.—There is nothing better for sprains and contusions than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed flesh and draw the pain. It will take the ache out of a bruise by counteracting the inflammation. A trial will convince any who doubt its power.

The Origin of "Hurrah."

The word "hurrah" is pure Slavonian and is commonly heard from the coast of Dalmatia to Bering strait when any of the population living within these limits called on to give proof of courage and valor. The origin of the word belongs to the primitive idea that every man that dies heroically for his country goes straight to heaven—Hurray, to paradise—and in the shock and rush of battle the countryman after that cry, as the Turks do that of "Allah," each animating himself by the certitude of immediate companionship to forget earth and to contemn death.

Kiddies are proud to wear Hurlbuts because—

1. They are thoroughbred.
2. They are comfortable.
3. They are flexible—no painful breaking in.
4. Their mother can afford to buy them.

A Woman's Work Is Never Done

No Wonder Health Gives Out and She Becomes Weak and Despondent.

It is literally true concerning woman in the home that her work is never done. She starts in with housework when she rises in the morning and is kept busy up to the time she retires at night. The work must be done whether she is feeling well or not. It is no wonder that she often breaks down under the strain. She becomes breathless at slight exertion, feels exhausted if she walks up stairs. Headaches and dizzy spells become frequent, and life seems a burden. Much of this trouble is due to the fact that her blood has become thin and watery, and to regain her good health she must take a reliable blood-enriching tonic such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The great value of this tonic medicine is shown by the statement of Mrs. Mary Nolan, Lintlaw, Sask., who says:—"When I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was a physical wreck. It was with great difficulty that I could do light housework. I suffered from headaches and backache, and had no appetite—my limbs would swell as in dropsy. It was at this stage that a neighbor advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had used the pills for some weeks before I began to feel their benefit, and thus encouraged I continued taking them for several months, when I was again as strong and well as ever I had been. I have no hesitation in saying that these pills are a remarkable blood builder and strength renewer and I shall ever be grateful for what they did for me."

You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ROD AND GUN IN CANADA

The Kennel Department of the November issue of Rod and Gun in Canadian hunting magazine, contains a notable feature in an article on the Canadian field trials of the dogs from the pen of A. P. Hochwait, who has been said to be the greatest pictorial authority on the American continent. The winter feature Along the Trap Line, edited by M. O. Butler, commences its season in this month's issue and contains a full synopsis of the trapping laws for the season 1925-26 all through the Dominion.

The first of a series of splendid cartoons on the humorous side of outdoor life, by the famous James Frise of Bigwoys Centre fame is also a good new feature.

The November issue might be called a hunters' number from the amount of hunting interest it contains. An Old Timer's Story of Hunting in the Rockies is a real old timer's yarn, written in a care free style that marks the man of the open and interests his fellows. In Breezes from the West, A. Bryan Williams, the well known B. C. sportsman, strikes the same note that is found in all the stories and regular features of the magazine.

A schoolmaster told his boys the story of Elijah the Tishbite and Ahab and Jezebel and his followers. In Breezes One boy wrote: "And Eliza appeared before the King, wrapped in a camel's hair, and said, 'Behold, O King, I am Eliza the Tis-bit.'"

Pulling Ontario's Feet out of the Mud
That's what Good Roads are doing

Look back ten years and you will remember that roads could not drive beyond your own township. You could not get to the people or the country forty or fifty miles away. For months each year impassable stretches of mud confronted you in almost every direction.

Today, at all seasons of the year, you may travel almost anywhere. Good roads are pulling Ontario's feet out of the mud.

To keep up the roads in repair, see that you use them sanely. The law provides restrictions in the loading of trucks, and a speed limit of 25 miles an hour for passenger cars. When you fail to observe these provisions you do unnecessary damage either by breaking down the foundation or tearing up its surface.

As the cost of road building and maintenance is falling more and more on the user of the roads, motorists should realize the necessity of obeying the law, and, also, the advantage of securing the co-operation of others in doing so.

To know more about the size and importance of the good roads system, take a motor trip this fall. Note the development in farm and home improvements. Observe the well-kept lawns. You will at once realize the vital relationship that all these have to good roads.

Issued by the Ontario Department of Highways in co-operation of motorists and truck drivers, Good Roads Associations and all other public bodies, for the advancement of the Province.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY CONVENTION

The last annual convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Canada, in the Tamworth Division, was held in the Community Hall, Tamworth, on Wednesday, October 14th, 1925.

The meeting was opened by the Tamworth Auxiliary, which led us in a spiritual devotion to Christ and thankfulness to Him for the beautiful day and large crowd of spiritual women who were gathered with one aim—to learn further about God's fields, open for missionary work.

The Superintendent, Mrs. J. W. Wagar, of Centreville, and her assistant, Mrs. D. B. Wilson, of Napanee, then assumed their respective chairs and took charge of the meeting.

After the appointment of Mrs. George Findlay, of Strathcona, as secretary, and Mrs. H. A. Carscallen, of Enterprise, as press reporter, the address of welcome was given by Mrs. S. White, of Tamworth, who, in her usual pleasing manner, extended a cordial welcome to their church and town, expressing the hope that from this, the first convention under the United Church of Canada, we would go forth, better able to accomplish greater things under united forces.

Mrs. Yhurman, of Camden East, replied in a few well chosen words, expressing the feelings of the convention.

The reports of the Auxiliaries, Circles and Bands were readily responded to. The report given by Mrs. D. B. Wilson was inspiring to all. She reported fourteen Auxiliaries, having 380 members, contributing $1607.48. There are six new life members. Trinity Church, of Napanee, still leads in membership and finances, having 110 members, contributing $400.00. Lime Lake, our smallest Auxiliary, leads, as usual, in per capita giving. Centreville and Morven more than doubled their givings. Enterprise, Newburgh and Strathcona showed substantial increases. Newburgh's Easter offerings averages $2.00 per member. The ways of working are as usual. The travelling basket brought $25.00 to Enterprise Auxiliary. Welfear of quilts and quilting; the sale of ice cream; select teas; lawn socials, etc. There is mention of the increased systematic givings and mite boxes. Prizes are the greatest pleasure to announce the formation of a new Auxiliary at Ebenezer, with twelve members. Their motto: "This work was undertaken and successfully carried on by our new Associate Superintendent, Mrs. D. B. Wilson."

Our eight Circles, with 222 members, raised $451.00, a small increase over last year.

We have seven bands, with 217 members, raising $87.25. New Edinburgh band takes first place, financially; Trinity has first place in point of membership; Napanee with sixty-eight members contributing $65.00; Strathcona stands first in per capita giving.

The Pioneer officers were then called to the platform. The first to speak was Mrs. Hall, of Napanee, a former District Superintendent, and now Honorary Superintendent of Napanee Branch. She told of many of her experiences while trying to organize societies in the early days, also at Tamworth, Enterprise and Centreville. At the latter place she succeeded in getting but one member, Mrs. J. W. Wagar, who is now our District Superintendent. The first convention, presided over by but few women, among whom was Mrs. Geo. Bateman, of Napanee, now living in Toronto, took and became District Superintendent. "Surely," said she, "the first ones blessed our work with success, and to-day we pioneer officers stand before a crowd of enthusiastic W. M. S. workers."

Mrs. Geo. Bateman, of Kingston, who, through illness, was unable to attend, sent a message expressing her sincere regret at being unable to be present at the convention held in her former home town. She would have loved to greet personally so many friends of old dear to her, but her prayer was that God might abundantly bless our last Methodist convention and endue us all with new strength and zeal to be still more efficient workers in the great cause.

The message of greetings from Mrs. (Rev.) Hunt, Carman, of Saskatoon, a former Superintendent of this district, told of her continued interest in our work. She regretted that it was impossible for her to attend this convention, and to hear the addresses which would be inspiring and inspiring. Mrs. Cairns said it was with a tinge of sadness that she replied we were meeting for the last time as a W. M. S. of the Methodist Church, but that we must lose sight of mere sentiment and move forward, entering heartily into the broader fields of service in the United Church of Canada; that we had much to look forward to, and many grand services were open for us to enter. She wished for the District Superintendent, all officers and workers, every success in the new channels. In closing, she said she looked back with much pleasure to her years of service. She still never forget the great spiritual uplift and many blessings that came to her while trying to fill her part among us.

Mrs. Geo. Findlay, of Strathcona, gave a very helpful message as Past District Superintendent. She was elected to fill the gap left vacant by the death of our beloved Mrs. John Wartman. She said that the help she received and the many friends she made during that time more than blessed her life.

Mrs. R. C. Moss, of Tamworth, our first Associate District Superintendent, expressed the opinion that if we, as Christian mothers, would seek more zealously to bring our children into closer communion with God, more young men and women would be offering themselves for missionary service.

Mrs. J. J. Wagar, of Peterboro', a Past District Secretary and Press Reporter, was present with her message. She said she gladly responded to the invitation to send or bring greetings to her home convention, and she served for eight years as secretary. She has been absent from this district for eight years. A study of the old programmes had shown her the wonderful progress that had taken place in this district during the past twenty years. Mrs. Wagar paid loving tributes to the late Mrs. John Wartman, of Wesley, a former District Superintendent, whose successful work was cut short by illness and death. "Mrs. Wartman", she said, "was a woman capable of rare devotion to duty, and her devotion and love wrought so well for her the love and affection of every W. M. S. member in the district. She also referred to the sudden thought of this, our last Methodist convention brought to us. We have lost our loved name, Methodist, but, with the significance of the new name in our minds and the spirit of union in our hearts, we will be ready to feel no loss. Union has indeed brought strength. We have need to be one, working shoulder to shoulder, and it means closer fellowship, greater knowledge, wider opportunities in additional fields. Duties as to what union would mean in the W. M. S., she said, were dispelled when she learned the watchwords of the three uniting churches. To Presbyterian, "The World for Christ", seemed an impossible task, until she remembered our own, "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts". Then followed the Congregational motto, "Not I, but Christ be honored in me." How perfect the three seemed fit into each other! There need be no fear of union with motives like these to guide us."

Miss Lillieh Gendler, of Newburgh, was delegated to convey the felicitations of the convention to the Women's Auxiliary Convention of the Anglican Church, which was meeting in Trinity Church, Hall, at the same time.

Miss H. M. Paul, our returned missionary, led the very impressive "Quiet Half Hour". Prayer were offered on behalf of our heard meeting, soon to be held in Toronto. She urged us to consecrate our lives anew to Christ, to be used devoutly for His service. The morning session was closed by all repeating our Consecration Hymn.

The afternoon session was opened by Devotional Services, led by Mrs. R. J. Wilson, of Reidville, who read the Scripture lesson, and Mrs. (Rev.) Hannah, of Wesley, who led in the prayer.

An address, "Looking Backward", was given by Mrs. A. W. Grange, who said that for fifteen years the missionary work was confined to the outlying parts of our home land. In 1858 the British Government decided to colonize British Columbia. One of our pioneer men was Dr. Crosby, who afterwards asked that he might devote his time to the Indian missions. The first mission was formed at Port Simpson. In 1860 the Methodists decided to start a mission in Japan. This was accomplished, but the work was handicapped by the men not being able to enter the homes of the Japanese to teach the children. A request was made to form a Women's Missionary Society to send women abroad to enter Japanese homes if the Japanese were ever to be christianized. In 1881 Conference gave its consent to the formation of a W. M. S., which was formed in 1881 and started on its career. The progress has been steady and continuous. To-day, in British Columbia, we have 43 Indian missionaries; in Japan, forty-two missionaries and forty-nine native workers; in China, forty-three missionaries and forty-seven native helpers.

At this juncture Mrs. (Rev.) Coleman brought greetings from the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church. She said, "May God's blessing rest upon us as we are all looking to the same source for our blessing and strength to carry on His great work."

An address, "Looking Forward", was given by Miss Lillieh Gendler, of Newburgh. She spoke of the missions in the Portugese colonies and China, stressing the great need of Christian workers and properly equipped universities. Summing up, we have 670 missions in the United Church, 538 schools, 65 hospitals and nearly 2900 foreign missionaries.

A pleasing break in the proceedings was a beautifully rendered vocal duett by Misses Wartman and Allen.

Miss Susie Shorey, of Napanee, conducted a short conference on band work. She advocated that more time be given to Band work at our conventions, stating that frequently delegates from the Bands returned from the conventions with the feeling that their time has been poorly spent owing to so little being said concerning Bands. She believed that the programmes should be prepared by the Band leader, but the work be done by the members and officers at the meetings. The question was asked if it was wise to change leaders when the present leader had been in office for a long time. Upon discussion it was decided that if the Band has a devout leader, it would be best for her to carry on indefinitely. Her theme was to train the little ones for leadership, and then we would have future W. M. S. workers.

A very interesting paper on "The Circle Girl's Responsibility" was given by Miss Joy Paul, of Wesley. She said it was from the Circles that many offer their lives for service in foreign fields. A responsibility rests upon the girls who remain at home. They should give, pray and work. By giving, one feels that some one in the foreign lands is teaching the gospel in her place; by prayer, even the poorest has an opportunity for service, as Christ says, "whatsoever ye ask in My name, that will I do". She can work by attending the meetings regularly and punctually, bringing others with her, by helping in the meetings cheerfully.

Misdames Lochhead and Hoffman rendered a very appropriate duett, which was much appreciated.

The afternoon being far spent, Mrs. James Wilson, of Strathcona, did not present her paper on "Auxiliary Workers", but in a short time made every one present feel that she was enthused and awakened to be more active in the future. She said that the small attendance at our meetings was due to the lack of interest. As soon as we feel the work worth while, we will sacrifice, be willing to stay home from an excursion or a day of our meeting, be willing to hold office, plan to our collection and not depend on "Tea" to make the meetings; will prove a success, and our many problems will be solved. Before she finished, each woman was pledged to go home to work, better than ever before.

The Missionary Parents given by Tamworth Mission Band, was very inspiring and formed much food for thought and reflection.

Miss Clarke, a returned missionary from Japan, spoke under the Presbyterian Church, but now the United Church, held the interest of every one. Some of the Churches by her eloquent address in the lives of Tomomi, a daughter of the people of Formosa. She has spent fifteen years in Formosa. The inhabitants are divided into "Hill" and "Plain" people. There is only one missionary to every fifty thousand people, there being four hills at the same time. The homes are very crude, being made of mud and brick, mud floors and flat-bed walls. Little girls may be given away or sold as infants or at early age be betrothed to their future husbands. They believe in spirits everywhere, and the ancestral tablets in the homes are believed to have power to drive away evil spirits. It is only when these tablets are done away with from the home that we know they have been truly converted. Space will not permit of the many more interesting facts that Miss Clarke gave. In closing, she asked for the prayers of the delegates and begged that if the call came to any to go to the foreign fields that the call would be heeded and not refused.

After a motion song, "That Sweet Story of Old", by Tamworth Mission Band, the meeting was closed by Mrs. A. W. Grange.

Collections for the day were $20.05.

OBITUARY.

Thomas I. Winter.

The death occurred in Newburgh on Wednesday morning of Mr. Thomas I. Winter, one of the best known residents of that part of the country. For many years the deceased had been prominent in all activities in and about Newburgh, and had at his own office the telephone central. He was also agent for the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company, which brought him in touch with a great many of the people.

The late Mr. Winter was forty-six years of age. He had been in failing health since about Labor Day, but his death was unexpected and came as a severe shock to his family and his wide circle of friends. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow and two daughters, one of whom is on the office staff of the Davis Tanning, Kingston. Mr. Winter was for a time Reeve of his Township.

The funeral will take place from his late residence on Friday afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Roy Outwater who passed away October 28th, 1918. From our home and circle
God has taken one we loved;
Borne away from pain and sorrow,
To a nobler rest above.
His smile lives on though gone from sight,
That face so cheery, brave and bright
And though his voice we no longer hear,
We know and feel that he is near.

Dearly loved and sadly missed by his Father, Mother and Sisters. 44ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my dear husband, Ernest F. Smith, who passed away Nov. 1st, 1924.

4 1-p —Sadly missed.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Lauretta Smith Ferguson, who departed this life October 31st, 1925, and whose body now rests in the Old Kildonan cemetery, Winnipeg. Also in memory of her brother, Leroy H. Smith, who died July 9th, 1924, both sadly missed by —Mother, Brothers and Sister.

They grew in beauty, side by side,
They filled our home with glee;
Their graves are severed far and wide,
By mountain, stream and sea. 44ap

ARDEN

Quite a fall of snow came on Tuesday of this week, making it seem like winter.—Mr. Williard Thornton has returned home, after spending a couple of months in Laura, Sask.—Miss Janet Thornton, who is attending High School in Tamworth, spent the week end at home. — Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kirke and son, Donald, spent Sunday the guests of L. D. Farka.—Quite a number of people motored to Mountain Grove on Monday evening and attended the chicken supper in aid of the United Church. —On Monday evening a little party was given at Harry Johnston's, in honor of Miss Berniece Rikley, Mrs. Johnston's sister. Quite a number of the young people attended, also older people, and all report a good time. Berniece, one of whom is to leave for home. Miss Rikley is a nurse-in-training at the General Hospital, Kingston, who is off on leave at present.—Everyone is sorry to hear of the sudden departure to Verona of Dr. Helliwell and family. They have only been here a short time, but during their stay among us have made many friends who will always remember them and will welcome them among us whenever they feel like coming to our place here again. But we hope a more prosperous future in his move awaits him.

COSEY NOOK

The past week has been very cold and stormy for October. Potato digging and apple picking are about over.—Mrs. James Robertson, who has been very sick, is, we are pleased to say, much better. — Mr. Peter Storey has added greatly to the appearance of his house by putting on a new roof.—Mr. and Mrs. Amos Storey and daughter, Marion, spent Sunday in Moscow.—Mr. Hay and son, of Belleville, spent the week with Mrs. Amos Storey.—Mr. Harry Valentine is moving to Bath. We hope what is our loss will be Bath's gain, for they were always found to be good neighbors.—Mr. Willis Unger and family are moving on the Vanalstine farm.—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Vanalstine have moved from the Bell farm to Odessa, and Mr. James Bell has bought the John Bell farm, and will move in the near future.—Mr. Thos. Storey spent one day this week with Mrs. Noah Kimmerly.—We are pleased to hear that Mrs. Stanley Waters is home from the Kingston General Hospital, after a serious operation.—The sad news that Mr. Harry Lowry's little boy had been run over by a car was received here with regret. The boy was taken to Kingston, where it was found that his hip was broken, besides other injuries.

TAMWORTH

The teameeting held at Reidville on Monday night last was well attended. There was a large turn out from Tamworth. The Choir from Grace Church, Napanee, put on the programme, which was greatly enjoyed by all.—Mrs. Nancy Milligan's auction sale of farm implements and household goods was well attended, and the buying was brisk.—S. W. Clark, of Odessa, was the auctioneer. —Miss Elsie Marin, living at Joseph Huffman's, had the misfortune to fall, breaking her leg and spraining her ankle Dr. O'Connor set the limb. —The raffle held at Alex. Lynch's, one night last week, was well attended, and over $100.00 was made. — Dr. Edwards stands high in representing his party in this part of the riding.—Mrs. William Lockridge, of Camden, died on Monday last. The funeral was held at Christ Church on Wednesday of this week, Rev. Mr. Poston officiating.

CENTREVILLE

Centreville is not dead, but just been asleep for a few weeks. — We are having quite cold weather, with some snow.—Mrs. Wilford Taylor, Regina, Sask., arrived to-night to spend two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGill. — Mrs. Geo. Davy is spending a few days at Frank Thompson's. — Mrs. Pauline McGill is recovering from the shock she received two weeks ago, when her horse ran away. — Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. Geo. McGill, Mrs. Davey and Miss Pauline Thompson attended the O. E. C. Convention held at Sillsville, on Tuesday. — Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Sparks and children, Glenn and Jean, spent Sunday evening at Frank Thompson's.—A number from here attended the teameeting held at Reidville, on Monday evening, and report a good program and supper.—Sunday School will be held at 1 o'clock, and church at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon next.

SOCCER FOOTBALL

A very interesting and fast game of Soccer was staged at Odessa, on Wednesday, between Odessa Continuation School and Bath Continuation School. The field was muddy and slippery, but some snappy soccer was served up to the crowd of rooters. A heavy shower fell during the game, and play was stopped, but immediately resumed after the shower stopped. The Odessa boys had a slight edge on the play and were the first to score. A few minutes after play started, Martin hooted one high, wide and handsome. The ball was coming with the speed of a rifle bullet, Calver tried to "head" it clear, but didn't meet it fair and it glanced into the net. The ball was "centred off", but rain began to fall and play was held up. When play was resumed, Bath pressed the play toward the Odessa goal, and "Laddie" Boy followed up fast on a mis-kick and booted the ball into the net. At this there was a general uproar from the crowd. Hats flew in every direction.

Odessa was given a free-kick and here one of the comic parts of every game entered into the play. The ball was placed before the Bath goal, the referee's whistle sounded. The Bath and Odessa man charged at the ball, both kicked wickedly at it, both missed cleanly, and both went sprawling on the ground.

"Pep" Parrott came tearing down on the ball and slammed it into the net. Both protested the goal as being unfair, but Referee Cunningham ruled otherwise and the goal was allowed. The Bath boys refused to resume play and the game was forfeited to Odessa.

Every man on both teams played real soccer and it is regretted that the game ended as it did. However, another game is scheduled for next week, with a neutral referee, and a good game is looked for.

The teams were :—

Odessa—Goal, Bubs MacClennan; Full Backs, Hank Scouten, Dizzy Amey; Half Backs, Babe Vrooman, Pep Parrott, Curly Lake; Centre, Lissy Lucas; Forwards, Dempsey Reid, Monkey Martin, Stonewall Martin, Bozo Simmons.

Bath—Goal, Bill Craven; Full Backs, Alf. Miller, Bill Miller; Half Backs, Waltie Hagerman, Dick Daverne, Pete Creighton; Centre, Jew Calver; Forwards, Laddie Boy, Slim Chapman, Galtie Boy, Foxie Rouse.

Referee—Mr. W. Cunningham.

The "B" Company Soccer Team plays in Kingston Thursday afternoon at 3.30. The local team has been playing fine soccer and are deserving of better financial support. There has not been more than twenty spectators at any of the games and the gate receipts are consequently very low. The locals have not won a game yet, but were outlucked on several occasions. However, the locals have plenty of confidence and expect to put over a win.

Mr. Murray and Mr. Bell are unable to go. Mr. Bell was injured in the last game and is probably out for the rest of the season. Mr. Murray is unable to leave the N.C.I., where he is a teacher.

The lineup will be :—

Goal—Stewart; Full Backs, Cavanaugh, Perry; Half Backs, Bentley, Babcock, Walker; Centre, MacGillivray; Forwards, Killorin, Brett, Coutts and Baughan; Spares, Paul and Wade.

VARIETY SHOWER.

On Friday, October 9th, a number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of George Thompson, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowen with the following presents :—

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yates, pair blankets; Mr. Clarence Pennell, aluminum double boiler; Mr. Randal McQuaig, aluminum basin; Mrs. Fred Oke, half dozen sauce dishes; Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thompson, aluminum roasting pan; Miss G. Miracle, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, glass butter dish; Mrs. Dave Sweet, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lewis, pair towels; Mr. Fred Grange, $1.00; Earl and Annie Yates, cream and sugar set; Miss Cassie Sweet, fancy pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Matthews, fancy bowl; Mr. Christie Thompson, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hawley, china teapot; Beatrice and Evelyn Yates, glass butter dish; Mr. Sanford Thompson, $1.00; Mr. J. Wood, $1.00; Mr. and Mrs. Abe Connors, fancy bowl; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Carter, $1.50; Mr. Milton Thompson, 2 china cups and saucers; Wilfred Carter, salt and pepper shakers; Mr. and Mrs. Will Bowen, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knight, aluminum roasting pan; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson, half dozen china cups and saucers and pair blankets; Mr. Frank Carter, milk pitcher; Mr. George Thompson, teapot and kettle; Jessie and Clifford Thompson, lemon squeezer; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Thompson, glass butter dish; Mitchell Carter, salt and pepper shakers; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thompson, half dozen china cups and saucers; Mr. and Mrs. James Jaynes, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowen, centre piece; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bowen, $1.00.

Dancing and cards were indulged in until the wee small hours, when the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bowen a happy life.

GLENORA.

The Sunday School of Mt. Carmel United Church are arranging for their annual Christmas entertainment.—The Women's Institute Hallowe'en Social is being held to-night at the home of Mrs. Leighton Mooney and promises to be a great success.—Mrs. Sylvester Church, of the Glenoral, has returned from visiting with friends in New York State. — Mrs. Ralph Smith has returned to her home in Belleville, after spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dulmage.—Rev. R. J. Hoffman met with an accident in returning from his Sunday evening appointment at Cressy, when a horse man whose lights had burned out, crashed into his buggy. Fortunately Mr. Hoffman had given practically all the road, as the young man, owing to driving with just the sidelights, was unaware of his presence until the collision took place. Mr. Hoffman escaped with a few facial bruises and a slight blow on his right side, but is feeling the effects of nervous shock.

NEWBURGH

A feeling of sadness came over us on Wednesday morning when we learned that our esteemed friend and citizen, Mr. T. I. Winter, had passed away during the night. Mr. Winter had been ill for the past few weeks. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. In his passing, the village loses a worthy citizen. He was a resident of Newburgh for twenty-three years and was interested in all the activities of the village. He was an adherent of the United Church, and was always willing to render assistance in the work of the church when called upon.

The funeral is being held this (Friday) afternoon at 1.30 o'clock in the church.

A large number of members of the United Church, of Newburgh Circuit, attended the County Sunday School Convention at Sillsville on Tuesday.

Mr. Archie Wilson, of Chicago, is in the village, having been called home on account of the serious illness of his mother.

Mrs. William Scott, of Kingston, spent the week-end with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Roscoe Scott.

On Thursday, October 22nd, Mr. John Scott, Toronto, was stricken with heart trouble and died almost instantly. Mr. Scott was born in Newburgh, and is an uncle of Mr. Roscoe Scott, now residing here. Mr. William Scott, of Kingston, is a brother, and motored to Toronto to attend the funeral. The late Mr. Scott has lived in Toronto for the past twenty-two years. He was well known in Newburgh, and many will regret to hear of his passing.

Mrs. Geo. Davy, of Enterprise, visited with friends for a few days during the week.

Mrs. C. E. Weese has closed her home in Newburgh for the present and is residing with her children at Switzerville. Her address will be R.M.D. No. 4, Napanee, for the winter.

Mrs. T. B. Wilson, who was taken so suddenly ill on Wednesday last remains about the same.

NEWS OF TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

For about half a hundred people to come to church at Reidville, a strictly rural community, in such a downpour of rain as we had last Sunday morning, is an indication of some interest in the services of the sanctuary.

The Reidville Church was taxed to its utmost capacity by the crowd that attended the anniversary supper and concert held last Monday night. With a cup of hot tea or coffee, a plate filled with edibles, his neighbor's elbow in his lap, and the waiter in imminent danger of tramping on his toes, the crowd was uniformly good natured. The refreshments did credit to the ladies who provided them in ample abundance.

The programme, given by two auto loads of musical and literary endowed folk, mostly from Grace Church, Napanee, was humorous, entertaining, and wholesome, and was duly appreciated by the crowded house. The receipts at the door were $101.00.

Messrs. Huffman and Haggerty have completed the sheds and horse barn, which, together with the garage, make a group of buildings pleasing in appearance as well as satisfactory in service.

We had hoped to meet the religious needs of the Sand Street neighborhood by some arrangement for permanent service, but after giving them three week-night services, in consultation with the Session, in view of the minister's many other duties, it was thought to be impossible to do anything further at present.

Next communion services for the second quarter will be held at Reidville next Sunday at 11 a.m., and at Marlbank at 2.30 p.m.

WILSON'S CROSSING

Quite a number from here attended the pork and bean supper at Enterprise on Monday evening last, and report a fine time.—We are very sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Charger Weese's sale was a success, but all are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Weese from our midst. We hope they will enjoy their home in Enterprise. — Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bilton and children, of Oshawa, spent last week the guests of Mr. M. H. Switzer. — Mr. Garrett Foster has returned to Fred Wagar's to spend the winter.—Mr. W. H. Dopking visited friends at Switzerville and Morven last week.—Mrs. Fanny French is spending a few days in Napanee. — Mrs. W. Dowling is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. T. McGraw, Erinsville.—Miss Sarah Wilson spent the week end at her home here. — Mr. Oscar Fenwick has gone to spend a few days with friends at Lake Milk.—Mr. and Mrs. R. Potter spent Sunday at Mr. Arthur Brown's. — Mrs. Wm. Loucks called on Mrs. W. Dowling, on Tuesday.

—A quiet wedding took place in Napanee, on Sept. 30th, 1925, at the Parsonage, Rev. W. R. Taylor officiating, when Miss Lulu Crouse was united in marriage to Mr. Amos Wellington Wood, of Arden. The bride, Crouse, brother of the bride, acted as best man, while Mrs. Kathleen Storring acted as bridesmaid. The party then returned to the bride's parent's, Mr. Charlie Crouse, of Tyendinaga. After congratulations a dainty lunch-eon was served to about twenty friends. Mrs. S. Reid, of Napanee, and Mr. T. Smallwood, of Roblin, waited on tables, the dining room being beautifully decorated with white wedding bells dropped in silver. The tables were beautifully decorated with white and red asters and pansies and ferns. After luncheon music and singing were indulged in until after midnight, when all returned to their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wood many years of happiness.

NAPANEE HOSPITAL AID

At the last regular meeting of the Napanee Hospital Aid, which was held in the Historical Hall, Mr. Armstrong, the Hospital Superintendent, was present, and gave an informal talk to the members on the work of the Hospital. There are several new additions to the Hospital, and the old buildings are all being remodelled and when the work is completed, Kingston General Hospital will rank well with any Canadian hospital.

There are several new departments being added, such as a clinic for out patients, four new operating rooms, one of which will be an orthepadic operating room, another X-ray machine and full equipment, which will equal any in Canada. Two floors of the new building will be for patients, making about 310 beds in the whole hospital.

Mr. Armstrong said of course all this would mean a heavy demand for help, and anything that the members and friends of the Napanee Aid could do would be most gratefully received by the Board of Governors. The work done to help the Hospital in the past was by no means forgotten or unappreciated, and the X-ray machine, steriliser, and case of instruments donated by the Napanee Aid had been of great value to the Hospital in its work of endeavoring to heal and save poor, broken, diseased bodies.

Miss Baillie, the Superintendent of Nurses, was also present and said that there was one thing she would like very much, and that was to have all donations of linen sent in by Aids, Institutes or friends, to be as near the same size as possible and asked to have the following list published :

Sheets—36 in. by 72 in., 2 in. hem at top, and 1 in. hem at the bottom.

Pillow Cases—1 yd. long by 20 in. wide.

Towels—18 in. by 34 in. long.

Binders—1 yd. 9 in. long by 18 in. wide.

Binders—1½ yd. long by 18 in. wide.

Dresser Covers—45 in. long by 18 in. wide.

The next regular meeting of the Hospital Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Perry Detlor, Friday, Oct. 30th, at 3.30 p.m. Important business.

"When can I expect to receive the money you owe me ?"

"Always."

Dated this 1st day of October, 1925.

S. S. LAZIER,
41d Master.

JUDICIAL SALE

Pursuant to a Judgment of the Supreme Court of Ontario made in the matter of the Estate of Mary Amarilla Schryver, and bearing date the 25th day of September, 1925, there will be sold by Public Auction with the approbation of the Local Master at Napanee at his Chambers in the Court House, in the Town of Napanee on Friday, the 30th October, instant, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following valuable farm and town property:

Parcel No. 1.—Part of the East half of Lot 18, in the 4th Concession of the Township of Fredericksburgh, in the County of Lennox and Addington, being all that part of said lot lying south of Big Creek, and containing about 75 acres more or less.

Parcel No. 2.—Commencing at a point on the north boundary of said Dundas Street, a distance of 49 feet East from the intersection of the said North boundary of Dundas Street with the Eastern boundary of John Street, thence North at right angles to the said North boundary of Dundas Street, a distance of 58 feet, thence East at right angles to last mentioned course a distance of 21 feet to brick building known as Chambers Block, thence South at right angles to the last mentioned course a distance of 58 feet to Dundas Street, thence West along the North boundary of said Dundas Street a distance of 21 feet to the place of beginning, together with the right of way running from the East side of John Street to a point 58 feet from the corner of John and Dundas Streets 10 feet wide and running easterly 70 feet more or less to Chambers Block in common with the other owners of parts of said Lots 4 and 5 by grants to one John W. Milligan.

Parcel No. 3.—All those parts of said lots 4 and 5 lying North of the above described lands not heretofore conveyed by the said John W. Milligan together with the right of way running North along the Western limit of the lands owned by one Hulda Chambers, which said right of way is particularly described in a deed from John W. Milligan to the said Hulda Chambers, dated May 28th, 1902, and registered in Book 13 for the Town of Napanee as Number 6104. The foregoing two parcels of land are described in a deed from John W. Milligan to Asahel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver, dated the 17th of October, A.D. 1906, and registered in Book 14 for the Town of Napanee as No. 6224.

Parcel No. 4.—All that part of lot 3 on the North side of Dundas Street in the said Town of Napanee, described as follows: Commencing on John Street 68 feet North of Dundas Street at the intersection of the Eastern limit of way with said John Street running between the property hereby conveyed and the property immediately to the South thereof, then along John Street 33 feet more or less, then East parallel to Dundas Street 165 feet more or less, thence South parallel to John Street 33 feet more or less to said right of way, thence West parallel to Dundas Street 45 feet more or less to the place of beginning, said parcel of land being more particularly described in a deed from John W. Milligan to Asahel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver, dated the 1st of June, 1908, and registered in Book 14 for the Town of Napanee as No. 7172.

The last three parcels of land are intended to include all those parts of said lots 4 and 5 belonging to Asahel Bradshaw McCoy Schryver at the time of his death.

Upon Parcel No. 1 are erected a frame dwelling house about 30x32, cottage roof; a frame barn about 30x40 with leanto about 40x28, also a log barn and hen house about 24x24, all in good repair. The land is well fenced and well watered by Big Creek and two wells.

Upon Parcel No. 2 is erected a brick building, two storeys, 21x58, now occupied by the Dominion Stores Limited.

Upon Parcel No. 4 is erected a rough frame building tinned on the outside, about 32x44.

The property will be sold subject to reserve bids fixed by the Master, and Parcels 2, 3 and 4 separately or as a block, at the option of the Master.

Terms of Sale:—10 per cent down and the balance within one month thereafter without interest.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale shall be the standing conditions of sale of the said Court.

Dated the 1st day of October, 1925.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Satan doesn't object to a man's attending church on Sunday if he gets his services the other six days in the week.

A safe and sure medicine for a child troubled with worms is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

Never worry about trifles. The hole that lets the water into your shoe will let it out again.

Many people are almost crippled with corns. But it is needless suffering which can be speedily ended with Holloway's Corn Remover.

Teacher—"Can anyone tell me where Noah lived?"

Pupil—"I don't think he had a regular home. I imagine he and his family belonged to the floating population."

Miller's Worm Powders are complete in themselves. They not only drive worms from the system, but repair the damage that worms cause and so invigorate the constitution that it speedily recovers from the disorders of the digestion that are the result of the work of these parasitic intruders. They dovetheir work thoroughly and strength and soundness follow their use.

Lady (interviewing prospective help)—I may tell you that we are vegetarians.

Girl (anxious to be engaged)—I've attended that church all me life, mum.

Sores Heal Quickly.—Have you a persistent sore that refuses to heal? Then, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the dressing. It will stop sloughing, carry away the proud flesh, draw out the pus and prepare a clean way for the new skin. It is a recognized healer among oils and numbers of people can certify that it healed where properly applied.

Wife—"I heard a noise when you came in last night."

Husband—"Perhaps it was my stick falling."

Wife—"No, it wasn't. It was the day breaking."

No Rest With Asthma. Asthma usually attacks at night, the one time when rest is needed most. Hence the loss of strength, the nervous debility, the loss of flesh and other evils which must be expected unless relief is secured. Fortunately relief is possible. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved its merits through years of service. A trial will surely convince you.

A young Canadian was making a call upon a very pretty young Minneapolis girl whom he had met for the first time.

"Do you have reindeer in Canada?" she asked.

"No, darling," he answered, "at this season it always snows."

An Englishman and an American were standing before the Victoria Falls, when the Englishman said:

"Fine sight, isn't it? I wonder that these falls are far grander than your Niagara Falls?"

"What!" replied the American. "Compare these to our Niagara Falls? Why, man alive, they are a mere perspiration."

It was at the Sunday School, and the teacher was talking to the children about cruelty to animals. "You know, children," she said, "some people are so cruel that they cut off the tails of little puppies, just to make them look smarter. Now, can any little boy or girl tell me a verse in the Bible that should teach these people how cruel they are?" Then little Maudie held up her hand, "Please, teacher, "What God hath joined let no man put asunder."

Joan and John were seated on the sofa.

"What would you do if I turned you down?" Joan asked shyly.

John looked straight ahead, but said nothing.

After a few moments of silence she nudged him with her elbow and asked, "Didn't you hear my question?"

"I beg your pardon," he replied, "I thought you were addressing the gas."

They met for the first time for some months.

"Where have you been, John?" said James. "Haven't been laid up, have you?"

"Yes; I have been laid up for a bit."

"You've not looking fit; hope it's nothing serious?"

"Oh, nothing much—but this is the first time I've been out for three months."

"Really? What was wrong?"

"Nothing, really, only the jury wouldn't believe it!"

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

Pledge to the Public on Used Car Sales

1 All used cars offered to the public shall be honestly represented.

If a car is suitable only for a mechanic who can rebuild it, or for some one who expects only a few months' rough usage on a camping trip, it must be sold on that basis. Each car must be sold for just what it is.

2 All Studebaker automobiles which are sold as CERTIFIED CARS have been properly reconditioned, and carry a 30-day guarantee for replacement of defective parts and free service on adjustments.

This is possible because tremendous reserve millages has been built into every Studebaker, which it is impossible to exhaust in trade.

3 Every used car is conspicuously marked with its price in plain figures, and that price, just as the price of our new cars, is rigidly maintained.

The public can deal in confidence and safety only with the dealer whose policy is "one price only—the same price to all." For, to sell cars on this basis, every one of them must be honestly priced to begin with.

4 Every purchaser of a used car may drive it for five days, and then, if not satisfied for any reason, turn it back and apply the money paid as a credit on the purchase of any other car in stock—new or used.

It is assumed, of course, that the car has not been smashed up by collision or other accident in the meantime.

Not only to the public, but also to The Studebaker Corporation of Canada, Ltd., whose cars we sell, we pledge adherence to the above policy in selling used cars.

SILLS MOTORS

The Studebaker Corporation of Canada, Ltd., takes pride and pleasure in announcing that the above Pledge is being carried out by

SILLS MOTORS

THE Pledge speaks for itself. It is a formal declaration of the fair and square attitude of Studebaker dealers toward the public.

It is an assurance of honest dealing in a line of merchandising which in some times and places has fallen into ill repute.

It is an assertion of confidence in the reserve mileage built into the sturdy "one-profit" Studebaker automobiles.

An important fact about CHEVROLET

What Canadians think about CHEVROLET is reflected in the number of cars they BUY

DURING the past six months CANADIANS have bought over 15,000 New Chevrolets—approximately 100 Canadian-built cars every working day.

Owners everywhere are telling their friends about Chevrolet performance and Chevrolet quality—this is the reason for this phenomenal sales success.

Address and Presentation

Yarker, Oct. 15th, 1925.

Dear Mrs. Boulton,—We, the members of the Yarker Choir, have met here to-night to spend a social evening with you before your departure for your new home in the city across the line. We regret it very much that you have to leave us, for you have proved yourself a very efficient worker ever since you have been old enough to help out in all branches of church work, not only the choir will miss you, but the Ladies' Aid Society as well.

So we could not let you go without showing our appreciation of your kindness and in some tangible way of expressing ourselves, so kindly accept this silver bread tray, and when you eat the bread from it remember your old friends at Yarker.

Signed on behalf of the Choir,

GEORGE WOODHOUSE,
Leader.

In a few well chosen words Mrs. Boulton thanked the people for their kindness and invited them to come and see her if ever they came to Rochester.

Refreshments were then served, and all went home feeling it was an evening well spent.

Children Like Them

Baby's Own Tablets Are Effective and Easy to Give

You do not have to coax and threaten to get the little ones to take Baby's Own Tablets. The ease with which they are given, as compared with liquid medicines, will appeal to every mother. None is spilled or wasted; you know just how big a dose has reached the little stomach. As a remedy for the ills of childhood arising from derangements of the stomach and bowels they are most satisfactory.

Mrs. Rose Voyer, Willimantic, Conn., says: "I used Baby's Own Tablets in the Canadian Northwest and found them a wonderful medicine for children's troubles, especially indigestion and constipation. I have also given them to my children for simple fever and the restlessness accompanying teething and they always gave relief. I can recommend Baby's Own Tablets to all mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DEFIED THE BRAHMANS.

An East Indian Prince Who Did Not Fear Losing Caste.

Mr. Coningsby Dawson, the well known English writer, tells the following anecdote of the East Indian prince Sir Pertab Singh:

A young English lieutenant had died of cholera in his palace. The boy was the son of an English friend. When the body had to be carried out to be placed on a gun carriage Sir Pertab Singh went forward to lift it up. Before he touched it he was stopped by some English officers. They reminded him that, by his religion, were he to touch the dead he would lose all his caste and perhaps, despite his wealth, never be able to buy it back. They advised him to send for the sweepers, who are outcasts. In spite of their protests he picked up the body and carried it down the palace steps to the gun carriage.

A gasp went up at the sight. Every one of his subjects knew what he had done. The next morning, when he rose, 500 Brahman priests were waiting in the courtyard. He came out, a proud figure, to face them. He knew what they had come for—to make him the lowest thing in India, a man without caste. He asked them what was their errand, and they told him. They had come to make him of as little account as the humblest sweeper in his palace.

Sir Pertab Singh laughed. "I believe," he said, "to a higher caste than any of you have ever dreamed of, and you can't take it from me; you're welcome to all the rest. I belong to the same caste as the dead son of my friend—the caste of a soldier."

With that he walked back into his palace, and the Brahman priests went away, one by one, ashamed and puzzled.

Pure Logic.

Liberty commands the highest price of all known things. Its price is so high that nobody can pay it.

Proof. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. Eternal vigilance is to be ever on the job. To be ever on the job is to have no leisure or vacation. To have no leisure or vacation is to be a slave. To be a slave is not to have liberty. Therefore in order to be free we must enslave ourselves, which is absurd. Q. E. D.—Judge.

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets Fine For Thin Underdeveloped Kids

Children Love Them Because They Are Sugar Coated and as Easy to Take as Candy

It's your duty, Mother, to see that the frail, peaked, sickly youngster grows up to be strong in body, keen in mind and robust in health.

Extracted from the livers of the lowly codfish are the health, weight and strength producing vitamines that the found in McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets, which are sold by pharmacists all over North and South America.

Doctors know about them and so does any druggist, and if your children need building up ask for these tablets to-day if you want to give your loved ones a good appetite and put pounds of good healthy flesh on their bones. But be sure and get McCoy's.

They are not expensive—60 tablets —60 cents, and if you are not pleased with the improvement after 30 days—your money back.

A very sickly child, age 9, gained 12 pounds in seven months and is strong and healthy.

One skinny woman gained 9 pounds in 24 days.

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every law-suit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

Reception.

A reception was held on Monday night, Sept. 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hewitt, Kingsford, in honor of the Rev. Mr. Hutton and his bride. Many were present, and after a pleasant evening together with games, etc., an address was read by Mr. Robert Tucker, on behalf of Kingsford congregation, congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, and to welcome Mrs. Hutton into our midst. The address was responded to very appropriately by both Mr. and Mrs. Hutton. We all join in wishing them God's blessings and many years of happiness.

Presentation.

On Friday evening, October 23rd, about twenty-five boys and girls of the Collegiate Institute gathered at the home of Mr. J. T. Empey, to bid farewell to Horace. Shortly after all had arrived, Tom Moffat called the gathering to order, and made a few very appropriate remarks, after which Jim Daly presented Horace with a beautiful pair of yellow and white gold cuff links, as a token of remembrance. Horace made a brief reply, thanking his friends for their kindness. A most delightful evening was spent in games, crowded and dancing. Delicious refreshments were served about 11 o'clock, and all departed for their homes about midnight.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Peter Hart.

Mrs. Peter Hart, a resident of Roblin, passed away at Kingston General Hospital, on Saturday, October 24th, where she had been taken one week ago. On October 4th a little son was born to their home. Everything was favourable at first for a quick recovery, when complications arose, and her condition became serious and she was moved to Kingston General Hospital in Martin's ambulance on October 18th. While there everything that skilful medical attendance and careful nursing could do, was done, but it was of no avail, and she passed peacefully away on Saturday, with perfect submission to the will of God.

The deceased was Florence Pennell, daughter of Peter Pennell, of Roblin, and had spent all of her lifetime in this vicinity, where she was widely known and highly respected. She will be sadly missed by her many friends and especially her husband and nine children, three girls and six boys, the oldest seventeen years, and the youngest the tiny infant of three weeks.

Seldom has the whole community been so saddened by a death as by Mrs. Hart's death, at the early age of 36 years and 10 months. The funeral service was held in the Holiness Movement Church, where Rev. C. J. Wilson preached a very impressive sermon, assisted by Rev. S. H. Jeffrey. The church was crowded with sympathetic friends. Sympathy and sadness was written on everyone's face, as they looked upon the little helpless family left without the kind loving care of their mother. Besides her own family she leaves her father and one brother, Ross Pennell, of Wilton, to mourn her loss. Her remains were conveyed to the Roblin cemetery and interred in the family plot.

Robert Sampson.

Robert Sampson, a well known resident of Tyendinaga, passed away on October 11th, 1925, after an illness of two weeks. He had almost reached the century mark, being born in Derry, Ireland, on Dec. 27th, 1826.

He came to Canada about 65 years ago and settled in Tyendinaga, where he has since lived until his death.

The funeral took place from his late residence, Kingsford. Services were in charge of Rev. N. S. McKechnie, Pastor of Victoria Avenue Baptist Church, Velleville, of which church the late Mr. Sampson had been a member for over 60 years. Mr. Allum, Deseronto, conducted the funeral and the remains were laid at rest in Lonsdale cemetery.

SOCIAL SERVICE COUNCIL RESUMES ACTIVITIES

The Social Service Council of Napanee is an organization which had its inception last year in the need of some united effort to care for the needy in the town. It is made up of members from each of the churches and religious bodies, who meet weekly and prepare clothing for those who are in want. The Victorian Order and the Salvation Army make a careful survey, and largely on their recommendation help is given.

The cold weather is already making the need felt, and on Monday, November 2nd, the Council is called to meet in the Salvation Army barracks, at 2 o'clock. The meeting is open to all, and any one who can spend a little time to help sew, is most welcome. Donations of clothing or money are most acceptable.

INDOOR BASEBALL

The second Indoor Baseball tilt came off in the Armouries on Thursday night, between St. Pats and Trinity Church, and two teams from "B" Company, Frontenac Regiment. The two girl teams played fast and snappy ball, but St. Pats, of course, came out on top, due to being more experienced.

Agnes Cavanaugh twirled in her usual snappy manner and struck out eight, while Irene Emberly held up her end behind the bat nicely, and hit a three-bagger, but was thrown out at the plate, trying to stretch it into a homer.

"Tommy" Johnston, on 1st, covered acres of ground, and hit safely every time up, while Dorothy Richardson and Miss Killorin covered 2nd and "short" like "big leaguers". Katherine Gleeson played her usual sparkling game at 3rd, while Marion Embury, Beatrice Brady and Aileen Murphy in the outfield, covered their positions nicely, and batted well.

Christobel Taylor twirled good ball for Trinity, and except for the first innings, was never in trouble. The Saints got to her in the 1st innings and scored eight runs, but from then on she pitched excellent ball, fanning 12 and allowing 9 runs, one each innings and two in the 8th. Her support wobbled when most needed, and this was the cause of her downfall. For some unknown reason, Trinity persisted in leaving "short" wide wide open, and most of the hits went through here. When it was filled the change was soon noticed. The girls also stood with one foot on the base, instead of playing off a bit. If this fault was corrected, Trinity, no doubt, would have a hard team to beat.

Winifred Drake, Trinity catcher, caught everything in sight, while Mildred Rikely has all the ear-marks of a fine first sacker. Helen Drake and Eleanor Youres played well around 2nd, but the latter played altogether too close to the base. Marjory Huyck played well at third, but also had a tendency to stick to the bag. The outfielders, Marie Paul, Nina McKim and Lenore Black, played good ball, but the first two mentioned showed their lack of experience both at bat and in the field. The final score was, St. Pats 17, Trinity 10.

Second Game.

Two teams from "B" Company then took the floor, for the innings the game was a nip-and-tuck affair, the score standing 6-6 for Capt. Babcock's team. In the 6th Capt. Babcock's team broke loose with their mighty bats. Confusion reigned in the ranks of Sgt. Douglas' boys and when the smoke cleared away and all was peace and quiet the score-board showed. Capt. Babcock 37, Sgt. Douglas 6.

The game went on, and in the last of the ninth Sgt. Douglas told his hearties "to get in there and do their worst". They did and scored 11 runs and had the bases full with one down when a double play picked them clear.

The teams were :—

Capt. Babcock—Pte. Bentley c, Lieut. Murray p., Sgt. C. Fraser 1b, Pte. Reid 2b, Capt. Babcock s.s., Sgt. E. Fraser 3b, Pte. E. Fraser r.f., Pte. D. Wright c.f., L/C. M. Herrington l.f.

Sgt. Douglas—Pte. Stewart c., Sgt. Armstrong p., Pte. MacDonald 1b., Pte. Ballard 2b., Sgt. Douglas, s.s., Pte. Perry 3b., Pte. Black r.f., Pte. Woodruff c.f., Sgt. Robinson l.f.

Umpire—Lieut. Bell.
Base Umpire—Signaller Douglas.

A large crowd witnessed the games and certainly made themselves heard. The balcony was crammed full, while many "world series" fans stood outside and looked in the windows.

Those who saw the games went home happy, while those who had stayed home were sorry. Everyone was all around the house and swearing never to miss another game. The admission fee of 10c. is evidently very popular as evidenced by the large number of spectators, and no doubt if these games were advertised a few days beforehand, the Armouries would be packed.

WILTON MASQUERADE PARTY

On Friday evening, Oct. 30th, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Sloms most graciously opened the doors of their spacious home for the entertainment of the Wilton Branch of the Women's Institute. This party took the form of a Hallowe'en masquerade. Nearly one hundred were there in various costumes, representing most everything imaginable. When the guests arrived and came in, the first motto before them was "Follow the Rope". This led them through a rustic room where ghosts, goblins, black cats and other hideous objects stared at them. Then they were escorted to other rooms of the house to await the judging of the costumes, which took place about 9.30 o'clock. Mrs. Walter C. Spider, Mrs. J. Erwell Miller and Mrs. Archie B. Simmons acting as judges, awarded the prizes, after the entire group paraded through a room before them. The prizes were as follows:—

1st — pair silver egg cups, awarded to Mrs. Ernest Wright, representing a gypsy.

2nd prize, Safety razor, to Mr. Russell Holland, dressed as satan.

3rd prize, envelope pencil, to Mr. Wm. Smith, an Indian.

Last, but not least, the booby prize, to Mr. Donald Frink, who represented and acted well "the tramp".

After this was completed and the guests were given a chance to view the company unmasked, and a contest of pumpkin seeds was played by Mrs. Wright and Barrick, a winner. Then came the doughnut contest, the eating of doughnuts suspended from the ceiling by strings without using the them with the hands. Ray Babcock succeeded in making the disappear first. While the games were in progress, Mrs. Ernest Wright, acting as a gypsy, was telling fortunes mostly to much interested young ladies who were wondering about their future. Music and dancing also played a part.

At 11.30 o'clock, hands of clocks were pointing to nearly midnight, the lunch was served, consisting of delicious sandwiches, cake, pie, tea, coffee and candy. Before refreshments were served Mr. Eldridge Reid was called upon to read the prizes for Mrs. K. N. Storms", which was heartily responded to. Mrs. Storms spoiled nothing for the entertainment and did everything in her power to make it a success. Before she took their leave, the President of the Institute, Mrs. W. C. Snider, gave a few words in behalf of the hostess and all went home very jolly, looking forward for another Hallowe'en.

A good time is assured to all.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell were Sunday guests at Mr. Eli Hannah's, Wesley.

Address and Presentation

On Monday noon, November 2nd, 1925, the boys of Form 3 B. of Napanee Collegiate surprised Horace Emerson Hough, the author of following address by Ernest Gilboard:

Dear Horace,—We, the boys of this Form, your 3rd class, greatly regret your departure from us. You have been a good and faithful member of our class and by us greatly missed by all. We ask you to accept this small gift as a token of remembrance and remain with us for the time done for us.

Before our loss is San Jose's gain. We all heartily wish you a happy and prosperous future and a speedy recovery.

We remain your friends,

W. Carr, J. Carr,
R. Woodruff, H. Gilbard,
T. Barrett, L. Merritt,
H. McCracken.

Ernest Gilbard then presented Horace with a gold mounted Parker Duofold Eversharp Pencil.

Horace made suitable reply, thanking his friends for their beautiful gift and their kind wishes.

BATH PASTORAL CHARGE

Large and appreciative was the congregation that assembled in Mr. Fry, of Stella, last Sabbath afternoon, at Beulah. His sermon was able and helpful and the people were highly pleased. The annual thankoffering was a happy response from the people to a silver appeal to duty. The Choir of the Union excelled themselves, and the solo by Miss Sexsmith was well received. Beulah Choir will sing at Union Anniversary on November 15th.

OBITUARY

John Fennell.

The death of Mr. John Fennell, one of the oldest citizens of Napanee, occurred at his residence in Napanee, on Friday, October 30th, 1925. Mr. Fennell had reached the advanced age of ninety-seven, and until he was well past ninety, he was remarkably vigorous and active. He was born in Sussex County, England, on August 31st, 1828, the younger son of John Fennell and Susan Roberts; his wife, in Canada by his parents, and from that time until his death he lived in Napanee and the vicinity except for a period of two years spent in California and a short time in Australia in the sixties, and a period of seven years spent later in Havelock, Ontario.

Mr. Fennell was married in 1853 to Ann E. Vosburgh, of Sackett's Harbour, who died in 1857, and in 1866 to Alicia McKim, of Camden, who died in 1923. He is survived by four sons and a daughter.

Mr. Fennell was highly respected by all who knew him, a man of integrity and honour. He served for a time as a member of the Town Council. During his long life he saw Napanee grow from a straggling village on the Newburgh Road to its present size, and with his death a link with the past has been broken.

The funeral service was conducted at the house by the Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, and the burial took place in Riverside cemetery on Sunday, November 1st.

Mrs. Edith Thompson.

Mrs. Edith Thompson, formerly a resident of Deseronto, passed away in Rockwood Hospital, Kingston, on Saturday, October 31st, where she had been taken a couple of weeks ago. A quick recovery was thought impossible, as nothing but the most skilful medical attention and nursing could do, was done, but it was of no avail, and she passed away on Saturday. The deceased was Miss Edith Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Arden. She will be sadly missed by her many friends, and especially by her family, one girl and four boys, the oldest 22 and the youngest 10 years. The funeral service was held in the Mount Vale United Church, on Tuesday afternoon, at 1.30 o'clock, where Rev. H. Friar preached the sermon. The remains were laid to rest in the Arden cemetery. Those to mourn her loss besides her own family are her mother and father, two sisters and three brothers.

ODESSA

The Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Marcus Fraser, last Wednesday afternoon. About fifty ladies were present. Mrs. Perry, Sillsville, gave a very interesting and instructive address.

The Ladies' Aid Society held their annual bazaar in the Methodist Church Hall last Tuesday afternoon and evening and was a success financially and otherwise. The tables were well filled with all kinds of handsome fancy goods, and the delicious refreshments reflected great credit to the ladies in charge. "The Little Cold Hopper" was stared in the Town Hall at night, and had a large attendance. The proceeds amounted to over two hundred dollars.

A baby girl arrived last week to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lawlor.

Mrs. McNeil, of Syracuse, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. James McConnell.—Mrs. Dowling, Glenburnie, a sister of Mrs. McConnell, is also her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and two children, of Bancroft, spent the week end the guests of Mrs. Lewis Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Robertson, of Violet, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atkinson.

Miss Morrison was a guest at the Murphy-Clancy wedding on Wolfe Island last Wednesday.

Twenty-four of Queen's football players spent Friday night at W. Bowerman's Hotel, the Dominion.

Bath and Odessa Football teams played here Tuesday afternoon. The honors were held by the Odessa boys.

DESERONTO

The annual Thanksgiving Dinner held in the basement of St. Mark's Church, Deseronto, on October 27th, was a complete success. Five long tables, tastefully laid and containing everything perfect in the way of eatables that could possibly tempt the appetites of the most fastidious people, were waited upon most efficiently by the ladies of the congregation who saw that the wants of the large crowd present were well and promptly looked after. It was common talk on all sides both at and after the dinner that the dinner was a huge success and that all the members of the Ladies' Guild deserved every compliment bestowed upon them for their splendid efforts to make everything so agreeable and pass off so enjoyably.

Following the Dinner an excellent concert was given, and good numbers contributed by Mrs. Dale, Miss Flossie Hall, Mrs. Arthur Morse, Mrs. VanAlstine, Miss Ruth Bowen and little Miss Margaret Field and Miss Lee Bowreon; also Professor Hopper, Mr. Bert Bowen and Mr. Lyman.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered by the Rector of the Parish to all who donated so freely to the dinner, to the Ladies' Guild of St. Mark's, to those who took part on the programme, and to all who helped in any way to make the evening one long to be remembered.

If you should take an Influenza Cold don't wait to see what happens, but begin at once to take Cold Crackers. You will get immediate results. Remember always, that it is easier to kill a cold than to cure it. Go to Knight's Drug Store. 39-12t

GRAND SUPERINTENDENT VISITS MOUNT SINAI CHAPTER

About fifty members of the Mount Sinai Chapter were present at the rooms on Wednesday night to receive the Grand Superintendent of the district, and the large delegation of companions who accompanied him on his official visit.

After the work in the Chapter room, the benefits of J. M. Thomson's energy and experience in preparing a supper were easily dispensed in the supper room of the Lodge. The Superintendent gave a brief account of the origin of capitular Masonry in England, and after the usual formal toasts and addresses, Mr. J. Laughland displayed several reels of motion pictures for the instruction and entertainment of the gathering.

CAMDEN EAST

October went out fine and November came in quite warm.—Mrs. Leishman, of Kingston, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. S. Brown.—A large number attended the funeral of Mrs. T. I. Winter, at Newburgh, on Friday last.—The tar paper on the Newburgh Road to its present size, and with this death a link with the past has been broken.

The funeral service was conducted at the house by the Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, and the burial took place in Riverside cemetery on Sunday, November 1st.

CROYDON.

The members of the Woman's Institute were entertained on Friday evening at a Hallowe'en party at Mr. Sam Hodgins'. A large crowd was in attendance, and all report a good time. The next meeting is at Mrs. W. B. Closs', on Wednesday evening, Nov. 11th.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Closs were in attendance at the Hallowe'en party at Tamworth, on Saturday evening, and Mrs. S. Closs acted as one of the judges.—Mr. Dan McGregor lost a valuable horse, with paralysis.—A number of the farmers are having picking bees, getting their fowl ready to ship to market for Thanksgiving.—Miss Amey spent over Sunday with her parents in Moscow.—Mr. and Mrs. B. Closs and Mrs. Agnes and Cecil Wright were Monday guests with their sister, Mrs. Joe Murphy, Strathcona.—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Teskey had tea with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kring, on Sunday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. Ross McGregor spent Friday in Napanee.—Messrs. Geo. Black and Basford Closs made a business trip to Tamworth on Monday.—Mr. Perry Armstrong and Miss Helen Doupe spent Sunday at Mr. Fred Armstrong's, Forest Mills.—Messrs. Fred and Willis Galbraith are spending some time under the parental roof.

LOSSES BY FIRE.

Statistics extracted from all available sources prepared by the Fire Record for the United States and Canada for 1924 show the enormous annual waste of Five Hundred and Thirty-five Millions of Dollars and a toll of 15,000 lives and an economical waste because of which can hardly be estimated in loss of raw material not only in the forest fires but also in all other fires and in addition the loss of public morale as the result of fires unpunished. The loss was insured or not. Investigations have been made in the cases of many fires investigated the fire could have been prevented if reasonable precautions had been taken. If in time some sane and concentrated thought was applied to this alarmingly increasing fire loss and thus the use of more fire proof and approved fire appliances and otherwise we have every means to prevent fires as well as to fight them.

NEWBURGH

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Paul, of Switzerville, have returned from a three months' trip to Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

Miss Hannah Paul is in Hamilton this week, attending the Provincial Sunday School Convention, representing Newburgh Sunday School of the United Church.

Miss Thompson, of New York, who has spent the summer with Miss M. Cameron, returned home this week. Miss Cameron accompanied her as far as Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bell, of Enterprise, were with Mrs. M. Kellar on Sunday.

Miss Verna Kellar is quite seriously ill at time of writing.

A large number from Napanee and Richmond attended the funeral of the late T. I. Winter on Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Naylor, of Lindsay, were also in attendance at the funeral.

The villagers were glad to welcome Rev. E. B. and Mrs. Cooke, of Newcastle, last week.

Mr. Woodhouse, of the Standard Bank, is away for a couple of weeks relieving for the manager at Lakefield.

On Monday morning there passed away one of the best and best known women in the community in the person of Mrs. T. B. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson has lived in this locality all her married life. She was a woman of rare capabilities, quiet and unassuming in her manner, but ever ready to render assistance to those in need. There is scarcely a home for miles around that has not partoken of her kindness. She was possessed of an innate sympathy for the sick, and rich and poor alike were partakers of her help. A good woman has fallen. It may well be said of her, "She hath done what she could." The funeral was held on Thursday in the United Church.

Messrs. Arch Wilson, of Chicago; Joseph, of Sault Ste. Marie, and Clarence, of Winnipeg, are in the village in attendance at their mother's funeral.

Mrs. Andrews, of Toronto, and Mrs. Brown, of Owen Sound, daughters of the late M. Limbert, at one time pastor of Selby and Newburgh circuits, were in attendance at the funeral of Mr. Winter. Mrs. Andrews is remaining for the week with Mrs. Winter.

Rev. and Mrs. Anderson and others attended the fowl supper at Selby on Monday evening and report a good time.

The postponed concert by the choir will take place next Tuesday evening, Nov. 10th, and promises to be first-class in every way.

The Young Peoples' Society will meet on Monday evening. This will be the beginning of the contest. These meetings are well attended and good programmes are provided each Monday evening.

The W. M. S. of the Free Methodist Church are holding their monthly missionary meeting this (Friday) evening.

AWARDED DAMAGES

A case which is of interest to a host of Napaneeans was tried at Cobourg on Monday, when before Justice Rose, an action was heard between Hamel Benn vs. The Canadian National Railways and Mr. Joseph Anglin for damages.

A year ago last May Mr. Benn was painfully injured when the car in which he was an occupant, and Mr. Anglin, the driver, collided with an engine of the Canadian National Railways.

Mr. Benn was awarded $417.00 by the jury.

Mr. W. D. M. Shorey, of Toronto, was the lawyer for Mr. Benn, while Mr. J. M. Farrell, K.C., of Kingston, looked after the interests of Mr. Anglin.

THE SANTA CLAUS FUND

Several comments have been heard on the early start we made with The Beaver Santa Claus Fund. But after all seven or eight weeks soon passes, especially when we have only one edition a week. Let us bring along your contribution. We especially invite the children to bring their small contributions. SUPPER IN TRINITY FOR OFFICIAL BOARD

The Official Boards, Session and Managers of the three United Churches met with Elders and Managers from the nearby churches met in Trinity on Tuesday evening for the purpose of discussing the plans for one financial campaign of the fall. Several hundred leaders in the church work of the County were present.

Supper was served by the young ladies, and at 6.30 Rev. A. J. Wilson, Chairman of the Napanee District, gave the grace to order, and led in the singing of the Doxology.

After the supper Rev. Mr. Forlee, of Honan, China, gave an address on the work in that foreign field, showing how the Church at home needed the money and workers. He gained attention to the fact that conditions were not the same in that country as in practically every one of the eleven great missionary enterprises of the Church.

Dr. Solandt, the business manager of the General Presbyterian Purse Fund, then addressed the gathering. In an interesting and effective way he showed how we have indeed the home land was for funds and men, that the obligation of the Church at home is great. He dwelt in much detail in explaining why the allocation had been made to Canada for all purposes the sum of eight million dollars, and that the Bay of Quinte Conference has been asked for $560,000, and Belleville Presbytery $60,000. He also explained how it is intended to raise the money, and how to secure it we will hold an Every Canada during the month of November, public meetings will be held in every church.

Much earnestness was shown by the people in the addresses, and all expressed the belief that the country at large and Addington would reach its objective.

AUTO WITH FOUR STRUCK BY TRAIN

Occupants, One of Them 80 Year-Old, Escape With Shaking Up

An automobile carrying four people, crashed into the C.N.R. eastbound express at Cardinal crossing early Tuesday afternoon. John McFarlane, of Selby, was taking his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jones, to the General Hospital at Kingston, and their car was occupied by a Mr. Bacon and another lady. The side curtains were on the car, and neither the driver nor any of the others in the auto noticed the train until they were almost on the crossing. The driver attempted to slow up, but the front part of the car struck the locomotive, which twisted the auto around and threw it to the side of the road.

None of the passengers were thrown out, nor did they sustain any injuries other than a severe shaking up. The express was brought to a stop and the victims of the accident were taken on board and taken to Kingston, where Mrs. McFarlane entered the hospital, as it was first intended. The auto was wrecked.

TOWN COUNCIL

The regular meeting of the Council was held in the Council Chamber, on Monday night.

The members present were Reeve Graham, Councillors Dunbar, Howitt, Jewell, Roy. Mayor Ming presided.

The matter of advertising the Poultry Fair throughout the County was, on motion, left to a committee to confer with the Secretary of the Board of Commerce.

Coun. Jewell, Chairman of Town Property, reported that improvements were under way at the disposal works. As a starter he was getting a new elevator built in the sludge well.

On motion the Town Property and Fire, Water and Light Committees were instructed to bring in a report on the cost of making alterations to the Napanee Band quarters for the resident fireman.

It was decided to dispose of the old fire engine as scrap metal, and the Fire, Water and Light Committee was given power to sell it to the highest bidder.

A By-law was passed under the new Highway Traffic Act, regulating traffic on the streets within the Corporation of the Town of Napanee, Sec. 22 is of particular interest to motorists. It provided that the driver of every vehicle, (either motor or horse drawn) entering or crossing Dundas street between the east side of East street and the west side of West street, shall bring the said vehicle to a full stop. Signs shall be erected at each intersection, and any person violating this provision of the by-law shall be subject to a fine of $10.00 for a first offence and $25.00 for each subsequent offence.

A By-law was also passed to provide for the borrowing of $3600.00 upon debentures for fire apparatus for the town.

FEEDING PULLETS FOR WINTER EGG PRODUCTION

(Experimental Farms Note.)

For winter feeding of the laying pullets at the Experimental Station, Lennoxville, Que., 1 part wheat, 1 part corn, and ½ part oats is used as a scratch grain. The corn should be cracked before mixing with the wheat and oats, otherwise the birds will eat a relatively larger quantity of corn because of the difference in the size of the kernels. This scratch grain is scattered morning and afternoon in litter about 6 or 8 inches deep, so that the birds will have to work for the grain in order to get it. This is merely a compulsory form of exercise, without which a satisfactory production of eggs cannot be expected. A dry meal mixture consisting of equal parts, bran, middlings, cornmeal and oatmeal, with 12 or 15 per cent of beefmeal, is kept in an open hopper where the birds may help themselves. Grit and oyster shells are also kept in open hoppers. At noon it is desirable to feed some form of green feed, such as mangels, cabbage, sprouted oats, or clover hay. Green feed must be provided to take the place of the grassies which the birds pick for themselves while on range during the summer. Mangels are greatly relished, and clover leaves, if they can be obtained, are excellent. Give the pullets sour milk to drink whenever possible, if milk cannot be secured, it will pay to get a small quantity of green cut bone, or cooked refuse meat.

Feed the pullets regularly, if fed irregularly they are restless and discontented, and will not give the desired results. Knowledge of the time and quantity to feed, must be acquired by the attendant, as the needs of the birds must govern the amount of food given to them.

To sum up, then, the following points should be borne in mind.

1st. Well matured pullets of a bred-to-lay strain.

2nd. A ration containing the different elements necessary for the maintenance of body and the production of eggs.

3rd. The ration fed in such a manner as to promote exercise and activity among the birds.

4th. Good judgment and regularity in feeding.

A LADY AND A BABY

And Uncle Sam's Polite Consul In a City In France.

HOW THEY MET AND PARTED.

And How Light Was Thrown on the Problem That the Woman, Who Was French and Voluble, and the Infant, Who Was American, Presented.

Not very long after having taken charge of one of the consulates in France I was one morning seated at my desk busily engaged in figuring over my quarterly accounts, when suddenly a woman carrying a bundle in her arms appeared before me. I had not resided in France sufficiently long to imbibe the unadulterated French politeness, but I had progressed sufficiently to ask:

"Madame, what can I have the pleasure of doing for you this morning?"

"Monsieur," she exclaimed, walking toward me, holding out the bundle as if to deposit it on my desk, "this is an American baby. What shall I do with it?"

Abashed at the prospect of so suddenly becoming a father with the orange blossoms and rice omitted and knowing that the American government had established no precedent of maintaining orphan asylums either at home or abroad, I hesitated a moment and replied:

"Will the madame please be seated over there by the door and tell me why, being a Frenchwoman, she has become possessed of an American baby?"

It never occurred to me to examine the little bundle of humanity. I had in previous times rather prided myself on my ability to distinguish the nationality of people, had even boasted I could tell them by their shoes, but I had never tried my perceptive powers on infant physiognomies.

"Voila?" she said, seating herself.

I shall never forget that word voila. It was one of the first French words I ever learned. You know it means—oh, so many things when used exclamatorily, as it generally is. Usually, however, to the beginner in the French language it conveys the meaning of "Here it is." That was about as far as I had progressed in my French education at that time in regard to the many varied meanings of voila, and I determined that if it meant the baby then it would retain its geographical location indefinitely—that is, in the woman's lap over by the door, or preferably outside. But her voila referred not so much to the infant as to the story of how it came to be in her possession.

She talked volubly while I tried to assume the defensive power of silence. But to a Frenchwoman silence simply means what the jockey gives the horse in the last heat—encouragement.

From the verbal French cyclone she buried at me I gathered a few fragments that enabled me to understand.

For three months she had been employed as nurse by an American woman who had paid her good wages. Four weeks previously, however, the mother had returned to New York, saying she was going over for only two or three days on an urgent business matter and would return at once. She had not seen or heard of her since. Being a woman who had to work for her own living, the baby was a burden on her hands. She could hardly support herself, much less provide for the infant, and as the child was of American parentage she thought the representative of the American government ought to take care of it.

I suggested that I would write to the city authorities in New York asking as to the genuiness of the address that the woman said the mother had left with her.

"And what shall I do during all the time you are waiting for an answer—starve?"

My answer finally was a twenty franc gold piece, with which she departed, saying she would try to take care of the baby until I could hear from the New York authorities.

Now, the reasonable and the unreasonable part of the story is that since her departure, though the sun has risen hundreds of times, she has never returned. It had not risen more than seven times, however, before I learned the reason.

It was just one week later at an informal dinner of the sixteen consuls who resided in the city that in the course of a conversation with my fifteen colleagues I told him the story of the woman and the baby. What do you suppose he answered?

"Well, well," he laughed, "why, that same woman came to my office, only she had an Italian baby. And I thought I was fortunate to get rid of her for 50 francs."

In the general conversation that followed I discovered that the woman had visited every one of the sixteen consulates in the city, and by her ability to change the baby's nationality from English to German and from Haitian to Japanese and all the other colors of the rainbow she had succeeded from the consular corps of that particular French city the sum of 775 francs.

This incident is just one of a series of similar experiences with frauds and fakers a consul has to face in the performance of his duties.—Thornwell Haynes in New York Tribune.

WHY RHEUMATISM OFTEN COMES BACK

The Usual Treatment Does Not Reach the Root of the Trouble.

Most treatments for rheumatism do no more than aim to keep down the poison in the blood and enable nature to overcome that particular attack. Then when the system becomes run-down from any cause the disease again gets the upper hand and it all has to be done over.

Sufferers from rheumatism who have found their condition unrelieved or actually growing worse while using other remedies, would do well to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The tonic treatment with this medicine has proved in thousands of cases that it builds up the blood to a point that enables it to cast out the rheumatic poisons through the regular channels, the bowels, kidneys and the skin. When this is done rheumatism is banished, and as long as the blood is kept pure and rich the patient will be immune from attack. This is fully proved by the case of Mr. Samuel Zinck, Upper Blandford, N.S., who says:—"For a long time I was a great sufferer from rheumatism which settled in my hip and down my leg to the knee. At times the pain was so great that I could not walk. I tried liniments and medicines but without getting more than mere temporary relief. Then one day a friend called who said that he had been afflicted with this trouble which was banished by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and urged me to try them. I did as advised and after using a few boxes there was no doubt they were helping me. Not only was the rheumatism disappearing, but my general health was improving. I continued the pills until I had taken about a dozen boxes when every trace of the trouble had disappeared, and I have not felt a twinge of it since. I may add that my wife used these pills for a run-down condition with equally good results."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

In Crathie Parish Church, where the King and Queen have worshipped, the services might fittingly be described as "brief, bright, and brotherly." Very rarely do they last more than an hour, and the sermon is generally restricted to fifteen or twenty minutes—occasionally less. It is said that the late King Edward was partly responsible for the abbreviated service. On one occasion the eminent dignitary of the Church who was to conduct the service was dining at Balmoral Castle on Saturday evening. "And what would your Majesty like me to preach about tomorrow?" said the reverend preacher. With a twinkle in his eye, King Edward retorted promptly, "Oh, about twenty minutes." The reply was not quite what the pastor expected, but it served its purpose!

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Help for Mothers

Napanee, Ont.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before the birth of my baby and I can say it helped me wonderfully. You can see how much I gained, praise it too much for what it has done for me. I am a friend of medicine, but the Vegetable Compound is the only one that helped me for any length of time. I recommend it to any one with troubles of any kind, and you may use my letter for a testimonial."—Mrs. Robert McCulley, 56 Colborne St.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after child-birth the mother should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to assist in nursing.

Many, many letters are received giving the most convincing evidence of results in this letter. Not only is the mother benefited, but these good results are passed on to the child.

Harmful drugs are used in the manufacture of this medicine—just roots and herbs—and it can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

Nine out of every 100 women reported benefits from its use in a recent canvass among women users of this medicine. C

LENNOX AND ADDINGTON TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

To take the place of the regular Convention this year, the teachers of Lennox and Addington, in company with the teachers of Frontenac, visited the City of Ottawa.

About seventy-five teachers from our County, taking advantage of the privilege offered, left by special C. N. R. train Thursday morning, arriving at capital at 12.30. A special meeting of the Executive Committee of Lennox and Addington was held in the afternoon, at which meeting Inspector Codell presided. Minutes of last session were adopted. Communications were read requesting the every teacher of the County a member of the O. E. A. A motion was made by Principal Tremouth and carried.

That the usual grant of five dollars be sent to the O. E. A., To-ronto, and that the members from our County join the O. E. A.

That teachers paying fifty cents with their fee of fifty cents to the Teachers' Association of Lennox and Addington, receive the Provincial Fee rates are the same as last year.

That all bills and expenses of the Association for 1925 be paid by the Secretary, and that a circular be sent to the Boards of Trustees in the District, requesting payment of the Inspector Codell and the Secretary entitled to any business connected with the Association.

FOR SATURDAY

Special Thanksgiving Values In All Departments

AT ROBINSON'S

STORE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9th

Robinson's "November Carnival of Bargains" in Women's and Misses' Apparel has much to offer you. At this season of the year wholesalers and manufacturers are clearing up stocks of Winter merchandise. Being alert to markets at the right time enabled us to procure some truly startling values that cannot be duplicated again this year. Some lines are now on display in our Women's and Misses' Wearing Apparel Department. We invite you to choose your requirements now.

Regular $47.50 Flare Styled Coats for $29.75

This value is exceptionally outstanding as it represents a Coat value heretofore not obtainable anywhere in Canada. We were the first, absolutely the first, to secure Coats at this price from this manufacturer. The lot includes five different variations of the new flared Silhouette. Each Coat is luxuriously trimmed on collar and cuffs with Wolf Mandel of superior quality. The fabric employed is beautiful heavy grade of English Duvetyn. Each Coat is lined with Silk Fugi, and is interlined as well. Featured in shades of Violet, Purple, Bokhara, Green, Filbert and Saddle. This is rare value. Choose early.

Regular $24.50 Flare Styled Coats for $18.95

This group of Coats impressively depicts the prevailing mode in moderately priced Coats. Each style exploits a stunning version of the flared Silhouette. Mandel Fur, becomingly tipped, trims the collars, the cuffs, and the flare at bottom. Heavy quality, durable Velour has been used in the making of these garments. Each is finished with lining and interlining. Coats here are especially made for misses and smaller matrons. Shades of Saddle, Green, Paney and Bokhara. These will go quickly. Our quantity is limited.

A Clearance Price on Plain Flannel, $1.25 Per Yard. 54 In. Wide

We have just seven shades left in the range. Firm in weight, 54 inches wide, and Pure Wool. A very desirable cloth for good service. The colors are Paddy Green, Fawn, Navy, Jade, Powder Blue, Brown, Grey. Flannels at the present time are at the peak of popularity. You will do well to plan for any amount you may require.

25 Model Hats in Velvet to be Cleared at Half Price on Saturday

We have had a particularly successful season in our Millinery Department, right from the start. Now we are desirous of clearing out the few remaining hats. Hence Saturday we will place on sale a limited quantity of well made, cleverly styled, silk velvet hats at half of their former regular prices. These are the same good values that we have been offering all along.

Styles come in medium and small sizes. All are exclusively styled and trimmed. Obtainable, too, in a good range of winter colorings.

Hats at reduced prices from $2.25 up.

THE OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE THIS 54 INCH ALL WOOL FLANNEL AT A SPECIAL PRICE WAS TOO GOOD TO PASS BY

Kasha Flannel, Made From Fine Botany Yarn 54 In. Wide. Reg. $1.95, for $1.50 Per Yard

Kasha Flannel is a splendid reproduction of the popular Kasha Cloth. Made from soft yarns, having a very fine nap, it is a cloth of rare value. We were very fortunate in making this purchase, and as a result our customers are getting a worthy cloth. There are seven shades in the assortment, Scarlet, Royal Blue, Rose, Grey, Nigger, Cocoa, Ashes of Roses. No cloth has wider field of service this season than Flannel. Its uses are limited.

Sale of Men's Overcoats

Just on the verge of the cold weather season we are in a position to dispose of 50 Men's and Young Men's Overcoats at less than manufacturer's prices, the result of a clever purchase by our clothing buyer from a reliable manufacturer.

The materials are of All Wool Imported Coatings. Colors, Grey, Green, Fawn, Brown and Lovat mixtures. Models with half belt, all-round three-piece detachable belt; plain backs. All have convertible collars. Good, warm, roomy Coats. Sizes 34 to 44.

LOCAL BIRDS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

RATE 19th IN CLASS OF 103

Mrs. Mary MacMorine for the last year has had a pen of Lion White Leghorns in the Egg Laying Contest at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa. There were thirty pens in the contest from every province in the Dominion, one pen from England, two from California, and several others from American states.

Of these eighty pens Mrs. MacMorine took the nineteenth place, her ten hens laying in the twelve months 1894 2 oz. eggs, the average per hen being 189.4, while the average over the whole lot was only 167.6.

As a result of the contest the Government registers from the 800 hens 103, and four of these are from Mrs. MacMorine's entries.

Mrs. A. Caton entertained a few friends at Bridge on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ort Robertson, Sillsville, and Miss Ida Asselstine, Napanee, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robertson, Pleasant Valley.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Gunner Charles Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Norris, Napanee, who died in Branshott Camp, England, on Nov. 9th, 1918.

Duty called him, he was there
To do his best, to do his share;
His heart was good, his spirit brave,
His resting place a soldier's grave.

A soldier's grave is a touching thing
Where loving hand no flower can bring,
But God, in His great loving care,
Will guard our boy and keep him there.
—Mother, Father,
45ap Sisters and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of our dear son and brother, Elmer A. Bradshaw, who departed this life on Nov. 11th, 1923.

Gone from us but loving memories
Death can never take away,
Memories that will always linger
While upon this earth we stay.

One by one earth's ties are broken,
One by one they are linked above,
Some day there'll be a sweet reunion
Once again with those we love.

Always remembered by his sorrowing Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

BASKETBALL

The final game of Basketball in the Bay of Quinte League for 1925 was played on Friday evening last, in the Napanee Armouries, between Junior and Senior teams of Belleville High School and Napanee Collegiate Institute. The Junior game was called first, and although Napanee forwards were short, yet by clever jumping they were able to score, making the first score 4-4. The second and third periods were easily won by Napanee girls who scored 17 points to Belleville's two, resulting in a win for Napanee with a score of 21 to 6.

The Senior girls put up a good fight against Belleville, but Belleville had excellent combination and had two splendid forwards on their team. The game resulted in a score of 32 to 23 in Belleville's favour. Miss Merry of Belleville and Miss McLaughlin, of Napanee, refereed the game.

After the game the Napanee girls served light refreshments to the visiting team.

The result of the Senior game gives the cup presented to the League by Belleville, to its home team. The Junior championship was decided in Picton, when Picton and Trenton played.

FAREWELL AND PRESENTATION

A very delightful Hallowe'en Party was held under the auspices of the A. O. T. S. Class of Grace Sunday School. The costuming was splendidly done. The guests of honor were J. T. Empey, Mrs. Empey, and Horace. During the evening a fine club bag and brush were presented. These will be of service in the long journey to California. Short speeches, expressive of good-will, were also made by the Pastor, the Superintendent of the Sunday School, and warmest appreciation of the hospitality of Mr. G. W. and Mrs. Gibbard was shown. The following address accompanied the presentation :—

To Mr. and Mrs. Empey.

Dear Friends,—We feel we cannot let you leave our midst without expressing to you the pleasures we have had in our associations with you and our best wishes for your future.

While we regret your going, and we shall always long for your presence and help, we wish you God's blessings in health and friends, and every happiness with you in the acquiring of both.

We shall always feel that the A. O. T. S. Class is your class and that you are still our comrades.

Please accept this club bag as a token of our love and warmest wishes from your classmates and friends bear to-ward you, and may the Lord watch between you and us while we are absent one from the other.

MOSCOW

The remains of the late Mr Levi Huffman were brought here for burial on Saturday. General regret was felt at his passing away, being well known and highly respected in this community.—A number attended the anniversary services at Colebrook on Sunday, also the tea meeting on Monday evening.—The Hallowe'en party at Mrs. G. Lampkin's on Friday evening was enjoyed by old and young. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion. The costumes being all so original, pretty and well devised, it was difficult for the judges to decide, but the Indian women, Miss Canada, one of the military men, milk maid, gentleman, and Uncle Sam were asked to draw for prizes, which was quite satisfactory. Uncle Sam made a capable auctioneer for the gentlemen to choose their partners for parade, for which Mrs. Amey, the President, played the march, accompanied by Major Amey on the violin. Mr. C. Darling and Mrs. Allen played duets throughout the evening on guitar and violin; Mrs. Shangraw a vocal solo; Rev. Mr. McKenzie gave an appropriate address; Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Echardt piano and violin duet. The fortune teller was kept busy, and refreshments were served. Altogether it was quite a success. — Anniversary services will be held in the church on Sunday, and on Monday evening the tea meeting with a good programme. — Mr. and Mrs. A. Cousins and son, Ross, of Enterprise, attended the party at Mrs. Lampkin's. — Mr. and Mrs. Lampkin, of Napanee, visited their uncle and aunt for a few days, and remained for the Hallowe'en party.—Miss Echardt and friend, of Deseronto, attended the party on Hallowe'en.

NEWS OF TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The communion services for the second quarter of the conference year held last Sunday at Reidville and Marlbank were both well attended, the number taking communion at Marlbank being the largest for many years.

The church was well filled at the evening service at Tamworth last Sunday. The duplex envelopes which have recently been introduced by the Board of Stewards, are being quite generally used.

The hearts of the inmates of the parsonage were gladdened by a week-end visit from their son, Paul, who is attending the Collegiate at Napanee.

The minister conducted the funeral service of Mrs. S. Dyer, of the Marlbank congregation, last Saturday afternoon. She died while on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Welburn. The service was held in the United Church in Marlbank and interment was made in the Kimmett cemetery. Mrs. Dyer was in her eighty-second year. The congregation extends their sympathy to the aged husband and the other relatives of the deceased.

The minister is having separate meetings with the officials of the three congregations this week to discuss and take action re the $4,000,000 maintenance and extension fund of the United Church. Our allocation for Tamworth is $450.00, for Reidville and Marlbank each $180.00, making a total for the pastoral charge of $810.00. The merits of the enterprise will be presented the next three Sundays from the pulpit, and it is proposed to make an every-person canvass between the 22nd and 29th of this month.

MORVEN

The members of the Morven hunting party are having an Old Boys' Reunion at their former camp in the north woods, to spend a jolly two weeks hunting deer. Members going from here are Messrs. Andrew Miller, George Fralick and Will Henwood. Rev. J. N. Lovelace, of Rosseneath, has joined the party and is spending his holidays with them.—Mr. and Mrs. John R. Purdy visited her father, Mr. William Finnigan, Pittsburgh County, recently.—Mr. C. L. Sharp spent the week-end in Toronto. —Mrs. D. R. Hicks has been in the Kingston Hospital for treatment.—Charles Gausden spent Sunday with friends in Kingston. — Mrs. J. N. Lovelace and children, of Rosseneath, are visiting at Mr. Henwood's.—We are pleased to report that Mrs. Roy Garrison and Mrs. Joe. Robson are improving. — Mr. and Mrs. C. C. SELBY

It is some time since any news of Selby has appeared in the Napanee Beaver. But Selby is still very much alive. The bad weather of the last few weeks has retarded the fall work to a certain degree, but everything is off to a good start again.—The 50th Anniversary in the United Church on Sunday last was a decided success. Each service on Sunday was well attended, the church being filled to overflow both morning and evening to hear a former and much beloved Pastor, Rev. E. A. Cooke, of Newcastle, who preached two wonderful sermons. He used as his text for the morning a few well chosen verses from Hebrews, and for the evening the 13th verse of the 35th chapter of Isiash. Each sermon was in itself a master-piece, and will live long in the hearts and minds of those who were privileged to hear them. Mrs. Cooke sang two very appropriate solos, both morning and evening, in perfect voice, which held the vast congregation spellbound. The fowl supper on the following night, Nov. 2nd, was a record breaker in this county: Fully seven hundred people were present in the church parlors, where a sumptuous supper was served, and still lots left. The vast audience could not be entertained in the auditorium of the church, so a double programme was run, the upstairs and downstairs and down. Each artist was ah their best and each number was greatly encored. In the absence of Mr. Batstone, who had car trouble on his way from Newcastle, Mr. Cooke took the chair. We are very, very sorry that Rev. Mr. Batstone was unable to be present. The proceeds for the evening amounted to over $350.00.—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hudgins are receiving congratulations on a young son has come to stay. Congratulations.—We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Arthur McKnight is seriously ill. We hope that a speedy recovery will be hers.—A large number of people here attended the funeral of the late T. I. Winters, on Friday last. The deepest sympathy of this community goes out to his widow and family.

FACTS ABOUT MEAT

INTERESTING TO THOSE WHO RAISE AND THOSE WHO EAT.

Why Meat Is Tough — Sources of Meat — Nutritive Value — Inspection — Late Blight of Potato.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

The annual per capita consumption of meat has almost doubled during the past fifty years. Refrigeration, canning and increased facilities for transportation have been important factors in the development. In the United States and England as late as 1765 the slaughter of cattle for the supply of the public markets was unknown. Meat was used of course, but only to a limited extent as the animal industry was in its infancy.

Why Is Meat Tough?

The toughness of meat is due to the thickness of the walls of the muscle tubes and excess of connective tissue, which binds them together. The young animal will, for this reason, usually supply a more tender than that from old animals. Connective tissue, fascia and nerves are tough to chew, and the thinner the animal, fascia and nerves are found to be, and the thinner the animal, the larger proportion of these structures there will be in the meat. Blood vessels, lymphatic vessels and adipose tissue also make up part of the roast, but do not add to its toughness.

Sources of Meat.

In Ontario the principal source of meat is from our farm animals—cattle, sheep, swine, rabbits and poultry. In many places, the flesh of horses, dogs and cats is used. This is particularly true of European and Asiatic countries, where the people are flesh-hungry, and the meats of cattle and sheep are expensive to purchase.

Meat, immediately after slaughter, has an alkaline reaction and has a sweetish unpleasant flavor. It is also quite tough. The addition of fat particles or finer muscle that follows slaughter, is accompanied by a number of changes, all of them tending to improve the meat. The principal of these changes are as follows: the development of characteristic flavor, the softening of the muscle fibers, and connective tissue as a result of partial digestion of the muscle tissue, the development of more pleasant flavors. It is not advisable to eat meat immediately after slaughter, as decomposition, or other proper storage of the meat, is necessary to develop the full delicate quality of meats.

Nutritive Value.

The nutritive value of meat depends upon the presence of proteins and fats. The meat tissue, or nitrogenous extracts have little food value. These extracts have the principal substances in beef extracts. Beef extracts, while of no great nutritive importance, are valued because their ingredients are in a state of solution and therefore easily absorbed by people whose digestion is at fault.

Meat Inspection.

So long as animals are permitted to be slaughtered in any barn or cellar, it is impossible to exercise a proper control over meat as sold by butcher shops in the smaller cities and towns. In the large city abattoirs in Toronto and Montreal, the Government inspectors send to the tank carcasses that are not fit for human food, approximately one per cent. of all slaughtered. No one is inspecting the cut in the country, or small town kill, and apparently everything goes to market. It is unpleasant, to close one's teeth on a castated, tubercular lesion, or on the cystic form of a tape-worm, while eating dinner. But we are doing it, and in our ignorance do not seem to mind. If all meats were Government inspected, the per capita consumption of meat would increase. People must have meat, all like it, and all are interested in the conditions under which it is prepared.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O.A.C., Guelph.

All on the quiet, and under the rose,
Let me tell you, kind sisters and brothers,
There isn't much good in the hearts of those
Who only see bad in others.

MARKETING LIVE STOCK

HOW CONDITIONS HAVE CHANGED IN HALF A CENTURY.

Local Butchers vs. Abattoirs—Spread of Present System — Other Live Stock Agencies—The Butcher and Farmer Still Operating.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

The marketing machinery that has been set up to handle and dispose of the Ontario farmers' largest cash revenue product—live stock—is the result of three comparatively recent economic developments: (a) the growth of relatively large urban centres whose meat supply can no longer be wholly supplied from local sources; (b) the rapid strides made during recent years in improving the year round distribution of fresh and cured meats, and (c) the economies effected by large scale operation of the business of meat killing, curing and storing.

How Conditions Have Changed.

Previous to fifty years ago the population of the province was largely rural. The meat supply of those actually on farms was automatically found, while that of the urban dwellers in the villages and small towns of that day was provided by direct contact between the producer and consumer. In the few larger towns or cities, where there was sufficient demand, the meat supply in addition to the above method, was supplemented by the local butcher, who performed the general functions, in providing fresh meat at retail in all seasons; (b) acting as middleman between producer and consumer when the population of the centre became large for the immediate locally produced supply, or for proper contact for best service between producer and consumer. These local butchers became, so to speak, lenders and drovers. The centres to which they consigned this surplus stock were naturally the larger ones, growing and destined to continue to grow because of natural advantages as distributive centres. Consumption of meat was large. Local, direct producer-to-consumer supply in the centres was limited, therefore the abattoirs and slaughter houses were relatively large.

Abattoirs vs. Local Butchers.

These latter abattoirs had four important operating advantages over the local butcher businesses in the smaller centres: (a) larger volume of business meaning smaller unit operating costs; (b) a more varied clientele from which to sell parts of the animal; (c) a better opportunity to develop uses and markets for inedible by-products; (d) a more efficient method of slaughter, handling, refrigeration, or other proper storage of the meat. All of these tended to add considerably to the cheapness of the product as well as improving the edible quality of meats.

Nutritive Value.

The nutritive value of meat depends upon the presence of proteins and fats. The meat tissue, or nitrogenous extracts have little food value. These extracts have the principal substances in beef extracts. Beef extracts, while of no great nutritive importance, are valued because their ingredients are in a state of solution and therefore easily absorbed by people whose digestion is at fault.

Meat Inspection.

So long as animals are permitted to be slaughtered in any barn or cellar, it is impossible to exercise a proper control over meat as sold by butcher shops in the smaller cities and towns. In the large city abattoirs in Toronto and Montreal, the Government inspectors send to the tank carcasses that are not fit for human food, approximately one per cent. of all slaughtered. No one is inspecting the cut in the country, or small town kill, and apparently everything goes to market. It is unpleasant, to close one's teeth on a castated, tubercular lesion, or on the cystic form of a tape-worm, while eating dinner. But we are doing it, and in our ignorance do not seem to mind. If all meats were Government inspected, the per capita consumption of meat would increase. People must have meat, all like it, and all are interested in the conditions under which it is prepared.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O.A.C., Guelph.

All on the quiet, and under the rose,
Let me tell you, kind sisters and brothers,
There isn't much good in the hearts of those
Who only see bad in others.

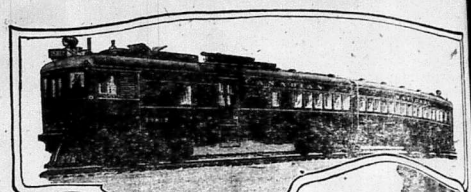
Canadian National Oil Electric Cars.



THE Canadian National Railways have put into service an entirely new type of motive power which may go far towards solving two of the most serious problems steam roads are facing, namely, high fuel costs and the competition of motor bus and lorry on the public highways. The oil electric car is the name given to this new method of locomotion and its creation is due to the mechanical officers of the Canadian Railways who conceived the idea and carried it through. Relatively speaking, the principle behind the power which drives the car, is simple. In one end of the car is located a light fuel oil engine operating on the Diesel principle and this engine drives an electric generator which provides the energy to move the car. The engine is started by a small electric motor operated from storage batteries and these batteries are, in turn, recharged by the generator when it begins to function, so that the cycle of performance is a close approach to perpetual motion.

Two sizes of cars have been built, the large or articulated type and a small type. The top photograph shows the latter consisting of two bodies resting on three four-wheel trucks, the ends of the two bodies being attached to the centre truck in such a way by a safety locking pin that the rear car is able to swivel sufficiently to take the curves. This car has a total length of 102 feet and can accommodate 126 passengers. In the lower left hand corner is a photograph of one end of the fuel oil engines, used on these cars. On the right Major J. H. Balharrie of Ottawa is seen shaking hands with Mr. C. F. Brooks, Chief of Motive Power of the Canadian National Railways, on the completion of the first trial run of the large car from Montreal to Ottawa. Below is a photograph of the small car which has a passenger carrying capacity of 56. Both cars have roomy baggage ends as well.

An idea of the possibilities of these cars is to be had from the performance of the small car during a test run from Toronto to Montreal. The mileage between these points is 334 miles. The fuel consumption of the small car in this trip cost $15.00 and lubricating oil and grease, or a total fuel cost of $16.00. It have operated a steam train of similar passenger carrying capacity over one of the most economical type of locomotive would have entailed a fuel cost of at least $66.00. The saving of close on to produce speed when required as demonstrated on the test run from the large car from Montreal to Ottawa. The trip was made in two hours and five minutes actual running time or at an average rate of 52 miles per hour.

Both cars shown in the photograph are now in service. The large car is a local service on Canadian National lines out of the Tunnel Terminal between Montreal and Ottawa. The small car is in local service between Hamilton and Guelph, Ontario.

For Frost Bites and Chilblains.

Chilblains come from undue exposure to slush and cold and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. In the treatment of either an excellent preparation is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, as it counteracts the inflammation and relieves the pain. The action of the oil is prompt and its application is extremely simple.

"The collection this morning," observed the vicar, "will be devoted on behalf of the arch fund, and not, as erroneously printed in the service papers, on behalf of the arch-fiend."

The use of Miller's Worm Powders insures healthy children so far as the ailments attributable to worms are concerned. A high mortality among children is traceable to worms. These sap the strength of infants so that they are unable to maintain the battle for life and succumb to weakness. This preparation gives promise of health and keeps it.

After 10 Years of Asthma Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy proved the only relief for one grateful user, and this is but one among many. Little wonder that it has now become the one recognized remedy on the market, that has stood its test by its never failing effectiveness. It is earning it to-day, as it has done for years. It is a proved asthma specific within the reach of suffering humanity.

Quick Relief for Rheumatics

Local Druggists Sell Rheuma on Money-Back Plan

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, swollen, twisted joints and suffer intensely because your system is full of uric acid, that dangerous poison that makes thousands helpless and kills thousands years before their time, then you need Rheuma, and need it now.

Start taking it to-day. Rheuma acts at once on kidneys, liver, stomach and blood, and you can sincerely exclaim: "Good riddance to bad rubbish."

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this town, and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when Wallace's Drug Store and other good druggists offered Rheuma to the public on a money-back and guaranteed money refunded if not satisfied. If you have rheumatism get a bottle of Rheuma to-day.

Every Woman Deserves One

The SMP Roaster is a fine time saver. You put the roast or fowl in the oven. The roaster does the rest, bastes, roasts to perfection. It roasts with very little shrinkage, thus saving dollars every year. None of the tasty meat juices are lost; all the rich flavor is retained. Besides, you can buy cheaper cuts, for it makes cheap cuts taste like choice ones.

The close fitting cover keeps all the cooking odors and the grease inside the roaster—the scent of cooking doesn't fill the house, and the oven is kept sweet and clean. Best of all, it cleans out in a jiffy after the roasting. These are splendid vessels. Price $5c, to $4.50 according to size and finish. Sold in all hardware stores.

JAPANESE COURT TRIALS.

The Judges, Not the Lawyers, Question the Witnesses.

The defendant in a Japanese court was testifying in his own behalf. He stood directly in front of the presiding judge, not ten feet distant from him, and answered his questions in a clear voice, without any apparent hesitation. The judge seemed conversant with the case, for he put questions quite rapidly, giving a funny little grunt of acquiescence after every answer. Occasionally one of the counsel would make a suggestion and handed it to the president, and once or twice the defendant's counsel asked the court to put a certain inquiry. The whole proceeding—and the same may be said of those in several other courts I visited—was conducted in a quiet, colloquial way. In every instance I was impressed with the simple, businesslike atmosphere.

Some of the Japanese lawyers with whom I have talked say that they feel that very often the court does not elicit all the facts and that our system of having witnesses questioned by counsel would be better, but, on the other hand, some lawyers maintain that better results are realized by the system, which puts upon the court the duty of getting at the truth, maintaining that the witnesses are more apt to talk frankly to the court than to the lawyer for the opposite side who is engaged, as they think, in trying to make them out liars.

I came away quite favorably impressed with what I saw and wondering whether on the whole in 95 per cent of the cases a decision by three judges trained in the investigation of facts would not be as nearly right as the verdict of twelve citizens casually gathered in from the general community.—George W. Wickersham in Case and Comment.

COAXING THE FURNACE.

Try Gentleness and the Uplift and Kindly, Soothing Words.

Treat your furnace kindly. Let your watchword as a furnace tender be gentleness and uplift. Be firm with your furnace, but always gentle. Some persons imagine that the way to make a furnace behave properly is to first shake it violently and then maul the life out of the remaining coals with the poker. They try frustisement when they should try gentleness and uplift and only succeed in racking the coal harder and destroying ventilation, the secret of successful furnace tending.

Nothing responds more readily to uplift than does a furnace fire. When in the early morning you wish to arouse the furnace fire from its slumbers, you should first shake it gently, then gently tickle the ribs of the grate with the poker to make ventilation more perfect and then crack the top crust with a lever-like uplifting use of the poker. In a minute the fire will be wide awake and in good humor, laughing and sticking out its tongues of flame at you in merriment.

Never swear at your furnace, no matter how it annoys you. That will make it sulky and obstinate. You never saw a furnace which was sworn at often which was not frequently sulky and obstinate. Now, did you? It is advisable to take the directly opposite tack. I know a man who always addresses his furnace as "sweetheart" or "darling," and he assures me the plan works to perfection. "Maybe it doesn't really make the furnace warm up the way it seems to," he frankly admits. "Maybe the mere suggestion just keeps me from losing my head and hammering my fire to pieces. But, anyway, the results are excellent. Savvy?"—Lee Shippey in Judge.

Aisle on the Car In a Wreck.

A veteran railroad man gave a piece of valuable advice not long ago.

"If you ever get into a wreck," he said "and have time to follow out this suggestion, remember this: Always stand in the aisle. Most of the injuries that are suffered occur because the victim is crushed between the seats. If you are in the aisle you may be thrown forward and bruised a little, but there is much less chance of receiving serious hurts. It isn't always possible to get out of your seat before the crash comes, but if it is follow that advice."—Pittsburgh Press.

THE COMPASS POINTS IN DIFFERENT DIRECTIONS

Compass Inventor Unknown.

The invention of the compass is lost in the dawn of history. It is first found mentioned in a quaint Chinese legend which relates that the Emperor Ho-ang-ti in 2634 B.C. led forth his army and attacked the rebel Khiang on the plains of Tchoulou. But Khiang, getting the worst of the conflict, called the wizards, magicians and sorcerers to his aid who raised a great fog to hide Khiang and his army. Then the Emperor, not to be outdone, in his turn used the greater magic of the compass, which led his army through the great fog so that he was able to overcome Khiang and capture him.

Led Way to New World.

The compass appears to have been brought to Europe in the twelfth century, most probably by the Arabians, as it is known that the Arabian and Chinese traders met in the Persian gulf, and on account of its very great practical value as a guide in all weathers, it rapidly came into general use and enabled Christopher Columbus to sail straight west from Spain, by day and by night, through fair and stormy weather, to the discovery of the New World.

Does Not Point North.

But contrary to story book reports, the compass does not point north, but more or less to the east or west at different places. Scientists state that this is because the magnetic poles of the earth are not situated at the geographical poles as shown on our maps of the world; that in fact the north magnetic pole is near Boothia Felix on the Arctic coast of Canada, and the south magnetic pole in South Victoria Land south from New Zealand.

Changes Every Year.

It might be thought that the compass would be satisfied to set it a day's work after pointing in a different direction at each place, but such is not the case for it is all the time changing its direction and never stays put. It marches to the west for many years, then turns back and marches to the east, then reverses again and marches to the west, and in fact changes its mind more oft than any maiden fair, and carries on in a different way in each place. Whether this fickleness is caused by a wandering of the earth's magnetic poles, or by something happening inside the earth, or by the sun or planets, scientists have not yet been able to find out.

Importance of March.

It is very important to know this march of the compass, especially in Eastern Canada, because all the old land surveys in Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island were made by compass, and now-a-days when it is desired to retrace one of the old lost boundary lines it is necessary to know beforehand what the march of the compass has been since the time when the old survey was made.

Surveys Necessary.

In order that the compass may be used with reliance, therefore, the different countries of the world carry out magnetic surveys to measure its direction, and picture the information on magnetic charts for compass users.

First Work in Canada.

Compass information is particularly valuable in such a large new country as Canada, and it is interesting to note that Champlain measured its direction at Halifax about 1604, John Davis in Davis Strait 1585, and Capt. Baffin in Baffin Land 1616, Capt. Middleton at Churchill and York Factory 1725; while Capt. Cook in 1778 and Capt. Vancouver in 1792 measured it along the Pacific Coast. Later Sir John Franklin 1819-26 and Sir John Lefroy 1843-46 made some measurements, but comparatively little was done in Canada before 1880.

Canada's Magnetic Survey.

Since 1880, however, the Topographical Survey Department of the Interior, has carried on a most extensive magnetic survey in this country in conjunction with its other work, at practically no expense, because the compass direction can be measured in a few minutes when the survey parties are already on the ground; until it now possesses more than 20,000 measurements, and regularly publishes magnetic maps which picture all this information for compass users.

Leads Way To-day.

In spite of the fact that the compass has been known for so long, it is to-day more widely employed than ever before; it is the sure-fire pathfinder, the chief by day and the pillar by night to the sailor afloat on the heaving main; the airman above the hiding clouds; the miner far underground in the deepest shaft; and explorers, surveyors, hunters, trappers, prospectors, pioneers and travellers penetrating the trackless forest, the jumbled mountains, the virgin wilderness and the Far North.

Riddles Yet Unsolved.

But the compass still has hidden secrets. Elusive earth currents and stubborn static still act the part of highwaymen and hold up our friends the telegraph and wireless and radio. We know these highway men are in the nature of first cousins to the dancing northern lights and magnetic storms that torture the compass, and black cyclonic sunspots that try to rob us of our light and heat, but all these things are still seen through a glass, darkly, and scientists believe they never probably can be forced to take the stand and lay bare their inmost secrets, until the direction of pointing of the compass has been properly mapped all over the world.

Hallowe'en Party.

About forty members of St. Andrew's Choir and Orchestra met at Mrs. MacGregor's on Hallowe'en for a social evening. The Orchestra was in attendance and entertained the guests for the early part of the evening. One of the most interesting features of the programme was the presentation to Mrs. Dennis of a number of Hallowe'en gifts brought in and presented by two little fairies in the mellow glow of the candle-lighted room. Mrs. Dennis is leaving for the Soo, where she will spend a month with her son, and this little send-off was arranged in her honor by Mr. MacGregor and members of St. Andrew's Choir, of which she is the Organist.

SOCCER FOOTBALL

"B" Company, Napanee, Soccer team are journeying to Kingston on Monday next to play Kingston R.C.A. in a league game. The local boys have now five points to their credit, and as they will be at full strength on Monday, they hope to add to their laurels. The following is the line-up:—

Goal—Stewart.
Backs—Capt. Babcock and Clif. Cowel.
Halves—Lieut. Murray, F. Bentley, and W. Perry.
Forwards — Brett, MacGillivray, Coutz, Killorin and Cavanaugh.
In Reserves — Wade, Baughan, and Paul.

RUGBY

The first Rugby match of the local season took place at the Driving Park on Friday, October 30th, when the N.C.I. defeated the Deseronto H. S., by 6-1. The ball was kicked off at 4 p.m. The play see-sawed up and down the field with the N.C.I. having a slight edge. The plunging and running of both teams were good but no long gains were made. The N.C.I. pressed the play and just before the quarter ended Bill Carr, the ever-alert quarter of the N.C.I., put over a beautiful field goal. This ended the scoring for the first half.

In the 3rd quarter the Carr Bros. each kicked to the dead-line and Cowle pulled down a man for a touch putting the score 6-0. The Deseronto boys then went up the field. An onside kick gave them the ball on the N.C.I. 25 yard line, and Detlor punted for a point. Both teams punted well, but Corkill had the edge on his Deseronto rivals, his punts having far more height and distance. The N.C.I. wings followed up quick on punts and very little gain was made by Deseronto backs. Deseronto has a team of new players, few of whom have played at Rugby before, but have played a good account of themselves. Their wings tackled hard and sure, while the line plungers hit the N.C.I. line like a steam roller. The catching, running and passing of the "backs" was of a high class, and McVicker displayed good judgment at "quarter". The N.C.I. wings had a slight edge on their opponents while the middle, Corkill and Cowle, made many long gains through the line. Ballard and Benjamin played their positions at inside perfectly and pulled many good tackles, while Carr and Wilson, who alternated at quarter, showed rare judgment in calling their plays and made many gains themselves. The Cheekfield's were composed of Carr, Graham, Huffman and Fraser, were also good. Thornley, who replaced Huffman in the 2nd half, pulled a nice run for 40 yards, while the catching of Graham and Carr could not have been improved upon. Deline, a new man, played a wonderful game at snap and few men came through his way.

There was a crowd of about 200 fans present; most of whom were students. For some unknown reason, there was a total lack of enthusiasm on the part of the crowd, and the "N.C.I. yell" wasn't heard once, but this will be remedied before the next game.

The teams were:—

Deseronto—Flying Wing, "Mac" McCullough; Halves, "Mac" Perry, "Sammy" Hall, "Del" Detlor; Quarter, "Jim" McVicker; Insides, "Billie" Campbell, "Pro" Provins; Middles, "Santa" Claus, "Sigh" Bruyea; Outsides, "Chas." Cole, "Chas" McVicker; Snap, "Buzz" Butters, "Lin" McVicker; Sub, "Froggy" Uens.

N.C.I.—Flying Wing, "Speak" Carr; Halves, "Pun" Graham, "High" Huffman, "Leather-bottom" Fraser; Quarter, "Baldy" Wilson; Insides, "Ben" Benjamin, "Ben" Ballard; Middles, "Griffin" Cowle, "Harvey" Corkill; Outsides, "Young" Wright, "Toe-nail" Thornley; Snap, "Smellem-out" Deline; Subs., "Tony" MacDonald, "Blacky" White, "Tandy" Carr, "Shoe-String" Thornley, "Eagle Eye" Cooke, "Red" Wilson, "Milky" Way.

Mr. C. A. Shoemaker and Mr. J. L. Murray handled the game in a very impartial manner, and there were no kicks from anyone.

NEWS OF TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The Official Boards of the three congregations, at meetings held last week, cheerfully decided to undertake to raise their share of the amount of the Maintenance and Extension Fund allocated to the Pastoral Charge by Presbytery.

When the minister last Sunday reported the action of the Boards to the congregations there seemed to be a general feeling of approval.

The literature re the Maintenance and Extension Fund will be distributed at all of the services next Sunday, which should make it clear that our contribution to this fund covers all the enterprises of the church outside of the running expenses of the local congregation.

The subject for next Sunday's sermon will be "The Missionary Opportunities and Obligations of The United Church of Canada in the Home Fields."

A week-end visit of Willard Thornley, who is attending Collegiate at Napanee, enhanced the Thanksgiving cheer of his parents and youngest brother.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Reid was laid to her rest in the Storring cemetery last Saturday afternoon. The congregation extend their sympathy to the bereaved parents.

JUDICIAL SALE.

Pursuant to a Judgment made by the Supreme Court of Ontario in an action of Douglas vs. Dewdney, and bearing date the 29th day of October, 1925, there will be sold by Public Auction, with the approbation of the local Master, at Napanee, at his Chambers, in the Court House, in the Town of Napanee, on Friday, the 4th day of December, 1925, at two o'clock in the afternoon, the following valuable Town property:

Parcel No. 1.—The east forty (40) feet more or less of Lot No. 4, on the north side of Dundas Street, in the Town of Napanee.

Parcel No. 2.—The north twenty-five (25) feet more or less of Lot No. 8, on the east side of Centre Street, in the said Town of Napanee, together with a small barn in the rear.

Upon Parcel No. 2 is erected a two storey frame building used as stores, with a small barn in the rear.

Upon Parcel No. 2 is erected a frame dwelling, together with a right of way on the south side of the dwelling.

The property will be sold subject to a reserve bid fixed by the Master.

Terms of Sale.—Ten per cent down and the balance in one month thereafter without interest.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale will be the standing conditions of sale of the said Court.

For further particulars apply at the Law-Offices of Kenneth S. Ham and T. B. German, Napanee.

Dated the 6th November, 1925.

Mr. and Mrs. Orison Benn, of Sidesville, Sundayed in Newburgh.

Mrs. Lee, of Frankford, is staying for the week with her sister, Mrs. Bray.

The Hallowe'en social given by the choir on Tuesday evening was very successful. The programme was given entirely by Newburgh talent, in costume, and was well rendered. The eats were much enjoyed. A large number from Wesley and Strathcona attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wartman and family were at Mrs. Laverne Huffman's on Sunday, and attended the anniversary services in Moscow United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wartman visited on Sunday with Mr. Arthur Baker and family at Moscow, and also attended the anniversary services.

Mr. and Mrs. Quail spent the holiday in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Aylesworth are in Toronto over the week-end.

Miss Maud Welbanks is home, after a month's visit with her sisters at Stroud, Ont.

Mrs. David Cameron has been visiting friends in the village.

Mrs. Coburn, of Napanee, and Mrs. Craig, of Selby, were in the village on Sunday.

Mrs. John Kellar called on friends during the week, and is now on a visit to her son, Leslie Kellar, of Croydon.

Miss Jessie Wilson is spending a time with her sister, Mrs. Fred Wales, Switzerville.

Miss Jean Barrie spent the holiday at her home, "Bonnie Brae", Norwood.

Reports of the County Sunday School Convention were given in the Sunday School of the United Church on Sunday last. Miss Paul will report the Provincial Convention, recently held in Hamilton, next Sunday.

Mrs. McCleod (nee Grace Dougan) is on a visit to her parents.

Messrs. Robert Glover, Camden East; Ward Wartman, J. R. Lucas and Harold Asbury, Newburgh, enjoyed a motor trip to Peterboro on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr and son, Harold, and Mrs. Brown, of Toronto, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Adams.

Miss Mabel McNeely, of Peterboro', Normal School, spent the holiday with her parents, Reeve and Mrs. McNeely.

Miss Essie Johnson, teacher at Ottawa, was at her home for Thanksgiving.

Messrs. George Walker, of Newburgh, and John Kelly, of Hay Bay, are spending a week at Massanoga Lake, on a hunting expedition.

The Young Peoples' meeting on Monday evening was presided over by Miss Ella Yeomans. After a short missionary programme a half hour was spent in recreation, which was enjoyed by all present. Rev. Mr. Anderson assisted in making the service profitable. Next Monday will be the beginning of the contest.

Miss Margaret Sexsmith, of Toronto, has been visiting Mrs. Fred Wales, Switzerville.

Mr. Couvery, who has been working the cheese factory for the summer, has moved to a farm near Westport.

Messrs. Clarence Wilson, of Winnipeg; Aren, of Chicago, and Jos., of Sault Ste. Marie, have gone to their respective homes, after attending their mother's funeral.

The missionary meeting in the Mission Hall on Friday evening was in charge of Mrs. Miller. During the evening a letter from Miss Bessie Reid, B.A., was read. Miss Reid sailed in August for China as a representative of the Free Methodist Church, and she writes of her safe arrival and of her pleasure in being in China, the place of her choice, as a worker in the missionary field.

A large concourse of people from the surrounding country attended the funeral of the late Mrs. T. B. Wilson, which was held in the church on Thursday last. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The Rev. Mr. Merrick, of Morven, assisted the Rev. Mr. Anderson with the service. A sister, Mrs. F. J. McIlquham, of Lanark; brother-in-law, Mr. J. McMahon, of Madawaska; a niece, Mrs. Currie of Lanark; sister-in-law, Mrs. Belle Wilson, of Lyn; son-in-law, Mr. Hewitt, of Brockville, were in attendance, besides her children, Mrs. Fred Wales, Miss Jessie Wilson and her three sons, Clarence, Joseph and Archie. The remains were laid to rest in the family plot, Newburgh. Her husband died a few years ago. A daughter, Mrs. Hewitt, died in December, 1924, and one son, Andrew, who died a number of years ago. The community sympathize with the remaining children in the death of such a grand, good woman.

Just think! 35 days for buying before Christmas. Do not wait. Buy when you have a choice. We are ready.

OBITUARY.

Mr. T. S. Henry.

In the passing of Mr. Thomas Stead Henry, which occurred at the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, on Saturday, November 7th, 1925, Napanee has lost one of its oldest and most widely known citizens.

Mr. Henry was born in Belfast, Ireland, eighty-six years ago, but came to Canada with his parents and older brother when quite a small boy. He, with his older brother, Alexander, learned the printing trade with James Carman, and afterwards bought the office of the Napanee Standard and later the Napanee Bookstore. Mr. Henry continued to carry on the bookstore business in the same stand for over sixty years; until a year ago, when failing health obliged him to dispose of the business.

For over sixty years Mr. Henry was prominently a member of Union Lodge, No. 9, A.F. & A.M., and this last summer was awarded the veteran's jewel for fifty years' membership.

He was a member of the Board of Education for twenty-five consecutive years, being chairman of the Board when the Collegiate Building was erected. He was one of the pioneers of the Presbyterian Church in Napanee, and the last living member of the original Board of Trustees who oversaw the building of the present church.

Mr. Henry was held in high regard by all who knew him as an upright and straightforward man, genial disposition, possessing a fund of reminiscences of early years, and one of his delights was to pass an hour with the friends of his youth and chat over incidents of common recollection.

He is survived by his widow, and two daughters, Mrs. Herbert C. McIntyre, and Mrs. Richard Cartwright; also two grandsons, James and John McIntyre.

His sister, Mrs. Charles Fuller, also resides in the homestead in Clarksville, while another sister, Mrs. Fortner, resides in Clare, Michigan.

The funeral took place on Thanksgiving Day from the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. R. C. Cartwright, Kingston, to Riverside Cemetery, Napanee, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Coleman, of St. Mary Magdalene, of which church Mr. Henry became a member sometime ago.

The Late William Edward Boyes.

Mr. William Edward Boyes, well known in Napanee as "Teddy" Boyes, passed away suddenly in Montreal on Saturday last. Mr. Boyes had been up to the time of his death, in the best of health, and showed no signs of sickness or illness. On Saturday he had been visiting some friends in the evening, and left for home in apparently good health. A few minutes later he was found dead in his car by a passing policeman, who directed the wheels of the car driven up on the curb. Doctors were at once summoned and diagnosed the case as acute indigestion.

A friend from home in Jacklins, Que., and the body brought to Napanee for burial, a brief service taking place at the home of his brother, J. L. Boyes.

The late Mr. Boyes was 59 years of age, the fourth son of the late Edward and Mary Boyes, of Napanee. He was married to Miss Anna Vanalstine, of Napanee, who predeceased him by a number of years.

After learning the operating in Napanee, Mr. Boyes moved to Jacksine, Quebec, where he has been steadily engaged for the last thirty years.

There are left to mourn his loss, a son, Arthur E. Boyes, of the Duncan Electrical Co., Montreal; Mr. Charley Boyes, of Kingston, Mr. A. R. Boyes of Los Angeles, and Mr. Lester Boyes of Napanee, brothers of the deceased.

MEMORIAL DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED

In commemoration of the signing of the Armistice a Memorial service was held on the County Court House grounds in front of the Memorial Monument, on Sunday, in the presence of about five hundred citizens.

At 2.15 p.m. the officers and men of "B" Company, Prontenac Regiment, left the Armouries and proceeded to the Court House, led by the Napanee Citizen's Band. A specially draped rostrum had been prepared, on which the speakers of the afternoon were seated. The Clergy of the town all took part in the service. Rev. Father O'Connor, who was suffering from a cold could not attend.

The service had been printed and was distributed among the audience, which was a great convenience and contributed much to the heartiness of the singing.

Rev. W. R. Tanton acted as chairman and announced the Doxology, after which, led by the Band, the assemblage joined in the hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up, For Jesus". Captain Millner, of the Salvation Army, read the lesson. Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, of St. Mary Magdalene's, offered the following prayer, for the blessings of Empire, and for the sacrifices of the men over seas:

To the haunting strains of the "Dead March in Saul" the Boy Scouts in slow and measured step marched around the monument on which are engraved the names of all who made the supreme sacrifice, and deposited there wreaths to their memory from the following:—Napanee Masonic Lodge, in memory of members of the Order; I.O.O.F. No. 212, I.O.O.F. No. 86, in memory of members of the Order; Woodmen of the World, in memory of the Order; Daughters of the Empire, to the boys who fell; "B" Co., Frontenac Regiment, to the officers, non-commission officers and men from the Regiment; Mr. and Mrs. F. Laughlin, in memory of their son, Arthur; Mrs. H. Smith and Goldie, in memory of Dan; Mrs. Perry Detlor, in memory of Walter; Capt. Babcock, in memory of Capt. Burn and Lieut. German; Mrs. Ferguson, in memory of Daniel; Mr. and Mrs. Calchbridge, in memory of Kenneth.

This ceremony was concluded by the recitation by Miss Jean Paul of "In Flanders Fields", while for two minutes the audience stood with bared heads in silent memory of those who had made the supreme sacrifice.

Rev. A. J. Wilson, in the following words addressed the audience:—

No one can have witnessed the ceremony which we have just seen without having in his stirred somewhat of the feelings of seven years ago. What joy, what a frenzied ecstasy filled the souls of mankind when the armistice was finally declared! All the pent up feelings of the whole four years broke forth in thanksgiving and in rejoicing. The guns, which had for four long years belched forth death and destruction, were stilled. The incessant slaughter, which but for four days had seemed endless, ceased. And the orgy of destruction of manhood and wealth was over. "The war to end war", and "make the world safe for democracy" was finished.

Those four years had shown us the true nature of war. It had been shorn of all its glamor and its glory. It had shown itself a breeder of lies, of organized deception, and wilful slander. It had crushed the finer passions to a large extent and stimulated those of a baser mould. It had rolled the world of ten million of its youth in killed and twice that number in wounded and missing. Civilization was well nigh wiped out.

To Outlaw War

To-day let us bow our heads, and humble our hearts in the presence of the dead, and in the presence of the living who went through that shambles of destruction and came back. To that end we must see to it that we pass on to the youth of the world the lessons of the things and the exact knowledge we possess of war. That further we get away from the date of hostilities, the less we shall remember the grime, the dirt and the degradation. The more we shall idealize the deeds of honor and self-sacrifice the war revealed. We shall forget the spirit of those who died if we deliberately and definitely and persistently, set ourselves to the task of fostering in the minds of all, a profound hatred of war as a means of settling international disputes, so that finally it will be outlawed completely from our civilized life.

Doing the Impossible.

There are those who say it can't be done. The same was said in another connection when the British were characterized as a nation of shop keepers, and we know what the war revealed. It taught the world that the war never ended for Canadians will ever deter the youth of any nation from engaging in war. Every citizen in the country, every town, every hamlet, and every back concession road will be displayed in the face of death, courage of an unparalleled character.

Since the war the world has made little use of the courage, those who are left possess. Post-war disillusionment, unemployment, breadlines in the great centres of population, have robbed the world of much of these great qualities of which we know men to be capable. This potential energy going to waste! This source of daring and fearlessness which if applied to the problems of peace would go a long way towards solving them never tapped! We shall not be worthy of the sacrifice of these men living and dead, unless we are prepared to dedicate ourselves to the ideals for which they died. The courage, the power, and the virility lies ready to hand if only we can mobilize it for the constructive social aims of humanity. That will demand of us devotion to a higher patriotism than that which is hemmed in by national boundaries. Love of country, yes, by all means! But above that and driving and urging to it, love of God and humanity, a God of love and a humanity free from war shall be completely eliminated.

The League of Nations.

That may seem in this light of the present situation to be an impossible task. There are more men under arms to-day than there was in 1914, and never since the guns ceased on the western front have they been at rest in other parts of the world. "A war to end war", forsooth "To make the world safe for democracy" and democracy fighting for its life as it has never fought before. It can't be done. And yet it is the attainment of the impossible which has ever challenged whether in the realm of science, politics, business or religion. It can't be done, then in God's name let us up and do it. The League of Nations is a start. The very fact of getting fifty-five nations together in one place to discuss their common problems is an achievement marking a mile stone on the upward journey of the race, and Locarno is an earnest of a new hope and new confidence.

The Need of Religion.

The end though cannot be attained without religion, a deep and overpowering faith in God and a corresponding faith in humanity, a God above the affairs of men and in whose hand the final decision of individuals and nations lies; a God who has revealed to us the way of life and planted in us the lure of the ideal. There may be times when the way looks dark, and it is hard to see the hand of God in history. In the same way a soldier in the front trench is not always able to see the whole plan of the campaign as it existed in the mind of General Headquarters, but that ignorance did not prevent its execution.

Captain what do you think? I ask. Of the men you soldiers play?
But the captain answered, I do not think.
I do not think, I obey.

In the same way men and women must obey that inner urge, that Divine impulse to a higher and holier life both individually and for the country; in the firm faith that some day not only this land, but the whole world shall be a better place, a holier and a cleaner place.

"These things shall be, a loftier race
Than e'er the world hath known shall rise,
With flame of freedom in their eyes,
And with the strength of manhood true,
Nation with nation, land with land,
Unarmed shall live as comrades free;
In every heart and brain shall throb
The pulse of one fraternity.

New arts shall bloom of loftier mould,
And mightier music thrill the skies,
And every life shall be a song,
When all the earth is paradise."

"It changes everything.
I can see the end of war in this
I can see the dawn,
I can see the joy of women and little children—some day.
I can see the cities and great waste places full of happiness.
I can see love shining in every face.
There shall be no more sin, no pain,
No loss, no death,
But life, only God,—some day
When the world shall have learned."

Three rounds were then fired by the firing squad, the last post sounded, and after singing "Nearer, My God, To Thee", Rev. Mr. Terrill pronounced the Benediction.

THE SANTA CLAUS FUND

Mr. and Mrs. Reader, perhaps you do not realize the proximity of Christmas. Six weeks only is left in which to make all the necessary preparations for the greatest home day of the year. It is a growing habit among those who desire to spend their money wisely and economically, to draw up a budget, including in it the names of all those to be remembered, and the amount to be expended. This we heartily commend to you.

But let it be known that even in a town the size of Napanee, where there is much comfort and happiness, there are many who will have no trouble making a budget. Their stock of funds is insufficient to care even for their own wants.

Now wouldn't it be a fine thing to include in your list of givings, your Christmas budget, a gift to the Beaver Santa Claus fund? This fund is to enable every child in the town to have a visit from the patron Saint. A careful survey is made by the town nurse, the Salvation Army Captain, and the Social Service Council. Then the money is spent where most needed, and for those little things which gladden the heart of the children, mitts, woolens, socks and stockings, along with a few edibles.

Please make your donation as generous as possible. Make all cheques payable to Beaver Santa Claus Fund, Beaver Office, Napanee.

All receipts acknowledged through the columns of The Beaver.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL

The Hallowe'en social held by the Women's Institute of Moscow, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Lampkin, on Friday evening, October 30th, was a decided success, a large number availing themselves of the pleasure of an evening's fun and social intercourse.

The spacious rooms were tastefully and elaborately decorated for the occasion with jack lanterns, chinese lanterns, black cats and witches, also streamers of black and yellow.

At the beginning of the programme the ladies in costume were auctioned off, the men bidding with beans, and the highest bidder secured a partner for the parade which followed immediately afterward. Other numbers on the programme consisted of a beautiful solo by Mrs. W. Shangraw, and several musical selections on violin and piano.

A booth of fortunes, told, under your lucky star, was presided over by Mrs. Amos Huffman, masked as a fortune-teller, and was very well patronized.

A prize was given to the best lady and gentleman in costume. The judges chosen were Mrs. C. A. Baker, Mrs. Alf. M. Bell, Rev. G. T. McKenzie and Mr. Henry N. Huffman. Their duties were very hard to perform, as there were so many costumes worthy of the highest distinction, that they decided to choose four ladies and four gentleman, and the one from each group drawing the lucky ticket captured the prize. The four ladies chosen to compete for the prize were three Indian maids, Mrs. W. Jackson, Miss Anetta Nichol, Mrs. Lyall Millsap, also Miss Georgia Hoffman as "Miss Canada". Mrs. Milsap drew the lucky ticket, and was awarded a guest towel. The four gentlemen chosen were Mr. Carman Paterson, representing the rank of Major; Mr. Will Jackson, country gentleman; Mr. Donald Hoffman, milk-maid, and Mr. Alf. Bell as Uncle Sam, who was fortunate in securing the trophy.

Following the distribution of prizes every one did justice to a sumptuous luncheon provided by the members of the Institute, of sandwiches, cake and coffee, after which Mr. Alf Bell, on behalf of the members, extended to Mrs. Lampkin their kind appreciation of the hospitality she had given them in the opening of her home for this occasion, voicing their sentiments by heartily singing, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow".

MOSCOW

(For last week).

Election day passed off quietly here.—The Hallowe'en party given by the Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. G. W. Lampkin, on October 30th, was a great success. A large crowd was present and some of the costumes were very amusing and original.—Mrs. Alkenbrack called on friends here on Thursday last.—The hunters have departed for the north country in quest of deer.—Mr. C. W. Amey spent Tuesday in Napanee.—Miss Melissa Lake, of Parham, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.—A number from here attended Anniversary services at Colebrook, last Sunday.—The remains of the late Levi Huffman were laid to rest in Moscow cemetery on Saturday last. A number of old friends and neighbors attended the burial. Mrs. Huffman has since passed away.

Health Broke Down

Could Not Get Sleep for Hours After Going to Bed

"It is not natural for me to sit down and write a letter in praise of a proprietary medicine as I had always been skeptical as to their virtues." Thus writes Mr. Arthur Seguin, Storthoaks, Sask., who further says:—"But three years ago I opened a general store here in Storthoaks and placed on my shelves a few lines of the best known proprietary medicines. Among these, naturally, were Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As there were three of my customers who were obtaining good results from taking the pills, and as I was in need of a medicine I decided to try them myself.

"I had been suffering from catarrh for years, and my inside work had completely broken down my health. I was coughing all day, suffered from indigestion, and could not sleep until three or four hours after retiring. I started the pills, not with any great confidence, but by the time I had finished the second box I marked much improvement. At the fourth box I felt quite recovered, but continued them for some further time. My cough has left me, the indigestion has disappeared and I now fall asleep almost as soon as I am in bed. In my store now I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any who are feeling run-down or without energy, as I think they are a blessing to mankind."

If others who may feel skeptical will give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial they will be convinced as was Mr. Seguin. You can get the pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TESTING A SHELL.

Ordeals Through Which a Big Gun Missile Must Pass.

THE SOFT NOSE PROJECTILE.

Its Ability to Bore Its Way Through Heavy Armor Plate Without Exploding Until After Its Impact Was Discovered by Accident.

Everybody knows that the modern shell is one of the most diabolical of man's inventions, but how many of us realise that it is also one of the most delicate and complicated?

Recently some firms holding contracts for making high explosive shells took upon themselves to "correct" a detail in the specification, and, as a result, a certain thread was "improved." They will never do anything of the kind again, because all their work was rejected. The apparent absurdity—it is, in fact, an absolute absurdity, from an engineering point of view—is designed of set purpose.

There is a somewhat similar anomaly in the big shell for penetrating armor plating, which we introduced in consequence of an accident. One day a test shell was fired at a piece of armor plating from the soft side, and the projectile went clean through it and exploded after impact, whereas a similar shell fired against the front—the hardened and tempered side—shattered and left an indentation of only a few inches.

This singular incident set somebody thinking, and in consequence the high explosive armour piercing shell is now given a soft nose. To the hard point is attached a cap of soft metal, with which addition it will go through the toughest piece of armor plate. What happens on impact seems to be this: The cap spreads, holding the point and so enabling it—remember that the shell is revolving rapidly—to force its way unbroken through the hard face of the plate by a sort of boring action.

No less curious is another fact concerning the points of such projectiles. After the heads have been worked the shells are left for weeks before they undergo the next stage, because, strong as they look, they are liable to snap.

Why? Think of the razor. Constant stropping twists the grain, with the result that the steel gets "tired" and will not yield a keen edge. But if you put the thing away for a few weeks the grain will return to its normal state, and you can get a satisfactory shave. In a similar way the grain of the steel is affected by working, though of course to a much greater extent, and until it is "set" the makers must go cautiously.

Steel shows a like eccentricity in the making of test gauges. Some of the measurements of shells are very fine, and the instruments employed are so delicate that they have to be used quickly lest the heat of the hand causes the metal to expand.

Now, when a groove is cut in a piece of steel which is to be used as a test gauge the work is laid aside for weeks, perhaps months. Why not finish it at once? Because the groove, though dead true when cut out, may be otherwise in a short time, even though it has been absolutely untouched.

As a concrete proof of the elaborate nature of projectile making take the case of the stripped shell. The steel portion undergoes about a score of operations, and the brass cartridge case attached to the base requires about sixteen, counting from the disk of sheet brass to the finished article. Then there is the fuse, the delicacy of which resembles watchmaking.

Altogether the shell is subjected to about forty inspections and may be rejected at any stage.

After a shell has survived this ordeal it ought to be, one would think, perfect, but a test shell is taken from every 120 and actually fired from a gun into a bank of sand. It is then again examined, and if the contour about the powder pocket is expanded away goes the whole batch, because if they were fired the grooving might be torn out of the gun.

Perhaps the most striking illustration of the minute care exercised in projectile making is that every shell is weighed over and over again. If you produce an eighteen pounder high explosive shell it must be only a few drams over or under its normal weight; otherwise it is rejected.

In this connection it may be of interest to note that an explosive shell that weighs only about seventy pounds will break into a shower of some 1200 pieces. A single one of the monster projectiles fired from a fifteen inch naval gun will weigh 1,950 pounds. It takes twelve seconds for the projectile of a twelve inch naval gun to reach its point of impact when firing at a range of five miles. To fire a battleship broadside costs about $20,000.—Exchange.

The tramcar was crowded, and an old gentleman with a kindly twinkle in his eye took five-year-old Tommy on his lap.

"This will be better than standing, won't it, my boy?" he suggested.

"Yes," said Tommy, rather reluctantly, for he had enjoyed lurching about the car.

"But you want to be careful that I don't pick your pocket," the old man said, in a whisper.

"Can't," Tom retorted, his voice somewhat muffled. "As soon as I saw you lookin' at me I put my penny in my mouth."

Town Traffic Bylaw

Regulating Motor Cars and Other Vehicles Operating Within the Corporation

This bylaw was passed by the Town Council at its last session on November 2nd, and is of particular interest to drivers of automobiles and trucks. It was drafted pursuant to, and under the provisions of, the Highway Traffic Act as amended and has the sanction of the Minister of Highways. Below is the text of the bylaw.

The Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Town of Napanee enacts as follows:

1. In this By-law, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Street" shall include a common and public highway, avenue, parkway, driveway, square, place, bridge, viaduct or trestle, designed and intended for, or used by, the general public for the passage of vehicles.

(b) "Vehicle" shall include motor vehicle, trailer, traction engine and any vehicle drawn, propelled, or driven by any kind of power, including muscular power, but not including the cars of electric or steam railways running only upon rails.

(c) "Park" as applied to a vehicle shall mean to allow the same to remain standing on a street for a longer period than fifteen minutes without a responsible person in charge.

(d) "Stand" as applied to a vehicle shall mean to stop for any period of time longer than actually required to take on or discharge passengers or merchandise.

(e) "Curb" shall include the edge of the travelled portion of the highway.

2. Absolute control of street traffic is vested in the police.

3. Vehicles moving slowly shall keep as close as possible to the curb on the right, allowing more swiftly moving vehicles free passage to their left.

4. Drivers of vehicles before starting, turning, stopping or changing their course, shall make sure that such movement can be made in safety and without obstructing traffic, and shall give a visible signal to persons driving vehicles behind them of their intention to make such movement.

5. Drivers of vehicles intending to turn to the right into an intersecting street or highway shall first drive their vehicle on to the centre of the highway and continue beyond the centre of the intersecting street before turning.

6. The driver of a vehicle upon the approach or sounding of a signal of an ambulance, police vehicle, fire waggon, or other like apparatus, shall immediately draw up said vehicle as near as practical to the right hand curb and dismount thereof and bring it to a standstill.

8. No vehicle shall be allowed to remain empty or be driven through any streets so as to blockade or obstruct traffic and no vehicle shall be so over-loaded that the horse or horses or motor power shall be unable to move it at a reasonable rate of speed.

9. No vehicle shall enter or emerge from an alley, stable, driveway or garage without giving a warning signal or at a rate faster than a walk.

10. Whenever possible, vehicles shall be loaded or unloaded from the side and be parked within 6 inches of the curb. No vehicle shall remain backed up to the curb except during actual loading or unloading from it and in such case no longer than the actual loading or unloading requires. The horse or horses attached to a vehicle backed up to the curb shall be turned at right angles to the vehicle and in the direction in which traffic on the street is moving.

11. Vehicles shall not stop on or obstruct crossings.

12. No vehicle shall be allowed to stand in front of the entrance to a theatre, hotel auditorium, office building or any public place as the principal assemblages are being held, or where goods or merchandise is taken in or out.

No vehicle shall stop so as to obstruct the entrance to any lane or driveway into private garages or into any building.

13. No horse or vehicle shall be left in such a manner as to obstruct the ordinary traffic of the streets and no horse or vehicle shall be parked on any street an unreasonable time having regard to the traffic requirements of the street in question.

14. No vehicle shall stand on the corners of street intersections for a distance of 20 feet back from the corner on each intersecting street, "Corner" for the purpose of this section right angle point of the curbs.

15. No vehicle shall stand within 6 feet of a fire hydrant.

16. No vehicle shall stand on any bridge within the municipality.

17. No vehicle shall stand on any street where there is a curb unless such vehicle is parallel to and the wheels and runners thereon are not more than 6 inches from such curb, or in winter, as near this as the conditions of the streets permit. On unkerbed streets standing vehicles shall be parallel to and as close as circumstances and weather conditions permit to the edge of the boulevard or sidewalk as the case may be.

18. Where angle parking is indicated the angle shall be 45 degrees and vehicles shall park with the right front wheel against curb or the indicated line.

19. No vehicle shall stand or park directly opposite another vehicle which is already standing on the other side of the street, where the width of the vehicular travelled portion of the street, or the width between curbs is less than 36 feet, or where such standing or parking would prevent the free passage of two lines of traffic.

20. It shall be the duty of all drivers of vehicles to observe traffic signals, no parking signs, and other permanent or semi-permanent signal devices.

21. None of the provisions of this by-law respecting parking shall come into effect until suitable signs have been erected, clearly indicating the parking restrictions.

22. The following street is designated as "through streets" and governed by subsection 1a of section 18 of The Highway Traffic Act, the operator or driver of every vehicle shall immediately, before entering or crossing this street, bring the vehicle to a full stop, namely, Dundas street from the east side of East street to the west side of West street.

The provisions of this section shall not come into effect until signs have been erected in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Public Highways.

23. The driver of every vehicle shall not leave the same standing, whether tied or locked or not, attended or unattended, for more than fifteen (15) minutes during Saturdays from 6 p.m. to 12 p.m. on that part of Dundas street which lies between East street and Robert street.

24. Pedestrians must not step from the sidewalk in crossing a street without looking in both directions and shall cross at right angles with the street. Pedestrians shall keep to the right when walking on the sidewalk.

It shall be the duty of pedestrians to observe the line of traffic at street intersections and in cases where policemen are in charge directing the movement of such traffic, pedestrians shall observe the signal of such policemen and they shall not cross except at their own risk, before the signal is given for the traffic to move in the direction indicated by the traffic officer.

Pedestrians shall not obstruct sidewalks or street corners, and where three or more persons are congregated they shall be subject to the direction of the police.

25. Any person violating any of the provisions of this by-law shall be subject to a penalty on conviction thereof in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate of not more than Ten Dollars ($10.00) for the first offence and to not more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for every subsequent offence exclusive of costs and all such penalties shall be recoverable under the Ontario Summary Conviction Act.

DIPPING FOR THE TICK

SHEEP NEED PROTECTION FROM THIS ANNOYING PARASITE.

How to Use the Dip—A Home-made Dip — Poultry Parasites — Treatment for Bot Fly Larvae—Mineral Mixture.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Before the flock enter winter quarters in the fall they should all receive a thorough dipping. A bright, warm day in October should be chosen and the dipping done in the morning so the wool will have time to dry before night. It is safe to say that fall dipping of the flock should never be neglected. Even in those flocks that are supposed to be clean it will pay. In case any sheep are to be added to the flock they should always be dipped before being taken in with those that are already clean, so says the Department of Animal Husbandry, O. A. C.

The Way to Use the Dip.

There are several different brands of sheep dip on the market, any one of which will give satisfactory results provided directions are carefully followed. The water to be used for dipping should be warmed and the mixture should be stirred frequently to prevent the heavier dip settling to the bottom. The sheep should remain in the dip for approximately two minutes to allow the wool and skin to become thoroughly saturated.

Unless the flock is a very large one it will not be necessary to build an expensive dipping tank. A large trough or barrel might answer if nothing else is at hand. However, a very satisfactory tank may be built of ordinary tongued and grooved matched lumber. Ordinary lumber may be used and have the inside lined with galvanized iron. Strong galvanized iron alone properly constructed by a tinsmith will make a good vat, although possibly rather expensive.

A Home-made Dip.

Kerosene emulsion, a simple remedy easily prepared at home, is effective.

Prepared as follows:

2 pints of Coal Oil
1 pint of milk.

Mix thoroughly in an old dash churn until creamy. Dilute by adding eight gallons of soft water to each gallon of concentrated emulsion. If milk is not available, then use laundry soap as follows: One half-pound of laundry soap in gallon of hot soft water, then add two gallons Coal Oil (while hot), churn up well and then dilute to use by adding eight gallons of soft water to each gallon of concentrated emulsion.

Dip the sheep after shearing and repeat in two weeks to get the pupae. —Dept. of Extension, O.A.C., Guelph.

Poultry Parasites.

A long winter generally means a weakened vitality to all animals and parasites that can be done to remove obstacles and supply the essentials should be done. One of the great obstacles to successful poultry husbandry is the invasion of intestinal parasites. These parasites flourish within the birds winter or summer, taking their toll unseen and irrespective of weather conditions. They are worse than potato beetles, which are honest enough to do their mischief in plain view, and work just eight hours a day for but six weeks of the year. The intestinal parasites infesting poultry have a union code of their own—"24 hours per day and 365 days per year, get all you can, why worry about the poultry-keeper's profits." At the O.A.C. the intestinal parasites infesting the poultry flocks were banished for good and forever eighteen months ago. How was it done?

1. The Method.—A gallon of a mixture of wheat and oats, to which is added a small teaspoonful of concentrated lye, is cooked slowly for two hours and allowed to cool. The birds are given their ordinary feed one morning and then nothing else until the next morning, when they are given as much of the dry mixture as they will eat, with plenty of water. This is done two or three times during the season at intervals of one month.

The large, round worm infesting poultry may be as short as one inch, and the cæcum worm only three-tenths of an inch, and a dose of worms only one-fiftieth of an inch long. Very easy to overlook.—L. Stevenson, O.A.C., Guelph.

Treatment for Bot Fly Larvae.

Heavy infestations may cause indigestion. Give the horse a chance; help him to be comfortable by removing the two numerous bot fly larvae from his stomach.

Fast the horse twenty-four hours and give three capsules of carbon bisulphide, to be given one at a time, at three hour intervals.

The larvae generally pass from the stomach in June; go into the soil for six weeks and then re-appear to start their life work over again.—Dept. of Extension, O.A.C., Guelph.

Mineral Mixture.

The following mineral mixture is used in the swine feeding at the Ontario Agricultural College. It is giving good satisfaction:—

4 bushels Charcoal or Hardwood Ashes.
8 pounds Salt.
12 quarts Air Slaked Lime.
1 pound Sulphur.
16 pounds of Bone Meal.

This preparation is kept in a suitable box in each pen where it may be taken by the swine at will.

The Calves.

Keep plenty of pure water before the calves and nice bright hay or pasture grass. It is surprising how much water they will drink.

If you should take an Influenza Cold don't wait to see what happens, but begin at once to take Cold Crackers. You will get immediate relief. Remember always, that it is easier to kill a cold than to cure it. Go to Knight's Drug Store. 39-13t

Women's Natural Muskrat Coats

For years "Muskrat" has been one of the leading furs chosen by the women of Canada. It has an undeniable reputation for warmth and service.

For years we have been successfully selling Muskrat Coats to the women of this vicinity. Many of our original coats are still giving service.

For this winter season's selling we have assembled a splendid range of these dependable coats. They are made from richly colored, heavily furred skins into styles that are appropriate for women's and misses' wear. Each garment is splendidly silk lined. Each garment carries our guarantee of dependable service and all round satisfaction. Your inspection is invited.

Sitka Beaver, a Man's Coat for Cold Weather Wear. Special Value $42.50 Each

Notwithstanding a big advance in the skins used in the manufacture of these Coats, we are still maintaining our former selling price.

Repeat and future orders will be more costly. This we emphatically advise our customers to purchase their requirements without delay.

These coats are made from soft, pliable skins, that have been evenly sheared. The new finishing process (exclusive with our coats) gives them a rich lustrous appearance. They are cut on big roomy lines, with plenty of body freedom. The collar is large and warm. Every point subject to strain has been especially reinforced.

Every coat carries the manufacturer's as well as our own guarantee.

Obtainable in near beaver and black sheeps.

Coal at $16.50 Per Ton. Weather Strips Only 2 Cents Per Foot

From the comparison above, you will note a wide difference in price. OBITUARY

Mr. Robert Shetlor.

The death of Mr. Robert Shetlor, on November 2nd, 1925, which occurred at his residence, Mill Street, Napanee, came as a shock to his many friends and relatives. Mr. Shetlor had reached the age of seventy, and until he was about sixty-six years of age, was remarkably vigorous and active, but after which time he was troubled with a weak heart. He was born in Camden Township on July 13th, 1855. Mr. Shetlor was married in 1881 to Elizabeth Jaynes, of Richmond, who survives him, and three sons and one daughter, Matthew, of Bath, Ont.; Stewart, on the Newburgh Road; Fred, of Morven, Ont., and Mrs. Milton Doldge, on the Belleville Road. Mr. Shetlor was highly respected by all who knew him. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. J. Terrill, in Grace Church, and the burial took place in Riverview Cemetery on November 4th.

Mrs. Bella Wilson.

Mrs. Bella Wilson, who died on Monday, the 8th of this month, in Newburgh, was born in Lanark Village, Lanark Co., sixty-nine years ago, the daughter of John Mitchell and Elizabeth Campbell. In 1876 she was married to T. B. Wilson, who carried on a flour mill at Camden East. As a result of this union there was born four sons and three daughters. One son, Andrew, and one daughter, Beth, predeceased their mother, as also did her husband. These three deaths, although preceding from natural causes, were all unexpected and almost tragic in their suddenness, and were without doubt a great trial to Mrs. Wilson. But she never allowed her trials to become the trial of others whom she always met with a cheerful spirit and helping hand. In fact it falls to the lot of few people to have a disposition to render the help and service that Mrs. Wilson rendered so disinterestly and cheerfully all her life. In Newburgh and for miles around in many families her presence and help in time of sickness are gratefully remembered. This feeling was manifest by the large number of people who congregated to pay their last tribute of respect, at her funeral, and by the many floral tributes presented. Mrs. Wilson did not allow her many activities to cause her to neglect her family who will remember her as a loving, wise and judicious mother.

Mrs. Wilson was a faithful member of the Presbyterian, and later of the United Church, to funds of which she was a generous contributor. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons and two daughters, Clarence, of Winnipeg, engineer on the C.P.R.; Joe, of Sault Ste Marie, President of the Algoma Steel Mills; Archie, of Chapue, engaged in mechanical work; Mrs. Fred Wales, of Switzerville, and Miss Jessie, engaged in teaching in Rudversky, Sask. These were all present at her funeral.

$8,000.00 IN CASH PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AWAY

The Mail and Empire to Inaugurate Fifth Picture Puzzle Game — To Distribute One Hundred Cash Prizes—Everybody Can Participate

The Mail and Empire, Toronto, Ontario, will publish next week in the columns of The Beaver an announcement of a "C-Word" Picture Puzzle Game. The picture puzzle will contain a number of objects and articles beginning with the letter "C." The idea of the game will be to see who can find the most. One hundred cash prizes, totalling something over $8,000.00, will be offered for the one hundred best answers submitted according to the rules of the puzzle game.

All cash prizes offered in connection with the picture puzzle game will be awarded in time to reach the successful participants by Christmas Day. Any one of the prizes offered ranging from a first prize of $2,000 down to the 100th prize of $15.00 will make a handsome Christmas present for the successful puzzle "C-Worder."

Everybody likes puzzles, and The Mail and Empire's new Puzzle Picture will be a real treat for our readers. All can participate in the game, from the tiniest child to pa and ma, and even grandpa and grandma. Baby has a block puzzle, young folks have Chinese ring puzzles, and you older folks, all sorts of puzzles. But our readers will find this new puzzle picture equally tantalizing to every one. You'll have a mighty good time solving it—because it's everybody's game. And the puzzle will be easy to solve, as a large picture will be published with the objects showing clearly without any effort to discover them. Don't fail to look for the announcement in this newspaper next week, and when you see it turn right in making up your list of "C-Words", and try for one of the big cash prizes.

MAIL COURIERS ENJOY A THANKSGIVING DINNER

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conger, Newburgh Road, on Thanksgiving night, the Rural Mail Couriers and Post Office Staff met to celebrate the first holiday recently granted the Couriers by the Government. Mrs. Conger served Thanksgiving dinner, after which an enjoyable evening was spent, and the following addresses and presentation were made:

As this is the first holiday
We clerks have had together,
We here have met with one accord,
In spite of cold bleak weather.
To have a very happy time
Around Mrs. Conger's table,
To eat the good things she's prepared,
As long as we are able.
Oh, may this carving set we give
Serve her many years to come,
In this, Mrs. Conger's cheerful home,
With all good friends around.

Yap:—"You going to faint, I hope."

"No; I just want to see if my mouth will hold water."

Time Has Tested It.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been on the market upwards of fifty years and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. It is in high favor throughout Canada and its excellence has carried its fame beyond the seas. If it were double the price it would be a cheap liniment.

Mrs. Billins met Mary Smith, whom she had recommended to a neighbor for a situation.

"How are you getting on at your new place?" asked Mrs. Billins.

"Very well thank you," was the reply.

"I am glad to hear it," remarked Mrs. Billins, "your employer is very kind, and you can't do too much for her."

"I don't intend to, ma'am," replied Mary.

Wise and experienced mothers know when their children are troubled with worms and lose no time in applying Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective verifuge. It is absolute in clearing the system of worms and restoring those healthy conditions without which there can be no comfort for the child, or home of robust growth. It is a most trustworthy worm exterminator.

SILAGE FERMENTATION

HOW THE SILO AFFECTS CORN FOR FEED.

A Matter of Temperature and Air— Importance and Effect of Acid Formation—Steer Feeding—Silage and Grain Made Balance Food.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

The first evidences of change in the finely-cut fodder are a rise in temperature and the production of carbonic acid gas. The heat can be demonstrated by hand and the presence of carbonic acid gas is always to be suspected, since the lessons learned during the old days of closed silos still remain firmly impressed on the minds of many. The oxygen in the mass of cut fodder is quickly used up early in the process of fermentation. The temperature remains around 100 degrees F. except at the surface or at points where air is admitted, going much higher. The continued presence of air or oxygen is not desired and their removal from the mass prevents the development of molds. Molds are harmful in that they destroy or use up the acids required for the preservation of the silage. Air-tight walls and a well consolidated mass are very essential in the control of fermentation.

How Corn Changes In the Silo.

The green corn changes to yellow, then brown and develops an aromatic odor and sour taste. The sourness is due to the development of lactic acid, the important preserving agent in silage making. Bacteria which cause decay and molds are inhibited in the acid poor condition of fermented corn. The total amount of acid formed is between one and two per cent. of the weight of silage. Other products of the fermentation are alcohol and sugar. The amounts of these are not large, being in the case of alcohol .1 to .4 per cent. of the weight of silage. The amount of sugar which disappears from the corn is almost exactly equivalent to the amount of alcohol and acid formed during fermentation. About one-half the sugar present in the recently ensiled corn is eaten sugar. This is broken up into glucose and then changed to alcohol and acid. These changes take place rapidly and are generally completed in 12 days, giving and excellent preservative medium, that will keep ensilage for years.

How Fermentation Is Produced.

The fermentation is brought about by plant enzymes carried by the corn, bacteria and yeasts, which may be attached to the cut corn or drift into the silo as it is being filled. The sugar in the green corn juice is attacked by the invertase carried by the plant cell and reduced to simpler forms. These simple forms are attacked by zymase and a small amount of alcohol is formed. Acid-forming bacteria also attack the sugars and bring about the change resulting in the mass being largely acid in character and therefore in a condition to keep.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O.A.C., Guelph.

STEER FEEDING.

Trial Conducted at the Experimental Station for Southwestern Ontario at Ridgetown.

Twenty-three steers, averaging in weight 1,145.5 pounds, were fed for 112 days, making a daily gain of 1.94 pounds or 2.19 pounds per steer. The total gain for the twenty-three head was 5,016 pounds and at a cost of 8.15 cents per pound.

These steers were fed in an open shed and yard. Stanchion and grain were fed in a manner turning the full length of the shed and handy to the silo and feed room. The roughage composed of cornstalks and straw was fed in the yard. The grain feeding consisted of a mixture of corn, barley, oats, oil meal, and Soy bean meal. The Soy bean meal was started in very small amount and gradually increased in the ration to one pound per day. The total grain ration at the commencement of the trial was two pounds per day, this was increased gradually to eight pounds per day near the close of the feeding period.

The steers consumed a total of 46½ tons of silage, ten loads of corn fodder and grain valued at $222.19 market price. The total feed cost per steer was $47.00 per ton and fodder at $10.00 per load, was $411.69.

The spread between purchase price and selling price was $1.25 per hundred pounds live weight.

The gain over cost of steers and feed was $175.39. The manure may also be considered a gain sufficient to cover the cost of labor.—L. Stevenson.

Dealing With the Broody Hen.

Extensive and thorough experiments dealing with the broody hen problem have proved beyond doubt that broodiness can, to a very large extent, be bred out of a flock. To achieve this end, the prime essential is never to hatch chicks from eggs laid by the hen that is prone to broodiness. For, naturally, that is a method that takes time. One or two years will not eliminate broody hens from a flock, but they will be few of them and they will not be so persistent in their broodiness.

Says Dr. McCollum, the great specialist on human nutrition: "Milk is the great factor of safety in making good the deficiencies of the grains which form and must continue to form the principal ration of energy in our diet. Without the continued use of milk not only for feeding our children but in liberal amounts for our cookery we cannot as a nation maintain the position in the world power to which we have arisen."

Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma.

Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family.

Rheuma is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia.

It is a wonder-worker; it never falters, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body.

Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys and bladder all at once and quickly brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. WALLACE'S DRUG STORE and all good druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't satisfactory.

A PROVINCIAL ORGANIZATION

Main Office, Toronto

FOR 107 years the Bank of Montreal has maintained offices in the Province of Ontario ready to accept monies upon deposit, and loan these funds to farmers, merchants, manufacturers and business men generally upon terms consistent with sound banking and the proper custody of its depositors' funds.

Since the first office was established in 1818 at Toronto, the Bank has spread throughout the Province until today it has 250 offices in Ontario, with headquarters at Toronto, ready to give prompt and efficient service to people of this Province.

Small accounts are welcome and are accorded the same service as that given to large amounts.

Customers of the Bank have all the advantages resulting from a Provincial Organization, combined with the strength and facilities of a nation-wide Banking Institution having world-wide connections.

WIRELESS A GREAT AID IN SURVEY WORK

Engineers of the Geodetic Survey of Canada Determine Longitude With Its Assistance

Wireless has proved a great aid in the triangulation survey of the Dominion being carried on by the Geodetic Survey, Department of the Interior. The determination of the longitude of certain stations in the triangulation work is necessary and this is done by observing certain stars for time and by making clock comparisons of the local time of two points which are often widely separated. The observations and comparisons are usually made in conjunction with the Dominion Observatory at Ottawa, the longitude of which os accurately known, and it is in comparing the field clock with the observatory clock that the wireless is used.

The wireless has many advantages over the telegraph line in surveying work, not the least of which is its low cost. The payment of telegraph tolls is eliminated by the use of wireless, while both time and money are saved in other ways. The aerial for wireless work can be erected in a few minutes as compared with the time required to string up the wire to connect with the main telegraph line, sometimes over a distance of several miles. Wireless also makes possible the observation of stations far removed from telegraph lines.

During the present summer an engineer of the Geodetic Survey observed three stations using the wireless for the clock comparisons. One station was near Klock, Ontario, fourteen miles from the telegraph line; another near Linton, Quebec, four miles from a telegraph line and the third near Ghambord, on lake St. John, Quebec, four miles from the telegraph line. At these stations the comparisons were made with an accuracy of about one hundredth part of a second of time, and were in each case completed in the five minutes interval occupied by the sending station.

Frisk, of Webb, Sask., has arrived to pay a visit to relatives and friends at her old home here, and especially to see her father, Mr. Ed. Petzold, Sr., who has been very sick for about one month.—The friends and relatives of the late H. D. Bryan, of Rochester, N.Y., were greatly surprised to be informed that on the morning of last Tuesday he suffered a paralytic stroke while attending to the furnace, and died without regaining consciousness. He had a number of friends and some relatives here, and for many years he regularly paid a visit to Denbigh every fall. The last visit only very lately. The Denbigh correspondent only received a letter from him last Tuesday, stating that he arrived home from his Denbigh visit and was in his usual health and condition.

FOURTH LINE

(For last week).

Stop! Look! Listen! The Fourth Line Sunday School is making preparations for their annual Christmas Tree on Tuesday, December 22nd. Watch the advertisement column for more details later.—One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was a masquerade on Friday evening, when the Volunteer Workers' Sunday School Class entertained their friends at the home of their teacher, Mr. S. M. Reid. Orange and black streamers, Chinese lanterns, Jack-o-lanterns, skeletons and other appropriate decorations aided in making the rooms wierd, but beautiful. The tea table was effectively arranged with orange and black candles and shades, with a witch and caldron centre. The prize for the best costume was won by Little Red Ridinghood. Among the other costumes worthy of mention were a Spanish Cavalier, a Venetian Gentleman, Jack-in-the-box, a Turkish lady, and the customary Clowns and Ghosts.—Mrs. James Robson is visiting her mother in Odessa.—Miss Rose Glenn, Belleville Road, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hill.—We are glad to know that Mrs. Anson Hagerman is recovering from her serious illness.—Mrs. Penny is with her daughter, Mrs. McLean, for a few days.—Mrs. Sommerville, Sharpton, is a guest of Mrs. Fred Smith.—A number from here attended the husking bee at J. C. Parrott's, Tuesday evening.—The children entertained their parents at a Hallowe'en party in the school on Friday afternoon. After a short programme and fortunes, refreshments were served.—Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke, of Moscow, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shillington.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Wednesday evening, September 23rd, a large number of friends and neighbours gathered at Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sharpe's old home, Gravel Road, before their departure to their new home in Odessa, and presented them with an electric floor lamp, a gold chain and charm emblem of Oddfellows, and safety razor. The presentation was spent with games and music.

The following address was read by Mrs. Ed. C. Gilbert:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe and Ford.

We have been called together this evening to spend a social and pleasant time, and yet it has a little sadness mingled with it. We are reminded of the fact that you are about to leave us, and we all regret it very much.

Your home has always been a place of welcome to all socials in aid of church work and other festivities. Many of us will recall to mind the good old sugar parties held here.

We are indeed glad that you will not be far removed but that we may sometimes have the joy of a little visit in your new home, and you will always have a share of a warm welcome in our homes.

We feel that although your removal from this your old home, is a loss to us, it will be a gain to those in and near your new home.

We kindly ask you to accept these gifts as a reminder of our love and esteem.

Signed on behalf of
G. G. SNYDER.

How to Relieve Children's Colds

Avoid Serious Results by Using Baby's Own Tablets

When a child shows the first symptoms of a cold, such as sneezing, redness of the eyes, clogged or running nose, prompt measures for relief may avert serious results. Mothers should always have on hand some simple, safe and effective remedy for immediate use.

Baby's Own Tablets act quickly, contain no opiates or narcotics, are tasteless and harmless. Mrs. Joseph Cadieux, Holyoke, Mass., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and find them a very satisfactory medicine. When my little boy had a cold I gave him the Tablets at night and he was well next day. I give them to the children for constipation and they always do good. I think Baby's Own Tablets are much easier to give a child than liquid medicine. I recommend the Tablets to all mothers who have small children and believe they should always be kept on hand."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

EGGS OF TO-DAY AND YESTERDAY.

Every householder must recognize the value of the grading of eggs. While in by-gone times a certain percentage of every dozen bought for family consumption would probably be a bit tainted or stale, the housewife of to-day can know exactly what she is buying, whether specials, extras, firsts or second. An eight-page pamphlet just issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture that can be had freely for asking from the Publications Branch, Ottawa, goes into the value of eggs for food, tells what is being done to ensure their purity, gives particulars of the different grades and furnishes recipes of various uses to which eggs can be put. It also contains interesting facts of which the following are a few:

The wise consumer in buying will insist on graded eggs.

Eggs are the breakfast food of the nation and have great food value.

Eggs contain all the necessary elements for the growth and proper development of the young and the replacing of waste tissue in the adult.

Eggs being a perishable product care should be taken in their keeping.

Keep eggs in a cool, dry place and away from anything smelly, such as fish, onions, cheese or kerosene.

There are no substitutes for eggs.

Eggs enrich the blood and keep it in proper solution.

Eggs are invaluable and indispensable in health and in sickness.

The absence of eggs in the diet is hurtful.

Mothers should consider how much eggs foster the growth and development of their offspring.

An egg, at least, a day is a practical necessity. Two or more are better.

The gardener of a large house one day approached the butler. "Mortimer," he exclaimed, "you might point this chap, Darwin, out to me the next time he comes to dinner."

"Darwin, Darwin," echoed the butler, looking perplexed.

"Yes, Darwin. I happened to hear his lordship say the other day that every time he looks at me his mind goes back to Darwin."

Farmer—Hi, there! Can't you see that sign, "No fishing on these grounds?"

Rastus—Co'se I kin see it; but I ain't no ingrain as is fish on no grounds. I's fishin' in de pond.

SOCCER FOOTBALL

On Monday, November 9th, the "B" Company Soccer team visited Kingston for their third game in the second half, and were defeated by 1-0. However, this does not say that they were outclassed. It was only the hardest kind of luck that prevented them from putting over a win and the home team were very lucky to secure their one goal, which was enough to win the game. It was a lucky break near the end of the game in which it was won and lost. A Kingston halfback booted a high one toward the "B" Co. goal. Capt. Babcock was undecided how to take it, fearing to use his head so close to the goal. He tried to take it in the chest, but met it too soon and it rebounded right in front of the goal and a waiting Kingston man booted it past Stewart. From the goal out, the local "soldiers" played wonderful soccer. Stewart turned everything aside and his goal-tending was of the highest class. Capt. Babcock played a wonderful game at fullback and was ably assisted by Wally Perry. The halfbacks, Mr. Murray, Fred Bentley and Clif. Cowle, were in the game all the time and played their positions perfectly, while the forwards, Fred Britt, Eddie Bond, Joe Killoran, Bill Coutts and Mac MacGillivray, played fine soccer in spite of the hard luck that constantly kept them out of the score column. Some of the players are of the belief that they are jinxed, as they nearly always lose a game by a one-goal margin. However, they intend to chase the jinx and win a few games before the season is over, as they know they are by no means outclassed by the other teams. The Kingston team played equally as well as their opponents, but were not in such hard luck. Their goaler played a fine game, while the fullbacks proved themselves to be players of no mean ability. The halves looked after their pcsitions in a finished style, while the kicking and passing of the forward line was up to a high standard.

RUGBY

In a fast and exciting game of Rugby, the Deseronto H. S. defeated the N. C. I. by 14-4, on Wednesday, November 11th, at Deseronto. The Deseronto boys started a gruelling attack right from the start, and a kick to the deadline netted them one point. However, the N.C.I. did not extend themselves and the play remained at the Napanee end. Suddenly a series of bucks and end runs by the N.C.I. pushed the play to the Deseronto end. Corkill punted and Hall was downed for a rouge. The Napanee line held on 2 bucks and Deseronto lost the ball. Bill Carr then put over a beautiful field goal. Before the quarter ended Detlor kicked to the dead-line and N.C.I. were ahead 4-2 at half time.

The N.C.I. placed all their substitutes on in the third quarter, and as a result the Deseronto boys scored two touch-downs. The first was the result of a fumbled punt when Deseronto secured on N.C.I. 1 yd. line. Two bucks failed and it was decided to try a kick. However, something went wrong in the snap-back but Perry recovered and went over for a touch. It was not converted. The N.C.I. line failed to hold and McVicker blocked a kick behind the line and fell on it for a touch. Perry booted two to the dead-line and the score stood 14-4 for Deseronto.

The N.C.I. regulars were recalled and Wilson began an aerial attack. The N.C.I. pushed the play to the Deseronto end but a fumble lost them the ball. They then bucked their way the entire length of the field, Cowle and Corkill ploughing through for yards again and again. With the ball on the Deseronto 1 yard line on the 2nd down the whistle blew to end the game.

This is the first defeat in three years for the N.C.I., but they took it like real sports and gave Deseronto a fairly cheer when the game was over. However, the players were not so keen on beating Deseronto as they play Picton next Saturday and hope to win as they haven't been defeated by that aggregation since before the war. But this does not reflect on the ability of the Picton players, as they are all excellent players and mighty fine sports.

The Deseronto boys can thank Detlor, Perry and Cole for their victory. Detlor caught faultlessly, but it was his running that did the trick. On nearly every punt he ran the ball back 30 and 40 yards. He is a very elusive man to tackle, and also is a good kicker. Perry ran wild when he got the ball, and his speed and weight carried him for long gains. His kicking was also good. Cole ran the ball back for long gains several times and his tackling was clean and hard. Whitton and Hall were also in the limelight for Deseronto.

For N.C.I. all the players were off form. The tacklers missed many times and fumbles were frequent. The line plunging of Corkill and Cowle was as good as anybody could wish for, but the end runs were a flop. Wilson pulled a nice 40 yard run in the 2nd quarter, and Bill Carr kicked a beautiful field goal from 40 yards out immediately after. Paul Thornley made a good job of outside wing, while Beline as snap stopped plunges through centre a good many times. The back-field were off form but pulled a few good plays. The rest of the team showed flashes of old time form, but seemed to take no interest in the game. However, they held the Deseronto team back six times right on their 1 yard line which shows that they can do it when the need arises.

Mr. Shoemaker and Mr. Murray handled the game and there wasn't a single kick from either side during all the game, which shows the fairness of their decisions.

Moscow Women's Institute.

The regular meeting of the Moscow Women's Institute was held on November 6th, at the home of Mrs. L. Brooks, fourteen members being present. After the usual business meeting, plans were discussed re the banner to be held on Dec. 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Pearson. Any donations for same will be gratefully received. A baking powder biscuit contest was an interesting feature of the meeting, many taking part. A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge, and a social half hour spent. A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Brooks for her kind hospitality.

Organization Meeting.

Three hundred people attended a meeting in the Town Hall, Odessa, on Tuesday evening, when J. Laughland, Agricultural Representative, provided a programme of motion pictures, depicting Kemptville Agricultural School, Ontario Agricultural College, historic events, and comedy. Courses in Agricultural and Domestic Science, to be conducted in Odessa during the month of February, were outlined and committees appointed to make final arrangements. At the close of the meeting several young people intimated their desire to take the Course.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF L. AND A. R. E. C.

The 43rd Annual Convention of the Lennox and Addington R. E. C. was held at Sillsville United Church, on Tuesday, October 27th, 1925. The Convention opened at 10 a.m. with the President, Mr. Baldwin, in the Chair. The Rev. S. Stainton conducted the devotional exercises, reading for scripture the story of the "Ten Midnight Shoppers".

After the usual remarks of welcome, other business, etc., Rev. Mr. Stainton gave a splendid address on the "Ten Virgins".

He said that he felt sure that all of those virgins were S. S. workers. Five faithful and five foolish. The faithful ones not only had their lamps filled, but also carried with them surplus oil. That, he said, is what we need to-day. Sunday School workers with surplus oil. In other words, not just enough religion for themselves but enough to share with all they meet.

The religion of the five faithful virgins of this Bible story, Mr. Stainton believes is too out-of-date for to-day. Instead, he thinks, that is what the world needs most, at this hit-it-hard time.

The foolish virgins wanted admission when it was too late. The door was shut. So, also, are there doors in the lives of children and young people to-day, namely, the doors of health, intellectuality, morality and spirituality. It is, he said, the duty of Sunday School teachers and parents to so teach the children how to use their bodies and minds that they may not find when it is too late that some of those doors are shut.

Many people, he said, is guided purely by instinct. The following are the ones he named: Firstly, the instinct of fear. If this instinct is abused the child later becomes a nervous, irritable person. If guided it becomes a splendid, cheerful person. Secondly, the instinct of fight. If left runs wild the child becomes a lawless bully. If guided and properly developed, the child becomes a strong, courageous character. Thirdly, the instinct of play. If encouraged and guided, we have a cheerful disposed child. If left to run, leads to gambling. Fourthly, the sexual instinct. If undeveloped, leads to bashfulness. If developed, makes a true lover of truth and all that is pure and good. Lastly, the religious instinct. If undeveloped, the child in later years, becomes an atheist. If developed, it leads to faith in God.

To guide and direct these instincts, Mr. Stainton said, is the work of the Sunday School and the workers of to-day.

The afternoon session was chiefly taken up with the reports of the Secretary-Treasurer and the other Departmental Superintendents, all but two of whom were present. These reports showed that the officers have been working hard and individual Sunday School teachers and officers have been working.

Among these reports, the Rev. R. B. Ferris, Toronto, led in a discussion of the reports, and many good ideas were exchanged.

At the evening session, the Rev. Mr. Ferris gave an address on the "Job of the O. R. E. C."

Our task, he said, is the development of Christian character. Day schools take up secular education only. The church must therefore provide religious education. The development of a Christian personality leads to a life of Christian service. He said that character cannot be imparted or inherited, it has to be formed.

Formation of character begins in very early life and is the result of revelation on the child of all that takes place about him. He gets his ideas of life from the teaching in the home and school. They copy the things older folks about them do and later these things become habits of the child. Let us therefore see, Mr. Ferris said, that we, as parents or as teachers, give the growing child the right ideas about God, about Life and the World. In order to do this religious education. The development of a Christian personality leads to a life of Christian service. He said that character cannot be imparted or inherited, it has to be formed.

In later childhood, the child becomes a hero worshipper. Big men's qualities appeal to him. We have just the best of characters in the Bible for boys and girls to pattern their lives after. Bring them face to face with the great Leader of Men that they may be put equipped for life's work.

This very inspiring address ended one of the best conventions of our Lennox and Addington R. E. C.

WEST HUNTINGDON UNITED CHURCH

A red letter day was registered at the above church in connection with the annual church anniversary services held on Sunday evening, Nov. 9th. The feature calling for special emphasis was the musical program, a whole programme was put on by the following young ladies from Napanee: Miss Evelyn McKim, Miss Nina McKim, Miss Jean Paul, and Miss Grace Hall. The vocal numbers rendered by Miss McKim were well received and immensely enjoyed. Instrumental selections were given by Miss Paul and Miss Evelyn McKim. Readings were given by Miss Nina McKim and Miss Jean Paul, with the following numbers were applauded so heartily that each one had to render them again, as an extra: Duet from Napanee were in fine form. According to the verdict of a packed house, such a programme has never been heard in these parts before. It will only be necessary to announce a big entertainment and any future date to fill the church to capacity. The girls were simply lionized by the crowd of admirers, and it was with difficulty they got away.

RE TRAFFIC BY-LAWS

Napanee, Nov. 15th, 1925.

To the Editor of Napanee Beaver.

Dear Sir,—In your paper of Nov. 6th, 1925, the Napanee Town Council gave notice of a By-Law passed under the new Highway Traffic Act, regulating traffic on the streets within the Corporation of the Town of Napanee.

You will remember, Mr. Editor, that there was considerable complaint about the congested condition of Dundas Street on Saturday evenings in the early summer. Shortly afterward the Town Council of Napanee passed a By-law giving notice that no automobile or other vehicle would be allowed to park along Dundas Street between given points longer than a certain time on Saturday evenings; also that all vehicles were required to come to a full stop at the white painted line at the intersection of certain named streets leading onto Dundas Street.

Personally, I had no objection to said By-law, but owing to the fact that I and many others misunderstood the by-law to pertain to Saturday evenings only, I did not observe said by-law any further than to be careful when approaching intersection of any streets, and as a consequence, I and a considerable number of others, were summoned to appear before the Police Magistrate on August 6th, charged with "Unlawfully while driving a motor vehicle, failing to come to a full stop before entering Dundas St., Napanee, at the white painted line on the pavement at the intersection of Dundas St. and John St., contrary to By-law No. 1205 of the Town of Napanee."

Afterward, my son, C. B. Creighton, who had occasion to travel through all the towns and villages from Bowmanville in the west to Kemptville in the east, felt the necessity of knowing what the "standard" stop sign mark was, and consequently wrote to the Hon. G. S. Henry, Minister of Public Works and Highways, regarding the matter. Mr. Henry forwarded the letter to "Department of Highways", and the following reply came to hand:—

Aug. 21st. 1925.

Mr. C. B. Creighton,
Napanee, Ont.

Dear Sir,—Your letter of Aug. 8th together with other correspondence has been forwarded to this office for further reply with respect to Traffic By-laws.

This Department quite appreciates the difficulty which would arise from the haphazard designation of stop streets by municipalities, and we therefore require that not only must all By-laws in this regard be first approved by this Department, but also that standard signs must be erected at every intersection before such By-laws may be enforced.

We have no record of any such By-law for the Town of Napanee having been approved, and in any case, unless signs have been erected in accordance with the blue print being sent you herewith, the enforcement of this stop principle would be contrary to our requirements.

After learning that I had broken no By-law that met with the requirements of the Department, I appeared before the members of the Town Council with a complaint. I stated my case quite fully to those of Council who were present, telling them that in my humble opinion every one who had been summoned to appear before the Police Magistrate was entitled to a refund of all costs and also an apology from the members of the Council Board. I further stated that I valued the apology more than the costs. Some of those present admitted that a mistake had been made, but as yet nothing has been done to rectify the said mistake.

Now, Mr. Editor, I leave it to your readers to decide whether the members of the Napanee Town Council have been just and fair in bringing a number of the citizens of Napanee and surrounding country into court, imposing costs upon same, and then dropping the matter entirely until the recent notice in your paper, although the observance of former notice of by-law has been practically nil in the meantime.

HENRY CREIGHTON.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Joan Rook

Stricken suddenly when on her way to church last Sunday morning with a paralytic stroke, Mrs. Joan Rook, of Water Street, never regained consciousness, and passed quietly away at midnight.

Mrs. Rook was born in Camden Township and lived on the homestead until the death of her husband, when she moved into Newburgh. And for about twenty years she made her home there, moving to Napanee in 1915. Mrs. Rook was a life long member of the Presbyterian Church, first in Camden V., then in Newburgh, and latterly at St. Andrew's. A devoted Christian, and church member, a kindly and sympathetic neighbor and friend, she will be greatly missed by the large number to whom through her long life she had endeared herself.

The funeral was held from her late home on Water Street on Tuesday, Rev. A. J. Wilson officiating, and the burial took place in the old Camden V. cemetery.

There are left to survive her loss, two daughters, Miss Emma Rook, of Napanee; Mrs. J. Ramsay, of Belleville; andatwo sons, Irvine, of Oshawa, and Albert, of Galt.

BATH PASTORAL CHARGE

The Anniversary services held at the Union and Bath appointments of the United Church, on Sabbath last, were more than successful, from every point of view. The Union service was held at 11 o'clock, and the Pastor preached the anniversary sermon. The Choir of Beulah United Church had charge of the music, and acquitted themselves with the greatest credit. During the service a solo was beautifully rendered by Miss Lola Compton, of Bath Anglican Church, her sister playing the accompaniment. This number was received by the congregation with deep appreciation. A happy response to the need of the church came in the collection offering, which was received during the former part of the service.

In the evening the Pastor preached the Anniversary sermon at Bath United Church, and the Choir of Harmony had charge of the music. Notwithstanding the heavy rain there were fifteen voices in the Choir, and their numbers were appropriate, well chosen, and excellently rendered. Beth Beulah and Hawley talent will always be welcome. During the service the annual thanksgiving offering was received, and the sum of $352.00 was laid on the plates, the Ladies' Aid making a most generous showing.

On Monday evening a Pie Social was held in the Masonic Hall, and was crowned with success. The hall was filled to capacity, and the enthusiasm, generosity and tact manifested by the ladies of the congregation, young and old, was such that an abundance of good things was left after all had been served.

A most excellent programme was furnished by the Scott Orchestra of Napanee, in which the following artists took part: Miss Dorothy Scott, Mr. Smith, Miss Letha Scott, Mr. Don Scott (in community singing and trombone duet), and Mr. Garnet. The Orchestra will be welcome at any time.

The finances were in charge of Messrs. Wartman, Shepherd and Sexsmith, and they report a total return for Bath United Church for Sunday and Monday of about $425.00. The chair was occupied on Monday night by Pastor.

Hawley Anniversary will be held on Sabbath afternoon, Nov. 29th, and Bath Choir will be in charge of the music.

STRATHCONA

We are glad to say that Miss Bernice Murphy, who has been very ill, is convalescing. — Mr. and Mrs. Brethen, Switzerville, were guests at James Wilson's on Sunday. — A number from here attended the Anniversary services at John Rook, at Napanee, on Tuesday afternoon. — Mr. Cecil Luther left this place on Sunday for Madison, Wisconsin, where he has secured a position with an agricultural firm. On Friday evening about twenty-five of his friends gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mc-Ginn, and a very enjoyable time was spent, consisting of games, contests, singing, etc. During the evening, Cecil was presented with a fountain pen and a copy of the New Testament. Refreshments were served and the party broke up at a late hour, all wishing Cecil continued prosperity in his new sphere of duty.—Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Finlay were in Kingston on Wednesday.—A. H. Hoare took tea at W. J. Finlay's on Sunday evening.—The Mission Circle are planning on having a tip-top concert at the beginning of next month. This concert will be better than ever; so everybody out and near are invited to come. Watch for particulars later in this space.—Sunday School next Sunday at 10.30 a.m.* Everybody invited.

CAMDEN EAST

We have had nice weather the past few days, with lower temperature.—Several of the men who were at work at the bank at the Camden East paper mills, have returned to their homes in the Province of Quebec.—Mrs. Sherlock has returned home from Napanee, where she spent the past week with her niece, Mrs. Burritt, and other friends.—The Anniversary services in the Union Church last Sunday were largely attended. Rev. Mr. Anderson had charge of both the morning and evening services.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Black are spending a few days in Tamworth with his children.—Mr. and Mrs. Harrison spent a day recently with their friends at Maple Avenue.—Mr. and Mrs. B. Scouten and Mrs. Hartman, of Wilton Road, also Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark, of Maple Avenue, spent Monday last with Mr. and Mrs. Hartman.—Mrs. John Simmons, who has been very ill for the past month, is no better at time of writing.—Mr. Leishman and family, his mother and sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Brien, recently.—The many friends of Mrs. Campbell, who has been with her aunt and uncle, and left with her six children for Winnipeg, to join her husband, are very sorry to hear of the serious illness of her husband and five children, with diphtheria, in the hospital for over two months. At present they are all improving. Mrs. and Mrs. E. M. Young, her uncle and aunt, are very much pleased over their recovery.

NEWBURGH

Mr. John Madden has left for Montreal, to spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Pybus.

Mrs. McGill, of Centreville, is spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Gerow.

Miss Armstrong, of Bath, Sundayed with her cousin, Miss Bernice Nugent.

Mr. Russel Kellar, of Enterprise, was at Mrs. Kellar's during the week.

Miss Verna Kellar, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is gaining.

Mrs. Shier was in Kingston for two days with her children, Frances and Bob, who both had operations for throat trouble. We are pleased to state that both are better and able to be around the house.

Mr. Adam Pringle is quite ill at time of writing.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Jos. Ramsay in the death of her mother, Mrs. Rook, which occurred at Napanee on Sunday.

Miss H. Paul took charge of the Sunday night service in the United Church, Mr. Anderson being in Camden East conducting the anniversary services.

There will be no service in the church on Sunday evening, so that any who wish may attend the anniversary service at Wesley.

The Young Peoples' meeting on Monday evening was in charge of Miss Shepley, B.A., of the High School staff. After the usual devotional service, a spelling match took place. Miss Barry, Principal of the Public School, gave out the words, which were to be spelled backwards. This created a good deal of merriment for all present.

The Sunday School of the United Church are planning for a Xmas entertainment,* to be held on Dec 17th.

Miss Eliza Paul entertained her Sunday School Class on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Fred Carter spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Benj. Foote.

Mrs. Hill and son, Waldemar, visited one day last week with Mrs. Gerow, Camden East Road.

Miss Mildred Winster has returned to her duties in Kingston, as stenographer at the Davis Tannery office.

Chas. Detlor is able to be out, after having his arm seriously injured at the paper mill a few weeks ago.

Mr. Reginald Files has moved his family to Point Anne, where he has a lucrative position.

George Walker succeeded in capturing a deer on his trip to the north.

NEWS OF TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

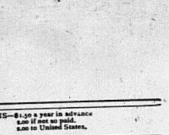
The funeral service of John Albert Wagar was conducted in the United Church of Tamworth last Saturday at 10.30 a.m. Mr. Wagar died at his son's home in Oshawa last Thursday at the age of 74 years. He was born in Napanee, but spent 50 years of his life near Tamworth and for a number of years was Reeve of Sheffield Township. About three years ago he moved to Oshawa. He was an active member and office-bearer in the Methodist Church. His wife preceded him in death. Two sons, W. M. and J. N. Wagar, live in Oshawa. On very short notice a church full of friends gathered to show their respect for the deceased and their sympathy for the bereaved.

John Somerville, a member of the Marlbank congregation, died at his home just south of the village last Friday. Interment took place at the Lime Lake cemetery on Sunday afternoon, the funeral service being conducted at the home at 2 p.m. His wife had passed into the beyond a number of years ago. He leaves two sons, Francis and Bruce, and two daughters, Evelyn, married to Mr. Garretson, and living in Rochester, N.Y., and Berneice. The Marlbank congregation showed their sympathy by withdrawing the afternoon Sunday school and preaching services and attending the funeral service at the home.

The annual presentation of the Home Mission work of the United Church, which was to have been our theme for last Sunday, on account of the two funeral services, has been postponed until next Sunday.

Our Y.P.S. at Tamworth is prospering under the presidency of Lester Shaw. At their meeting on Monday night they will consider what is their share of the maintenance and extension fund, and ways and means of raising it.

In use for over fifteen years! That is the record of not only one but hundreds of Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens—and $2.50 and $2.75 pens at that. Sold and guaranteed at Wallace's, special agents for Napanee.



THE SANTA CLAUS FUND

The response to the appeal for funds for the needy kiddies of Napanee, made by Tee Beaver, is beginning to bear fruit. There is only a small proportion of the child population of the town by poverty deprived of a visit from Santa Claus, and yet that small proportion will be without the excitement and thrill of the Christmas morning unless those who have plenty are willing to share out of their abundance.

There are always many calls on one's generosity at this time of the year, but if only a small amount is contributed by each who can afford it, all will be benefitted.

The Beaver Santa Claus Fund is a non-sectarian agency through which every needy case reported is helped. A number of trained women are now on the job making an inventory, and they report that there is a large number of children for whom the Beaver will have to provide.

Whether in Napanee, or in the County, or in some far place, let all to whom the Beaver comes, and who have a genuine desire to make others happy, share in this good work.

Make all subscriptions payable to Beaver Santa Claus Fund.

ANNIVERSARY AT ST. ANDREW'S

On Sunday last St. Andrew's United Church observed their annual anniversary. Dr. Candler, Principal of Knox College, Toronto, was the special preacher for the day, and inspired the large congregation which gathered in the church. Trinity United withdrew their service in the morning and Grace in the evening, which greatly augmented the usual congregation.

In the morning Dr. Candler spoke on the "Righteousness which exceeds that of the Scribes and Pharasees", stressing the astounding character of Christ's demands in the followers.

In the evening Dr. Candler dealt with the task of the United Church, and in a brilliant address, surveyed the whole foreign and home mission task of the church, with special reference to the international aspect of the situation.

The music was dignified, and well balanced, the Choir showing careful and accurate study.

The church was greatly enhanced by a solo in the morning by Mrs. Valkman, and in the evening a solo by Miss Mary Daly.

YARKER PASTORAL CHARGE

At an adjourned meeting of the Official Board on Monday night the Stewards from Moscow and Colebrook reported their finances in good condition, being paid up in full for the half year. While not just prepared to pledge themselves to raise the amount allocated to the charge for the Maintenance and Extension Fund, they readily passed a motion agreeing to give the fund their hearty support, and endeavor to raise the amount.

On Tuesday night at a gathering of young people in Moscow Church, a Y. P. S. was organized, with the following as officers:—G. T. McKenzie, in charge of Devotional Department; Miss Nellie Allen, Missionary; Mr. Percy Asselstine, Literary; Miss Nickle, Social; Miss Hill, Secretary; Mr. H. Reid, Treasurer; Miss Florence Allen, Organist; Miss I. Reid, Assistant Organist.

MORVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ford, of St. Catharines, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Shane, prior to their trip to England. — Mr. and Mrs. A. Grant have left for Vancouver, where they expect to spend the winter. — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilton and Mr. James Thompsen, of Bewdley, spent the week-end at Mr. George Fralick's. — Mrs. Bartles has returned from a two weeks' visit with Mrs. R. J. Brethen, Switzerville. — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson attended a golden wedding reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Cataraqui, on Wednesday evening. — Mr. Wm. Thompson is visiting Mrs. Levi Thompson, who is ill. — Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Close, Violet, were recent visitors in our midst. — The deer hunters have returned from their two weeks' holiday, each bringing with him a fine deer. — Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garrison, who are both in Kingston hospital for treatment, the former suffering from severe blood poisoning in his arm. — The funeral of the late Mr. Lucas was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. Mills, on Monday. — Mr. E. V. Deneys and family, and Mrs. Burley, spent Sunday with friends in Deseronto. — Reserve the night of Wednesday, Nov. 25th, for the fowl supper.

TOWN COUNCIL

Council Chambers,
Napanee, Nov. 16th, 1925.

Council met in regular session on Monday evening, Mayor Ming presiding.

Members present—Reeve Graham, and Councillors Dunbar, Howitt, MacGregor.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read, and on motion were confirmed.

Councillor MacGregor, Chairman of Finance, reported that the taxes collected up to the present for this year were $79,000.00. He considered that the town is in better shape financially this year than has been the case for several years past. Owing to the fact that the Treasurer, Mr. E. S. Lapum, is ill, it will be necessary for the Council to appoint a Deputy Treasurer. On motion the report was adopted.

Reeve Graham, Chairman of Streets, reported that the town roller had been returned, apparently in good shape, and the Clerk was instructed to write Mr. Harvey, asking for a cheque in settlement for the rent of the roller. Adopted.

A By-law appointing Mr. C. H. Lapum as Deputy Treasurer during the illness of the Treasurer, Mr. E. S. Lapum.

Moved by Reeve Graham, seconded by Councillor MacGregor, that the Clerk be authorized to write the Clerk of the County, consenting to an extension of time as to the Wright estate money held in trust for a House of Refuge. Carried.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Councillor Dunbar, that the application of the Napanee Band to link up with the militia be concurred in by the Council. Carried.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Reeve Graham, that the Fire, Water and Light Committee be instructed to purchase a set of chains for the fire truck. Carried.

Accounts.

The following accounts were ordered paid:—

Napanee Fire Brigade	$586 60
C. A. Anderson & Son	6 37
Fred. L. Hooper	1 12
McIntosh Bros.	1 00
Hydro Electric	7 42
Percy Vine	2 72
Wm. Schryver	75 00

Account, Card's Garage, $5.00, was referred to Street Committee.

Hydro accounts for November were referred to the Clerk.

On motion the Council adjourned.

PIONEER OF KILLAM DISTRICT PASSES AWAY

Killam and district lost another pioneer settler in the person of William Manson Fox, whose death occurred on Wednesday, October 28th, at the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Edmonton.

The late Mr. Fox was born on Nov. 1st, 1858, and came to the Killam district from Napanee, Ont., some nineteen years ago. Later he moved into town and for some years was engaged in business as a general merchant. He retired from active business life about four years ago. He had been in indifferent health for some time, and within the last few weeks had become seriously ill. It was found necessary to perform an operation, ten days after which he passed away.

He leaves to mourn his loss, besides his wife, one son, Ross, and one daughter, Mrs. J. N. Ansley, and six grandchildren, all of Killam, also three brothers, George and Frank, of Killam, and Lewis, of Centreville, Ont.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from the following: Mrs. Fox, the children, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Windover, Mr. and Mrs. E. Busse, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox, Knox United Church, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sayers, Mr. and Mrs. Larson and Wilma, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Whitford and family, Gladys McDonald and Jeanne Lowden.

Funeral services were held in Knox United Church on Saturday afternoon, October 31st, Rev. H. A. Boyd conducting the services. Special music was rendered by the Choir and Miss Esther Sanders sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought".

The large attendance at the services and at the cemetery was evidence of the regard and esteem which the community in general held for the departed neighbor, whose kindly disposition and honourable and honest life made of every acquaintance a friend.—Killam News.

The laird's son was reputed to be a rectifier. When he attained his twenty-first birthday, the villagers presented him with an illuminated address.

After the ceremony, two old worthies were heard in conversation. "What like sort o' thing is this illuminated address, Jeemes, that they've given the laird's son?" "Ah dinna ken," replied Jeemes, "but Ah've an idea it's for when he gets hame at three in the mornin' so's he can see the keyhole."

PROMINENT PRINCE EDWARDERS

DR. G. W. MORDEN.

Gilbert Walworth Morden was born in Picton, on May 10th, 1867, a Confederation year. He was the eldest son of the late Dr. James Barker Morden and Agnes Gilbert. His father was a well known medical practicioner who resided for many years in Picton in the house now owned by Mr. W. R. Browne which was built by Dr. Morden. On his father's side he was descended from two of the pioneer families of this county, the Mordens and Noxons, and on his mother's side from another well known family, the Gilberts.

After matriculating from the Picton High School he entered Queen's University, Kingston, graduating with honors in science after a brilliant course. Adopting the teaching profession he filled the position of science master in Napanee and Picton Collegiates with distinction for some years. Deciding on post graduate work he attended the Pennsylvania University at Philadelphia and on completion of this course taught for a time in George School, Philadelphia, an institution conducted under the auspices of the Society of Friends. Resigning from this position he went to Europe spending a couple of years there continuing his studies at a German University and graduating with the degree of Doc. Inz.

On his return to Canada he accepted a position on the staff of the Manitoba Agricultural College at Winnipeg as professor in charge of the Science Department. In the summer of 1914 he went to England and was there when the war broke out. One of the allies difficulties in the early days of the war was a shortage of chemical supplies. The airplane was being developed and there were no factories under allied control for the manufacture of the cellulose acetate used in treating airplane wings. It was necessary to begin the manufacture of this substance in England and Dr. Morden was called overseas and sent to Basle, Switzerland, where he learned the process of manufacture. Returning to England he was put in charge of an immense factory at Derby, where there were over 7000 employes. This work he continued until after the close of the war. Returning to Canada he re-entered the teaching profession and for the last few years has been Principal of Napanee Collegiate. Under his direction the school has been most successful. The attendance increased so greatly that it was found necessary to enlarge the building and this summer a large addition was erected providing the much needed extra class room as well as a fine gymnasium and an enlarged assembly room. The attendance is now near the 300 mark, an increase of fifty per cent since Dr. Morden took charge.

While he has specialized in science Dr. Morden has a wide range of scholastic attainments. He is a good linguist and speaks French and German and reads Spanish and Italian. He has a good working acquaintance with shortland and the typewriter. He has travelled extensively and his illustrated travel lectures are much in demand. Dr. Morden is an enthusiastic Mason.

Although most of his time has been spent away from his home town there are few who keep closer in touch with the place of his birth and early associations. He is a frequent and welcome visitor among his old Picton friends. — Picton Gazette, Nov. 12th, 1925.

Pure Rich Blood Means Good Health

Also It Means Bright Eyes, Red Lips and Rosy Cheeks.

The lack of sufficient red, healthgiving blood does not end merely in pale faces and lustreless eyes. It is much more serious. Bloodless people are the tired, languid, run-down folk who have no enjoyment in life. They have heart palpitation, headaches and backaches, no appetite, sometimes fainting spells, and always nervousness. Just a little more rich, red blood and these troubles vanish. To get this new, rich, red blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are just the thing you need. That is why these pills have a world-wide reputation as a blood and nerve tonic. Among those who have proved the truth of these statements is Miss Annie M. Blonski, Woodridge, Man., who says:—"I became very weak and nervous, had pains in my side and back and suffered from frequent sick headaches. I was hardly able to do anything about the house and would awake with a start at night, with my heart pounding violently. If I walked upstairs I would be breathless and my heart would flutter rapidly. I used doctor's medicine but it did not give me any permanent good. Then I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try them, and I can only say that they did wonders for me. I am now well and strong again and able to do all my work, and this is all due to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have recommended the pills to others who have taken them with equally good results."

You can get the pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OBITUARY

William R. Jackson.

On October 29th, the people of Humberstone and Port Colborne were very much shocked to hear of the sudden and sad death of Mr. William Jackson, a highly respected citizen of Humberstone. Having been tax collector last year, and having a small shoe business made Mr. Jackson well known in the village, and well liked by everyone who knew him. He was born in Enterprise, Ont., and was 58 years of age, and has lived in Humberstone and Port Colborne for a number of years. The funeral was held from the family residence on Sunday, being conducted by the Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. Jackson was a member. Rev. Meyer, of the United Church, of which Mr. Jackson was also an honored member preached the funeral sermon. Interment was made at Oakwood Cemetery. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind husband and loving father, his wife and two daughters, Lenta and Helen, also one sister. The beautiful floral tributes showed the esteem in which he was held by his many friends. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.—Port Colborne Citizen, Nov. 5th, 1925.

John Albert Wagar.

John Albert Wagar, one of the oldest pioneers of Lennox and Addington counties, died at his home yesterday, after being confined to his bed for only two days. Mr. Wagar, husband of the late Elizabeth Stover, was in his 74th year. Born in Lennox County in 1852, he moved into Addington County at the age of six years. When he moved into the country was a mere wilderness, but with the spirit of a true pioneer he set to work to clear a farm for himself. He remained on this farat for 65 years, moving to Oshawa three years ago. Mr. Wagar was Reeve of the Township of Sheffield for 12 years, a Methodist in religion, and a staunch liberal in politics, casting his vote in the last election. Last February he took a stroke and had not been well since. He leaves to mourn his death two sons, W. M. Wagar and J. A. Wagar, both of Oshawa; three sisters, Mrs. H. Kelly, Canrose, Alberta; Mrs. S. Morton, Tamworth, and Mrs. Joseph Hoffman, of Tamworth, Ont.; three brothers, J. N. Wagar, Napanee, Ont., L. L. Wagar, Enterprise, Ont., and Wellington Wagar, of Gladwin, Michigan. The funeral will take place from the family residence, Kingston Road East, on Saturday afternoon. Rev. W. W. Mills will conduct the funeral services at 1 o'clock. Interment at Tamworth.—The Oshawa Daily Reformer, Nov. 12th, 1925.

James Stinson.

The death occurred on Tuesday evening, Nov. 17th, of James Stinson, a highly respected resident of the Township of Hungerford. The late Mr. Stinson was in his seventy-eighth year of age and enjoyed excellent health until the last year of his life. He was born in Enniskillen, Ireland. When a child of two years of age his parents with their family came to Canada, settling on a farm near Tamworth. Three years later they moved to a farm in Hungerford Township, where he has since successfully farmed. The deceased is the last member of a family of seven and all reached the advanced age of over three score years and ten. He was predeceased nearly two years by his wife, who was a daughter of the late Robert McDonnell, of Sheffield Township. In religion he was an Anglican, and in politics a life long Conservative. He was a man of outstanding qualities, and was always noted for his honesty and uprightness. He is survived by a family of seven children, Misses Mary E. and Jennie, at home; Miss (Rev.) Poston, Brockville; Adam and James, of Tamworth; Robert, on the homestead, and Edward, of Gadsby, Alberta.—The funeral was largely attended, and was held on Nov. 12th. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. A. Paston, of Tamworth.

ARDEN

The weather at time of writing is very changeable.—Miss Jennie Johnston, of Toronto, spent a few days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston.—The literary meeting of last week was at the home of Lillian Boomhour. Quite a number attended and everyone enjoyed a good time.—Miss Lets and Willie Blends spent last Wednesday evening the guests of Irene Gendron; also Mrs. Ada Blends and Miss Hilda Osborne.—Quite a number of the hunters from the north have returned to their homes here. All report the best of luck. A number of men are busy remodelling the old cheese factory over into a creamery. Also a gang of men are busy building a new cheese factory. These will both be creamery and the factory will be kept busy.—Mr. Stewart Gendron, of Smiths Falls, spent a few days recently at his home here.—Miss Helen Baker, teacher at Bethany School, spent the week end with Faye Clarke.—Miss Laura Greene spent Saturday evening the guest of Lillian Boomhour.

IS YOUR CHILD THIN AND WEAK?

Cod Liver Extract In Sugar Coated Tablets Puts On Flesh and Builds Them Up

In just a few days—quicker than you ever dreamt of—these wonderful health building, flesh creating tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets will start to help any thin, underweight little one.

After sickness and where rickets are suspected they are especially valuable.

Most people know that from the livers of the lowly codfish vitamines of the first class are extracted—the kind that help all feeble underweight men, women and children.

Try these wonderful tablets for 30 days and if your frail, puny child don't greatly benefit — get your money back.

A very sickly child, age 9, gained 12 pounds in 7 months.

Ask any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets—as easy to take as candy and 60 tablets, 60 cents.

Don't let your car radiator freeze! Use "K" Vaps. Radiator Glycerin cleaner than alcohol. Won't evaporate. One filling lasts entire season. 20 below zero can't freeze it, and it costs less than alcohol. Ask for information at Wallace's Drug Store.

FEEDING LAYING PULLETS

Especially good results were obtained from alfalfa leaves in an experiment conducted at the Brandon Experimental Farm, to determine the value of different supplements when fed in conjunction with the regular ration. Alfalfa leaves fed in an open rack kept before the pullets continuously, mangels split and fed fresh each day, and canner's meat cooked and mixed with the mash, were the supplements used. During the 62 days of the experiment the hens given alfalfa leaves laid an average of 29.9 eggs as compared with an average of 22.9 laid by those given meat and 20.1 by those given mangels. The alfalfa leaves gave, therefore, the greatest profit over cost of feed, and in this test were shown to be worth 10.8 cents per pound as a winter feed for laying pullets.

Miller's Worm Powders act mildly and without injury to the child, and we can be no doubt of their deadly effect upon worms. They have been in successful use for a long time and are recognized as a leading preparation for the purpose. They have proved their power in numerless cases and have given relief to many children, who, but for the good offices of this compound, would have continued weak and enfeebled.

FEEDING DAIRY COWS

Ensilage produced more milk and butter at a less cost than mangels, roots and hay fed, in an experiment carried out at the Experimental Farm at Agassiz, B.C. Each cow was fed on an average per day of a grain ration composed of three parts oat chop, three parts bran, one part barley chop and one part oilmeal with some mineral added. Each cow also received ten pounds of alfalfa hay and fifty pounds of either ensilage or pulped mangels. The cows getting ensilage produced two pounds each more milk per day than those fed mangels. It took ten pounds more ensilage than silage to produce a hundred pounds of milk and twelve more pounds to produce a pound of butter fat. The cost of producing a hundred pounds of milk was $1.28 with ensilage and $1.55 with mangels.

"Papa," asked little Willie, "why do they call it the mother tongue?"
"Well," answered father, "just see who uses it the most!"

FOR JOY OF GOOD HEALTH

Manitoba Woman Thanks Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Crandall, Manitoba.—"When I was a young girl at home and working I had terrible pains, almost more than I could bear, and I was not regular. These troubles kept me so tired all the time that I had no strength and no ambition to join in with my friends and have a good time. I was just tired and miserable always and life just seemed as if it wasn't worth living. I saw so much in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then I had a friend who had taken it and told me about it, so I got some. Every month after taking it I got stronger and I even did not suffer every month. It stopped the pains and helped me other ways. Then when my babies were coming I was tired and worn out the first three months and ached badly. I took the Vegetable Compound right along and must say it made a new woman of me and able to do my work, and it helped me through confinement. You see I am a farmer's wife with a big house to look after, and a few babies now. I have told ever so many women about your medicine. Just last week I got a letter from my old chum in the East. Her baby was born fifteen days before mine and she told me she was not feeling very well, her back aches so much, and that she is going to take the same medicine I took. You can use my letter and I hope some one will be helped by it."—Mrs. Jos. H. Kirby, Box 56, Crandall, Manitoba. C

OUR TOY-LAND IS OPENED FOR THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

SURPRISES GALORE AWAIT YOU AT EVERY TURN

The other night when Santa Claus passed over Napanee on his way to pay his annual visit to the big stores in Toronto, he stopped over in Napanee just long enough to leave us the most wonderful assortment of Toys imaginable for the boys and girls of this community. All the old reliables are here, as well as a whole host of new Toys, that Santa made this summer in his workshop at the North Pole.

Now look here, boys and girls, we want each and every one to pay us a visit as soon after reading this as you possibly can. You boys and girls who live in town can drop in after school any day during the week, and we would also you to kindly turn Saturday over to your boy and girl friends who live in the country who cannot get in at any other time.

See the Big Midway of Mechanical Toys, featuring the Whip, Ferris-Wheels and Merry-go-rounds.
See the big new assortment of wind-up and electric trains. See our new library of interesting and popular picture books. See our magnificent and specially priced assemblage of character and mama dolls; our gallery of musical instruments. See the new games and Xmas decorations, but best of all come and see our perfectly splendid brand new doll carriages in all the latest styles and colors.

Every last thing is out on display. Everything is properly classified and plainly marked. We, as usual, urge, for your own convenience, to do your Xmas shopping as early as possible.

THE ROBINSON COMPANY, LIMITED.

The Satin Hat is Quite the Smartest for Winter Wear

"Smartest", because Satin can be moulded into clever head-fitting shapes that can be worn successfully with winter coats of fur and cloth.

"Smartest", because its richness and beauty combines with most of the shades considered fashionable for afternoon wear.

"Smartest", because Satin is a lovely background for exclusive trimmings.

We are now featuring a particularly fine range of Satin Hats, from a very clever maker. These exemplify all the advanced style variations of the winter season.

Black is one of the outstanding colors in this showing.

All are moderately priced.

For Dependable Service Choose Coats of Persian Lamb

Persian Lamb, owing to the extreme difficulty of securing thoroughly fresh skins, lost ground during the war years.

Steadily, season by season, since the first Armistice day, Persian Lamb Coats have been gaining lost ground. This season it is on equal terms of fashionable popularity with other furs used in the manufacture of Women's and Misses' Coats.

Our present stock of Persian Lamb Coats offers a wide field for individual selection. Featured are Coats trimmed with Sable or Squirrel, or in all Lamb. They come in straight-line styles that are fashionable and wearable for days.

Linings, workmanship, and quality are individually and collectively guaranteed. We handle only those grades that are bound to give our customers reasonable returns on their investments. Let us quote you prices.

New Shipments of Afternoon and Evening Gowns Make Our Assortments Surprisingly Complete

The second range of Dresses, especially expressing gowns for evening and afternoon wear is ready, especially so at Robinson's. Here we have assembled a collection exploiting all the newest style and color trends for the on-coming winter season.

The vogue of Velvet for both afternoon and evening impresses on for new triumphs. It is to be hailed as the ever popular and fashionable Black, as well as in a range of brilliant and gorgeous colorings. Laces in Gold and Silver are used repeatedly for combinations and ornamentations.

At every turn, too, are seen Canton Crepes, fashioned into two-piece straight-line and into fascinating flare type silhouettes. Long sleeves in gowns of Satin Crepe create a practical as well as a dignified appearance. These also come in Black, and in all the bright winter colors.

In dance frocks, delicate Georgettes create many dainty dance frocks. These come in beautiful pastel colorings, and are ornamented with rhinestones, laces, painted stencils, beads and feathers.

Our dress cabinets are alive with these newest creations. We invite your inspections.

The Toronto Holly Candy Shops have recently been purchased by the Betty Benson Candy Co. Chocolates formerly sold at 70c. will now be sold at 60c. at Hooper's Drug Store, Sole Agents.

CROYDON.

Those who went hunting from around here have returned home with their allowance of deer.—A few of the young people from here attended the fowl supper and dance at Tamworth on Nov. 11th, and report as usual a good time. — Mr. Raymond Campbell spent a recent Sunday evening at Mr. Pete Teskey's.—The Misses Agnes and Celia Nolan and Etta Kring have gone to Toronto for the winter months. — Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Jackson and family, Selby, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Teskey.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Black and family, of Thorncliffe Ave., Toronto, called at W. B. Close's on Thanksgiving.—Mr. and Mrs. P. Nolan spent a day last week with their daughter, Mrs. Joe Murphy, of Strathcona.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bargar called at Mr. Stewart Close's, on Sunday. Glad to see Mrs. Barrgar able to be out again. — Messrs. Stewart Close and Raymond Campbell spent Saturday in Napanee. — Messrs. Albert Hughes and H. King made a business trip to Moscow on Saturday.—Mr. John Dewey and sister, Miss Thressa, were Sunday evening guests at Mr. Stewart Close's.

The Women's Institute of Croydon held its monthly meeting on Nov. 11th, in the evening, at the home of Mrs. W. B. Close, with the President, Mrs. Rosa McGregor, in the chair, and twenty-five in attendance. The meeting opened by singing the Opening Ode, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The roll call was answered by a humorous story. A solo was sweetly rendered by Master Denis Nolan. A contest was prepared and given by Miss May Haggerty, which was found very interesting. The ladies have planned to call a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Peter Teskey this afternoon or Dec. 8th, to make over clothing and prepare things for Christmas for those in need and give as a donation from the Women's Institute. Some community singing was given by a number of our members, and the meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

WILSON'S CROSSING.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Clark to our midst. They are moving on the farm lately vacated by Mr. Clarence Weese.—Mr. Allen Dopking has returned home, after spending the summer at Mr. P. Scott's, Napanee. — Mr. W. Dopking left for Dexter, N.Y., on Wednesday. — Mrs M. Loucks has gone to spend a couple of weeks at Mr. R. Loucks', Messina, N.Y. —Mayor Newman has accepted the chairmanship for Picton of the Beck Memorial Endowment. This was the last public appeal of the late Sir Adam Beck to the people of Ontario to carry on the work of Queen Alexandra Sanatorium for tuberculosis, which he and the late Lady Beck established.

—Miss Catherine Baird will give a Piano Recital, in Trinity Church, Dec. 8th, assisted by Miss Eileen Law, Contralto Soloist of Eaton Memorial Church, Toronto, and Mrs. Cameron Wilson, Violinist. The Nordheimer Co., of Toronto, are supplying a full Concert Grand Piano for this interesting event.

—Master Reggie Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, River Road, has returned home from the Kingston General Hospital, where he has been confined for the past four months owing to severe injuries which he received in an accident. His many chums were pleased to see him home again and to know that he will soon be all right again.

Friday, Nov. 27th

—Not often does a town of the size of Napanee have such an array of prominent Educationalists pay it a visit at about the same time. Over the week end Napanee had a chance to see and hear Dr. Dyde, Principal of Queen's Theological College; Principal Gandier, of Knox College, Toronto, and Dr. Taylor, Principal of Queen's University.

—Diamond annual teameeting, which was held on November 6th, under the auspices of the United Church, drew a large crowd, and was very successful. The programme was furnished by the Brooks family, of Roblin, and Desmond talent. Miss Madeline Wagar, of Enterprise, was the accompanist, and her playing added much to the success of the evening.

—There will be a special meeting of the Maple Leaf Women's Institute next Thursday, Nov. 26th, at 7.30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Arthur Curl, Big Creek, when the delegate will give a full report of the convention held in Ottawa last week. There will be other items of interest given. The public is cordially invited to be present, while the gentlemen are especially invited by the Institute. Will the members kindly contribute toward the refreshments. Please note change in time of meeting.

SILLSVILLE

Messrs. Percy and Leslie Merritt spent a few days in Toronto last week. Leslie, who is a Third Form boy in the N. C. I., and not yet fifteen years old, won the gold medal in Judging Dairy stock. The special service held in Sillsville Church by Rev. Mr. Dixon, have been much enjoyed by those who could attend. Mr. Dixon is a fine speaker and singer. The attendance was somewhat hurt by the farm work, which is belated. The people cannot attend very regularly. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon are spending the week while in Sillsville at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hough. —Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Young on Friday in Moscow, visiting his sister, Mrs. Robt. Asselstine.—Our teacher, Miss Keyves, is training the children for a Xmas concert. The Young People of Hayburn are giving their play, entitled "Turning the Trick," in Sillsville Town Hall on Friday, Nov. 20th. This play is a particularly funny one, and as Hayburn has good talent, the hall should be well filled.

—Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mellow visited at Mr. Ed. Hambly's on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lance spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Chambers', Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lance and Mrs. Hawley.—Messrs. Harry and Albert Mellow, after a short holiday at their home, have returned to resume their studies at the University of Toronto. —Mrs. Jas. Alexander, of Belleville, spent last week with her brother, Mr. A. Dean. — Mrs. R. Parks and little daughter, Mildred, are visiting friends in Colborne.

FOUR IN CAR HIT BY TRAIN AT VERONA

Mother and Daughter Are at General Hospital.—Driver Taken to Smith's Falls.

Injured in a serious accident Sunday, at Verona, when a car driven by Mr. T. F. Reynolds, collided with the 12.25 train at Durette's crossing, Mrs. Craig and daughter, of Verona, were admitted to the Kingston General Hospital Sunday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock. The little girl had suffered a broken thumb and cuts about the face, while the mother was badly shaken up. Mr. Reynolds was badly hurt and was taken to Smith's Falls by the express for treatment. His wife is at home, only having received a severe shaking up.

Husband's, Colebrook, recently. —Mr. and Mrs. Roy Freeman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Freeman.—Miss Jessie Bell spent Thanksgiving at her parents, in Belleville.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lee have moved into the vacant house of Mrs. Ora Lee, for the winter.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Ashley and son at F. Snider's, recently.—Mrs. W. Wilson spent Sunday at S. Burgess'. — Mr. Coleman Switzer spent a few days at F. O'Neill's.—Mr. Hicks, former banker, called in the village for a few days, en route to a Peterboro' bank.—Mr. Jack Winters, of the West, is visiting his parents', Mr. and Mrs. S. Winters.—Miss Lillian Card spent a few days under the parental roof.

—Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

FOURTH LINE

The residents of this community are still booming under the heavy rainfall they have been getting, and they down-hearted? No, just damp footed.—The members of the Switzerville League entertained the Fourth Line League at Fourth Line Church, on Friday evening, Nov. 6th, a goodly number being present from both Switzerville and here. The solos, readings, duets and addresses that were rendered were much appreciated by all. After the programme had been given, lunch was served, and the League closed by all singing, "God be with you till we meet again".—Don't forget the next League night will be Dec. 4th. A good programme is being prepared, and we hope to have a large attendance as possible. Everyone welcome.—The Quarterly Service was held at this church a week ago Sunday, the church being well filled with friends and neighbors who enjoyed very much the sermon by Rev. Mr. Merrick. Church will be held here next Sunday evening, owing to the Anniversary Service at Cloven being in the afternoon. —Miss Rose Glenn, Belleville Road, spent the week end at Mr. S. M. Reid's.—The heavy downfall of rain on Sunday night, nearly made some of our young men return home in boats.—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Denyes and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sprague took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robson on Sunday last.—The Rev. and Mrs. Merrick and Mary spent Thanksgiving at Mr. Wm. Robson's. —Mrs. Jas. Robson has returned home, after spending some time with her mother at Odessa.—Miss Hazel Reid has returned to her duties at Albert College, after spending the week end under the parental roof.—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reid and family spent Sunday at Mr. C. F. Reid's. —Mr. Jas. McFarlen had the misfortune of losing one of his valuable mare sheep, it being struck by a motor truck.—A serious accident happened near Storms' Corners, on Tuesday afternoon, when a car struck the young child of Mr. Sweet, throwing him into the ditch. — The happresers are making themselves busy at Mr. E. L. Hagerman's. — A few of the neighbours are busy dressing clover.—The busy preparations speak well for the success of the Xmas tree on Dec. 22nd.

The delicate fragrance of Yardleys Old English Lavender, is a delight to every woman. The Soap at 35c. a cake; Talcum at 60c.; Face Cream at $1.00; Bath Salts at $1.25 and $3.00; Floating Bath Bowls at $7.50; make most pleasing and useful gifts. A complete stock at Wallace's, special agents for Napanee.

BETHANY

Goodfellow, of Deseronto, are visiting at their son's, Mr. Frank Clark.—Mr. Hiram Bonter has returned home, after visiting his daughter.—Mrs. E. Howell, and daughter spent Tuesday with her father, Mr. Geo. Burtch.—Anniversary services here on Sunday. Special music at each service. Hay Bay choir will furnish the music in the evening. Don't forget the Sunday evening.—Mrs. J. Snook, River Road, visited her daughter, Mrs. E. Joyce, for a few days.

LAWS OF THE INCAS.

A Code That Was Remarkable For Its Beneficent Simplicity.

Among the most remarkable laws of the Incas were those concerning taxation. The principal feature of these was that taxes were not paid in money, but in work and in produce, whether manufactured or grown. The Inca emperors thought it unjust to demand that taxes should be paid in any kind of commodity that the people could not produce by their own personal labor.

The people also paid another sort of tribute. They made clothes, shoes and arms for the soldiers and for the poor who could not work themselves owing to age or infirmity. The cloth was made of wool from the flocks of llamas that abounded in the mountains. On the plains of the seacoast, where the climate is warm and they do not dress in woolens, the people made cotton cloths, the cotton being supplied from the crops of the emperor. The shoes were made in the provinces where sloes were most abundant, for they were made of the leaves of a tree called maguey. Each province furnished its own produce, and no province had to supply anything that did not belong to it.

There was a mandate that forbade beggary and destitution; that, of course, followed upon due provision of their laws. Every citizen was provided for theoretically and practically. No man need be idle; no man need lack land or seed or implements for cultivation; therefore no one was permitted to beg. If any were found doing so it was clear proof of idleness, for the incapable were provided for, and contempt and punishment were meted out on all tramps, vagabonds and idlers.—"The Secret of the Pacific."

"For the Sake of Argument."

"Well, now, for the sake of argument"— Is there any greater bore than the person who habitually employs it? To be asked to assume anything "just for the sake of argument" invariably prejudices us against making that concession. We sit grim lipped while the contrariwise assumes and expounds. We feel that to oblige him we would not even assume that two and two make four.—Youth's Companion.

An Unsolved Problem.

"How, sir, is it possible," demanded counsel in a case in which the man under going his public examination, "to live in the luxurious style you have affected on £60 a year?"

"That," replied the bankrupt, "is a problem to which I have devoted considerable study, in the interests of my own economy, and the results of my humble efforts are now before the court."—London Mail.

Plenty of Collars.

A young man went into a clothing store and asked for a collar. The clerk waited on him and said: "They are 15 cents each, two for 25 cents. Want two?"

The young man replied, "No, I have plenty of collars, but they are both in the laundry."—Indianapolis News.

ROD AND GUN.

A wealth of good sporting and hunting reading matter is dewelled with in the fiction story, The Way of a White Man, is contained in the December issue of Rod and Gun, magazine of the Canadian Outdoors, which has just been published. In addition to regular features of the magazine being in keeping with the period of the year, the other articles are very timely and Along the Snowshoe Trail in W. C. Motley's Outdoor Talk is particularly seasonable. Another refreshingly humorous cartoon by James Frise also appears.

An interesting article in connection with the increasing interest in fur farming is Bonnycastle Dale's contribution, The Life of the Black Fox, dealing with the animal in captivity.

A significant note in the matter of the protection of game is struck in the December editorial and the publication of the syllabus of the British Columbia Game Protective Association. The development of a Dominion wide protective association seems to be becoming more concrete.

YOUR GREATEST OPPORTUNITY FOR PLEASURE AND PROFIT DURING SPARE TIME--START YOUR LIST OF "C-WORDS" TO-DAY

You may never in your lifetime be given another opportunity such as we are offering you in our Puzzle Game to "play and learn" while earning a big cash prize. You can't help enjoy ng the hunt for "C-Words" in this Picture Puzzle. All you need is an observing eye. Let's all join in and have a jolly good time. No matter what your age, if you like to solve puzzles, try your hand at this one. It really is not a puzzle at all, for all the objects in the big picture have been made perfectly plain, with no attempt to disguise or hide them. Get a pencil and paper and see how many "C-Words" you can find.

When you have made up your list of "C-Words" send it in along with one, two or three yearly subscriptions to The Mail and Empire at $5.00 per year, which will qualify your answer for the Big Cash Prizes to be awarded on December 23rd to those sending in the 100 best answers. YOU CAN WIN A HANDSOME CASH PRIZE FOR XMAS. Start your list of "C-Words" To-day.

EASY RULES

1. Any man, woman or child may enter this great Puzzle Competition. Employees of The Mail & Empire, its subsidiaries or affiliated companies are not eligible to participate in this Puzzle Competition conducted by The Mail & Empire.

2. All answers must be received by December 9th, 1925, and addressed to Puzzle Manager, The Mail and Empire, Toronto, Ont. Be sure to write your name and address in the upper left hand corner of your envelope, and your full name and address at the end of your list of "C-Words". Write your full name and address plainly on each sheet of paper and number each sheet consecutively if you choose to use a separate sheet.

3. Only such words as appear in the Standard Dictionary will be counted. Do not include slang words. Words cannot be counted unless they are correctly spelled, though good spelling is not necessary in the case of foreign words.

4. The answer having the largest number of visible objects in the picture that begin with the letter "C" and the nearest correct number to the list of names of visible objects beginning with the letter "C" as compiled by the Puzzle Committee of The Mail & Empire, will be awarded First Prize; second largest correct number of words, Second Prize, etc. In the event of a tie for any prize, the full amount of such prize will be awarded to each tied participant.

5. Subscriptions should be sent in at the rate of $5.00 per year, and will be delivered by carrier boy in Hamilton, or by mail anywhere in Canada, regardless of whether or not they are new subscriptions or renewals.

6. Three prominent business men in Toronto, not connected with The Mail & Empire, will be appointed by the Publishers to act as Judges to decide the prize winners in this Puzzle Competition. The Judges' decision will be final and binding in all cases. Prize winners will be published in The Mail and Empire, and prizes will be awarded before Christmas.

Your own subscription will be entered at once to start at some future date, if you so desire. In order when you want the paper to start promptly on that date, you should write to get subscriptions to The Mail and Empire. To qualify your answer for the Big Cash Prizes is by far the best daily newspaper in Ontario.

HERE'S HOW THE BIG PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED

$500.00 instead of $20 will be awarded to the answer winning First Prize if ONE yearly subscription to The Mail and Empire at $5.00 by mail has been sent in. Second Prize, $400.00; Third Prize, $200.00, and so forth. (See second column of figures in prize list.)

$1000.00 instead of $20 will be awarded to the answer winning First Prize if TWO (new or renewal) yearly subscriptions to The Mail and Empire are sent in. Second Prize, $800.00; Third Prize, $500.00, and so forth. (See third column of figures in prize list.)

$2000.00 instead of $20 will be awarded to the answer winning First Prize provided THREE (new or renewal) yearly subscriptions to The Mail and Empire are sent in. Second Prize, $1,600.00; Third Prize, $1,250.00, and so forth. (See fourth column of figures in prize list.)

Isn't this the most remarkable and liberal offer you have ever had presented to you? And that's not all. We will give extra amounts on all prizes in the same manner. If your answer is qualified by THREE yearly subscriptions and you win fourth prize, you will receive $400.00, and so forth down the prize list. You are given an opportunity to participate in 100 Prizes totalling over $8,000, where the 100th prize with THREE subscriptions wins $15.00, so that you would get your own two additional subscribers should you only win the 100th prize.

How Prizes Will Be Awarded

The "C-WORD" Picture Puzzle Game is a campaign to increase the popularity of The Mail and Empire. It costs nothing to take part, and you do not have to send in a subscription to win a prize. If your list of "C-Words" is awarded First Prize by the Judges you will win $20.00; but if you would like to win more than $20, we are making the following special offer whereby you can win greater cash prizes by sending in ONE, or TWO, or THREE yearly subscriptions to The Mail and Empire.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Sambo—"Pete, Pete, wake up!"
Pete—"I can't."
Sambo—"Why can't you?"
Pete—"'Cos I ain't asleep."

Many mothers have reason to bless Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, because it has relieved the little ones of suffering and made them healthy.

She—"Whatever made poor old Reggie jump in the river?"
He—"I expect there was a woman at the bottom of it."

For Both House and Stable.—There is a good deal of similarity, physically speaking, between rhuman beings and the lower animals. Both are subject to many ailments arising from inflammation and to all manner of cuts and bruises. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an entirely reliable remedy for such ailments and mishaps in both human beings and the lower orders of animals.

Irate Housewife—Ain't you the same man I gave a mince pie to last Christmas?
Tramp (bitterly)—No, mum, I'm not; an' wot's more, the doctors say I never will be again.

For Rheumatic Pains.—The pains and aches of Sciatica and Rheumatism should be treated with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The soothing and healing properties of this famous remedy have been demonstrated for fifty years. Use it also for inflammatory pains, cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains, either in human beings or the lower animals.

Sweet Young Thing—"Why do you have knots on the ocean instead of miles?"
Skipper (sarcastically) — "Well, you see, they couldn't have the ocean tied if there were no knots."

Tom—"We were quarreling. "Well, you can't say I ran after you," said the wife.

"Neither does a mousetrap run after mice, but it catches 'em just the same."

"Now this is the car you want, sir," exclaimed the shopman. "Right up-to-date. You never have to crawl under it to fix anything."
"You don't!" said the other in surprised tones.

"No," went on the shopman. "If the slightest thing goes wrong with the mechanism the car instantly turns upside down!"

Dust Causes Asthma. Even a little insect is too small to see will lead to the most distressing coughs in man. The walls of the breathing tubes contract and it seems as if the very life must pass. From this condition Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy brings the user to perfect rest. It relieves the passages and normal breathing is firmly established again. Hundreds of testimonials received annually prove its effectiveness.

The sculptor had just finished his model of an angel, and one of his numerous friends had called in to see it, and at the same time give a little friendly criticism.

"I say," he said, "angels don't wear silk stockings. Did you ever see an angel in high-heeled shoes and silk stockings?"

"Did you ever see one without them?" came the prompt question.

VARIETY SHOWER.

At Orillia, on October 21st, 1925, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, Miss Elizabeth Grace Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Davidson, 80 Douglas St., was united in marriage to Mr. Carman Wesley Pringle, second oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Pringle, Napanee. The ceremony took place at the residence of Rev. J. J. Black, B.D., who officiated. The young couple were unattended. The bride was attired in a gown of coral silk bengaline, with cut steel beads. Her hat was of black velvet trimmed with silk velvet flowers of autumn shades, and hose and gloves of sand silk, and shoes of black patent leather. She wore a necklace of pearls and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and carnations mixed with ferns. The groom's gift to the bride was a club bag.

Mr. and Mrs. Pringle left by motor amid showers of confetti, for Napanee, to spend a short-time with the groom's parents, and other friends; also his sister, Mrs. N. Barker, of Kingston. For going away coat was of brown crushed plush trimmed with fur.

Mr. and Mrs. Pringle have a wide circle of friends who extend to them their best wishes for their future happiness. On their return they will reside in Orillia.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 27th, 1925, a few friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pringle, and gave their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Carman Pringle, a variety shower. The evening was spent in games and music and social intercourse. About 11 o'clock lunch was served and all left for their respective homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pringle bon voyage through life. Following is a list of the presents:—

Mr. and Mrs. John Pringle, electric iron; Simeon Pringle, William Pringle, Nellis Pringle and Mr. and Mrs. J. Snider, mantle clock; Mr. and Mrs. Christie Harten, aluminum kettle; Mrs. Clark Pringle, $2.00; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Pringle, silver sugar shell; Mr. and Mrs. Manly Dewitt, silver pickle fork; Mrs. Conger, silver meat fork; Miss Eva Boomhour, silver soup laddle; Mr. and Mrs. Lorman McCutcheon, silver meat fork; Mr. and Mrs. Hambly, picture; Mr. and Mrs. Silas Boomhour, fruit set; Mr. and Mrs. Enos Pringle, pair blankets; Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Barker, fancy fruit bowl; Mr. and Mrs. John Snook, cut glass fruit bowl; Mr. and Mrs. Clare Snook, cut glass pickle dish; Miss Vivian Oliver, fancy bath towel; Mr. and Mrs. High Parks cut glass salad bowl and half dozen patty tins; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snider, fancy bread plate and glass pickle dish; Nettie Deshane, cut glass pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. ODESSA

The Agricultural meeting held by their representative, Mr. J. Laughland, Napanee, last Tuesday, was largely attended. The object is to organize a class of young men for the day class to be held during the month of February. Also of young ladies for the Domestic Science Class. Committees were appointed, and Mr. Laughland's instructions were very much appreciated, as well as the moving pictures, showing Kemptville Agricultural School, Ontario Agricultural College, historic events and comedy. Prospects are favorable for a large attendance, as the committees for both classes are noted for being enthusiastic workers.—Among the Thanksgiving visitors were Mr. and Mrs. David Marshall and son, Graham, and Miss Stella Graham, Toronto, at Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Graham's.—Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hamm spent a day last week with the former's uncle, John Aylesworth, Selby.—Mrs. William Jenkins, who has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. George Watts, has returned to her home in Kingston.—The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Calvin Emmbus, last Wednesday afternoon.—Quite a number from here attended the ball in Newburgh last Thursday night. — The social dance held in the Town Hall last Friday night, had a fair attendance, considering the disagreeable weather. The Enterprise Orchestra furnished excellent music.

Baby's Own Tablets Are of Great Value

To All Mothers Having Young Children in the Home

No other medicine is of such aid to mothers of young children as Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are the very best medicine a mother can give her little ones during the dreaded teething time because they regulate the stomach and bowels and thus drive out constipation and indigestion; prevent colic and diarrhoea and break up colds and simple fevers. Concerning Baby's Own Tablets Mrs. John A. Patterson, Scotch Village, N.S., says:—"I have six children, and all the medicine they ever get is Baby's Own Tablets. I would use nothing else for them and can strongly recommend the Tablets to all other mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RICHMOND MINUTES

Selby, Nov. 2nd, 1925.

Council met in town hall, Selby. The members were all present, the Reeve presiding.

The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

Moved by M. Dupre, seconded by E. A. McQuaig, that John McFarlane's pay sheet, No. 7, amounting to $334.95 be paid and cheques issued to various men on pay sheet. Carried.

Moved by M. H. Sexsmith, seconded by M. Dupre, that the following accounts be paid: Charlie Gray, wood for hall, $3.00; Isaac Asselstine, wood for hall, $9.00; A. N. Hartin, aid for Nov., $5.00. Carried.

Ira Anderson was appointed to make the necessary repairs on Town Hall.

Moved by M. Dupre, seconded by M. H. Sexsmith, that all accounts be presented to council for payment at December session, Tuesday, Dec. 1st, in order to close our accounts for the year. Carried.

H. A. WOOD, Clerk.

THE seeds of bronchial trouble are sown during the present trying weather. For both strong and weak-chested a few Peps tablets afford the best and surest defence.

Peps quickly soothe and heal raw, sore throats; they banish coughs, colds and chills, and strengthen the whole of the bronchial tubes.

As a Peps tablet dissolves in the mouth, certain healing and germicidal fumes are released which permeate the whole of the respiratory tract. Thus, the healing Peps medicine is carried deep into lungs and to all the vital parts. It reaches sore and inflamed membranes never touched by mixtures and syrups swallowed into the stomach.

PEPS are now obtainable at druggists and stores everywhere in packages bearing the Trade Mark Peps Co., Bonsecours St., Toronto. 25c. Box contains 25 tablets.

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every law-suit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

Wins Gold Medal.

The gold medal awarded by the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair to the young man in the Stock Judging Competition who made the highest standing in judging dairy cattle was won by Lewis Merritt, of Sillsville, with a score of 175 out of a possible 200. Over one hundred young men from all parts of Ontario as well as Manitoba and Alberta, took part in the contests. Leslie Lott, also on a farm where excellent dairy cattle are kept, and before going to the Royal, he was coached by J. Laughead, local Agricultural Representative.

Marsden Kemp.

Specialist in Piano Treatment and Tuning, has been in town a number of times lately, attending to his patron's pianos. Mr. Kemp wishes to thank them for their continued patronage, and to those who do not know, Mr. Kemp served ten years at the finer branches of construction, as well as tuning in the factories of Kingston, Toronto, Rochester, N.Y., before giving his services to the public, and has had experience on probably 20,000 instruments; not like some who have no factory training, and very little experience and mostly at the public expense. Mr. Kemp says that many pianos to put them at their best requires more than tuning, which has built up his patronage so he has not had to canvass in over 25 years, and has always been independent of any agent or firm, although employed by the best. Orders at Wallace's Drug Store. 47a

"The Doctor".

A comedy in three acts. This play which is one of the liveliest, brightest, and most laughable plays ever written, will be given in the Methodist Church Sunday School Room, on November 26th and 27th, at 8 o'clock, by the young people of the church. Special musical numbers between acts. Fellowship is the cast:

Dillington Hopper—A New York stockbroker, who wants fun and gets it—J. Judson.

Thomas Picton—His friend, who wants peace and doesn't get it—L. Clute.

Crumly Chuggs—A nice old man who wants the widow and gets her—W. Huffman.

Napoleon B. Plunker—An inventor who wants the earth and keeps on wanting—A. Rogers.

Mrs. Fanny Mayfair—A dashing young widow who wants a lark and has it—L. VanAlstyne.

Mrs. Anastasia Billowsky—Another widow who wants to elope and is disappointed—E. Moore.

Effie Picton—Tom's wife who wants revenge and then there is trouble—G. Hall.

Admission, 35c. and 25c. 47a

DR. TAYLOR AT TRINITY Y. P. S.

Dr. Taylor, Principal of Queen's University, was the guest of Mr. B. Mills on Monday last, and that evening gave an illustrated lecture to the Young People's Society of Trinity Church.

Dr. Taylor has an inimitable manner in lecturing, and at once captivates his audience. On Monday, lecturing on "Yachting in Scotland", he presented some very excellent pictures of noted boats, all of which he had taken himself.

Besides giving an insight into the pleasures and the benefits of this pastime, he gave a history of the developements of fast sailing boats, comparing the fast models of the present with the clumsy boats of the past.

There was a large audience present to hear the address and those who heard the lecture and saw the pictures, had a privilege which is granted to few towns and societies.

Novelists, playwriters, and moralists are all much occupied with the question whether a wife can pursue an intellectual career, and at the same time satisfactorily administer her home. The young husband mentioned in the Boston Globe apparently had pessimistic views on the subject.

"Ah, old fellow," said a man meeting a friend in the street, "so you were married at last. Allow me to congratulate you, for I hear you have an excellent and accomplished wife."

"I have, indeed," was the reply. "Why, she is perfectly at home in literature, at home in music, at home in art, at home in science—in short, she is at home everywhere except—"

"Except what?"

"Except at home."

HOCKEY.

Indications point to a strong hockey team here this winter. Most of the players who donned the Blue and White last year are still here, while several other players of note have drifted in. Chief among these are Tommy Kirby for Kingston Circle Six centre man, Billy Hoale of Deseronto, Mr. C. A. Shoemaker, of Guelph A. C. and Harry Skitch, of London and Cobourg. These men are all players of ability and will likely don the Blue and White this season. Of last year's squad there is Harold Johnston, Fred Huffman, Jim Napoin, Fred Bentley, Harry Babcock, Brock Hudgins and Harry McNeill. Several players from the Town League teams will likely try out. Chief among these are Laurie Douglas, Horace Lanas, Harry Sagar, and perhaps Ray Loucks. Several former Napanee men are back, including Leon Spencer, and they may possibly be up to coach the team along. Mr. Mark Graham and Duffy Dafoe may again take over the management.

A meeting was called for last Wednesday in the Council Chambers. However, there was quite a turnout of fans, but the Treasurer's Report was not made up, so the meeting was adjourned till this Friday evening at 7.30. All the business men of the town are urged to attend, and other enthusiastics will be only too welcome.

A Town League is practically certain as there are still the three teams of last year. St. Pat's team is still intact as is Gibkard's. "P" Company will be weakened by the loss of Harold Northmore, but a few other players have signed up.

There is a possibility of a Napanee and District League being formed. Three teams from Napanee are practically assured, while one or two from Deseronto might enter, with a possibility of one from Newburgh. Such a league ought to be a success. An age limit or some other way of keeping old timers from playing with the younger boys, could be adopted and all the younger fellows would get a chance to play.

A plan is being formed in the Gibberd Furniture Co. to establish an Industrial League. Four teams from Gibkards have been formed, including the Packers, Finishers, Cabinet-makers and Factory. No doubt some of the fans will recall the clashes between the Packers and Finishers last year. There was always a fair crowd on hand and a pretty fair brand of hockey was put up by the players. The teams evidently mean business, as uniforms and sticks have already been ordered. A cup has been put up, and no doubt the league will be a success.

With all these teams, Napanee will have a record-breaking hockey season this winter.

RUGBY

The N.C.I. Rugby Team has laid off their practices for the last week because of the inclement weather. A signal practice was held Friday, but the players are in need of a rest so they were allowed to forget rugby for a few days. The team will likely journey to Picton Saturday for the first of their annual set of games with the return game here the following Saturday. However, they expect to win both games.

The United Church

It is the purpose of the writer to preface the remarks on the constitution and organization of the United Church by a brief historical survey of each of the three Churches entering the union. The oldest of these three forms the subject for this article, which must be necessarily brief.

The Presbyterian Church

The New Testament left no instructions as to the form of Church organization, hence there have arisen many forms, varying in almost every conceivable manner. In nearly every case the form which the Church government has assumed has been modelled after the form of political organization in the nation where it arose. And almost invariably during a period of great reconstruction when forms of government have changed the form of the government in the church has changed too.

In the period of history covered by the New Testament the world saw but one small Christian Church, without divisions, and of increasing numbers and influence. When it became the accepted religion of the Roman Empire, it assumed the form of a solid Imperial organization, which condition continued until 476, when the Church divided into two sections. Two centuries later the Arabs conquered Palestine and drove a Mohammedan wedge between the Eastern and Western sections. So that from then on each goes its separate way. The Western section soon attained a position of religio-political importance of far reacising power. From the head of the Church down through the clergy to the people it exercised almost absolute control of all thought and action.

The Reformation.

In a great upheaval of public opinion in the sixteenth century a large section of the people revolted against this condition in a movement known as the reformation. In this movement the old church was melted down and recast in a dozen different moulds. And in every case the form of the church government took on a pattern after the prevailing political organization,—in England Monarchical, in Germany Feudal, in Switzerland Republican. On the continent the Republican Churches are called Reformed, while in England and America they are called Presbyterian. The man who did most to give the Republican Churches their form of government was a brilliant French scholar and theologian, John Calvin, who made his headquarters at Geneva in a church where only a week or two ago Dr. Fosdick, of New York, preached to the assembly of the League of Nations.

The Church in Scotland.

In Scotland the reform of the old church was a national movement, and the nobility, merchant and parliament all went into it. Scotland was divided geographically into parishes, and the reformers set up a church in each parish with its minister, session and deacon. And in 1560 these ministers and elders all met in the first General Assembly. Then smaller groups met, out of which grew the Synods; then still smaller groups which later became the Presbytery which is the distinctive feature of Presbyterianism. "The Scottish Church was the Nation organized for Worship".

The constitution was perfect, any desire for a change, any protest against existing conditions could make itself heard through the session to Presbytery and Synod and General-Assembly. But even a perfect constitution has not prevented trouble. There has been two serious breaks in the Scottish Church, the Secession and the Disruption.

The Secession.

The General Assembly on one occasion passed a resolution to the effect that only the Elders could sign "a Call" to a minister. Immediately Ebenezer Erskine and his brother, Ralph, led a secession from the organized Church, 1733, and set up another own Presbytery. This Church of Seceders later broke up into two parts, the Burghers and the Anti-Burghers, each of which planted an organization in Canada, and sowed the seeds of much dissention and bitterness particularly in Nova Scotia.

The Disruption.

The other break was due to the Assembly passing a resolution against the practise of having its Clergy maintained by any financial assistance from the State. The Government of the day denied that the church had any right to pass such a resolution. So 474 of the ministers of the Church founded the Free Church of Scotland in 1843. Happily these disjointed members of the Church of Scotland are coming together, and at the present moment a vote is being taken for a further reunion.

All these branches had off-shoots in Canada, with their own Presbyteries and Assemblies. But in 1875, after a bitter struggle, they all came together in the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

MRS. J. W. JENKINS
Formerly Miss Elizabeth VanLuven, of Napanee.

WEDDING BELLS.

Jenkins—VanLuven.

St. Mary Magdalene's Church was the scene of a wedding of much interest last evening, when Miss Elizabeth Marie, daughter of the late Franklyn Elmore and Mrs. VanLuven, of Napanee, was united in marriage with John Wilber Jenkins, of New York City, son of the late Rev. John Wilber and of Mrs. Jenkins, of Raleigh, N.C. Mrs. J. Ernest Madden was at the organ, and while the guests were being ushered to their seats, played the following selections, "The Rosary", "Oh Fair, On Sweet and Holy", "In a Wild Rose", and "The Swan". During the ceremony she played softly Tannhauser's "Evening Star".

The choral service was a most impressive one, the processional taking place at nine o'clock, the Choir singing "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden". To the strains of the ever lovely march from Lohengrin, the bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. A. Ernest Wright. A more beautiful bride is seldom seen than Miss VanLuven, who wore an ivory gown of Pompadour velvet, with long full sleeves and panels of ivoire georgette, a court train of the velvet faced with blush georgette, and finished with a deep lace flounce. A picture veil was worn over the face, fastened to her hair with a bandeau of orange blossoms. Silver shoes and a shower bouquet of sunset roses, valley lilies and orchids completed a charming ensemble.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen VanLuven, wore a delicate shade of apricot Pompadour satin in panel effect, one side draped and caught with a bird ornament. Her large picture hat was of black satin, with insets of lace and touches of gold, and she wore gold shoes and stockings. A bouquet of Butterfly roses tied with apricot ribbon, shaded perfectly with the gown. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, who looked charming in orchid Parentin velvet, with silver lace draped at the side and deep cape of velvet edged with the lace. Her hat was black satin, trimmed with silver lace and ribbon, and she wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses with a single orchid, and a topaz pendant at her throat.

The Rev. A. H. Coleman, Vicar of St. Mary Magdalene's, officiated. Mr. Geo. T. Jenkins, of Baltimore, Md., brother of the groom, was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Arthur L. Reid and Mr. Fletcher R. Sharp, of Toronto. Mr. Kenneth S. Flam, of Napanee, and Mr. Gordon Miller, of Gaelph, all of whom wore white gardenia boutonniers. After the consummation of the marriage service, the Choir sang "O, God of Bethel", and during the signing of the register, Mr. Marvin Rathbun gave the beautiful wedding song "Beloved It Is Morn", by Aylward.

The church was decorated with palms and ferns, and gold and orchid chrysanthemums, the guest pews roped off and marked with clusters of the same. The reception at the home of the bride took place immediately after the ceremony, and was quite the most brilliant social event of the season. The house was lovely with soft lights and flowers of the prevailing shades of gold and orchid. Supper was served in the dining room at gold and green toasted, and at midnight left for New York, Mrs. Jenkins travelling becomingly in a costume of grey and blue; a grey brocaded dress with a touch of blue in the hat, a beautiful grey squirrel collar and cuffs, lined to match the dress, with a smart blue suede shoe to match the squirrel; grey suede shoes, stockings, purse and gloves to match.

After a reception in New York on Saturday evening, at which four hundred guests will be present, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will go to Raleigh, N.C., where they will be the guests of Mr. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, during their stay in that city. A dinner will be given in their honor.

The wedding gifts were many and beautiful, and the good wishes of many friends followed the bride and groom on leaving Napanee. The groom's gifts to the ushers were gold, which were the only ornaments worn, were: To the bride a diamond and sapphire bracelet; to the bridesmaid, the maid of honor, a carnelian bracelet and ring; the best man, a moss agate ring; the ushers, Chinese granite rings; the organist, a necklace of rock crystal; and to the mother of the bride a pendant of topaz and silver. The wedding gift was worthy of mention, being of platinum set with twenty-five diamonds. Mr. Marvin Rathbun was also presented with a gift of a fine leather bill folder and Letzaine.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. Daniel Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wright, Miss Peter VanLuven, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dunn, of Brockville; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Holden, Mr. Jack Holden, Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Wills, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson, of Montreal; Mrs. (Dr.) C. H. Wartman, Mr. and Mrs. Colven Sherin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dibb, Mr. and Mrs. Joyner, Mr. Geo. Constable, Mr. R. Wilkinson, Mr. R. Lewis, Mr. L. Gardiner, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tomlins, Miss Tomlins, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garrett, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burpee, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham, of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dobie, and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mathews, of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Blodgett, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. Byers, of Gananoque; Dr. and Mrs. Thos. Rendon, Dr. C. E. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Wray VanLuven, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald VanLuven, of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. S. Wartman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl VanLuven, of California; Mr. Gordon Mills, Detroit; while there were over fifty guests from Napanee.

RECEPTIONS

Among the functions given in honor of this week's bride were the following:

At the home of Mrs. W. A. Daly on Friday last, a mock-tea, at which Miss VanLuven received with her hostess in the drawing room, which was decorated with pale yellow mums. Musical numbers were given by Miss Mary Daly who sang delightfully, Mrs. J. E. Madden who accompanied the soloist and played one or two piano numbers, and Miss Marion Richmond who also gave an instrumental number. Tea was served at a prettily appointed table in the dining room, with an appropriate arrangement of bridal cake, white tulle and orange blossoms, and pink sweet peas.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. J. Ernest Madden gave a very pretty tea at her home on East St., at which Miss VanLuven was again the guest of honor. Mrs. Maywood Ira G. W. Gillard and Mrs. W. A. Daly, assisted by Mrs. F. S. Wartman, Mrs. W. H. Milne, Miss Edna Astley and Miss Diana Miller. The rooms were bright with cut flowers and the tea table colors were pink and white.

Mrs. J. W. Robinson and Miss Georgie Robinson were hostesses on Monday evening at a Bridge in honor of the bride-to-be, who received with her hostesses in a charming frock of silver tissue tinted with mauve with over gown of metal lace. Mrs. Robinson wore black and Miss Georgie beaded mauve georgette. The house guest, Miss Nevada Best, was in apple green georgette trimmed with lace. The guests played Bridge until midnight, when supper was served.

Miss Dana Miller gave a Bridge-Shower on Monday afternoon, at the home of her parents, when she was presented with a surprise basket of gifts and the good wishes of her friends.

Other affairs of interest were a Bridge at Miss Gladys Miller's apartments last evening, and on Monday at the home of Miss Alice Preston.

Wampole's Teastuss Preparation of Cod Liver Oil has won such an outstanding place as a medicine that Canadian druggists from coast to coast are giving it special prominence in their stores this week. Wampole's is recommended and sold at Wallace's Drug Store. $1.00 per bottle.

THE SANTA CLAUS FUND

Hats off to "B" Co. They gathered in eighteen dollars and ten cents at the Armouries the other night for the Beaver Santa Claus Fund. If a few more organizations in the town will follow "B" Co.'s example, the fund will be well away. Besides this amount several other donations have been received and the names, with amounts, follow:

But we are a long way from the amount which will be necessary to meet the need of the town. Remember our slogan, "a Christmas for every child".

Those who are making the survey for The Beaver report many cases of children who will be solely dependent on the Beaver Fund for their visit from Saint Nicholas.

The gifts which are provided are useful and needed,—stockings, mitts, woolies, caps, and other warm things to keep out the bite of winter.

Robert Louis Stevenson once said, "Our duty in life is not to make others good but to make them happy", and nobody can deny his success. Happiness is a relative virtue. It takes a great deal to make some happy, but to the children real happiness may come at very little expense. So Readers of The Beaver, one and all, bring in your donations.

Parents encourage your children to share their plenty with other children. No matter how small the gift it will be welcome. But a few larger gifts like that from "B" Co. will be necessary to give the fund a real boost.

Make all cheques payable to Beaver Santa Claus Fund.

FALL ASSIZES

The Fall Assizes for the County of Lennox and Addington opened at the Court House on Tuesday, Nov. 17th, His Honor Mr. Justice Kelly, presiding. There being no criminal or other business requiring the attendance of the Grand or Petit Juries, they were notified not to attend.

The following cases were tried:—

Wood vs. Purchase.—An action brought by Minnie E. Wood, of the Township of Kennebec, against Chas. Purchase, of the Township of Hungerford, for the sum of $1,725 for the care and maintenance of two infant children of the defendant. Action dismissed without costs. W. S. Herrington, K.C., for plaintiff; Cousins & Cushing, Tweed, for defendant.

Post vs Post—An action brought by William Wesley Post against his nephew, Wilmot Post, for the sum of $2500 for rents and profits of certain lands and the further sum of $1500 for use and value of chattels on said farm.

On May 30th, 1912, the plaintiff deeded his farm in North Fredericksburgh to defendant, who reconveyed the same to plaintiff during the term of his natural life, the defendant agreeing to properly care for and maintain the plaintiff for his natural life.

Judgment as follows:—Judgment for plaintiff for $1400 and costs fixed at $200, both sums to be paid in 30 days. The plaintiff to give defendant a quit claim deed of the farm and a release of all demands. C. W. Wilson and T. B. Germain for plaintiff; W. S. Herrington, K.C., for defendant.

FIRE BUG AGAIN BUSY IN TAMWORTH

In May of this year the entrance to the building then occupied by Mr. Percy York, as a bake-shop, was apparently saturated with coal oil and set on fire. Fortunately it was discovered and extinguished before any serious damage was done.

On the morning of Nov. 20th, at 4 o'clock, fire again broke out in the same building into which Mr. Percy York had moved his baking equipment a few days previous.

There had been no fire in the building for twenty-four hours. There is not a question of doubt but what this fire was of incendiary origin as well as the one in May.

Had it not been for the efficient manner in which the volunteer fire brigade handled the chemical engine presented by the Women's Institute, and the fire ladders presented by A. B. Carscallen, the fire would have proved disastrous to the village, as there were other buildings within six feet of the one destroyed. Should be a thorough investigation by the proper officials, as no property will be safe in the village until the culprit is brought to justice.

INDOOR BASEBALL

Trinity 28, Grace 3.

On Thursday, Nov. 19th, a double-header was staged in the Armouries for the benefit of the Beaver Santa Fund. There was a crowd of some 200 fans present, with a paid attendance of nearly $20.00, at 10c. each.

The first game was staged by the Trinity and Grace Church girls. Trinity Senators were by far the better team and easily won by 28-3. The whole team shaded their rivals and played much better ball. "Walter" Taylor twirled in brilliant fashion, sending twelve back via the S. O. route. "Muddy" Drake did the receiving like a big leaguer, while "Joe" Rikely covered the initial sack in a manner befitting her contemporary, Joe Judge of the Washington Senators. "Bucky" Yourex covered 2nd like an old timer, while "Roger" Black's play in the short field could not have been improved on. "Oscar" Drake was all over the "hot corner", and her throwing to bases was almost perfect. The outfielders, "Goose" Paul, "Sam" Dickson and "Joe" Daverne, caught everything in sight.

"Lee" Stinson served up the twisters for the Grace Church Pirates, but the Senators slammed her offerings all over the field. "Oil" O'Neill did the receiving, while "Stuffy" Harrigan covered the initial sack. "Eddie" Harrigan covered the pivot cushion with "Glen" Loucks, while "Pie" Lucas did excellent work at the hot corner. The outfielders, "Kiki" Hall, "Max" Douglas and "Barney" Thompson, were in the game all the time and played real ball.

Mr. J. L. Murray and Mr. H. L. Babcock handled the game.

"B" Co. 47, Iron Works 15.

Outplayed at nearly every position the Napanee Iron Works were easily defeated by the local "soldiers". The hammer-slingers were not familiar with the Armouries diamond and errors were numerous. However, the players gave their best and pulled many real plays. "Tommy" Kirby was the star of the Iron Workers. He fielded brilliantly and slammed out a four-bagger. Wallace Roy fanned seven and capped his performance by making a circus catch.

George Reid, who covered second for the "soldiers", also contributed a circus catch. He slammed out a triple in the 1st inning with the bases full, and added another in the 5th. Claude MacDonald stabbed a liner with one hand, while Mac. Herrington also made a beautiful catch.

The box score was :—

HOCKEY.

A hockey meeting was held on Friday, Nov. 20th, in the Council Chambers. A large number of fans were present, and officers were elected.

It was decided to form a Junior League and Senior Town League. Messrs. J. L. Murray and H. L. Babcock were appointed to look into the affair and make a report.

The Town League Executive will meet soon and arrangements made for the coming season.

It is expected that the N.C.I. will enter a team in the Intercholastic League. In all probability they will be grouped with Belleville and Deseronto. There is a wealth of material at the N.C.I. The two Thornley Bros. of North Bay Normal, are said to be classy players, while there are plenty of other players in the school, including: R. Cowle, L. Wartman, C. MacDonald, F. Ballard, A. Wilson, M. Corkill, C. Fraser, the Carr Bros., W. Huffman, and many others. There is also a chance of their entering in the Town League. With Mr. Shoemaker as coach and manager, the team ought to go a long way in the race.

Hay Bay Teameeting.

A Teameeting will be held at Hay Bay, on Monday, Nov. 30th. A good programme will be given. Admission, 40c, two for 75c. 47bp

Zam-Buk
SAVES POISONED LIMBS!

It was just a bad ankle that might happen anyone. But it serves to show how quickly blood-poison develops when a broken tissues have the protection of antiseptic Zam-Buk.

Mrs. A. Harrison, Place-de-Armes, Kingston, Ont., writes:—"During household duties my little girl was injured by a sharp projection. Stocking dye got into the wound and its poisoned condition alarmed me. My ankle took a turn for the better, almost as soon as I began with Zam-Buk. This powerful healer dispelled all pain, suppuration and inflammation. It healed perfectly.

Use Zam-Buk also for eczema, rashes, pimples, boils, abscesses, cuts, burns, scalds, etc.

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES

During the past two days, Miss Stevenson, Reg. N., has been visiting Napanee Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada.

Miss Stevenson is the Central Supervisor, and on the staff of National Headquarters in Ottawa. Her duties include routine supervision of the work in all branches of the Order in Ontario, the making of reports on the same for the Central Council and the Local Association, and the offering of such suggestions and recommendations as will help the work, and increase its usefulness in the locality.

The work was well commenced by Miss Gardiner, and carried on when she left the district, by Miss Barclay, for four months, until a suitably qualified nurse was available to take permanent charge. Miss Robertson, Reg.N., is now the permanent Victorian Order Nurse. She is a graduate of Toronto General Hospital, and also has her diploma in Public Health Nursing from the University of Toronto.

From observation of the work with Miss Robertson in the homes, in the school, at the Infant Welfare Clinic, and from interviews with local physicians and others, Miss Stevenson has the opinion that Miss Robertson is assuredly caring most skilfully and kindly for the sick, teaching in a very practical and attractive way, the prevention of disease, and the promotion of sound health. Developements for the good of the community can be looked for from so efficient, enthusiastic, and earnest a worker.

Last year's report showed a great amount of good nursing care was given. 1113 nursing visits were made, and in addition 881 health education visits were given to clinics for well babies, to schools, and to homes, a truly great contribution of public service.

The infant welfare work is having splendid results on the infant mortality rate, and in helping to teach better methods of feeding, more sleep, and so forth. Stronger children will eventually enter the schools. Many defects amongst school children were also remedied last year. This is all to the good, and many small enter industrial life later, more fit than they otherwise might have been. This is truly building good citizens.

The principle of self help is much to the fore in the work of the Order. Nursing demonstrations in the homes are explained to the family, or to the mother when her baby is receiving nursing care. Fifteen Obstetrical cases were nursed last year, affording a wonderful opportunity to teach in the homes the proper care of infants. Many valuable visits were made to the mothers beforehand to give instruction and help in making good preparations. To be prepared properly is one of the "safety first" rules, and no charge is made for these visits.

In the matter of payment for nursing care, patients pay according to their circumstances; another point where self help is good. In 1924 report shows 1042 visits were made for which no payment was received. 343 of these were nursing visits, the remainder health educational visits. No fee was asked for these visits.

The service is for all, and Napanee is fortunate in having a Branch of the Order established for it is carrying on so complete a programme in Public Health, in so efficient a manner.

In use for over fifteen years! That is the record of not only one but hundreds of Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens—and $2.50 and $2.75 pens at that. Sold and guaranteed at Wallace's, special agents for Napanee.

1925 Christmas Seals

The 1925 Christmas Seals, in aid of the Muskoka and Toronto Hospitals for Consumptives, have just been issued. These handsome seals are of two different designs, put up in assorted packets of 10, 25, 50 and 100.

The National Sanitarium Association is in need of funds to carry on the work of its hospitals in Muskoka and at Weston. Every dollar received through the sale of Christmas Seals is used for maintenance of patients only.

Why not buy these seals in lieu of others? Not only will you get good value in return, but your money will be made to serve a greater end. You it will go to help someone in distress.

Look for the double-barred Red Cross on every packet. None others are genuine.

For sale by school children and banks, or direct from Xmas Seal Department, Gage Institute, Toronto 2, Ontario.

"IN THE PUBLIC EYE"
By Leslie Lewis, R.O.

WORK that is done at night usually strains and weakens the eye muscles to such an extent that the wearing of glasses is imperative. Consult our optometrist and he will discover in what manner your eyes have become affected. You will receive a pair of comfortable glasses which, however, will accommodate the vision adapted to your work and during your recreative work.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Samuel Dyer.

There passed away on October 29th, 1925, Mary Jane Joyce, wife of Samuel Dyer, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Melbourne.

Mrs. Dyer had been in her usual health and had gone to her daughter's for a visit and while there she was stricken with paralysis and lay in a semi-conscious state, which despite all the tender care that husband and daughters gave her, resulted in death, after two weeks and three days' illness.

Deceased was born in Sunbury, Ont., on July 8th, eighty-one years ago. She was twice married and spent the greater part of her life in Adolphustown. She was a member of the United Church, and for a number of years a member of the Women's Missionary Society.

She is survived by a sorrowing husband, three daughters, Mrs. Thos. Melbourne, Marlbank; Mrs. B. J. Welch, Fairport, N.Y.; Mrs. Wm. J. Wilson, Demorestville. Also three grandchildren, Verne Welch, of Fairport, N.Y.; Marguerite and Bertha Wilson, of Demorestville.

The funeral took place on Saturday, at Marlbank United Church, the minister taking for his text John 14:2. Interment was made in the Kimmett burying ground.

Jacob H. Yorke

One of the pioneer residents of Thurlow Township, also one of the oldest inhabitants of the township in the person of Mr. Jacob Hartman Yorke, passed away this Wednesday morning, at his late home, Foxboro. On the 10th day of May, 1832, Mr. Yorke was born at Ernestown, being thus in his 94th year. He was the last surviving member of a large family and he was a United Empire Loyalist descendant. For the past half century Mr. Yorke had resided at Foxboro and vicinity. He was for many years a devout member of the Methodist, now the United Church. Mr. Yorke had been in ill health for some time. His wife predeceased him a few years ago. One son, Richard, of Foxboro, and two daughters, Mrs. Alvena Simpson and Mrs. Amanda Shaw, of Foxboro, survive.—The Belleville Daily Intelligencer.

BARGAIN WEEK AT BOYES'

From Saturday, Nov. 28th, to Saturday, Dec. 5th

A GOOD "pruner" often trims a tree severely. It is just as necessary, in the interests of good storekeeping, to occasionally cut prices to the quick. If we didn't our large stock would stifle us. Nov. 28th to Dec. 5th will be "pruning" week with us. Come, examine and buy. The Biggest Bargains we have offered in years. A partial list only is shown here.

Young Men's Lighter Colored O'Coats
$19.75

Three lines of this season's Lighter Colored Overcoats of Green Lovat Chinchilla, Light Grey Blue Mixture, with Plaid back, and Grey and Purple Wale Mixture in Plaid back cloths. All new, fine looking patterns, and sold up to $27.00. Buy them "Pruning Week" for $19.75.

'Worth-While' O'Coats for Boys
$9.75, $11.75

Heavy Wool Mixture, in Green and Brown Heather Tweeds, lined throughout with Wool and Cotton Tweed. Extra heavy warm coats, $9.75.

This season's newest and medium light Lovat, Plaid back cloth, makes this $15.00 Overcoat very desirable for warmth and style. All sizes up to 35, reduced from $15.00 to $11.75.

Boys' Suits
$5.95 and $6.75

Wool and Cotton Mixtures, in quiet Brown and Grey Check Tweeds, made in three-piece belt style coats, in plain and pleated backs. The Bloomers are finished with belt straps and Governor fasteners. $7.50 to $9.50 regular, for $5.95 and $6.75.

$2.00 and $3.00 reductions on the higher priced Boys' Suits.

SMART-STYLED OVERCOATS
$15

The popular Brown Whitney Cloth, with Plaid back and Satin yoke. Hard-wearing medium and dark colored quiet check Tweeds, and other stylish Overcoats for Young Men and Men. Regularly $20.00 to $23.00, and an occasional $25.00 Coat, reduced to $15.00.

Small Men's Young Men's, Youths' O'Coats
$10.00

The price seems small for Men's Overcoats, but the Coats are small too. Size 38 is the largest in the group. We had to make the price low enough so you would buy them for youths. They are hard-wearing dark and medium dark tweeds and Meltons, in D. B. Ulsterette style. Were mostly $18.00, now only $10.00. Small men and youths get into one of these bargains.

Young Men's Better Quality Tweed Suits
Blue Serges and Blue Herringbones
$19.75

$25.00 and $27.00 good quality All Wool Tweed, in smart Lovat Stripe and the new Fawn Diagonal Tweeds. $23.00 All Wool Botany, Navy Serges and Crossbred Herringbones. All made in favoured styles for young men, reduced for this sale to $19.75.

Acadia All Wool Underwear, $1.39

Acadia Brand heavy winter weight All Wool Winter Underwear, in shirts and drawers, will be on sale at $1.39 a garment, $2.75 a suit.

Cottonade Overalls, $1.49

Out Goes All Rheumatic Poison

Rheuma Acts on Kidneys, Liver and Bladder the Very First Day

Get a bottle of Rheuma to-day and wear a satisfied smile on your face to-morrow.

It's a remedy that is astonishing the whole country, and it's just as good for gout, sciatica, lumbago and kidney misery as for rheumatism.

It drives the poisonous waste from the joints and muscles—that's the secret of Rheuma's success.

But we don't ask you to take our word for it; go to Wallace's Drug Store or any good druggist and get a bottle of Rheuma to-day; if it doesn't do as we promise get your money back. It will be there waiting for you.

Re-union—
After Years of Separation

Some ten or eleven years ago Mrs. H. cherished fine plans for her family's future. Her four girls were all bright, clever children who seemed free to travel through life without a single handicap.

But that was years ago. In the meantime Mrs. H. developed consumption—and died. Following quickly upon this disaster the eldest girl showed signs of weak lungs and was promptly sent away to the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives. In two years she returned—cured.

But that was not the end. The other girls, except the youngest, also fell in the way of tuberculosis. They are now at Muskoka, and making the same progress that their sister made. The father, the eldest girl and youngest girl are now at home preparing for the coming day of reunion.

Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton, President, 12 College Street, Toronto 2, Ontario.

RUGBY

At last it happened. After trying vainly for 57 years, the P.C.I. Rugby team defeated the N.C.I. by 13-0. The N.C.I. certainly has a record to be proud of. Any school that can beat another school in any sort of a game for 57 straight years, can brag about it. This is the first event that the Picton boys have won from the N.C.I. in 57 years.

Outweighed by about 20 lbs. to a man, the N.C.I. fought an uphill battle all the way. The big P.C.I. line plungers ploughed through for repeated gains. Playing his last year for P.C.I., Ronald Church certainly distinguished himself. He ploughed through repeatedly for yards and scored two touch-downs. The light N.C.I. line couldn't hold. Carson Graham, Jim Carr and Bill Carr were injured early in the game. Graham was unable to contiue and the Carr Bros. gamely finished the game. The N.C.I. backfield was all shot to pieces by the loss of Graham, and Carr and the subs were far outweighed by the Picton players.

Church and Thompson were the P.C.I. heroes. Church scored the two touchdowns, while Thompson showed rare judgment at quarter and ran the ball thirty and forty yards several times.

McLean and Reynolds showed themselves to be real line plungers. The heavy line held on the kicks and only one or two were blocked.

The light N.C.I. line couldn't always hold for the kickers and several were blocked.

The return game will probably be held this Saturday at the Park.

After the game in Picton, the N.C.I. and P.C.I. teams were served a dainty lunch by the Girls' Senior Basketball Team. Several speeches were made and the party broke up at 6.30. The N.C.I. boys hope to return the hospitality given them by P.C.I., and when they come here no doubt they will receive a hearty welcome.

The teams were :—

P.C.I.—Flying Wing, Mallory; Halves, LeHemp, Church, Leanen; Quarter, Thompson; Snap, E. MacLean; Insides, Carr, Shannon, Middles, H. MacLean, Reynolds; Outsides, French Hoffman; Subs., Smith, Hadden, Allen, Wright, Hepburn, Monroe, Harris.

N.C.I.—Flying Wing, J. Carr; Halves, C. Graham, W. Huffman, C. Fraser; Quarter, A. Wilson; Snap, H. Deline; Insides, F. Ballard, E. Way; Middles, M. Corkill, R. Cowle; Outsides, D. Wright, F. Thornley; Subs., W. Twomey, B. Wilson, B. Carr.

The only penalties of the game were meted out to a player of each team. C. Fraser received 3 minutes for tripping, and French 1 minute for a high tackle.

"Pete" MacLeod, former Queen's Flying Wing, handled the game and gave entire satisfaction.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

LADIES' ONTARIO BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

The Ladies' Ontario Baseball Association having now been formally launched on its career, the next step is to have the foundation truly and firmly laid. The plan of organization approved is to follow the same lines as the Ontario Baseball Association, that is, the membership of the Association is to be made up of Associations in larger centres and Leagues in smaller sections. Individual teams will not be accepted into membership but must affiliate themselves with a League or Association in their own district. Where no such organization exists, it will be the duty of such a club or clubs to get busy at once on the organization of such a league.

A number of outside towns, who from now on be connected with a league in their own district and affiliate direct with the Ontario organization, the Toronto organization will handle only teams in the City of Toronto.

As soon as the new leagues and district Associations are established a long step in the work of the organization will have been accomplished.

A draft constitution and by-laws have been completed and after further minor changes, will be submitted to all officers of the Association for suggestions and made ready for submission to a general meeting to be held early in the New Year.

The playing rules will also receive attention and a small committee selected to draft same and submit to the committee elected at the organization meeting, for consideration.

All enquiries for information should be made to Miss Mabel Ray, Secretary, 16 Orchard Park Blvd., Toronto.

PEPS

AT this season everybody needs the Peps breatheable tablets to ward off cold and chill dangers.

As Peps dissolve in the mouth, their rich medicinal fumes carry soothing and healing benefits direct into chest and lungs.

Inflammation and soreness in throat on bronchials is quickly allayed by Peps, coughs and colds are nipped in the bud, and the entire breathing system is wonderfully strengthened and fortified. All druggists 25c box.

Children Like Baby's Own Tablets

Because They Are Tasteless and Are Easy to Take.

One of the strongest points in favor of any medicine for children is that it is so agreeable that the mother does not have to force it down the little one's throat.

Baby's Own Tablets have no drug taste, may be crushed to a powder if desired, and babies like them. They are perfectly safe for they contain no opiate or narcotic. They sweeten the stomach and remove the cause of fretfulness.

Mrs. Arthur Charlebois, Pawtucket, R.I., says: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets to be a gentle laxative and a safe remedy for stomach disorders in children. Our little boy had been given harsh cathartics but these tablets worked more effectively without the severe griping. I can recommend them to all mothers of little children."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MARRIAGES

McFARLANE — CLOSE — At Trinity Parsonage, Napanee, on Wednesday, November 25th, 1925, by Rev. W. R. Tanton, George McFarlane, of Roblin, to Delma Close, of Tamworth.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Father and Mother, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Wilson, Camden East, who departed this life in 1915.

November brings sad memories
Of the loved ones laid to rest,
They are gone but not forgotten.
As it dawns another year.
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of them are always near.
48ep —Daughter, Dora.

—A. W. Dickens, Belleville, makes a shipment every week of his famous Home-made Candy to STEACYS. 48sp

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs. Everton Fox, who departed this life on November 23rd, 1924.

She has never quite left us, our darling who passed.
A thousand sweet memories are holding her fast;
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above,
To the place which she blessed with her presence and love.
The work which she left and the books which she read,
And the songs that she sang and dear things that she said,
Speak nutely though still with an eloquence rare,
Yet linger and sigh on the desolate air.
Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Husband and Family. 48ap

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear father and husband, Jay S. Taylor, of Tamworth, who died November 27th, 1924.

We watched him suffer day by day,
It caused us bitter grief,
To see him slowly pass away,
And could not give relief.

His weary hours and nights of pain,
No tongue can ever tell,
And in our aching hearts we know
He has found sweet rest at last.
48a —Wife and four Daughters.

BATH PASTORAL CHARGE

Ernestown United Church.

The Bazaar held in the Masonic Hall at Bath, under the auspices of the Union Ladies' Aid, on Friday evening last, and the Fowl Supper held by the ladies of the congregation on Monday evening following, was an unqualified success. On Friday afternoon tea was was served in connection with the bazaar, and in the evening an excellent program was furnished by the Bethel Co. of Kingston, which was much enjoyed by the large audience which filled the hall.

On Monday evening the congregation of the United Church of Ernestown held a Fowl Supper, which was largely attended, and which also resulted in abundant success. After the supper was served a first class programme was furnished by the Misses McKim, Miss Jean Paul and Mrs. Grace Hall, of Napanee, and Mrs. Claud Thompson, Mrs. Close, Miss Lolo Compston, of Bath Anglican Church, the Choir of the Union, and Rev. and Mrs. Ross, the Pastor of the charge and his wife. The audience was most lavish in its expressions of appreciation, and the young ladies of Napanee will always have a hearty welcome from the people of Bath Pastoral Charge. The ladies of the congregation in general are to be congratulated on the splendid issue of their excellent effort.

Let these Dollar Savers work for you.

AT $1.50 PER YARD, WE ARE FEATURING A SPLENDID WINTER WEIGHT COATING

In order to make this special all the more attractive, we are adding to the assortment some of our more expensive fabrics, English Velour, Blanket Cloth, Tweeds, are some of the weaves in shades of Beige, Brown, Navy, Wine, Paney, Saxe. The cloth is very heavy and will make a perfect coat for the cold weather. Width of cloth is 54 inches.

A TABLE OF HOMESPUNS AND TWEEDS AT $1.00 PER YARD, BRINGS REAL VALUE TO YOU

The cloths shown at this special price are of unusual value, many of them being worth two to three times as much. The assortment of weaves is broken to a certain extent, hence the reason for such a low price. This is a wonderful opportunity to get wide width material in seasonable weight at a fraction of former prices.

$15.00, $20.00 AND $25.00 COMFORTABLY PRICED MEN'S OVERCOATS

We turn the spotlight of publicity upon our $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 Overcoats, because the average man finds them the most comfortable prices in our entire range.

These prices are our pets. We expended upon them the full power of our organization. We secured for them the best fabrics we could find. We spent days in choosing the styles, and we are very particular about the make.

Result—They are, we think, the most interesting moderately-priced Overcoats you will find anywhere. Fancy Mixtures, Blue blends, Oxfords and Checks. Sizes 34 to 46.

Other Overcoats at $30.00, $31.50, $32.50, and $35.00. Warm roomy Ulsters and Ulsterettes. Velvet Collar Overcoats. Chesterfields and Tweeds.

MARRIAGES

McFARLANE — CLOSE — At Trinity Parsonage, Napanee, on Wednesday, November 25th, 1925, by Rev. W. R. Tanton, George McFarlane, of Roblin, to Delma Close, of Tamworth.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Father and Mother, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Wilson, Camden East, who departed this life in 1915.

November brings sad memories
Of the loved ones laid to rest
They are gone but not forgotten.
As it dawns another year.
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of them are always near.
—Daughter, Dora.

—A. W. Diekens, Belleville, makes a shipment every week of his famous Home-made Candy to STEACY'S. 48ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs. Everton Fox, who departed this life on November 25th, 1924.

She has never quite left us, our darling who passed,
A thousand sweet memories are holding her fast;
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above,
To the place which she blessed with her presence and love.
The work which she left and the books which she read.
And the songs that she sang and dear words that she said,
Speak mutely though still with an eloquence rare,
Yet linger and sigh on the desolate air.
Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Husband and Family. 47ap

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear father and husband, Jay S. Taylor, of Tamworth, who died November 27th, 1918.

We watched him suffer day by day,
It caused us bitter grief,
To see him slowly pass away,
And could not give relief.
His weary hours and nights of pain,
His troubled days are past;
And in our aching hearts we know
He has found sweet rest at last.

BATH PASTORAL CHARGE

Ernestown United Church.

The Bazaar held in the Masonic Hall at Bath, under the auspices of the Union Ladies' Aid, on Friday evening last, and the Fowl Supper held by the ladies of the congregation on Monday evening following, was an unqualified success. On Friday afternoon tea was was served in connection with the bazaar, and in the evening an excellent program was furnished by the Betts Co. of Kingston, which was much enjoyed by the large audience which filled the hall.

On Monday evening the congregation of the United Church of Ernestown held a Fowl Supper, which was largely attended, and which also resulted in abundant success. After the supper was served a first class programme was furnished by the Misses McKim, Miss Jean Paul and Miss Grace Hall, of Napanee, and Mrs. Claud Thompson, Mrs. Close, Miss Lulo Compton, of Bath Anglican Church, the Choir of the Union, and Rev. and Mrs. Ross, the Pastor of the charge and his wife. The audience was most lavish in its expressions of appreciation, and the young ladies of Napanee will always merit a hearty welcome from the people of Bath Pastoral Charge. The ladies of the congregation in general are to be congratulated on the splendid issue of their excellent effort.

Had Foot Cut.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on Wednesday afternoon of this week, when Bert Lloyd, the 15 year old son of Mr. Ed. Lloyd, while working in a woods near Addingtonon, helping his father get out their winter's wood, cut his foot badly. He was trimming the log when it rolled slightly, causing the axe to hit his foot, inflicting a bad wound. Dr. Northmore, of Bath, was called. He dressed the wound, and the boy is now resting comfortably at his home in Sillsville.

OBITUARY.

James Harold Russell.

In the passing of James Harold Russell, which took place at his late home, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 17th, Napanee has lost one of her finest young men whose exemplary life and fine Christian character will live long in the memory of those with whom he was associated.

The deceased, who was in his 25th year, had been ill for the past six years, and for the past year had been confined to his bed.

The struggle to regain health since his first illness was a trying one, and although he appeared to be better at times, the dread disease had made such headway that it was seen that his bright career would soon terminate.

Throughout his long illness he bore up with Christian hope and fortitude and in his passing the community has lost one of her best young men.

The deceased was the son of Mrs. Leah Russell and the late James Irvine Russell, and came to Napanee after the death of his father, seventeen years ago. He, with his mother and the remaining members of the family, soon identified themselves with Grace Church, where the deceased was a faithful and enthusiastic worker. In the Young People's League he was a particularly strong and active member, and the endeavourers will not soon forget the zeal and enthusiasm which he put into the work. Not only to the fine assistance which he always gave, particularly at the social meetings of League.

Besides his sorrowing mother, he leaves to mourn his loss one brother, Mr. Ross Russell, and the Misses Jean and Myrtle. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved ones.

A private funeral was held at the home on Thursday afternoon. The room in which the casket lay was banked with beautiful flowers. The floral tributes were many. Rev. A. J. Terrill, who referred very feelingly to the deceased's cheery disposition and Christian character, spoke the irreparable loss which the family and church circles had sustained. At the conclusion of the service the remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery to await the glad Resurrection Day.

Mrs. William Lockridge.

The death occurred on Monday morning, Nov. 20th, 1925, of Mrs. William Lockridge, a highly respected resident of the Township of Camden, when Mrs. Lockridge was seventy-two years of age, and enjoyed excellent health until the last six weeks of her life.

In religion she was an Anglican, and had been a member of St. John's Church, Enterprise, for twenty-five years.

There are left to survive her loss, her husband and six children, Mr. Robert Lockridge, of Philadelphia, N.Y.; Mrs. H. Ferrell, of Perth; Mrs. A. Spratt, of Enterprise, and David and Louise, at home; also Joseph, four brothers, William, Albert, and Thomas, of Thanaville, Ont., and George Howard, of Tamworth.

The funeral was held at Christ Church, Tamworth, and was officiated by Rev. J. A. Porter.

NEWBURGH

Visitors of the week: Mrs. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith, of Odessa; Mr. Will Deroche, of Napanee; Mr. Will Shorey, of Toronto; Mr. Ed. Shorey, of Cannilton, at the home of Mrs. Shorey. Ramsay's over Sunday. Mrs. Jeffery and Mrs. James, of Winnipeg, with Mrs. James Wales. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Lucas, of Napanee, at J. R. Lucas'. Mrs. M. Hill and son, Waldemar, were at Mrs. Switzer's, Switzerville, on Sunday.

Miss Leah Ramsay spent the week-end in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Patterson and son, Carmen, of Moscow, Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wartman and family.

Mrs. G. Finlay and Mrs. Bruce Finlay, of Strathcona, called on their sister, Mrs. W. Wartman, on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. T. H. P. Anderson and son, Douglas, motored to Cannilton and Smithfield for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wartman spent the week-end at Kingston.

Misses Hannah and Eliza Paul spent a few days at Walter Paul's, Wesley, and attended the anniversary services in Wesley Church on Sunday, and also the tea meeting on Monday evening.

The Mission Circle of Wesley held a social evening at the parsonage on Thursday, Nov. 26th.

Tuesday evening was social and literary night at the Young Peoples League of the United Church, with Miss Gordon as chairman. Rev. Mr. Anderson gave a very interesting reading, Robin Fluke also gave a reading, and Miss Florence Pero a solo. The meeting next Monday evening will be under the supervision of Miss Barrie, 5th Vice President.

The Sunday School of the United Church are busy preparing for their annual entertainment on Dec. 19th.

Reeve McNeely had the misfortune to have his eye severely injured by a stone, which necessitated a few days' stay at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott, Kingston, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Scott.

Miss Margaret Mitchell, Queen's, was home for Sunday.

Miss Shepley, of Queen's, Kingston, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss J. E. Shepley, of the High School staff.

Mrs. Switzer, of Echo Lake, is at present at the home of her son, John Switzer, suffering from a broken hip. In alighting from a car she fell on the ground, and had to be carried to the house. Dr. Mounce was hastily summoned when it was found her hip was broken. Although suffering a great deal, she is doing as well as can be expected. Her husband and her daughter, of Echo Lake, are with her at present.

Mrs. T. I. Winter and Miss Alice Milligan were in Kingston on Saturday.

Mrs. S. Shorey, who has been so seriously ill, is better at time of writing.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

WILTON'S SEWING CLASS

The Wilton Branch of the Women's Institute have very successfully completed a ten days' course in sewing. This course was held at the home of Mrs. K. N. Storms, who gave her home and time most graciously for the good of anyone in the community who wished to learn something of the art of sewing. Many thanks are due Mrs. Storms. These lessons were very ably taught by a Government instructor, Miss Owens, who untired in teaching, demonstrating and explaining each part to any of her many pupils. The class consisted of twenty-three members of the Institute, several joining at the beginning of the class, so as to receive full benefit of this very instructive work. The first few afternoons were given up to the foundation work of sewing, that of the many stitches used, and the correct use of each stitch; the making of all kinds of pockets, plackets, and many other things too numerous to mention. Then came the planning, cutting and fitting of dresses and blouses. These articles were done by each member under the keen eye of the instructor. There were fourteen dresses, three blouses, two slips and one nightgown made during the course. The slips and nightgown were planned and cut from measurements, not from patterns. Then, last but not least, on Nov. 20th, the evening after the close of the class, a banquet was held by the members of the sewing class for Mrs. Storms', including each member and her partner. Tables were set for about fifty and all partook of a delicious tea. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Before the party came to a close all joined hands around Miss Owens, and sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". Miss Owens left on Saturday for Western Ontario, where she will instruct another class in the next two weeks. "Wishes of good luck" go with her from Wilton community.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE AT MORVEN

The Anniversary service of the United Church, Morven, was held in the White Church, on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 22nd, in charge of the Pastor, the Rev. W. R. Merrick. The church choir, assisted by Mrs. Wm. Clese, Violet, and Mr. C. Vandervoort, Napanee, rendered appropriate music. The Rev. J. K. Curtis, Kingston, gave a very splendid address on the importance of man's stewardship, and the value of the proper use of money.

On Wednesday evening a fowl supper was held, in which Morven was able to retain her well known reputation of abundance of good things to eat. Mr. Madrand, Organist of Princess Street Church, Kingston, and four very efficient helpers, gave an A 1 program, which was well given and well received. The committee, consisting of the Rev. W. R. and Mrs. Merrick, Mrs. E. Walmsley and Mrs. C. L. Sharp, are to be heartily congratulated upon securing so entertaining a programme.

The proceeds of the evening amounted to $237.50. We thank one and all for their generous assistance and co-operation for the success in this entertainment at Morven.

Only the vast sale for delicious Laura Secord Candy makes it possible for these to sell at 60c. a pound. Once sampled, candy lovers would demand them were they double the price. Laura Secords sold in Napanee, only at Wallace's.

ODE TO MACKENZIE KING

William Loyns Mackenzie King,
The pseuda statesman bold,
Whose hat is cast within the ring,
Whose body is in the cold.

How it feels to be outside,
While pulling strings within,
Is it a check on human pride,
Or merely deep chagrin?

Could you, by any human chance,
A dealing make with Forke,
And thus repair the broken lance,
That rivel of North York.

Quebec can't stage another fight,
With taeties like the last,
For time will sure let in the light,
And so that time is past.

Give up the job, my dear young man,
From Ottawa remove,
Cast in your lot with Uncle Sam,
Your grandpa would approve.

To stay will prove an uphill job,
It scarce will bring you glory,
Who'll draw all good men to their side,
Without a hook or bait.

We are now in a position to exhibit to you many handsome Chesterfield Suites that have individual charm and rare distinction; Suites in many varieties of excellent upholstering, new designs and expert workmanship.

SPINIT
A Welcome Gift

SELECTION

In our Great April Chesterfield Drive we told you of our new system of buying Chesterfield Suites. This system we have followed up and studied very closely, with the result that we are now able to bring Fine Living-Room Furniture within the reach of all.

You say that two kinds of Living-Room Furniture is made,—the kind you like and the kind you can afford. Yet we claim there's still another kind,—the Chesterfield Living-Room Suites on our floor; they have the two qualities most women want: Beauty and Low Price.

CONSTRUCTION

The framework on which our Upholstered Furniture is built is always made of thoroughly seasoned kiln dried hardwood (no other wood used as a substitute), strongly braced and glued, not merely nailed. Low grade lumber is never used.

FAMOUS HIDDEN QUALITIES OF OUR CHESTERFIELD FURNITURE

The selection and construction of our Chesterfield Suites are not the only points we have stressed upon in our buying, but also on the hidden qualities that can so easily deceive you.

SPRINGS — The upholstering springs under the seat cushions and in the back of our Chesterfields are large in size, made of heavy high-tempered steel spring wire, wide coil, resting on and interlocking at the bottom with steel crossbars, firmly attached to the hardwood frames. The tops of springs are flexibly interlocked with steel tie wires to obtain individual spring or hinge action. Spring edges in our Chesterfield Furniture are double stuffed and closely stitched, with heavy sheeting over springs. The filling materials are of germ-cured fine tow, best grade of moss and clean white felted cotton.

CUSHIONS are filled with patented spring construction, made of a multitude of fine steel coils, firmly and flexibly interlocked. They are heavily padded and will hold their shape indefinitely.

It is easily possible to cut costs of upholstery fabric, but not possible to maintain quality by so doing. Mohairs, Velours and Tapestries can be obtained at almost any price, but the lower grades will soon fade, grow shabby and lose their lustrous appearance.

Another important factor in the construction of our Chesterfield Furniture is the human one arising from craftsmen who take a conscientious interest and sincere pride in work well done.

We can assure you of excellent service from them all. Every piece offers these hidden qualities we have already told you about.

You can have your choice. Every Suite on our floor within your reach. We want you to come in and let us show you these charming Chesterfield Suites.

FOR JOY OF GOOD HEALTH

Manitoba Woman Thanks Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Crandall, Manitoba.—"When I was a young girl at home and working I had terrible pains, almost more than I could bear, and I was not regular. These troubles kept me so tired all the time that I had no strength and no ambition to join in with my friends and have a good time. I was just tired and miserable always and life just seemed as if it wasn't worth living. I saw so much in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then I had a friend who had taken it and told me about it, so I got some. Every month after taking it I got stronger and I soon did not suffer every month. It stopped the pains and helped me other ways. Then when my babies were coming I was tired and worn out the first three months and ached badly. I took the Vegetable Compound right along and must say it made a new woman of me and able to do my work, and it helped me through confinement. You see I am a farmer's wife with a big house to look after, and three babies now. I have told ever so many women about your medicine. Just last week I got a letter from my old chum in the East. Her baby was born fifteen days before mine and she told me she was not feeling very well, her back aches so much, and that she is going to take the same medicine I took. You can use my letter and I hope some one will be helped by it."—Mrs. Jos. H. Kipp, Box 56, Crandall, Manitoba. C

When a man has an opportunity to become a hero he is usually busy at something else.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"What would a nation be without women?"

"Stagnation."

Father's voice (from above) — "Jane, is that fellow gone?"

Daughter—"Hopelessly, dad."

The cheapness of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator puts it within reach of all, and it can be got at any druggist's.

Indignant Old Gentleman—"Yes, sir, he is one of those people who smack you on the back before your face and hit you in the eye behind your back. Ugh!"

No man or woman should hobble painfully about because of corns when so certain a relief is at hand as Holloway's Corn Remover.

"A husband leads a dog's life," he said.

"That's right," agreed his wife, coldly. "He growls all day and sleeps all night."

Use Miller's Worm Powders and the battle against worms is won. These powders correct the morbid conditions of the stomach which nourish worms, and these destructive parasites cannot exist after they come in contact with the medicine. The worms are speedily evacuated with other refuse from the bowels. Soundness is imparted to the organs and the health of the child steadily improves.

Charitable Lady (to beggar) — "Poor man, how miserable you look!"

Beggar (confidentially)—"I should not do much good at this job if I didn't."

Drives Asthma Like Magic. The immediate help from Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy seems like magic. Nevertheless it is only a natural remedy used in a natural way. The smoke or vapor, reaching the most remote passage of the affected tubes, brushes aside the trouble and opens a way for fresh air to enter. It is sold by dealers throughout the land.

Green—"I saw a play the other night with only two actors in it."

White—"That's nothing! I've seen plays without any actors in them at all!"

Powerful Medicine. — The healing properties in six essential oils are concentrated in every bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, forming one of the most beneficial liniments ever offered to the use of man. Many can testify as to its power in allaying pain, and many more can certify that they owe their health to it. Its wonderful power is not expressed by the small price at which it sells.

Woman (who has given some food to a tramp)—"You have a very awkward way of eating, man."

Tramp—"Yes, ma'am; I s'pose it's 'cause I'm out of practice."

Excellent for Croupy Children. — When a child is suffering with croup it is a good plan to use Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It reduces the inflammation and loosens the phlegm giving speedy relief to the little sufferer. It is equally reliable for sore throat and chest, earache, rheumatic pains, cuts, bruises and sprains. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is regarded by many thousands as an indispensable of the family medicine chest.

Thomson—"Before he was married, old Williams said he'd be master in his own house, or he'd know the reason why."

Jenkins—"And now he's married?"

Thomson—"He knows the reason why."

She (trying to brighten things after breakdown of car) — "After all, there's a lot to be said for these cars, isn't there?"

Harassed Owner—"Yes, and if you were a bit farther off I should probably say it!"

An Irishman applied at the wharf for work as a stevedore. He was only four and a half feet in height, and the foreman was dubious.

"We're loading three-hundred-pound anvils into that boat," he said, "and a little chap like you couldn't handle them."

"Try me," said Pat.

And the foreman put him to work. Pat hustled the anvils aboard all right. The cargo was nearly all stowed when the foreman heard a splash. He ran to the rail, and saw Pat struggling in the water.

"Throw me a rope!" he yelled, as he went under.

He re-appeared soon and again called loudly for a rope. Then he disappeared again. Once more he rose to the surface.

"If you don't throw me a rope," he spluttered, "I'm going to drop this anvil."

WHY RIVERS OVERFLOW.

Some Streams Make Their Beds Too Small For Flood Time.

"A river is not made to order. It is nothing more nor less than the accidental path made by water in following the line of least resistance," writes Arthur E. Morgan in an article on "Why Rivers Overflow," published in the Scientific American. Mr. Morgan goes on to show that the average river has found or made a channel that suffices for it in ordinary times, but that in flood tide is not large enough to carry off the water. Some of the figures he gives explain perfectly why certain rivers are in the habit of overflowing.

The Coldwater river, where it enters the flat lands from the hills in northern Mississippi, has a capacity of 900 cubic feet per second when full to the top of its banks. At maximum flood, however, 100,000 cubic feet per second pour down it, and it has to overflow.

The St. Francis river on the boundary between Arkansas and Missouri can take care of from 500 to 5,000 cubic feet per second, but in flood time it has 70,000 and the surplus must overflow. The Miami river in Ohio has a normal capacity, varying at different points from 6 per cent to 5 per cent of its maximum overflow. The Mississippi, near the mouth of the Red river, has a normal flow of 200,000 cubic feet a second; when full to the top of its banks it can carry about 1,200,000 cubic feet. When all its tributaries are in flood it has to carry 2,500,000 cubic feet a second. As its banks are higher than the surrounding plains, these inevitably receive the overflow.

Don't Miss This

You're behind the times if you don't know that Cod Liver Extract is one of the greatest flesh producers in the world.

Because it contains more vitalizing vitamines than any food you can get.

You'll be glad to know that McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets come in sugar coated form now, so if you really want to put 10 or 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh on your bones and feel well and strong and have a complexion that people will admire—ask your druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

It isn't anything unusual for a person to gain 10 pounds in 30 days, and for people with "feebleness" overtaking them they work wonders.

JUDICIAL SALE

Pursuant to a Judgment of the Supreme Court of Ontario, in an action of Pringle vs. Bennett, dated the 15th day of December, 1924, and a Local Master at Napanee, I will offer for sale by Public Auction, at the Town of Napanee, in the County of Lennox and Addington, on Friday, the 18th day of December, 1925, at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following valuable Township property:

Parcel No. 1 — Lot number forty-four on the north side of Dundas Street in the Town of Napanee.

Parcel No. 2 — Lot number forty-six (46) feet more or less on Dundas Street, in the said Town of Napanee, together with a right of way for the first six (6) feet in width on the south side thereof.

Upon Parcel No. 1 is erected a two storey frame dwelling used as a store with a small barn in the rear.

Upon Parcel No. 2 is erected a frame dwelling together with a right of way on the south side of the building.

The property will be sold subject to reserve bids fixed by the Master.

Terms of Sale: Ten per cent cash and the balance within one month thereafter without interest.

In all other respects the usual conditions of sale will be the standing conditions of the Supreme Court.

For further particulars apply to the Law Offices of Bennett & Bennett, and T. B. German, Napanee.

Dated the 6th November 1925.

K. S. HAWLEY,
Plaintiff's Solicitor.
S. S. LAZIER,

Let me help you settle the flour question once and for all!

ONLY the best flour makes the best bread, pastry and puddings.

Inferior flour, or flour that varies in quality endangers your success in baking, reduces the food value and appetizing qualities of everything you bake.

I, your retailer, select for your table the best of everything on the market

For your baking I select Purity Flour because in all the years I have been in business Purity Flour has never failed to please my customers.

I offer you this silk-sifted, oven-tested flour with the understanding that if it does not make the best bread, pies and cakes you ever baked you may return the unused portion and I will return the full price of your purchase.

Could anything be fairer?

Let me send a trial bag of Purity Flour with your next order. You'll be delighted.

Rheumatic People Now Find Relief

By Driving the Poisonous Acid From the System.

Rheumatism attacks people when the blood is thin and watery or charged up with impurities, thus setting up inflammation of the muscles and joints. Cold, wet weather or sharp winds may start the pains, but the cause is rooted in the blood, and to get relief it must be treated through the blood. As a blood builder and nerve tonic Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unsurpassed, and for that reason do not fail to give relief to rheumatic sufferers when given a fair trial. Among the rheumatic sufferers who have proved the great value of this medicine is Mr. N. M. Foley, Windsor, N.S., who says:—"My trouble started with a bad cold, the result of working in a heavy rain storm. From that it developed into rheumatism which badly crippled me and kept me confined to bed for upwards of six months. The doctor who treated me did not help me, and every friend who called to see me had something different to advise. Some of these remedies I tried, but with no better results. My legs were stiff from the hips down, and every move I made caused intense pain, and constantly I was growing weaker. Then a friend from Falmouth, who came to see me, asked if I had tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had taken so much medicine without benefit that I was skeptical and said so. My friend, however, had so much faith in the pills that he got me a supply and to please him I began taking them. I had not been taking them long when I began to feel a change for the better, and I gladly got a further supply. Soon I was able to get out of bed and walk around on crutches. Still taking the pills I used in all seventeen boxes, by which time I was a well man and at work every day. Now I always keep a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the house and if I feel an ache or pain I take them, and always with good results. I believe I would still be a bed-ridden cripple but for those pills, and I shall always praise and recommend them."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Natural Inquiry.

Helen was a very inquisitive child who greatly annoyed her father each evening with endless questions while he tried to read the news paper. One evening, among other things, she demanded, "Papa, what do you do at the store all day?"

Exasperated at her persistence he answered briefly, "Oh, nothing."

Helen was silent a moment, and then asked, "But how do you know when you are done?"

How Do You Make a Circle?

The Intelligence of people may be gauged by asking them to make a circle on paper with a pencil and noting to which direction the hand is moved. The good student in a mathematical class draws circles from left to right. The inferiority of the softer sex as well as the male dunces is shown by their drawing from right to left. Asylum patients do the same.—London Family Doctor.

Homemade Silver Polish.

To make the best silver polisher and cleaner known, take a bottle of ammonia as sold in most grocery stores, and to this add two ounces of whiting and just a few drops of otatle acid. In this way you will procure for the expenditure of 15 cents as much of the best silver polish as can be purchased for $1 in most of the prominent drug stores. This same polish is so cheap when homemade that the housewife will not find it too extensive to use it in polishing all of the cutlery and also the brass doorknobs or any other bright metal fixtures about the house.—National Magazine.

A Woman's Strategy.

"I once heard of a really henpecked man who made friends with a mouse, and by keeping the little animal always about him he contrived to get the upper hand."

"A strange story. How long did that state of affairs continue?"

"Only a short while. The man's wife introduced a cat, and the moment the cat pounced on the mouse she pounced on her husband."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Getting Along.

"Lemme see, how old is your daughter?"

"I always have to stop and think. Anyway, she must be getting on. Yesterday I heard her contemptuously refer to the youngsters at a nearby preparatory school as a parcel of little boys."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Fire at Tamworth.

Fire which broke out in a bakery shop at Tamworth on Friday morning, completely destroyed the building and all its contents, with a damage of over $1,000. The bakery was owned by Mr. Percy York, of Tamworth, and he had only opened his business about a week ago. About 4.30 Mr. York was going to his store to work, when he discovered the building on fire. The flames had got a fast headway and the interior was a mass of flames. An alarm was sounded to which all the villagers responded, and although great work was done by them the building was completely destroyed. The surrounding buildings, which were constantly in danger, were saved through the splendid efforts of the fire brigade. There is no insurance to cover the loss and the cause of the fire is unknown.

INDOOR BASEBALL

Excitement was crowded into every second of the indoor baseball game at the Armouries, on Tuesday, when "B" Co. defeated the town Snake Charmers by 28-38. The "soldiers" battled around twice in the first inning, driving "Zeke" Vine from the box, and scoring 12 runs. They added 4 in the 3rd, 7 in the 4th, 3 in the 5th, 2 in the 6th, and 10 in the 7th.

The Snake Charmers scored 6 in the 1st, 0 in the 2nd, 4 in the 3rd and 4th, 3 in the 5th, 5 in the 6th, and 6 in the 7th.

Mr. Murray pitched a fine game for "B" Co., and was ably held up by Bentley. George Reid covered second nicely, while Harry Babcock played a whale of a game at short. F. Fraser covered 3rd like a veteran, while J. Stewart, C. Harrison, Roy Armstrong and Claude MacDonald caught everything in the outfield.

"Speedy" Montgomery held up "Polly" Vine and "Bo" McNeill to a nicety, while Jim Naphin covered 1st like a cyclone. "Twin" Johnston and "Flea-bite" Skitch worked well around 2nd, while Leo Scrimshaw played a whale of a game at 3rd. Doug. Fraser, Jack Jackson and Bill Galt caught everything in sight in the outfield.

The heavy hitters of the day were Mr. Murray with a homer, and Jim Naphin with two 3-bagers. Mr. Murray fanned 5, while "Bo" McNeill fanned 1 and "Zeke" Vine 0.

Snake Charmers — Skitch s.s., Scrimshaw 3rd, Fraser l.f., Naphin 1st, Galt r.f., Johnston 2nd, Montgomery c., Vine p., McNeill c.f., Jackson s.s.

Next Tuesday evening there will be three games in the Armouries, starting at 6.30, when Trinity Church meet St. Pats. "B" Co. will then tackle Gibbards. The feature on the program will be the game between the Robinson Co. and the Iron Werks. A large crowd is expected and no doubt there will be plenty of excitement.

WEDDING BELLS.

Clark—Watters.

On Wednesday morning, Nov. 25th, at the parsonage, Morven, the marriage took place of Annie Beatrice Watters, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Watters, of Ernestown, to Silas Stanley Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bruce Clark, also of Ernestown. The bride looked very charming in a dress of brown crepe satin, which was very tastefully trimmed. After the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. W. R. Merrick, the happy couple left for a trip to different points in the U.S.A.

KING DURHAM

Mr. W. M. Stevens, River Road, sold to J. G. Loucks, butcher, last week, one Durham baby beef which dressed 620 pounds of meat. This calf was bred by one Mr. Hinch (now deceased) near Brisco's Corner, and was purchased by Mr. Stevens and brought home in a buggy in June, 1924, and was sixteen months old when slaughtered. It was a short-horned Durham, the king of bovine, and the pride of River Road.

Farmers of late years have forgotten, in their race for an animal producing the largest flow of milk, and ignored altogether the epicurean who delights in the taste of a juicy roast of beef, which is one of the staple articles of food.

The Durham is a butter-maker of high order, of compact build, of perfect harmony and symentery which distinguishes this breed from all others.

He is the farmer's friend, and the farmers of to-day are awakening to the fact that Durham cattle are a very valuable asset to the farm, but of late years have been crowded out by the Holstein, a producer of cheese, but not of butter and beef of good quality.

OBITUARY

Simon Mulholland.

The almost tragic death of Simon Mulholland, on Thursday, the 26th, removes one of Newburgh's landmarks. He was making his weekly trip for hay to a farm which he and his brother owines, two miles north of the village, and while returning home with his usual load in some way, which will never be known, fell off the load, striking on his head, fracturing his skull, rendering him unconscious. He was found shortly afterwards by Mr. John Hannah, who happened along, and who summoned Dr. Mounce. The Doctor took him to his office, and afterwards to the Mulholland home, where he died, without recovering consciousness, about two hours after the accident.

Simon, as he was familiarly called, was born in Newburgh about 65 years ago, and has not lived outside the bounds of its corporation since. Like Goldsmith's village preacher, "He never had changed, Nor wished to change his place."

He took a lively interest in municipal affairs and was a trusted civic official, having for over thirty-five years collected the village taxes.

Mr. Mulholland could always be counted on to support two-cent fare, of the Conservative party in politics and any measure of temperance reform. These two causes he regarded as being near akin. He was not only Conservative in his politics but conservative in his habits.

He could not in any way be called a speed-drift, and in this regard he did not discriminate, for no cause or project ever presented attractions enough to lure him into extravagance. Simon was fond of dumb animals, particularly horses, and he was never without one. Indeed, since he claimed had fast records, but he never made a public exhibition of their speed. Behind what might be regarded as a rough exterior, Simon was a pretty shrewd judge of human nature and sometimes with a sarcastic humor made the lives and foibles of others appear ridiculous.

His passing severs a link with the part.

Robert Andersen.

The many friends and acquaintances of Napanee and vicinity were grieved on Tuesday last, when news arrived from Toronto, that Robert Anderson had passed away at the General Hospital there, after an illness of three days' duration, at the early age of forty-four years.

Bobby, as he was familiarly known by, endeared himself to a large seat of friends during his stay here, being one of the leading foremen for the Wm. Davies Co. at the time of the world war when they operated the canning factory here. He was in the employ of the Wm. Davies Co. for a period of fifteen years, and the high esteem in which he was held by the Company and his fellow employees was manifested by the many large floral designs which were placed by the casket and the large company closing their plant to give all an opportunity to attend his funeral as a last token of their respect to the one they loved so well.

The funeral, which took place from his late residence, 517 Eastern Ave., on Thursday, the 26th ult., was voiced by all present as the largest of its kind held in Toronto in many years. Rev. Mr. Andrews conducted a very impressive service at the house testifying in a very high degree to the noble traits of the departed one, after which the remains were conveyed, followed by a very large concourse of friends and acquaintances to their last resting place in Norway cemetery.

The many friends and acquaintances here wish to extend to the bereaved family their deepest sympathy in this their hour of trial and sad bereavement.

Peter Loyst.

The death occurred of Peter Loyst, a highly respected resident of South Fredericksburgh, on Nov. 20th, at Harrington, Ont. The late Mr. Loyst was 83 years of age, and enjoyed excellent health within one week of his death. He was predeceased by his wife six years ago, who was a daughter of Peter Parks, of that place. In religion he was a Methodist, and in politics a Conservative. He was a man of sterling qualities, and always noted for his honesty and uprightness. He passed away without a struggle, trusting in his Saviour and Master for the call. He leaves one son, Martin Loyst, Harrington; 2 daughters, Mrs. Walter Platt, South Fredericksburgh, and Mrs. Wm. Gault, Mimico; 4 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Rev. Mr. Doggett conducted the services at Harrington, on Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Thomas Martin.

There passed away suddenly of heart failure, at his home at Mount Pleasant, on Friday, November 20th, Mr. Thomas Martin, in his 75th year. The deceased was born in New York State, and moved to Canada with his parents when a boy and settled in West Huntington.

For twenty-five years he farmed in Tyendinaga, and about six years ago moved to Mount Pleasant. He was a kind and affectionate father. He leaves Jane Ann Graham, of Camden, who is left to mourn, and five children, Robert and Edward, Marrisville; and Charles, at home; Mrs. William Graham, Richmond, and Mrs. Benn Platt, South Fredericksburgh. The funeral service was conducted at his late residence by Rev. J. H. H. Coleman. Burial at Deseronto cemetery.

Mr. Jacob Anderson.

The death of Mr. Jacob Anderson, on October 20th, 1925, which occurred at his home near Erinsville, came as a shock to his many friends and relatives. Mr. Anderson had been in failing health for some time, but in spite of all that loving hands could do he passed peacefully away. Deceased was a Methodist in religion, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He was always willing to lend a helping hand among his neighbors when called upon to do so. He leaves to mourn for him, his wife, two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Albert Mowbray, Deseronto; Mrs. Herbert Clarke, Arden, and Jacob Anderson, Camden East. Funeral service was held in the United Church, Tamworth, and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Thornley officiating, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Tamworth cemetery beside his father and mother.

TURKEY DAY IN NAPANEE

Napanee presented a lively appearance on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, when the annual reunion of the poultry buyers and the poultry raisers in the district was held.

The poultry buyers came in pullman cars the night before and had their offices and reception rooms ready to receive the guests, who arrived in great numbers, accompanied by large quantities of turkeys, chickens, geese, ducks and hens.

For blocks up Centre, John, Dundas and Thomas Streets, the cars and wagons were parked. All day Wednesday and most of Thursday the meetings were held, and all were highly pleased with the result, the farmers because of the good prices, and the buyers because of the excellent quality.

It is not an easy matter to train a poultry-raising community to produce exactly what the market demands, but Napanee district throughout many years' experience, has learned how to prepare the fowl and receive the highest prices.

In spite of the growing opposition from co-operative centres, Napanee still holds the position of pre-eminence which has been hard earned, and we hope it may for long be retained.

The prices offered this year compared with last year are as follows:

1925		1924
22c.-35c.	Chickens	25c.-28c.
18c.-22c.	Hens	19c.-20c.
18c.-20c.	Geese	18c.-20c.
16c.-20c.	Ducks	18c.-20c.
30c.-36c.	Turkey	28c.-30c.

The Banks paid out $68,000 in cash, which compares with $48,000 paid out last year.

Those who had buyers here were Henry Gatehouse & Son, Harris-Abattoir Co. Ltd., Wm. Davies Co. Ltd., Wayte Packing Co., Ltd., Swift Canadian Co., Ltd., P. Poulin & Co., Ltd., and Canada Packers, Ltd. The total amount shipped was 136 tons.

DID WELL AT OTTAWA

Junior farmers of Lennox and Addington, under the direction of Agriculture, won quite a number of prizes at the Ottawa Winter Fair last week. W. Fraser put in the best exhibit on judging Swine; D. Shoquinessy 4th on Horses, and Malcolm Ross on Dairy Cattle.

In the contest on judging grain and potatoes, W. Fraser won over twenty-two competitors; M. Woodcock was eleventh.

Another competition that open to boys and girls who had won first prize on exhibits of grain and potatoes at their School Fairs. These pupils were required to show a dozen potatoes or a quart of grain produced on a 1924 farm. Prizes from the County who won prizes on these classes are:

Harold Gordon Bell, Enterprise.
Ruby Brooks, Sillsville.
Johnston Farrell, Wilton.
Borden Young, Napanee No. 2.
Ellsworth Presley, Denbigh.
Mary Stewart, Napanee No. 4.
Willie Thompson, Newburgh.

The United Church

Congregationalists.

The Congregationalists have never been a great denomination when judged by numbers. But in the development of religion since the Reformation, they have played a part out of all proportion to their size. In season and out of season they have fought the battle against State control of the Church both in England and in America, and perhaps no single factor in these countries has been so effective in securing that freedom as the Congregationalists.

The Puritans.

During the reign of Elizabeth a number of reformers who had fled to Switzerland to escape the persecutions of Mary, returned. They came back, out and out Calvinists, and at once formed a body within the Church of England who opposed the Divine Right of Kings and the power of the civil authorities to control the religious life of the people. Because they insisted on a pure New Testament form of worship and ministry, they were nicknamed Puritans.

The reformation in England was not as thorough-going as it had been in Scotland. In Scotland every vestage of the old Church was wiped out. In England, on the other hand, the Church, though reformed, was changed as little as possible. The form of worship was kept and the priestly office of the ministry retained, while the ruling monarch simply assumed the power which had formerly been held by the head of the Roman Church.

Attempts at Reform Within the Church

Against this the Puritans protested. They were not at all satisfied with mere half-way measures of reform; but they were British and loyal and desired that the reform should be secured without a violent revolution. They resembled the Anglo Catholics of the present day in that they are anxiety within the Church of England seeking drastic changes without unnecessary means. But the Puritans were disappointed in their efforts. Elizabeth turned a deaf ear to their pleadings, but they hung on in the hope that her successor, James I, a Scotchman and a Presbyterian, would grant their requests. But on assuming the throne he showed his colors by hating Puritans and their hopes were once more shattered.

Reform Outside the Constituted Church

They then began to hold little meetings of their own outside the Church of England. These called Independents or Congregationalists. The first meeting of this kind was convened in Plumbers Hall, London, in 1567. Practically the whole country-side was aroused and 300 were in jail for a year. Next year a group of two hundred was discovered and the leaders executed. But this did not stop the movement. Gradually the groups increased until they constituted a fairly large body. They had no central government and opposed alike the Anglican form of church government and that of the Presbyterians, believing as they did in the absolute right of the congregation to its own constitution.

The Pilgrim Fathers

One such little group in the North of England under a certain minister, Robertson by name, suffered so much persecution and interruption that they decided to leave the country altogether, and finally, after the most harassing and dangerous experiences, they arrived at Amsterdam. There they stayed only a few months when they again moved to Leyden, where they decided once more to move, and received permission of the King of England to go to America. They then chartered a little ship, the Mayflower, and set out for the mouth of the Hudson. But the season of the ship had been bribed and landed them instead on the shores of Cape Cod, at Plymouth Rock. There they went through all the rigors of a severe winter in a new country. But they survived and gradually attracted others from England who were glad to escape the intolerance of the Church there. These congregations were established at Salam, Rowley, Charleston, Boston, etc. In the first instance these were all religious communities, a minister and his congregation, who fled England for conscience sake.

Effect in Canada

In this experiment the world witnessed the first movement, a state growing up without a state church, and a church free from the control of the state or control. These Congregationalists had a profound effect on England and Canada, so that even those of a Canadian life were laid, religious freedom and tolerance were assured to all. This was due to the large measure due to these men and women who left their homes, friends and country that they might worship God as they pleased.

Congregationalism in England

The struggle of the Congregationalists in England against the Divine Right of Kings on the one hand and Divine Right of Bishops on the other is one that does not lie within the range of this sketch, as we are concerned only with that element that contributed directly to the United Church. But the Congregationalists in England continued the struggle, and with the sword of Cromwell and the pen of Milton were the mightiest force in the history of England in securing religious freedom and toleration.

In the long and bitter struggle for religious freedom, they won independence for themselves, and in winning it for themselves, won it as well for practically every community in Christendom. But they did it at a great price in ease, comfort, friendship, money, and even life itself.

The third of the series, "Methodists," will appear in next week's issue.

Only three more weeks in which to make up your mind to be generous to others than the members of your immediate family. The Beaver Santa Claus Fund still needs a good deal of help if it is to meet the demand that will be made upon it.

Think for a minute of all the bounties nature has bestowed, good crops, turkey day successful, prices for farm products good, and homes well supplied with more than the necessities of life. Think on these things and then loosen up the purse strings and donate liberally to those who are less fortunate than yourself.

Even in Napanee there are those who need the help of others. To you, one and all, the Beaver appeals this, out of your abundance, some kiddie may have a small experience of the Christmastide. All gifts of money acknowledged through the columns of The Beaver, all accounts are audited and strictly accounted for.

There are many homes in which children have outgrown books, toys and other useful and amusing articles. Instead of allowing them to clutter up the attic, why not get them down, fix them up a bit and send them to the Salvation Army Barracks where they will be sent out to others and continue their mission, bestowing happiness to others.

Those in charge of the Beaver Santa Claus Fund will welcome at the above building where they work, any of these useful articles of wear or amusement.

HOCKEY.

A meeting was held in the Armouries at 6.30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 27th, for the purpose of forming a Junior Town League. The age limit of 16 years was set. It was decided to form a Church League, with teams from St. Mary Magdalene, St. Andrews, Grace, Trinity and St. Patricks comprising the league. The games will doubtless take place on Saturday afternoons. This system of teams will put more interest into the league and the younger boys will all know to what team they belong. However, there are a great many boys from the south western end of the town who attend the Salvation Army, and it is hoped somebody will organize a team from them and enter the league so they also will have a chance.

The Senior Town League is looking forward to a big season. All last year's teams are practically intact, with the possible exception of "B" Co. Two of last year's players have left, Northmore going to Queen's, and Lucas to Enterprise. However, they still have Bill Barrett, Ladrie Douglas, Everett Fraser, Claude Fraser, Fred Ballard and Jack Stewart, a new man.

St. Pats have lost Percy Stewart, but have Harry Sagar, Ambrose and Joe Killorin, Gerald Gleeson, Jim Normile, Clifford Cowie, Tom McGraw, and a few others of last year's team.

Gibbards will perhaps be deprived of the services of Ray Loucks, Leslie Richardson, Gerald Johnston, Ray Huffman, and a few others on account of a new ruling, but have Arnold, Rogers, Dave Stinson, Ralph Wilson, Douglas Fraser, Tommy Fox, Russell Wagar, Harry Vine, Garfield Thompson, Bud Botting, Gladwin Loucks, and a score of others to pick from.

It is hoped that the N.C.I. will enter a team. The local collegians have a host of hockey players to pick from, and no doubt will have a strong team.

A meeting will shortly be held to organize a team, and it is undecided whether to enter the league or play with Deseronto, Belleville, Campbellford and Trenton, or the Town League.

A team picked from the following would no doubt compare with the best in the league, Paul and Willard Thornley, Malcolm Corkill, Jack Judson, Claude Fraser, Claude MacDonald, Archie Wilson, Ralph Cowie, Jim and Bill Carr, Lorne Wartman, Fred Ballard and many others.

1925 Christmas Seals

The 1925 Christmas Seals, in aid of the Muskoka and Toronto Hospitals for Consumptives, have just been issued. These handsome seals are on six different designs, and are in assorted packets of 10, 25, 50 and 100.

The National Sanitarium Association is in need of funds to carry on the work of its hospitals at Muskoka and at Weston. Every dollar received through the sale of Christmas Seals is used for maintenance of patients there.

Why not buy these seals in lieu of other gifts. Not only will you get good value in return, but your money will be used to help a worthy cause, and you will get to help someone in distress.

Look for the double barred Cross on every packet. None others are genuine.

For sale by school children and banks, or direct from Xmas Seal Department, Gage Institute, Toronto 2, Ontario.

Children's Aid Society

The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society, Lennox and Addington, was held in the Town Hall, Napanee, on Tuesday, November 24th, the President, Mr. Alpine Woods, officiating as chairman.

The meeting was occupied mostly by the report of the Treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Grange, and the Local Superintendent of the Society, Mr. F. W. Barrett, these reports being the subject of much interesting discussion.

A number of other matters relating to the welfare of certain families which had come to the attention of the Society, was also discussed, and a Committee appointed to take care of these.

The Treasurer's report showed that after paying all outstanding accounts, there is a balance on the right side of the ledger.

The report of the Local Superintendent, which is printed in full, should prove to be of interest to those engaged in similar work.

At the conclusion of the business of the meeting, the annual election of officers for the ensuing year took place, the result being as follows :—

President—Mr. Alpine Woods.

1st Vice President—Rev. J. H. Coleman.

2nd Vice President—Mrs. S. Woodcock.

Treasurer—Mrs. A. W. Grange.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. F. L. Hooper.

Local Superintendent—Mr. F. W. Barrett.

These, together with the representatives of the various religious organizations, and the Warden of the County, comprise the Board of Management for the coming year.

Local Superintendent's Report.

Napanee, Oct. 31st, 1925.

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen,

In presenting this annual report of the work of the Children's Aid Society of the County of Lennox and Addington, which by the way is the tenth one for me, I am pleased to report that the usefulness of the Society is manifest in all parts of the County. Although our work is such that it does not need or does it get a lot of press notices or publicity, and the general public do not know what is being attempted or accomplished by the Society's efforts.

It might perhaps be better if this kind of social service were given more publicity, it possibly would lead to a better understanding of the needs of the community, with reference to the work among neglected and dependant children; but however, there is always the personal satisfaction of knowing that we are serving and helping the unfortunate, not perhaps as much as we would wish, but as much as we have the ability under the present circumstances of doing so.

Take the tabulated report, and you will notice that there has been complaints coming in to the office which involved one hundred and twenty-two children. These complaints have been investigated and personal attention given to all of them. Some were found to be trivial, and others needed advice and caution. Some few cases it was found necessary to bring to the Police Courts. The majority of them were what I might term "follow up cases", that is where conditions were found that were not as good as they might be, advice was given and sometimes a warning, and then a repeat visit, sometimes more, before conditions were at all satisfactory.

In some of the cases brought before the Police Court, a number of the offenders were after conviction handed back to their parents or guardian on suspended sentence, or practically "parole", to report to me weekly or monthly, as ordered, which system seems to be working very well. Of the remaining few, one was committed to the custody of the Children's Aid Society, and three sent to Industrial Schools.

In the investigation and the following up of the various complaints and subsequent visiting of wards and other duties connected with the work during the past year, your Local Superintendent has travelled approximately four thousand miles, which is the minimum, as the daily record system which is used is sometimes forgotten. When one is busy it is easy to forget to record all the particulars, and what applies to these figures, applies to the travelling figures, so that the tabulated report is only an approximate one, and would be actually under the exact figures.

The number of children committed to the care of the Society during the past year is small, but still the usefulness of the Society cannot be fairly judged by the number of committals. Sometimes more work is involved where the children are left with the parent or guardian, than when committed to the Society's care. As in the former it means many repeat visits, whereas if the child or children were taken from the custody of the parent or guardian, and placed in the Shelter, and stay until properly placed out, it would not be necessary for these repeat visits.

The lack of a suitable Shelter in this County somewhat handicaps the work of the Society in the proper care of some of the cases coming to our attention. While we have an excellent Shelter accommodation in the adjoining counties afforded us, sometimes it is too far away and too expensive to take the full advantage of.

In reviewing the cases brought to our attention during the last year there are some in which we might have been of more assistance to, if we had possessed a Shelter of our own. For instance, where there was a justifiable complaint with reference to certain families whose standard of hygiene is very limited, these children might be brought to the Shelter and kept for a time, and then allowed to go back home. Such training would not be lost upon them, as I believe only as a last resort should children be broken up and the children taken away.

In the visiting of the wards of the Society, who are placed in this County, I have met with very much encouragement. Most of them are doing very well; only in one instance have I found it necessary to recommend removal of a ward, and that was through no fault of the child, but the danger it was exposed to on account of altered circumstances in the family with which it was placed. Under the existing conditions, I am satisfied with the result of my visitation.

We have three children still in the Shelter for which it is practically impossible to find homes, as they are children which I could not recommend to be placed out in the ordinary way, being mentally deficient. If the parents had a suitable home for them I believe they would be as well there as anywhere else, but as they have no home or any accommodation for them they are still in the Shelter. What will ultimately become of them, I do not know. This is a matter which I want to draw your attention to.

In closing this part of my report, I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Local Superintendents for Hastings and Frontenac Counties, Mr. T. D. Ruston, of Belleville, and Rev. Wm. Black, of Kingston, for the very able assistance rendered to this Society and to myself in connection with the work of the Society during the past year, in a number of difficult cases in which by their assistance, the matter was made a good deal more easier and pleasant.

The following is the tabulated record for the year ending October 31st, 1925 :

Applications for children	24
Children placed on parole	9
Children involved during year	122
Children made wards	1
Children sent to Industrial Schools	3
Complaints received	55
Complaints investigated	55
Pieces of mail received	227
Pieces of mail sent out	305
Miles travelled (approximate)	3540
Office interviews	165
Phone calls	236
Visits out of town	70
Police Court attendance	37
Wards placed out	2
Wards visited	48
Warnings given	37

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Yours very truly,
F. W. BARRETT,
Local Superintendent.

Mothers Who Have Used Baby's Own Tablets

Always Strongly Recommend Them to Other Mothers.

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else—actual experience teaches her that there is no other medicine to equal them for any of the minor ailments from which her baby or little ones suffer. Having found the value of the Tablets in her own home, she is always anxious that other mothers should share her knowledge. That is why Mrs. Crozier Ton White, North Noel Road, N.S., writes the following:—"I have a baby seventeen months old and have given him nothing but Baby's Own Tablets ever since he was a week old. I know of no other medicine to equal them, and it is certainly a pleasure to recommend them to other mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative that regulate the stomach and bowels; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the sickly baby well and happy again. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"IN THE PUBLIC EYE"

If your child in school is not progressing properly with his studies the chances are that his eyes should be examined for possible eye defects that can be remedied by wearing glasses. If you no longer enjoy reading your daily paper and your distance-sense is also slightly impaired you should also have a competent optometrist examine into the cause and prescribe the glasses that will restore your vision.

The Magic Wonder of Endless Entertainments, Education and News with the Simple Push of a Button

NO more run-down "B" Batteries; no more fussy, expensive storage battery; no more hydrometer or voltmeter for testing batteries; no more battery charger; no more rheostats and blown-out tubes; no more fussy wiring or unsightly connections. It seems almost uncanny!

Yet it is as simple as it is amazing; a complete set no larger than an ordinary radio receiver, yet all ready to plug in and tune in.

It sounds sensational—seems impossible (and many may tell you it is), but the simple fact remains that from Halifax to Vancouver these sets have PROVEN that they will do all that any other good set can do—without Batteries or Aerial.

Moved by Messrs. Cousins and Miller, that in reference to the salary of T. V. Anderson, County Road Superintendent, we are of the opinion that $1200 is not enough to remunerate him for the services he has to perform, and in view of the fact that under the new regulations the Department of Highways will pay 50% of his salary, we recommend that his salary be $1500.00 to commence on January 1st, 1926.

Mr. McCutcheon asked for the yeas and nays.

Yeas—Messrs. Campbell, Cousins, Fisher, Graham, Johnston, Miller, Mellow, McNeely, Rogers and Sexsmith—10.

Nays—Messrs. McCutcheon, Smith and Yeomans—3.

Mr. Laughland appeared before the Council, advising the re-appointment of the Advisory Agricultural Committee.

A motion was passed recommending to the 1926 Council that 1000 yds. of gravel be procured during the winter for use on roads in Adolphustown.

Mr. Campbell presented the report of the Education and Printing Committee, which was adopted.

The statement of Committee services of County Roads Committee was presented and ordered paid.

On motion $1500.00 of the unexpended balance of Amherst Island County Roads money was added to the amount already at the credit of the Island for ferry purposes.

On motion the Advisory Committee Council of Agriculture for 1926 will be as follows :—The Reeves of Denbigh, Kaladar and Amherst Island, and the following: Thos. Chalmers, Albert Reid, J. Ed. Huffman, Robt. Merritt, Arthur Fraser, Wm. Forsythe, G. A. McGill and J. Laughland.

The report of the Warden and Clerk of orders drawn on the Treasurer was adopted.

On motion the Warden was made the usual yearly grant of $55.00 for committee services. $25.00 was also granted the chairman of the County Property Committee.

On motion of Councillors Graham and Campbell, the unexpended balance of Kaladar A. and E. road account was ordered back to the County Roads account.

The general statement of Committee services was presented and passed.

It was moved by Messrs. Fisher and McNeely, that this Council recommend to the Department of Highways that Road No. 3, Yarker to Enterprise, be included in County Roads System to connect with Road No. 3 at Hannah's Corners, the County Council to pass a by-law confirming this when the road is adopted by the Highways Department. This resolution is not to conflict with By-law No. 403 now before the Highways Department for adoption.

On motion the Warden was granted $15.50 for telephone expenses.

Mr. Young expressed himself as being opposed to the increase of salary granted County Roads Superintendent Anderson.

On motion the Doyle claim was referred to the County Roads Committee, with power to act.

On motion the Kingston General Hospital was granted $1200 for 1925. The Hospital will also be requested to furnish a statement of patients from this County.

On motion of Messrs. Fisher and Graham, the Council expressed its appreciation to Warden Smith for the banquet tendered the members and their friends on Friday evening.

The County officials were accorded a hearty vote of thanks for their services during the year.

Warden Smith vacated the chair, and a vote of appreciation of the services of the Warden during the year was unanimously passed.

The members of the Council also expressed their individual appreciation of the services rendered by Warden Smith during his term of office.

Council adjourned sine die.

Wampole's Tasteless Preparation of Cod Liver Oil has won such an outstanding place as a medicine that Canadian druggists from coast to coast are giving it special prominence in their stores this week. Wampole's is recommended and sold at Wallace's Drug Store. $1.00 per bottle.

Quick Relief for Rheumatics

Local Druggists Sell Rheuma on Money-Back Plan

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, swollen, twisted joints, and stiff muscles, your whole system is full of uric acid, that dangerous poison that makes thousands helpless and kills thousands more before their time, then you need Rheuma, and need it now.

Start taking it to-day. Rheuma acts at once on kidneys, liver, stomach and blood, and you can sincerely bid rheumatic misery a good riddance to bad rubbish.

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this town, and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when Wallace's Drug Store and other good druggists offered Rheuma to the afflicted at a small price and guaranteed money refunded if not satisfied. If you have rheumatism get a bottle of Rheuma to-day.

He Earned a Bonus But It Didn't Pay

He had a job with a big Transport Company, driving a team and handling big cases in all kinds of weather. His mother was a widow and there were five to be fed. "I made $17.50 a week and a bonus of $5.00 a month for extra loads. I used to get wet through, but I didn't think it did any harm. Then I fell off my load, and they said I had fainted, and the doctor said my heart was weak. I had to go to work the next morning when my suit wouldn't be dry. A few weeks more of work and I got another spell and they sent me up here."

In the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives. Nerb is finding rest, care and good food beyond anything he ever experienced. The Doctors and Nurses like this quiet, helpful thing and have hopes that health and strength will come back to him for good.

Hospital for Sick Children

67 College St., Toronto, 2, Ont.

Christmas, 1925.

Dear Mr. Editor:—

This is the fiftieth year—the semi-centennial of the Hospital for Sick Children. It is the Golden Anniversary of an institution which started out in 1875 with a six-bed equipment to cure children medically of their illnesses and to rid them surgically of their disabilities. Fifty years have passed and the tiny hospital has grown into one of the greatest institutions of its kind in the whole world.

The people of this province demanded this service — and they have made it possible by their Christmas Time gifts. They are rewarded by the knowledge that thousands of Ontario children will grow up into manhood or womanhood blessing the "little blue cots" wherein they were restored and strengthened to play a full part in the battle of life.

To win back health for six thousand boys and girls was the measure of the Hospital's ward-service alone this year. Besides that there were over and a hundred thousand attendances in the Out-Patient Department, where the less serious cases are treated. All this costs a great deal of money, even though the doctors give freely of their skill and the nurses of their care. There is board and lodging and laundry to be provided, besides the best that can be procured in the way of all the medical and surgical supplies required to treat the myrial ailments and accidents to which children are subject.

In order to maintain its high standard of efficiency and also to widen the scope of its service through clinics conducted all over Ontario, the Hospital is compelled to borrow heavily during the year. On the occasion of its fiftieth Christmas an appeal is made to the public for the funds which will allow the Hospital for Sick Children to enter upon its second half-century of service with its courage renewed as a credit balance in the bank.

It is indeed a noble cause which I feel sure you will cordially commend to your readers.

Faithfully yours,

IRVING E. ROBERTSON,
Chairman Appeal Committee

Note—This Hospital does not receive an appropriation from the Federation for Community Service Drive.

BATH PASTORAL CHARGE

Hawley Appointment

The anniversary services in connection with Hawley United Church were held last Sabbath evening, and the success far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the most optimistic. The congregation was considered very large, and the music was furnished by fifteen voices of the choir of Bath, the consensus of opinion being that the choir excelled itself, the minor quartette, entitled, "Open the Door," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. R. Sexsmith (soprano), Mrs. (Rev.) Ross (alto), Mr. John Osborne (tenor), and Mr. R. Sexsmith (baritone). According to request the anniversary sermon was preached by the pastor, and was a development of Rev. 4:3, "And There Was a Rainbow Round About the Throne." Many kind words were spoken in reference to the sermon.

The pastor did not ask for any particular amount of a thankoffering, but about $100.00 was laid on the plates, with a number of people yet to hear from.

Hawley will hold an old-fashioned U. E. L. tea and entertainment on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 9th.

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday will be "The Unknown Future."

Our Sunday School at Tamworth has subscribed $50.00, and our Y. P. S. $30.00, toward our allocation for the Maintenance and Extension Fund.

Even though an every-person canvass for church funds had been very recently made by both the Tamworth and Marlbank congregations, in view of the allocation of $804.00 which the Presbytery made to the Pastoral Charge another canvass is being made by both congregations this week. Reidville congregation is also making a canvass beginning next Friday. We hope to have completed the canvass on the Pastoral Charge and have reached our allocation by December 12th.

Saturday next will be a busy day for the ladies of the Tamworth congregation. The scene of their activities will be the Town Hall, where they hold their annual bazaar. Those women who labor with us in the gospel are no small factor in all of our accomplishments and should receive our hearty sympathy and support on Saturday.

Marlbank has a similar enterprise on hand, the place and date of which will be announced next Sunday.

There are weather indications that in the near future the minister may have to abandon his automobile for a slower mode of transport. He has commandeered a horse, harness and cutter for that unwelcome emergency, but is still hoping that it will delay its coming.

Watching the Bridegroom.

It was not only the matchmaking advertising parson who made money out of the bygone bridegroom. There was the man who watched the bridegroom for twenty-four hours or so before the time fixed for the ceremony lest he turned tail at the thought of the ordeal and its after effects. Here is an entry in the register of a village church in Huntingdon which illustrates the custom: "December, 1647. Paid for wages spent upon the man that watched John Pickle all night and the next day till he was married." Such precautions recall Stevenson's definition of marriage as a "friendship recognized by the police."—London Chronicle.

Safe From That.

"Now that you have been married a year what can you say of your experience?"

"Well," he replied solemnly, "I can truthfully say that I am sure that big army is one crime that I'll never commit."

Idyllic Love.

"Daughter, don't marry that young man. He'll never bring home the bacon."

"How foolish you are, dad! What do I care about the bacon if he'll only bring home the bonbons."

Brown Study.

The term "brown study" is a corruption of "brow study," brow being derived from the old German "braun," meaning the brow.

They Will Please You All the Year Through.

You can use an Anaco Camera equally in winter and summer. A splendid Christmas gift for boys and girls. From one dollar up at Hooper's Drug Store, and they give you a good picture.

NEWBURGH

Simon Mulholland came to his death on Thursday of last week by falling from a load of hay, which he was bringing from a barn about two miles north of the village. He was found lying on the roadside, with a severe wound in his head, and was immediately taken to the office of Dr. Mounce. Martin's ambulance was summoned and arrived in a short time to remove him to Kingston. He was gently placed in the ambulance, but before they left the village Mr. Mulholland was seen to be growing weaker, and was removed to his home, where he passed away. He had been a resident of South Main Street for a number of years. Anyone who has had a sole companion taken away so suddenly will know how to sympathize with his brother, William, who is left alone. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Spencer, at the Anglican Church, after which the remains were taken to Camden East for interment. Mr. James Mulholland, a brother, from Peterboro', was here for the funeral.

At the Young Peoples' meeting on Monday evening Miss Barry gave a very interesting talk on "Art in Pictures." Interest in the contest is increasing, and a number of new members on each side were added this week. Miss Shepler will have charge of the meeting next Monday evening, when Selby League is expected to visit Newburgh Society.

Reserve the 17th of December for the Christmas entertainment in the basement.

Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, Rev. A. H. Heare and Mr. J. Wilson, of Strathcona, attended the meeting of the Presbytery in Belleville on Thursday of last week.

The anniversary services of the United Church will be held on Sunday next. Rev. W. R. Tanton, of Trinity Church, Napanee, will be the preacher, morning and evening. A special thankoffering will be received.

Miss Mary Dunwoody, who makes her home with her brother, Mr. T. A. Dunwoody, has been confined to her room for some time, and is gradually failing.

Mrs. S. Shorey and Miss Clara Shorey are quite ill at present.

Miss Lucy Madden is also quite ill.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wartman entertained a number of the young people at a farewell party for Miss Jessie Weese, a bride of the week. The evening was much enjoyed by all present. Miss Weese was presented with a copy of The Bible from her class mates of the Free Methodist Sunday School. A fine lunch was served during the evening. The evening closed with the reading of a scripture,nd prayer.

The meetings in the Free Methodist Mission Hall continue to be well attended. This year's missionary offering from the congregation was $166.00.

Newburgh L. O. L., No. 2589, will elect its officers at the regular meeting on Dec. 14th. All members are requested to be present.

The Maintenance and Extension Fund of the United Church is off to a good start.

The annual concert of the Newburgh High School will be held on Friday evening, Dec. 11th, at 8 o'clock, in the Standard Bank Hall, Newburgh. Admission: Reserved seats 40c , rush seats 30c. A real treat is in store. Don't miss it.

BETHANY

The bay is frozen over, but not safe for crossing yet.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Conger, Mrs. E. Howell and Geo. Burtch spent Saturday last in Kingston.—We are sorry to report Mr. W. R. Miller is not so well again.—A number from here attended the tea at Hay Bay on Monday evening. — Mr. Willie Black spent Sunday with his friend, Mr. Thos. McCahn.—Picking chickens and other poultry is the order of the day at time of writing.—Our Sunday School intend holding their annual Xmas tree as usual. Particulars later.

STRATHCONA

Practising for the concert on Friday evening is the order of the day. —Mrs. W. J. Finlay is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Johnston, in Toronto this week.—Mrs. W. J. Patterson, of Moscow, is visiting relatives in the vicinity.—Mrs. Ed. Hanes is on the sick list at time of writing. — Miss Blue, of Madoc, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred MacDonald.—Mr. G. R. Finlay was in Montreal last week.—Don't forget that tip-top concert to be held in the Library Hall, this (Friday) evening, at 7.45. This will be a real treat, and much pains has been taken to get up a first-class programme. There will be solos, quartettes, choruses, etc., in old-fashioned garb. Refreshments at the close of the programme. It's up to you, so come and enjoy the evening to the fullest extent. Admission 25c. and 10c.—Sunday School next Sunday at 10.30 a.m. Come to that also. —Rev. Cecelia Murphy cut her hand very badly while dressing fowl for Poultry Day.—The special business session of the United Church was held at Mr. Geo. Finlay's, and got the Maintenance and Extension Fund well started with Mr. Geo. Finlay and Mr. Jas. Wilson as collectors. It received so good a start that the collectors were a smile.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

TEST "ALL WOOL" BY FIRE.

To Detect Cotton Fibers Burn a Sample of the Cloth.

Until the proper labeling of textiles has been made compulsory there are certain simple tests by means of which one may determine whether an "all wool" fabric is really all wool or not. The old way of telling by feeling and looking is no longer reliable, for cotton can be made both to feel and look like wool. The only sure way is to take samples of the goods home with you and make tests of them there.

If a piece of cotton cloth is ignited it will be found to burn rather rapidly with a bright, steady flame. There is no disagreeable odor, and when the material is completely consumed there will be left only a small amount of light gray, fluffy ash. If a piece of pure wool is lighted it will be found to burn much more slowly and with a less steady flame, emitting a characteristic, mild, hissing noise and a strong odor very similar to that of burned horn. There will be much more ash remaining than in the case of cotton, and it will be in the form of a crinkly, black, crisp ball.

In applying this test to a fabric the whole sample should not be burned at once, for if it is a so called wool piece containing considerable cotton it will be very difficult to determine whether it is burning more like cotton or wool. Threads should be taken from the sample, several each from the warp and the woof, and burned separately. With a very little practice one will be able to detect the cotton threads by the characteristic manner of burning. Sometimes it is well to pick a thread apart with a pin and test the individual fiber with the flame to determine whether the thread is entirely wool or mixed with cotton.

QUAINT OLD INN NAMES.

Some of the Peculiar Signs One May Read in England.

"Man Loaded With Mischief" is the name of an inn in the Madingley road, Cambridge, but it is not stranger than many others. At Underwood, Notts, is an inn called "The Toad In the Hole," and in the neighborhood of Somercotes, "The Old House at Home." Another inn at the same place is called "The Old English Gentleman."

It is a debatable point whether the sign of "The Man Loaded With Mischief" was painted by Hogarth. But it is like his satire, for it represents a man carrying a woman.

Many peculiar signs are the result of a misconception. "The Bag o' Nails" is really "The Bacchanals." "The Goat and Compasses" is an ignorant shot at the old motto, "God encompasses us," while "The George and Cannon" is a modern corruption of George Canning, who was prime minister when the inn was built.

One of the funniest of these corruptions is "The Iron Devil," a corruption of "Hirondelle" (swallow). It is said that the inn called "The Pig and Tinder Box" was originally "The Elephant and Castle," but a very poor artist was engaged to paint the sign, and somebody said it looked like a pig and tinder box, and the name stuck until it ousted the old one.

"The Plum and Feathers," an inn in Oxford, should be "Plume of Feathers," and "The Rose of the Quarter Sessions" was originally "La Rose des Quatres Saisons." One might think "The Ship and Shovel" belonged to the same category, but it does not. The reference is to Sir Clondesley Shovel, the powder monkey who became an admiral in the reign of Queen Anne.—London Tit-Bits.

Italics in the Bible.

Words in the Bible printed in italics indicate that the words so printed do not rightly form a part of the original text, but were adopted by the translators to make the sense of the original clear, remarks an exchange. As used in the Bible, italics have no relation to the common practice of using them for the purpose of emphasizing certain words. In the early history of printing those portions of a book not properly belonging to the main work, such as introductions, prefaces, indexes and footnotes, were printed in italics, the text itself being in Roman.

Peculiarities of Worms.

Many creatures supposed to have some of their "senses missing" are not so insensitive as people often think. Worms have neither eyes nor ears and yet are sensitive to light and music (vide Darwin's "Earthworms"). A bluebottle, in spite of not having a nose, finds out a piece of bad meat easily enough. In short, many of the lower animals contrive to see, hear, taste or smell sufficiently for their purpose, and often in a high degree, without being able to point to any special organs of these senses in their bodies, which organs they are devoid of a sense because we are unable to discover it is frequently to confess our ignorance.

Misplaced Sympathy.

Through the busy village of streets a stalwart policeman led a little child by the hand.

A motherly looking woman paused before them for a moment. Then, in a sudden burst of sympathy, she bent over the child and kissed her.

"Poor mite, poor mite!" she breathed softly. "She looks sae cauld and starved like, and she hisnae been washed for a week. Some folks canna be trusted wi' bairns, wicked, cruel things they are. Whaur did ye fin' the wean, policeman?"

"Find the wean, woman?" snorted the policeman angrily. "I didna find her at a'. She's me ain bairn!"—Dundee Advertiser.

—The annual Supper of the St. John Church Guild, Bath, was held in the Masonic Hall, on Friday last. In spite of the inclement weather there was a very large crowd, the tables being filled and refilled from 5.30 o'clock until eight. The ladies were very ably assisted by the ladies from Morven and Odessa, who also assisted in and gave liberally of the good things for the work. After the tables were cleared away, dancing was indulged in to the strains of Mr. Meagher's splendid Orchestra from Napanee. The proceedings closed at twelve o'clock, after singing the National Anthem. As a result of the whole evening a large sum of money went into the Ladies' Guild fund.

MAPLE LEAF INSTITUTE

On Thursday evening, Nov. 26th, the Maple Leaf Institute held a very successful open meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Curl. The meeting, which was in charge of the President, opened with community singing, followed by the Institute Ode and prayer.

The business matters were then disposed of, and a report given by the Secretary, Mrs. W. G. Fretts, re the hospital work of the Institute. The Institute has purchased a new chair and hangings for their room in Kingston General Hospital. Mrs. W. R. Smith gave a pleasing instrumental solo.

The President, Mrs. J. W. Cummings, who was the delegate at the Eastern Ontario Annual Convention, held at Ottawa, on Nov. 10th, 11th and 12th, gave a very interesting report of the proceedings. She imparted to those present much of the enthusiasm which she got at the Convention. Her outlook on Institute work had developed broadened and encouraged by learning of the wonderful work being done in other places and the broadening new ideas which are applicable at home. Some of the topics discussed were, "Home Economics", "Emmigration", "Publicity", "The Institutes of England", and the "School Attendance Act" so successfully enforced in Denmark. She had a supply of literature issued by the Department, which was available for the members.

A vote of appreciation was tendered Mrs. Cummings for her efforts in bringing so much from the Convention back to the Maple Leaf Institute members.

Mrs. W. G. Fretts then rendered a very pleasing solo, "Alone On". Mrs. Cecelia Balcanquel gave an interesting paper on relationships between school and community. This was followed by more community singing, and a contest, answered by the names of Maple Leaf Institute members.

A sumptuous lunch was served, and the meeting closed, being voted a decided success. Not the least features were the generous collection taken, and the interest shown by the men who attended in large numbers. The Institute appreciates the hospitality shown them by Mrs. Curl, and hope that they will have many more as interesting evening meetings.

ONT. TOOK MANY PRIZES

FINE SHOWING OF HOLSTEINS AT NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW.

Ontario Department of Agriculture Assisted In Selection and Shipping —State Herd Prize Comes to This Province.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Ontario Holstein breeders have again won a notable success at the National Dairy Show, which this year was held in Indianapolis.

Ten Ontario breeders entered twenty-four animals—nine bulls and fifteen females, and showed these twenty-four animals against approximately three hundred of the cream of American herds.

These Ontario farmers through the excellence of their stock were able to win individual prizes on eighteen of the twenty-four animals shown. The six animals not winning prizes were made up of: four heifer calves, 1 bull calf, all of which were not as extreme in size as their American competitors, and consequently were hardly in a condition to compete in 1925, but another story might be told if these same calves were returned a year from now. The sixth animal, a four-year-old cow, while not winning a prize, stood eleventh in a class of seventeen, being just outside the prize money.

The complete report of the winnings shows that Ontario breeders won: 4 firsts, 3 seconds, 4 thirds, 2 fourths, 1 fifth, 2 sevenths, 1 eighth, 2 tenths and, in addition, won the Senior and Grand Champion female, Junior Champion male and first in the State Herd, which is the most coveted prize put up by the National Dairy Exposition. The report of such winnings by representatives from the herds of Ontario should be an excellent advertisement for the breed and the breeders, and in this connection it is well to note that this notable achievement by Ontario men was made possible through the Ontario Department of Agriculture assisting the shipment of live stock to a foreign exhibition. The assistance given consists of payment of the freight on exhibits, payment of entry fees, and certain other expenses in connection with the dressing and advertising the exhibit.

It was generally conceded at Indianapolis that the Ontario exhibit was one of the most uniform, and of highest average quality in that great show of Holsteins. The exhibit was also well staged and altogether it was one of the most attractive points of interest in the exhibits at the exhibition.

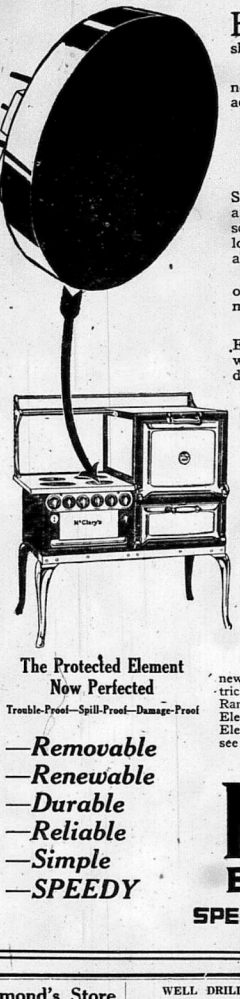
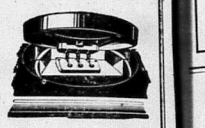
The Greatest Electric Range Improvement ever made — the New Element — SPEEDIRON



HERE is an achievement which gives the McClary's Electric Range undisputed leadership over all Electric Ranges.

The Speediron Element overcomes all the weaknesses common to open elements and combines the advantages of protected elements.

Can Be Removed Instantly



McClary's new Element—Speediron—can be removed in a second or two—no bolts, screws or wire connections to loosen. Just lift it up—that's all.

—has a smooth top cooking surface without open grooves or exposed wires that water or grease might harm or "muck up."

You can use the smooth top of a McClary's Electric Range with Speediron Elements just as you would an old-fashioned cook stove—it cannot be damaged by pots or pans or knocks or spills.

Lifetime Service Coils— Easily Renewed

As durable as iron protection can make it, with coils that last much longer than coils in open elements, because they are not exposed to accidents and can be easily and inexpensively replaced should they burn out.

In a moment, by removing one bolt in the unit, the burnt out coil is exposed and may be replaced—almost as easily as a burnt out bulb in a lamp socket.

Come and See It

If you have an Electric Range you will want to see this new, splendid improvement, because you know all about Electric Range troubles now. If you are going to buy an Electric Range you should see the Speediron Element in McClary's Electric Range—the trouble-proof Element. The Speediron Element is now on view at all leading dealers. Come and see it—today.

OBITUARY

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Huffman.

It is with profound regret that we record the death of Mr. Levi Huffman, which sad event took place in the township of Richmond, near Napanee, on Thursday, October 29th, in the 72nd year of his age, and his beloved wife, Sarah Amelia Amey, who departed this life November 5th, just one week later, in the 73rd year of her age.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Huffman were descendants of U. E. Loyalists, and for the greater part of their lives resided at Mosoxy, where they carried on a successful farming business.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffman were Methodists in religion and always took a prominent part in every movement intended to benefit the community. Mr. Huffman also served for a time and very worthily in the Municipal Council of the Township of Portland.

In September, 1906, they removed to the Township of Richmond, the home of their only daughter, Mrs. Thomas Herrington, where they continued to reside until the time of their deaths.

The funeral services were largely attended, and conducted by their Pastor, Rev. Mr. Tanton, of Trinity United Church, Napanee.

The floral offerings were beautiful, evidencing the very high esteem in which both were held.

One daughter and three grandsons survive. Interment took place in the family plot in the Moscow cemetery.

Mrs. Evangeline Noxon.

Mrs. Evangeline Rockwell, widow of the late B. Davis Noxon, while visiting in Scranton, at Mrs. James Lapum's, was summoned by death on the 26th of October. She is survived by one son and daughter, Mr. Isaac F. Noxon, Des Moines, Iowa; Mrs. D. R. Waterman, Ottumwa, Iowa, and one brother, Mr. John Rockwell, of West Duluth, Minn. Her remains were taken to Picton for interment beside her husband.

PIONEER DIES ON STEPS OF HIS HOME

Saskatoon lost one of its earliest settlers on Saturday afternoon, when James Fraser Robinson, 65, of 322 Tenth Street, died suddenly from heart trouble, at 2.30 o'clock.

The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from Speers' chapel. He will be laid to rest in the old Nutana cemetery, on the bank of the South Saskatchewan River, west of the exhibition grounds, where many of his old associates of the early days now sleep.

Death occurred as Mr. Robinson was being carried up the steps of his home, following a stroke, which first seized him on Broadway at 2.30, and again just after he had received medical attention, on Second Avenue.

Recovering somewhat from his first seizure, he was able to drive his car to his physician's office, where he received attention and was advised to go home. Before he reached the sidewalk he complained of again being in trouble and fell as he was attempting to enter his car. He was immediately taken by ambulance to his home, but died as he handed the keys of the house to his brother.

Mr. Robinson is survived by one sister, Mrs. H. M. Sexsmith, 302 Clowe Block, Saskatoon; three brothers, Ephraim, of Selby, Ont.; William Desrosiers, of Ottawa, and Amos, of 403 Seventh Street, Saskatoon. His wife, Ruth, the second daughter of Mrs. E. E. Clark, who lived in the "Old Stone House", two and one-half miles east of Saskatoon, one of the landmarks, died about 13 years ago. He will be buried beside her grave.

The deceased was the son of James Robinson, a farmer, of Richmond and Morven, Ontario. He came from that place in 1884 to Saskatoon, his brother Amos following the next year. In 1887 he and his brother went to Almost farm at Wainalla, North Dakota.

A few years later his brother, leaving for Ontario, gave up his North Dakota farm and Fraser Robinson came to Saskatoon and has lived here until the time of his death. Shortly after his return to Saskatoon he married and engaged in ranching adjoining the Stone House, which later became valuable as a subdivision prospect. The sale of this land gave him the ample means which enabled him to retire and live quietly in his later years. The deceased leaves no children, the only son having died in infancy. The child was buried beside his mother.

The funeral, which was to have been held on Tuesday, was postponed upon receipt of word from his brother Ephraim, of Selby, that he desired to be present. It is not expected his brother William will be here owing to ill-health, although his daughter, who is living at Humboldt, is already in the city.

Automobile Accidents
Almost every newspaper you read has account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.
Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.
Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you all every law-suit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

WEDDING BELLS

Farnsworth—Campney.

At the Parsonage, Cannifton, on Wednesday, Nov. 25th, 1925, there was quietly solemnized the marriage of Vera Wilhelmina, daughter of Rev. Enos and Mrs. Farnsworth, and Ralph Osborne Campney, B.A., Barrister-at-law, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Campney, of Picton, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom being present. After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served, and the couple left on the 2.50 train for New York. On their return they will reside at Ottawa, where the groom is private secretary to the Right Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among them a cut glass water set and tray, which was presented by the Bethany congregation. As they were leaving, telegrams of congratulation were received from the Prime Minister and from the staff of the House.

Presentation and Address

On Monday, the 16th of November, the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clair I. Russell and family, of Ivanhoe, gathered at their home, and presented them with an address and a beautiful pair of easy chairs. The evening was spent in playing games and general social intercourse, and after a sumptuous repast was indulged in the gathering was called to order, when the following address was read and ably replied to by Mr. Russell, after which the guests departed to their respective homes in the small hours of the morning.

Following is the address :—

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Russell and Family.

We, as a neighbourhood, are gathered here this evening to spend a few hours in social intercourse before your departure from us.

Although we are sad at the thoughts of losing you from the neighborhood, we are glad you are not moving far away.

Though the old ties will be somewhat broken, we trust you will oft return to visit us, where you will always find a hearty welcome.

We ask you to accept these gifts and may their use ever remind you of the friends you are leaving in this community.

May you enjoy good health and prosperity for many years to come, in your new home.

Signed on behalf of the neighbourhood.

To mourn his loss, besides the widow, are two sons, George, Cobourg, and Miles Smith, Odessa, and one daughter, Nettie, at home. Mr. Smith was a life long resident of the village and esteemed by all who knew him, and he was considered one of the most honorable of men. Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and two daughters, of Cobourg, arrived on Saturday to remain for the funeral, which took place from his late home Monday afternoon. The remains were placed in Violet vault and will be interred later in Violet cemetery.—David Ira Hartman, another resident, passed away last Sunday at his home here, at the age of seventy-five years. To mourn his loss, besides his widow, is one son, George Hartman, Napanee. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, from the Free Methodist Church. The remains were placed in Violet vault and will be interred later in the family plot in Wilton cemetery.

New Strength For Weak Stomachs
Indigestion Disappears When the Blood is Enriched.
The urgent need of all who suffer from indigestion is a tonic to enrich the blood. Pain and distress after eating is the way the stomach shows that it is too weak to perform the work of digesting the food taken. In this condition some people foolishly resort to purgatives, but these only further aggravate the trouble.
New strength is given weak stomachs by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because these pills enrich and purify the blood. This is the natural process of giving strength and tone to the stomach, and it accounts for the speedy relief in stomach disorders that follow the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The appetite revives, food can be taken without discomfort and the burden and pains of indigestion are dispelled. The following statement from Mrs. Donald L. Latter, Lakeville, N.S., proves the value of these pills in cases of this kind. He says :—"A couple of years ago I had a bad attack of indigestion. I had little or no appetite, and what I did eat did not agree with me and caused me much pain. As a result of this trouble my general health broke down, and I finally had to give up my work. I had taken many medicines but it did not give me any relief. Then a friend advised me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and I got six boxes. Before I had completed the third box I found that they were helping me and by the time I had taken the six boxes every symptom of indigestion had disappeared, my general health had improved and I have since been in the very best of health. I look upon Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a wonderful medicine for all who are run-down."
You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BAY VIEW

The cold weather of the last few days is much appreciated, after the recent heavy rains. Mr. Hart, of Morven, has been busy in the neighborhood for the last week, dressing clover-seed. The factory is closed again for the winter months. We are all glad to see Mr. Arthur Finley about again, after his recent operation in the General Hospital, Kingston.—Mrs. Thos. Miller has returned home, after spending a few days in Ottawa, attending the Woman's Institute's Convention. — Several from here attended the fowl suppers at Links Mills and Morven this week, and report a splendid time at each.—Our young folks are busy practising for a Xmas entertainment, and the ladies of the Aid for a bazaar.—Wellington Speers and Edwin Sterling are all smiles. They are both girls.

Formal Opening.

The formal opening of the remodelled Collegiate Institute will take place on Monday evening next, Dec. 7th, when the school will be open to the public throughout for inspection. Rev. Dr. Seager, Provost of Trinity University, has been selected to give the opening address, his subject being "The Rising Generation and the Twentieth Century." Dr. Seager is one of the finest speakers in Canada, and the Board of Education is to be congratulated for bringing so brilliant a scholar to Napanee. The Mayor and Council of Napanee, the Warden and the members of the County Council, the Chamber of Commerce have been invited to be present. Previous to the programme to be rendered in the auditorium, the gymnasium will be the scene of the first basketball match in the new building at 7.45 o'clock, between the girls of Deseronto High School and those of Napanee Collegiate Institute. In addition to the address of Dr. Seager and others, a musical programme will be furnished by the C. I. Orchestra and two ex-pupils, Miss Georgia Robinson and Miss Mary Daly, and Mr. Cameron Wilson.

THE WARDEN'S BANQUET

J. L. Smith, Reeve of South Fredericksburgh, the retiring Warden of the County of Lennox and Addington, was the host at a splendid dinner and entertainment held at the Campbell House on Thursday night last.

Warden Smith inaugurated an innovation this year, in-so-much that he invited the wives of the Councillors and other guests, and for the first time in the history of Warden's banquets in this County, ladies took their place at the festive board. The change seems to be a popular one.

The guests of honor, who also gave short addresses, were Hon. Dr. Edwards, M.P., John Hobbs, M.P., and C. W. Hambly, M.P.P.

The chairman was the veteran County Clerk, who discharged his duties admirably.

The orchestra furnished music during the banquet and after the tables had been removed from the banqueting hall, a good programme was rendered by the versatile entertainers, Messrs. Betts and Jack Elder, of Kingston, and by a quartette composed of Messrs. Caldwell, Waite, Shannon and Vandervoort.

The evening closed with a charming dance.

INDOOR BASEBALL

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 1st, a crowd of nearly four hundred fans gathered in the Armouries to see the indoor baseball games.

Trinity 25, St. Pats 16.

St. Pats and Trinity Pirates provided the excitement for the first encounter, and the Saints received their first defeat of the season by 25-16. Chris Taylor had them at her mercy and whiffed 7. She also fielded her position faultlessly and wielded a heavy bat. Winnie Drake did some high-class receiving and batted well, while Mit. Rikely on first showed the fans how to pplay that position. Eleanor Youres and K. Dickson worked well around second, while Helen Drake played a whale of a game at third. The outfielders caught everything in sight and showed their opponents how to swing a bat. Ruth Dickson covered left field, Marie Paul centre, and Dorothy Daverne right. Miss Nina McKim held down short-stop like a whirlwind, and batted well.

Miss Agnes Cavanaugh twirled a fine game for St. Pats and fanned six. However, her support failed her. Irene Emburey showed that she is a high-class receiver, and batted well. Dorothy Johnston on first made three errors, something very unusual for her, but made up for them in her batting. Dorothy Richardson and Miss Killorin covered second like old timers, while Katherine Gleeson caught cyphing in right and at third. Marion Embury played a whale of a game at short, while Beatrice Brady, Aileen Murphy and Jean McGraw played the outfield like Ty Cobbs.

Mr. H. L. Babcock, Mr. Fred Huffman and Harry Vine handled the game.

Iron Works 36, Robinson Co. 21.

In the second game, the crowd went wild, when the Robinson Co. and Iron Works took the field. Errors were numerous and the crowd certainly enjoyed themselves when some very weird and wild plays were pulled off. However, some of the old-timers showed that they still had the goods and both teams wielded heavy bats.

Ralph Black twirled a fine game for Robinson's, and was ably held up by Jack Risch. Roy Reid covered first like a Joe Judge, while Byrne Black and George Root worked around second like veterans. Charlie Black was a whirlwind at third, while Leo Bolton, Mat Taylor and Billy Glenn caught everything in sight in the outfield.

Wallace Roy twirled an excellent game for the Pipe Slingers and the veteran catcher, "Steamboat" Draycott, certainly turned in a fine game. Tommy Kirby was all around first, while Carl Garrett and Jimmie O'Connor covered second like veterans. "Biddy" Biddolph worked wonders at third, while Eddie Calver, "Mohie" Kitchen and Art Grass missed nothing in the outfield.

Some very high class exhibitions of juggling were put on by members of both teams. A certain member of Robinson Co. pulled one off in which that the fans thought he had three or four balls, while a member of the Iron Works appeared to be trying to stand on his head and keep a floor lamp, two pool balls, a cigar and a silk hat in the air at the same time. The boys punted and drop-kicked the ball with marvellous skill, and some even tried to wallow it with the ears.

There appeared to be a hole in some of the bats because the players would swing right at the ball only to find it wasn't there.

The umpiring was done in a very impartial manner by Mr. J. L. Murray and Mr. Harry Skitch.

"B" Co. 28, Gibbards 22.

"B" Co. received a close call when they emerged victorious by six runs. Going into the last inning they were one down, but they promptly filled the bases and put across six runs in the inning. Starting right off, they batted around in the 1st inning, twice in the 2nd, and were led till the 5th when they scored six more. Gibbards scored two in the 1st, two in the 2nd, three in the 3rd, four in the fourth, and then batted around nearly twice and scored twelve runs in the 1st of the 5th.

There was intense excitement during the 5th inning, when Gibbards scored their 12 runs, and were one up. However, the soldiers came right back and won the game with ease.

Harry Vine did the twirling for Gibbards but was hit freely and depended on his support to win. Jim Naphan played his usual star game at 1st, while Harold Johnston and Doug. Fraser played real ball around 2nd. Ray Loucks was a wonder at 3rd, while Ralph Wilson, Arnold Rogers and Norman Dupont covered the outfield like big leaguers.

J. L. Murray pitched his usual stellar game, fanned five, and ran his string of victories to 6. Fred Bentley did the receiving like a fiend, while George Reid and Harry Babcock worked wonders around 2nd. Everett Fraser covered first like a veteran, while the work of Cecil Harrison, Bud Fraser, Mac Herrington, and Claude MacDonald could not have been improved on in the outfield.

Mr. J. MacPherson and Harold Huffman handled the game.

After the games Walters' Orchestra furnished the music for a delightful dance. A large number of young and old people remained for the dance, and an enjoyable time was had by all.

NAPANEE CHURCHES OBTAIN OBJECTIVE

The Maintenance and Extension Campaign carried on in the United Churches in Napanee ended on Saturday last, when all three churches reported having secured the amount allocated to them by Conference. The amount allocated to Trinity was $300, to Grace $350, to St. Andrews $1000. St. Andrews added five hundred for local expenses and secured in the drive approximately $1700.

Encouraging reports come in from the surrounding district where all congregations are undertaking the task cheerfully. It looks now as though the amount asked for from the Presbyterians will be raised before the final payments are due in March.

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES

The Order gratefully acknowledges the sum of thirty dollars for November, from the Board of Education, and also wishes to thank those who so kindly responded to the appeal for pieces of old clean cotton.

The Nurse's Report for November is as follows:

30 nursing visits were made, three of which were to obstetrical patients and three to infants of obstetrical patients.

10 new patients were admitted for nursing during the month, the total being a grand total of 14 patients nursed.

The fees collected amounted to $39.00.

Six free nursing visits were made.

Miss Stevenson visited this branch of the V. O. S. on Nov. 19th and 20th, and expressed herself as being well pleased with the work. She made many helpful suggestions as to possible further development and building up of the service.

The work in the Well-baby Conference is progressing favorably. Miss Olive Hambly has given very valuable assistance. As a result many clinics the mothers are served with bread and butter and cocoa before the clinic. This adds to the mother's pleasure in attending the clinic, and so brings some babies under our care which might otherwise miss. Especially do we like to do this in the cold weather, as some of the mothers come from a long distance, and it is really quite an effort for them to get their children ready and bring them to the clinic. As Miss Hambly has kindly consented to continue her assistance in the clinics thus relieving Mrs. Symington of the burden of finding someone each week, Mrs. Symington has expressed herself as willing to help in procuring the necessary supplies for the serving of the mothers, should the Board approve of this being done.

During the month the children of the two prime classes in the West Ward School were weighed and about fifteen of them were found to be decidedly under weight. Several members of the School Board have been approached on the question of supplying extra milk for these children, but the Board have not yet decided whether they are to undertake this or not.

On Thursday, Nov. 26th, Miss O'Mara, nursing supervisor for the M. L. L, visited this branch of the V. O. N. No nursing visits are made during November to the policyholders in this company, Miss O'Mara had a conference with the agent, who said that he was doing his best to inform policyholders of the services at their disposal.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie Robertson, R.N.

The Committee of the Social Service Council reports many donations during the month and the Committee, after Monday, Dec. 14th, will adjourn until the first week in January.

Secretary.

Let your boy or girl experience the keen delight of picture making with a Kodak or Brownie. Brownies $2.85 and $3.90, at Wallace's.

CAMDEN EAST

We were visited by a heavy downpour of rain, with thunder and lightning on Saturday afternoon last, and on Sunday and Monday with quite a snow storm.—Gleaner. Wm. and Mary Hinch received the sad news of the death of their brother, Mr. Herman Hinch, of Toronto. They left to be present at the funeral service on Saturday afternoon last.

Mr. E. Switzer, her cousin, Mrs. Gould, of Napanee, spent Tuesday last the guests of Mrs. D. A. Ross.

Mrs. Gould spent the past two weeks with her friend, Mrs. E. Switzer.—Mr. W. C. U. met at the home of Mrs. E. Switzer on Tuesday evening, and had a very interesting meeting, and were delighted to have a little member.—Mr. Norman Blakely's brother and his friend, Mr. Kimmerly of Sharbot Lake, spent last week end with Mr. Blakely.—Miss Emma McGaughey, who was ill last week, is now gaining fast.—A goodly number from here attended the Anniversary Service at Newburgh United Church on Sunday last.—The W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Black, on Wednesday last, when an excellent programme was rendered to a good crowd.—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Galbraith and children, of Bethel Street, spent Sunday evening last with Mr. and Mrs. L. Hartman.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

COSEY NOOK

The weather has been so warm that we cannot think it is so near Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Storey, of Deseronto, and Mr. Serim Shaw took tea on Sunday at Thomas Storey's, Morven.—Mr. Amos Storey and daughter, Marion, spent Sunday at Switzerville; also Mrs. Peter Storey.—The many friends of Mrs. John Craig are sorry to hear she is in Kingston General Hospital, after a very serious operation, but are glad to learn she is getting along fine and on the gain, and hope it may continue.—We are also sorry to hear that Mrs. Sylvester is not enjoying health.—Mr. and Mrs. Potter, of Enterprise, were over Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Storey's.—Mr. Ray Reid is all smiles; it's a girl.—The fowl supper at the Church on Tuesday last decided success. Proceeds amounted to $200.47.—We are glad to hear that Mrs. Roy Gannon is improving nicely.—Mr. and Mrs. Curran spent Saturday in town.—Well, it is near Christmas, and we are wondering if there is no more snow how Santa Claus will make his annual trip. Wishing The Beaver and Staff a merry Xmas and a happy New Year.

NEWBURGH

Miss Mae and Mr. Leslie Haggerty, of Croydon, visited with Mrs. Keller and family during the week.

Mrs. P. Dwyer, of Bethel Street, called on friends in the village.

Miss Florence Pero and Miss Verna Kellar spent Tuesday in Napanee.

Mr. Arch Caton is confined to the house with an attack of heart trouble.

Miss Martha Thompson, of Napanee, visited with friends for a few days.

Mrs. Z. Milligan is some better, after an attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Scriver, of Toronto, is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. S. Shorey, who is convalescing after a severe illness.

Mr. John Hanna has closed his home for the winter, and is stopping with his daughter, Mrs. Rufus Lewis, at Wesley.

Mr. Gasper and son, William, were in Toronto on a business trip on Monday.

The anniversary service in the United Church on Sunday was well attended and enjoyed, in spite of the inclemency of the weather. Rev. W. R. Tanton, on this his first visit to this church, gave very profitable and interesting discourses. Rev. T. H. P. Anderson supplied for Mr. Tanton in Trinity Church, Napanee.

The Young Peoples' League, with more than one hundred young people in attendance, held their regular meeting on Monday night. The programme, in charge of the First Vice President, Miss Shepley, was varied and interesting. An address on "Courage," by Miss Wilson, of Strathcona, deserves special mention. A number of Selby friends were welcomed as visitors, and a social hour, with refreshments, enjoyed.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Tanton, and Mr. and Mrs. Topping, of Napanee, and Rev. and Mrs. Bunstone, of Selby, were guests at the parsonage.

The W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Courtney on Wednesday last.

Everyone is very busy preparing for the Sunday School entertainment on the 17th inst.

Misses Dorothy and Phyllis Paul and Master Don Paul, of Switzerville, spent Saturday with the family of Mrs. Shier. Master Clancy Shier returned with them to their home and remained with them over Sunday.

Sandy Grant, ex-M.P., of Toronto, called on Mr. George Paul one day last week.

Mrs. Orison Benn, of Sillsville, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bowerman.

Miss Lucy Madden, who has been ill for some time, was removed to Kingston hospital during last week.

Mr. James Shannon, Main St., celebrated his 80th birthday on Saturday, Dec. 5th. In honor of the event a number of the younger set called at his home and spent the evening with him and his estimable wife. Mr. Shannon particularly enjoyed the evening, and indulged in card playing with those present. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Shannon, after which the young people departed, wishing Mr. Shannon many happy returns of the day.

Mr. Wilfred Files has returned from the west, after assisting in harvesting the wheat crop. He was accompanied by Mr. Livingston Miller, who stopped at Oshawa for a time.

Mrs. John Craig, of Switzerville, who is a patient at the Kingston General Hospital, is reported to be gaining.

Daniel Rogers has the contract of removing a large barn from a place in the village to the farm of Joseph Ramsay, to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago. Mr. Rogers is making good headway at the work. A number of his friends formed a bee on Tuesday afternoon and assisted greatly.

The United Church

METHODISM

In England before the introduction of machinery a system of employment prevailed which was much like that on the farms of Ontario to-day. A craftemen, whether blacksmith, shoemaker, or tailor, lived in the family of the master tradesman for a period of years. When machinery was introduced it changed all that intimate association. The power of production got into the hands of a few and the rest had to labor for whatever they could get. The drift to the cities from the country began, with the result that there was unprecedented poverty and dissatisfaction among the great masses. The whole social structure of society was being changed, and the parliament of the day seemed dead to the need of laws governing the new conditions. The Church of England was apparently out of touch with the new situation then continued to minister in a perfunctory way to its members, while the great unchurched masses were left alone, and meeting revolution with one which breeds revolutions.

Wesley at Oxford.

About this time, 1729 to be exact, John Wesley went up to Oxford, and while there, he and a few other High Church men formed themselves into a group for religious devotions, attending sacrament once a week, fasting and meeting regularly for prayer and Bible study. Because of the regularity of their devotions they were dubbed Methodists by their fellow students.

Conversion of Wesley and Whitefield

George Whitefield, one of the little group, underwent a change of heart on reading a book, "The Life of God in the Soul of Man", by a Scotsman, Henry Scougal, Professor of Divinity at Aberdeen in the Kirk of Scotland. John Wesley underwent a similar experience while attending a meeting of Moravian brethern at Aldersgate Street, London, as he himself says, at a quarter before nine on the evening of May 24th, 1738. Both men immediately experienced conversion from the pulpits of the Church of England, and they at once took to the open-air. Whitefield at his first open air service had 200 present, at the second 1,000, and soon 20,000 were often attending his meetings. John and Charles Wesley had scarcely less success in preaching to the open air. The message of new spiritual birth, and a new evangel, came as a fresh breath from heaven to the earnest-minded men and women of England. The movement spread like wild fire, and became one of the greatest revivals of religion the world has ever seen.

Methodism a New Denomination

So far it was a movement within the Anglican Church, but Lady Huntington, who had been erecting a number of chapels for her fellow ministers, secured the Pantheon in the North of London, and appointed a Calvinistic preacher over it. The Anglican clergyman took the matter to law and won his case, and the chapels of Lady Huntington were declared by law to be "worshipping places of dissenters." This was the final break with the Church in England, and in 1784 Wesley ordained certain men to be ministers of the Methodist Churches in Ireland, America, and Scotland. As the law of England declares that none can be a clergyman in a state church save those ordained by a Bishop, this step of Wesley put his societies outside the Anglican Church.

Several features have marked the Methodist Church as different than most others. 1st itinerant preachers, 2nd the class meeting, 3rd class leaders, 4th hymn singing, 5th lay preachers. In the first instance it was impossible for Wesley to get trained ministers. He therefore arranged that the men he could secure should go from place to place covering a certain district or circuit within a given time. So great was the demand for preaching that laymen were impressed into the service. Regularly at the end of the year, a small group, and much to the discomfiture of the more settled denominations, the service was encouraged.

Organization.

Gradually as the movement went on organization took place as the situation demanded. And though it was not as carefully planned as that of the Presbyterian Church in Scotland, yet it was essentially Presbyterian in effect. A Wesleyan leader, Samuel Bradburn, said in 1792, "our Quarterly meeting answers to the Church meeting in Scotland called the Presbytery; our District meeting the Synod; our Conference the Assembly and the Conference with the General Assembly. Whatever we may choose we must call ourselves Presbyterians". And Wesley himself once said, "As soon as I lead the Methodists will be a regular Presbyterian Church".

Effect of Wesleyanism.

The Wesleyan revival, and the rise of the Methodist Church is one of the most remarkable phenomona of all religious history. The warm evangelism, its ministry of song and passion for souls has had a profound effect in the Christian world, while its effect on the political life has been just as far reaching. Lecky, the noted historian, says of it, "many causes conspired to save England from the contagion of the revolutionary spirit in France, but among them a prominent place must be given to Methodism." "Wesley's Field Preaching of the Wesleys was of greater historic importance than all the splendid victories by land and sea won under Pitt".

Next of the series will appear next week.

OPENING OF NEW WING OF NAPANEE COLLEGIATE.

The new wing of the Collegiate Institute was duly opened on Monday night, when a large crowd of citizens of the town and county were entertained by the School Board in the new building.

To add to the joy of the evening, the Napanee Girls' Basketball Team won the first game in the new gymnasium, defeating Deseronto by the score of 21-20. It was a close game, and from the spectator's point of view was well worth watching. The two teams were about evenly balanced. Napanee had far more chances to score than Deseronto, but failed to come through with the baskets. They lacked team play and had a bad faculty of bunching. But the individual dashes showed they have the material for a good team. Deseronto played team work somewhat better than Napanee, and some of their passing and running was fast and accurate. The most effective girl on the floor was Miss Collier, of Deseronto. She was carefully watched, but she broke away from her check she always made matters interesting for her opponents. Miss Richardson was the most effective player on the Napanee team, being far more accurate in her passing than the others. To Miss Hilda Daly went the honor of shooting the first basket in the new Gym. It was a fine foul and getting a chance Miss Daly made the point.

In the Auditorium.

In the auditorium the large new room was packed to the door.

Not being a musical critic, the reporter cannot appraise at their true worth the musical numbers. The impression made, however, was that the Orchestra, with about twenty-five members, had accomplished a great deal, under the leadership of Mrs. Wilson since the beginning of the term. The numbers, three in all, were well chosen and played with good dignity and balance and excellent expression.

Two former members of the school, Miss Mary Daly and Miss Georgie Robinson, sang two numbers each. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Madden, and their numbers were well received. Though vociferously applauded they smilingly refrained from gratifying the desire of the audience for more.

The chairman of the evening was the Chairman of the Board, Mr. Allan Wood. Mr. Smith, County Warden; Mr. J. W. Robinson, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. J. L. Boyes, Chairman of the Building Committee, each spoke, and gave an account of the way in which they had been interested in the building of the new addition. One of the most constructive remarks of this part of the programme was the plea on the part of the Warden of the County for the extension of High School privileges to a larger percentage of country folk who are unable to finance the undertakime. Here is a task to which the Town Council, the County Council, and the Chamber of Commerce might well give their thought and attention.

Dr. Seager, Provost of Trinity Collere, Toronto, was introduced by Mr. Bateman. Dr. Seager spoke on the rising generation and the twentieth century. His thesis was that the youth of to-day have a greater opprtunity than any since the close of the Napoleonic wars. This he developed logically, by reference to history. In his appeal to the youth to accept this opportunity and responsibility he posited four qualities as essential, health, honesty, broadmindedness, and faith in the future.

After a brief reference to the work of the school by Dr. Morden, a vote of thanks to the speaker was tendered on motion of Father O'Connor, and the gathering, after singing the National Anthem, dispersed through the building to inspect the addition and alterations.

STRUCK BY A TRUCK DIES FROM INJURIES

Welland, Ont., Dec. 5.—Alonzo O. Snyder, College Street, Fonthill, was fatally injured last night, when he was knocked down and run over by a truck on South Main Street. The truck, which was travelling southwards at about fifteen miles an hour, was driven by Leslie A. Myulle, of The Square Deal Food Supply Company. Snyder was about 66 years of age and was returning home from his work in Welland, as a carpenter, and was making his cross the road, near the Library building, when the accident happened. Apparently he may have stepped off the sidewalk practically right in front of the truck.

The driver served to avoid hitting him; as well as applying his brakes, bringing his truck to a standstill in the shortest time possible.

Snyder, unconscious, but still breathing, was taken to the Welland Clinic, passing away, however, as he was entering its portals.

The deceased, who is a well known and respected resident of Fonthill, suffered from deafness, which might have had much to do with the sad and tragic affair. Eye witnesses of the accident stated to the police that the deceased walked slowly looked for traffic from the north. An inquest was opened last night by Coroner Dr. S. Nixon Davis, the jury, after viewing the body, adjourning for one week. The body was later removed to Fonthill. The late Mr. Snyder is survived by his wife.

Deceased was a former resident of Switzerville, Township of Ernestown, removing from there to Belleville, thence to Welland, and later to Fonthill.

THE SANTA CLAUS FUND

"Read, Mark, and Inwardly Digest"

The Beaver Santa Claus Fund is not nearly large enough this year to meet the demand that will be made on it. And it still needs two hundred dollars to come up to what was given last-year. So we appeal to your generosity in these last weeks before Christmas to give, and give liberally. I suppose many of you who read these little appeals think that somebody else will be despond. Well, it won't. If every reader sent in even a small donation, the fund would be large enough to meet all demands, and every child in Napanee would be assured of a real Christmas. But there are many readers who could give large amounts and never miss it. The reason for the neglect is lack of knowledge and imagination.

Think of it, you men who count your income in thousands, who have everything you need, think of trying to bring up four or five children on a salary of two dollars or two dollars and a half a day. In Napanee work for labourers is largely seasonable so that for five winter months even that amount is cut short. It is the little ones who have to suffer. It is the little ones who have to go without a visit from Santa Claus. We give you assurance that any money you donate will be economically spent, far more economically than you could spend it, and wisely administered by trained social workers, not on foolish toys either, but on the necessities in many cases. Many of you could give a hundred or two hundred dollars. Though we are not asking that much, but we would like a few twenty-fives and tens. Why not emulate the spirit of the letter which is hereby appended:

Mr. Templeton,
Napanee Beaver,
Napanee.

Dear Sir,—Thinking we would like to help along the Santa Claus Fund for Xmas, we thought of this plan, selling taffy, which brought in the sum of $4.00. Hoping it will help cheer up some chappie on Xmas morning, we remain,

DEPOSIT OF MARL IN NEARLY EVERY PROVINCE

Canada Well Supplied With This Important Source of Lime for Land Treatment

Deposits of marl, according to Dr. T. L. Bruett, Dominion Chemist, who during 1923-24 was called upon to analyse some forty samples received from Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Alberta, and British Columbia, are found in nearly all the provinces of Canada and are important and valuable sources of lime for land treatment. They occur in beds from a few inches to several feet thick on cold lake bottoms and are often overlaid by peat or muck. Some marls are almost pure carbonate of lime, while others contain more or less clay, sand, organic matter, etc., which decrease their value for agricultural purposes. Marls as a rule are usually soft and pasty in consistency, frequently showing small shells. On air-drying by simple exposure they are found to be readily friable, breaking down to a coarse powder that easily permits of uniform distribution on the land. "Indurated" marl is a hard rock-like material with a honey-combed structure. It occurs by deposition from the waters of streams and springs that are rich in carbonate of lime. Large deposits are to be found in the valleys of British Columbia and Marl, which can, not infreuently, be had for the cost of digging and hauling, may be very effectively used on clay and light sandy loams and is especially valuable for the former. As a supplier not only of lime, where acidity or sourness, furnishes an element for plant nutrition and promotes nitrification, hence usually in rendering available the soils' store of inert nitrogen; it is particularly valuable as an amendment for sour soils.

Election of Officers.

Centreville L.O.L. No. 755, met in the Lodge Rooms for the election of officers for 1926. After the opening, and general business, the election of officers took place, which resulted as follows:—

W.M.—Bro. Wm. Lochhead.
D.M.—Bro. Roy Milligan.
Chap.—Bro. Okel Drew.
Rec. Secty.—Bro. Edgar Drew.
Treas.—Bro. Stanley McKeown.
Fin. Secty.—Bro. Ross Hanna.
D. of C.—Bro. Donald Lochhead.
Lect.—Bros. Ed. Weese and Wilmot Breault.

2nd Com.—Bro. Fred Brown.
3rd Com.—Bro. C. E. Breault.
4th Com.—Bro. Bert Lochhead.
5th Com.—Bro. Roy McGill.

After the Lodge closed in due form, the Brethren's wives and friends enjoyed a social evening, and a programme was put on by members of L.O.L. No. 756 and Newburgh friends. Bro. C. E. Breault ably filled the chairman's chair. Thus ended a very successful at home.

CANADA AND UNITED STATES CHEESE

Why does Canadian cheese command a higher price in the United States than the home production? It is an American writer that puts the question. He seeks to imply that it is not as might be supposed on account of transportation expenses, but because of its greater uniformity and soundness. To Canadians this is pleasant news and a sure encouragement to maintain quality so that the demand by consumers may increase despite the slightly higher price. After all people will always pay for quality, especially sustained quality. The writer of the article was in a Pullman dining car when he propounded the question, and the reply of the waiter was that many travellers prefer Canadian cheese even at slightly higher price, "not because it is always better but because it usually is." This seems to imply that it is more dependable. It is a fair instance of what ensues from persistent effort to produce something better than the other fellow and to meet the demand, not only of the general market, but also of the consumer, the satisfaction of the latter being after all the real key to the situation.

DR. McCOLLUM ON EGGS

Dr. McCollum, a noted scientist, believes that the real reason why the men and women of China and Japan are small in stature is that their diet has been faulty, lacking mainly in eggs and milk. In fact the Doctor thinks that differences both in bodily and mental equipment are due to diet rather than race. The use of eggs in a limited way by the Chinese has probably saved them from extinction, but they do not use sufficient of the hen product and no milk. In contrast, the eminent scientist points out, according to Pamphlet No. 59 of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, the people of Europe and America, are, comparatively speaking, liberal users of both eggs and milk; they are the largest people in the world, have the lowest death rate, the largest span of life, and accomplish the most in every line of activity. The Doctor further believes that faulty diet predisposes individuals to tuberculosis. The answer is more eggs and more dairy products.

1925 Christmas Seals

The 1925 Christmas Seals, in aid of the Muskoka and Toronto Hospitals for Consumptives, have been given issue. These handsome seals are of ten different designs, and are assorted packets, of 50, 75, 85 and 100.

The National Sanatorium Association is in need of funds necessary for the work of its hospitals in Muskoka and at Weston. Every dollar received through the sale of Christmas Seals is used for maintenance of the patients there.

Why not buy these seals in lieu of others? Not only will you get good value in return, but your money will be made to serve a greater end, for it will go to help someone in distress.

Look for the double-barred Red Cross on every package. None others are genuine.

Sold by school children and banks, or direct from Seal Sale Department, Gage Institute, Toronto, Ontario.

"CANDID CHRONICLES"

Several reminiscences relating to patriarchal Daniel Fowler, of Amherst Island, a great colourist and aquarellist whose pictures, since his death in 1894, have commended increasingly high prices, make fleeting Clarkesworth's recently published "Candid Chronicles" of particular interest to residents of this district.

"Fowler, born in Kent, England, in 1810, had a singular history," writes Mr. Charlesworth. "Like David Copperfield he had been destined for Doctors Commons, but finally broke away and studied with Harding the watercolourist, who was one of the earliest advocates of pictures painted directly in the open air. One of Fowler's fellow students was Edward Lear, inventor of that metrical form known as the "limerick", and a musician, traveller, and topographical artist, as well as humorist. Lear and he went to Italy, but Fowler's health breaking down he gave up painting altogether and came to Canada to take up farming. He settled on Amherst Island at the head of the St. Lawrence River in 1843, and never touched a brush again until he was forty-seven years of age. A visit home in 1857 brought back all his old artistic longings, and from then on in the leisure he could spare from farming painted steadily, exhibiting first in Montreal in 1862. His brother painter, J. W. L. Forster, tells a characteristic story of O. R. Jacobi and Fowler. At this display the judges awarded the silver medal for the best watercolour to a picture by Jacobi. The latter insisted that a picture of Fowler's, "Hollyhocks", was better than his and on his urgence the judges divided the prize. Fowler knew nothing of this and when Jacobi was president of the Society which organized the exhibition, took a wrong view of the division. He went to the latter's studio and demanded an explanation. The German painter gently referred him to the committee on awards. An hour later, Fowler came back and in deep dejection apologized. Jacobi's enthusiasm with regard to "Hollyhocks" was justified fourteen years later when it received a medal at the Centennial Exposition of 1876 in Philadelphia. As many are aware, Fowler's pictures of Canadian bird and game life are surpassingly fine in solidity of effect and beauty of texture, while in delicacy and liveliness of colouring they are beyond praise.

The most singular thing about Fowler's fame is that it was practically unknown to his family and neighbours. His son, the late E. W. Fowler, was a farmer in Lennox County on the mainland, who became an active rural politician. Warden of his County and later a member of the Ontario Legislature. One day he came to see me with a photograph of the old homestead on Amherst Island showing the tall, white-bearded Daniel Fowler in his garden. He had shown it to an official in the Parliament Buildings who said he thought I would like to see it and would probably publish it. The son opened his eyes with amazement when I told him of his father's eminence in the world of art, and that the Toronto Art Gallery had recently installed and purchased one of his small game pieces at the bargain price of $800. A friend who ran a country paper in Lennox County for several years told me that no one there knew of Daniel Fowler's eminence, and that had E. W. Fowler realized it, the facts would certainly have been heralded, for he was a keen politician who knew the value of an advertisement."

Hector Charlesworth, whose well-known criticisms of plays and drama in the Toronto Saturday Night have long set a standard for such writing in Canada, is possibly the dean of Canadian journalists. His genial personality and keen intellect have endeared him to thousands, but even his fondest admirers expressed delighted surprise upon the publication of "Candid Chronicles", as these fascinating memoirs of his early life are called.

In these years, when we are gradually becoming conscious of a Canadian background, this intimate study of Charlesworth's formative years, with its amusing sidelights on Sunday School days, early schooling, youthful reactions in an age which is passing, the story of his youthful struggles in accountancy, which he quite evidently thoroughly disliked, and the beginning of writing in a fugitive manner under the pseudonym of Touchstone, have a special interest.

Once an issue of Saturday Night, back in the '90's, bore on the front page a request to Touchstone to come to that office, then presided over by the late E. E. Sheppard. Sheppard was astounded that this youth, still in his teens, should possess such a facile and sophisticated style, but exhibited the genius for which he was famous by immediately offering to Charlesworth a position on the staff of Saturday Night.

Newspaper men are in many respects a uniquely favored clan. Impossible hours are compensated for by an existence which is rivalled by few from the point of view of interest. Opportunities are offered for contact with many varied and brilliant personalities. This opportunity, widened by his own magnetic personality, and finally by his distinguished position as the foremost Canadian critic, was the reason for Mr. Charlesworth's having known virtually every celebrity who has from time to time been the object of Canadian interest for the past three decades.

Newspaper men have a reputation for knowing "the inside story", and in Candid Chronicles we are treated to a succession of amusing and fever before told anecdotes of famous Canadians in politics, the Church, the professions, the criminal courts and the arts, odd bits of fact and fancy picked up while the writer was serving on a number of the Dominion's greatest dailies, and later on Saturday Night.

Atmosphere of the legendary inevitable envelopes the figures or personages of the previous generation. "Candid Chronicles" throws new light upon many eminent Canadians and combines a healthy realism with the charm of an age which is past. The book throughout is written with dignity, strength and charm. "Candid Chronicles" is indeed one of those books which it is not only a duty but a pleasure to read.

RICHMOND MINUTES

Dec. 1st, 1925.

Council met in the Town Hall, Selby. The members were all present, the Reeve presiding.

The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

Moved by E. A. McQuaig, seconded by C. Hartin, that John McFarlane's pay sheet No. 8, amounting to $76.30, be paid. Carried.

Moved by M. Dupre, seconded by E. A. McQuaig, that our Township Engineer be instructed to appoint Road Overseers in the different divisions to keep roads open during the winter season and to bring a list of the same to this council at the next session.—Carried.

Mr. Wiggins, civil engineer, addressed the Council re proposed work to be done on Tamarac Drain No. 1, and estimated cost the same.

The following claims for damages on roads were received since last Council: James Wring, horse injured on Kingsford hill, forwarded to County Clerk; W. S. Mayer, broken spring and Archie Richmond, broken spring, forwarded to Grain Insurance Co.

Moved by Mr. Dupre, seconded by M. H. Sexsmith, that the following accounts be paid: Post-age and excise stamps $7.58; R. Huggins and T. Edgar, cutting piling for town hall, $2.00; J. H. McGillin, 200 rods wire fence between lots 3 and 4, and 5, $20.00; C. Harten, 40 for December, $5.00. Carried.

W. G. Pringle, Tax Collector, reported about half of the taxes collected.

Council adjourned to meet Dec. 15th, to receive Treasurer's financial statement and to appoint Returning Officers and Poll Clerks for the Municipal Election.

H. A. WOOD, Clerk.

Health Broke Down

Could Not Sleep for Hours After Going to Bed.

"It is not natural for me to sit down and write a letter in praise of a proprietary medicine as I had always been skeptical as to their virtues," Thus writes Mr. Arthur Sexton, Storthoaks, Sask., "so further says :—"But three years ago I opened a general store here in Storthoaks and placed on my shelves a few lines of the best known proprietary medicines. Among these, naturally were Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As there were three of my customers who were obtaining good results from taking the pills, and as I was in need of a medicine I decided to try them myself.

"I had been suffering from catarrh for years, and my inside work had completely failed me. Every night I was coughing all day, suffered from indigestion, and could not sleep until I would be up for four hours after retiring. I started the pills, not with any great confidence, but by time I had finished the second box I marked much improvement. At the fourth box I felt quite recovered, but continued them for some further time. My cough has left me, the indigestion has disappeared and I now fall asleep almost as soon as I am in bed. In my store now I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any who are feeling run-down or without energy, as I think they are a blessing to mankind."

If others who may feel skeptical will give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial they will be convinced as was Mr. Sequin. You can get the pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Scottish actor in a touring company approached the manager for a rise in salary, giving as a reason that he was thinking of getting married. In his next pay envelope Jock received a fairly substantial increase.

Some time later the manager meeting Jock, inquired: "I suppose you've settled down to married life now, eh?"

"I'm no' married," replied the actor.

"But didn't you apply to me for a rise because you were thinking of getting married?"

"Oh, aye, but I've stopped thinking."

The New Arrival—"Can you recommend your boarding-house, old chap?"

The Other—"I can't, old man. They profess to give me bed and board for £2 a week, but it doesn't run to a week to discover which was the bed and which was the board."

TAMWORTH WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The November meeting of the Tamworth Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. L. P. Wells, on Thursday, Nov. 26th, with a fair attendance, and the President, Mrs. McCallum, in the chair. The roll call was responded to by jokes, and after general business was discussed, Mrs. Ida Lockridge, the delegate to the Convention at Ottawa, gave a very interesting report of the general work of the Institute. One interesting feature of the Convention was a visit to the Agricultural farm, from which several helpful suggestions were gathered.

Mrs. Lockridge gave us a detailed account of how one woman raised turkeys with profit.

Mrs. Piper, who, as a District Officer, accompanied Mrs. Lockridge, supplemented her report by a few remarks.

On Saturday the Institute will hold a sale of blind soldiers' wares, in the Town Hall, at which lunch will be served. Come and aid in the good work.

ODESSA

Noble Bond, of Detroit, is visiting his brother, Sherman Bond.—Mrs. (Dr.) J. E. Mabee has returned from spending a few days in Toronto.—Mrs. Lewis Snider has returned from visiting her brother, George Freeman, Sydenham.—Mrs. Daniel Rose has closed her home on Ferguson Avenue, and left last Monday to occupy her new residence recently purchased on McDonald St., Kingston.—Through the efforts of the Primary teacher, Mrs. A. Huggard, a piano has been purchased for her room for the benefit of her pupils and the school in general. She was assisted by the trustees and her personal friends. The instrument will undoubtedly prove a great benefit for the singing exercises and school concerts and encourage musical talent.—The many friends of Miss Eliza Toomey were sorry to hear that she passed away in the Hotel Dieu Hospital last Monday, after a long and serious illness. Her funeral was held Thursday morning in the Roman Catholic Church, Rev. Father Powell officiating. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. Interment took place in the R. C. cemetery here. Miss Toomey was a life long residence here and the last member of a family of seven, three brothers and three sisters having predeceased. The pall bearers were H. J. Smith, Bd. L. King, Orange Babcock, William Dougherty, Joseph Lawler and Daniel McConnell.

HOW STOCK IS HANDLED

PRACTICES WHICH ARE FOLLOWED AT THE STOCK YARDS.

Not Necessary for Owner to Be Present—Humane Society on Guard—Animals Are Sorted According to Grade and Payment Made on This Basis.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

It is not feasible to cite all the deviations the stock takes going through the yard, but it is possible to give the reader some idea of the regular channels of movement.

Stock yards are built on a definite plan of small and large pens to efficiently fill the various requirements and each class of stock is allotted a certain section of the yard.

On arrival of stock at the yards it is immediately unloaded into the unloading pens and the pens are locked by the employes of the stock yards company. These pens are divided into sections so that the different classes of live stock can be kept separated in cases of mixed carloads. Usually all the cars of the train-load are unloaded into these pens before the distribution of stock to the various pens for sale or feeding. During this operation there is a member of the Humane Society present, whose duty it is to see that the live stock has been properly loaded, cared for in transit and that it is handled judiciously about the yards, also to direct the care of dead and crippled animals. It is not absolutely necessary for the owners of the stock to be present as their interests are looked after by employes of the stock yards company. Each class of stock from here goes to its own section in the yards. It is not necessary to follow a carload of each class of stock through, so will confine this report to a carload of butcher cattle.

Handling Butcher Cattle.

When the cattle leave the unloading pens they are counted and this must check with the railroad shipping bill. They are then moved and locked in a pen in the alleys of the commission firm to whom consigned, where feed and water are available. (It may be stated here that most cattle are fed and watered as in order to receive a good price it is necessary that they have a good fill to appear at their best at time of sale. If not, the buyers take advantage of this and cut the price, so a number of shippers try to reach the market a day previous to selling in order that the cattle may have a good fill and quiet down.)

The gate is unlocked and the stock released to the commission firm, after it accepts the count and signs a slip to that effect; it is responsible now for any stealing or mixing of stock. Before the market opens the stock is sorted according to grade. The market opens at 9 a.m. and closes at 4 p.m., and no trading is done before or after these hours under penalty provided by the rules of the Live Stock Exchange.

When the market opens the buyers enter the pens, look over the stock and make their bids for the whole pen if they are of even quality or individuals according to grade. The price offered depends on trade conditions, and supply and demand usually establish it. When the salesman is satisfied that he has the highest possible bid he completes the sale, as it seldom pays to carry the stock over until the next day. Each party keeps his own records and a final settlement is effected later when the day's bargaining is over. It is a credit to the market personnel that such a huge business can be carried on in this manner without the scratch of a pen to an agreement and with very rare disagreement later as to the prices and terms of sale.

Sorted According to Grade.

The stock is driven to the scales by employes of the commission firm, sorted and weighed into lots, according to the grade and price paid. A weigh ticket is made out and stamped by employes of the stock yards company showing the weight, owner, commission firm making the sale, purchaser, and agreed price. The stock is now out of the shippers' hands and driven and locked into pens, according to the same grouping as weighed. Export cattle are kept separate, of course, to comply with the quarantine regulations.

Cattle that are billed through and stop off to be fed and watered are looked after by the stock yards company. They are unloaded and driven and locked into pens, fed and watered, and then reloaded to continue their journey.

Calves and sheep are handled much the same as the other classes of live stock. While in the unloading pens the calves are inspected by a representative of the Markets' Branch for both or suspected calves, and the doubtful ones are ear tagged and receive final inspection when slaughtered on the rail. Co-operative shipments, of course, necessitate the marking of the animals so there can be pro rated settlement. This is best done by ear tagging the calves and the use of paint tolors for the sheep and lambs.

When hogs leave the unloading pens they are counted and checked the same as the other stock. They are taken directly to the scales and weighed, then locked into pens and either fed and watered or not, according to instruction from the owner. Most hogs here are sold on the "weighed off car" basis. They are graded by the Government graders before selling, and a grading sheet accompanies each lot. The selling is much the same as for the cattle and the stock yards company demands that all cates be locked when under their care, and a slip signed when released.

On hogs shipped co-operatively the selling weights are deducted from the home weight and the shrink prorated to each animal. Each lot must bear a distinguishing mark so that each shipper receives the proper grading sheet. The pioneers made the best mark by tying the hair in various designs.—A. Leitch, Dept. of Economics, O. A. College.

KEEPING HENS HEALTHY

DRAINAGE AND VENTILATION BOTH VERY IMPORTANT.

In Wild State Birds Look After Themselves, But If They Are to Work for You Then You Must Do Things for Them.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

If poultry are to be kept free from disease their living quarters will require as much attention as those of other stock. The specialists give the poultry this attention and more, but the great majority of poultry-keepers neglect the housing conditions.

First of all the house should be supplied with drainage that will insure a dry floor at all times. Dampness promotes the growth of bacteria and makes birds subject to colds, roup and other diseases. Ventilation without drafts is very necessary; fresh air coming in and foul air going out. Large amounts of moisture are eliminated from the lungs of birds. There are no sweat glands and the bird metabolism is much more intense than it is with other farm animals. The exhaled moisture must be removed or the house will become damp and unsanitary. Provide four square feet per bird, face the house south and provide a large, open front through which the sun's rays can enter and reach every inch of floor space. Arrange the interior of the house to facilitate easy cleaning and disinfection. This means movable nests, roosts and dropping pans, that can be lifted out to permit a thorough cleaning, at least once every three weeks.

The Runs.

Don't fence in the poultry if it can be avoided. Better fence in the garden and give the birds the run of the farm. The green feed and insect life will do much to keep the young birds growing and healthy at no cost. If the birds must be reared under intensive conditions, then two fenced-in runs should be provided. These should be limed, spaded and seeded to some green feed crop, being used for the birds alternately. The use of lime and the application of the spade frequently will do much to keep the yard in fair condition.

The Utensils.

Most diseases spread through contaminated feed and water. To prevent contamination, the utensils should be of such a design that the bird cannot get its feet into them. Feed hoppers and water fountains clear of scratching, and have a narrow platform on which the bird can stand while feeding. Wide platforms will mean contamination. One large hopper or fountain is much better than a lot of little ones. Utensils in which milk and antiseptic drinks are used should be of crockery or enamel ware.

Feeding utensils, if of any type as can be sealed by the birds, should be given frequent attention and kept in sanitary condition.

The practice of throwing scratch feed on the same spot of ground is very bad. Those who keep poultry should keep in mind that the bird soils or contaminates whatever ground it passes over, and the greater area of range the less the degree of contamination. The chicken cannot use a fork or shovel to clean the yard or pen, in which you keep it prisoned. The wise scatter the bird looks after its own hygiene; as a creature of domestication under your charge, you must do it, if conditions are to be the best.—J. Stevenson, Dept. of Entomology, O. A. College, Guelph.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of our dear Husband and Father, Wilson Hyland, who died one year ago today Dec. 9th, 1924.

Day of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears of sorrow often flow;
Memory keeps our dear one near us,
Whom God called one year ago.

The years may wipe out many things,
But this they'll wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of Conway Women's Institute was held at the home of the President, Mrs. A. E. Young, on Dec. 8th. Despite the bad roads and very uncertain appearance of the weather, there was a good attendance, which filled the hostess' spacious rooms to capacity with Institute members and visitors, to say nothing of the men who were conspicuous by their absence, where the women had possession, though one little man stayed fearlessly in our midst.

The meeting was opened by the singing of the "Ode," followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved; followed by financial statement and reading of correspondence which led to discussion over donation to Navy League, donations to needy in our midst and flowers for sick. Roll call was answered by "Something helpful".

We were highly favored in having with us our District President, Mrs. Jas. B. Miller of Napanee, who gave us a very fine address on "Is a Woman's Time worth anything?" Our 2nd Vice President of the District, Mrs. Wm. Fretts, of Maple Leaf Institute, who addressed us on "The Intentions of Institutes". Following these were shorter talks on the benefits of Institutes along general lines by two other visiting co-workers, Mrs. Lamphier and Mrs. Day. Interspersed with these addresses were piano duets by two of our own very capable ladies.

The business part of our meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem, after which all enjoyed dainty refreshments, the hostess and a social half hour. Next April time brought out many helpful ideas, after which all scurried home through the storm.

ENTERPRISE

Miss Viola Bell has come to spend the winter months with her son, Stanley.—Miss M. Jackson is back home, after spending some time with Mrs. Joe Wagar, who has been seriously ill.—The Women's Institute of this place have forwarded two barrels of bedding and clothing to the Ladies' Aid at Kaladar, to be distributed as needed. They also sent a box of canned fruit and jellies to Kingston General Hospital.—Some matches are the order of the day, with some excellent marksmanship.—Mr. Edgar Keech, mother and sister, spent a day in town recently.—A number from here attended Turkey Days in Napanee, and all gave satisfactory reports.—Mr. Earl Bell spent Tuesday in Napanee.—The officers and members of the "Friendly Helpers" Bible Class met at the home of Mrs. G. H. Kellar to spend a social evening, and to present one of their members with a small token of friendship. The evening was spent in music and games. The following address was read, and after partaking of a generous "eat", they proceeded homeward, feeling that there is something really worth while in the friendship and love practised in our class.

Christmas, 1925.

Dear Mrs. Hartwick,—We, the members of the "Friendly Helpers" Adult Bible Class have met to enjoy a social evening, and to offer you a little Christmas present. We hope, that although of no great value, it will be a pleasant reminder of the members who have lovingly contributed toward it, and who wish to show their esteem for you as one of our members.

We trust that you will long be spared to attend our class, and that we, as a group of Christian workers, may be drawn into closer fellowship with Christ our Master.

Signed on behalf of the Class,

Mrs. German Wagar, President.
Mrs. Geo. H. Kellar, Teacher.
Mrs. Nelson Bell, Secretary.
Mrs. Alfred Brown, Treasurer.

ORIENTAL LACQUER.

Japan Got the Art From China, Then Surpassed Her Tutor.

Lacquer has furnished a most varied material for one of the earliest industrial arts of China, and, though there are no authentic records of the early history of the steps of its early development, the process is already called an ancient one in a work published in 1287. In the first year of the Ming period, which proves that the art was known in no remote an epoch as the Sung dynasty. The culminating years of its development were reached in the reign of the Emperor Chien Lung (1736-96), who greatly encouraged its manufacture and had large quantities of lacquered objects made with which to furnish and decorate his palace. After his death the art seems to have declined in merit, and since that time little or nothing of any such artistic value in Chinese lacquer has been accomplished.

The Japanese first learned the process from China, but have since brought it to a point of perfection which surpasses the finest productions of the Chinese. In Japan, however, lacquer is applied solely to objects of comparatively small size, while in the Chinese empire it served to decorate screens and panels of tremendous dimensions.

Lacquer is divided into two classes—painted and carved. Both kinds are sometimes inlaid with mother-of-pearl, ivory, jade and various semi-precious stones.

It was in the early seventeenth century, when Holland and Portugal began their trade with the remote east, and particularly with China, that marvelous empire teeming with so many extraordinary artistic manifestations, that Europe first began to realize the new and vast field of decorative elements which were contained in and revealed to her artists by oriental art.

A Welcome Visitor.

Prospectors in Alaska who spend the long winters up there sometimes are incredibly lonely. A man named Hartford was left in charge of a mine one winter. He was all alone and at the end of the third month was sighing for companionship. One morning he left his cabin to get some wood and met an enormous black bear that reared on its hind legs and stretched out its front paws as if to give the miner.

"Good morning, bear," said the miner, holding out his hand. "I'm darned glad to see you."

Care Required.

"Good heavens," said the impatient friend, "are you writing yet? Does it take four pages to tell her you will see her tomorrow night?"

"No," said the weary writer, "but it takes eight pages to tell her I can't."—New York Times.

Tight.

"He's close fisted, isn't he?"

"I should say he is. Why, man, he won't even give up any of his bad habits."—Detroit Free Press.

"How is it I didn't see you at the charity meeting last night?"

"It was I who passed the plate around?"—Judge.

For two succeeding years he won scholarships at M. A. C. awarded to the best all-round returned man in the College. In his fourth and fifth years he was Dean of residence, and after graduating was awarded the McDonald scholarship, and took post graduate work at McGill.

OBITUARY

The Late John Scanlin.

A gloom was cast over the entire community around Enterprise when it became known that John Scanlin had passed away on Sunday, Nov. 22nd, 1925, following a week's illness. A complication of diseases shortened Mr. Scanlin's days.

The deceased, having lived in the vicinity of Enterprise all his life, was an active member in municipal affairs and prominent in all things pertaining to the public good. He was a generous friend, a loyal citizen and a kind neighbor.

Mr. Scanlin was a devout member of the Catholic Church and by his sterling qualities won the affection of all with whom he came in contact, as was testified by the numerous spiritual offerings and the very large concourse which followed his remains to the Church of the Annunciation, at Chippewa, where the Rev. Father Farrell celebrated requiem high mass for the happy repose of his soul.

To mourn his loss Mr. Scanlin leaves a sorrowing wife, three sisters, Mrs. T. D. Murphy, Clayton; Mrs. A. H. McHarg and Mrs. A. Brown, of Texas; and three brothers, Byron, of Buffalo; Edwin, of Colorado; Thomas, of Enterprise.

Services Rendered by Stock Yards.

The service generally performed by the Union Stock Yards and for which charges are levied on its patrons, is that of supplying a suitable place for assembling, sheltering, feeding, grading, dealing in live stock with all the protection facilities and conveniences needed for such operations.

On arrival at the stock yards the company accepts the responsibility of the live stock. Its employes unload and deliver the stock to the alleys of the different commission firms to which it is consigned; the cattle to the cattle alleys, sheep and calves to the sheep building and hogs to the hogs building. The pengape padlocked until the commission firm signs and takes over the consignment. This is the service and protection the Stock Yards Company render for their unloading fee of $1.00 per car.

In addition to the services of unloading and yarding, the Stock Yards Company supply and operate weigh scales over which all stock sold must be weighed, guaranteeing correct weights to the vendor and purchaser. No additional charges are made for this service, it being included in the yardage charges.

The employes of the company feed and water the stock when requested and keep the pens and alleys clean and in repair. They also do a great deal of heeling about the yards and assist the Government Hog Graders. These are services that have additional fees on some yards. The company maintains a traffic department whose services are available to shippers at no expense in making arrangements with the railways for cars or in case of disputes over loss and damage in transit. The company also maintains an office building for the use of commission firms, banks and Government officials, so that the business of its patrons may be quickly and conveniently despatched. Live stock is insured against fire while in the yards, for which 15 cents per car is charged against the seller of the stock. The alleys and pens are also cleaned and disinfected against outbreaks of contagious disease under restrictions laid down by the municipality and the Health of Animals Branch of the Federal Department. —A. Leitch, Dept. of Economics, O. A. College.

Keep eggs in the coolest place possible and market them often in hot weather. Eggs that are fertile will begin to spoil in twenty-four hours or less if the temperature is as high as 90 degrees.

A Punctured Metaphor.

"Did you write this note for Maria?" asked the young woman's mother.

"Yes," replied the susceptible youth.

"And you considered it proper to remark that her teeth were pearls?"

"It's customary to say things like that."

"Well, young man, let me tell you something. If Maria's teeth were pearls she wouldn't be wastin' 'em on ham and cabbage an' chocolate drops. She'd string 'em an' wear 'em around her neck an' take her chances on an imitation set of foneshed jewelry for everyday work from the store."

Bridal Customs in Spain.

In Spain a bride has no girl attendants to stand at the altar with her, but instead a "madrina," or godmother. Neither does she have a wedding cake nor any festive going away after the ceremony. The wedding pair depart quietly to their new home, where they remain until the following day, when they start on their honeymoon. Before departing they pay a formal visit to their respective relatives.

THE HEN AND HER EGGS

HOW TO TELL A PROFITABLE HEN FOR LAYING.

Feathers and Egg Producing—How to Obtain High Egg Production—When Eggs Are Worth More—Green Food for Poultry.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

A hen will not lay if not in good condition. She should be healthy, free from any disease, and show plenty of vigor and activity. The first pullet to lay in the fall is the early maturing one. The hen which is a slow grower, is slow in feathering out, is also a slow layer.

The Moult Is Important.

As soon as a hen goes into a moult she uses her feed to manufacture feathers, and her egg production falls generally to a minimum of nothing. It is easily noticed that some hens go into a moult much earlier than others. If a hen starts to moult in July her laying for the summer is about over. So we say that late moulting and heavy egg production go together, because it gives the hen a longer summer period and still she is back in form in time for winter production. So says Prof. W. R. Graham, Ontario Agricultural College.

Laying Hen and Her Plumage.

If a hen is laying heavily the plumage will become dry, hard and brittle. The lustre will disappear and the feathers become broken. The hen certainly loses much of her natural beauty, but she cannot retain that bright lustre and also keep up heavy production. Watch for the old lady with the full array of feathers all in good form, and see if she is not one of the boarders in your flock.

How to Know a Laying Hen.

The question is often asked, "Can you tell whether or not a hen is laying?" This is very easy, and requires but a few observations. When a hen commences laying the conditions set up in the reproductive organs are very similar to conditions in any pregnant animal. Preparation is made for laying, much as for parturition in a cow.

When the ovary is dormant and no eggs are being produced the distance between the pelvic bones is very small. The vent is dry, small, puckered, and in yellow-fleshed chickens has a decided band of yellow pigment around the inside. When laying commences the pelvic bones become pliable and spread apart. The distance may increase from one to three fingers in a short time. The vent becomes large and moist, and after two or three eggs have been laid the ring of yellow pigment has disappeared and the vent is bleached.

How to Obtain High Egg Production.

The requirements for high egg production, says Prof. W. R. Graham, of the Ontario Agricultural College, are clean, dry, comfortable houses, that are free from direct draughts over the birds, and that are well-lighted. The feeding consists of a variety of grains, green feed, animal feed, grit and shell, which is clean, sweet and wholesome, and is given to the birds regularly and in such quantities that they have all they want to eat before going to roost at night; that the supply of drinking material is clean and abundant; that the attendant is regular in his or her work and is interested in the same; that the birds are bred from good laying ancestors, and that they are hatched at the proper season and well reared, and are free from disease.

When Eggs Are Worth Most.

A study of the distribution of the egg production is interesting and important from the point of the annual returns from the birds. Egg prices rise and fall with the seasons and usually the greatest profit is made where eggs are produced at a season or seasons of the year when prices are high. Pullets are the chief source of egg supply. They require usually from six to seven months by which to mature. It is, therefore, possible to regulate their production in the fall months at least to some extent by regulating the time they will hatch in the spring. The main source of eggs produced during October and November is the March hatched pullet. By December the May hatched pullets are out for a reputation.

Green Feed for Poultry.

Now that the poultry are off the range and no longer benefit the pickling of fresh green feed at liberty, a substitute should be provided. Mangels, kale, cabbage and sprouted oats do very well to supply in part the very necessary vitamines A and D, so essential to proper nutrition. A little attention to a seemingly unimportant point frequently means the difference between success and failure with breeding stock. At the Ontario Agricultural College Poultry Department a liberal allowance of green feed or roughage containing the vital elements is always available to the stock.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. College, Guelph.

When Horse Is Overcome by Heat.

A horse that previously has been overcome with heat may fail to sweat in hot weather and be subject to recurrence of the attack. If sweating can be caused danger may be offset. Brisk massage of the skin helps, and blanketing may be tried. When a chill occurs a strong liniment rubbed in from ear to ear stimulates sweating and circulation of blood. It should not be applied before putting on a blanket. Some have had good results from copious drenches of warm tea containing ginger essence or tincture or the powdered root.

The farmer who keeps plenty of stock is the man whose crops will stand a drought the best. It takes a dry year to show the benefits derived from liberal applications of stable manure.

A small table with a drawer or an old-fashioned commode with casters on the legs makes a wheel tray that comes in handy in the kitchen and dining-room.

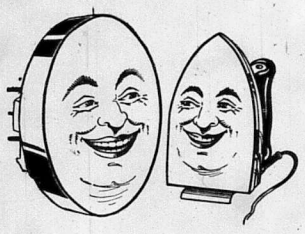
The New Element SPEEDIRON

PAT'D and REG'D 1925

Makes Electric Range Operation Simple and Trouble Proof



"Hello, Speediron, so you are making the Electric Range as simple to operate as I am"

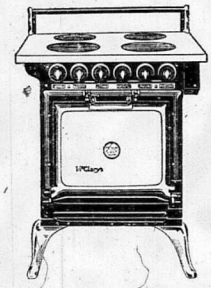
McCLARY'S, always in the lead in improving the Electric Range, have now eliminated the last Elemental weakness in the Electric Range. McClary's Electric Range, with their new Element, Speediron, is as simple and trouble-proof as an Electric Iron.

McClary's Speediron Element cannot be damaged by spills or knocks. Pots or pans cannot damage it. Forks or spoons cannot touch and short circuit the coils. Boiled over liquids cannot break the hot porcelain nor cause the coils to burn out. Nothing gets into the Speediron Element. Nothing can happen to the coils except to burn out, and sooner or later that happens to all coils, just as it happens to bulbs or fuses.

When a Coil Burns Out

When a coil burns out you simply lift out McClary's Speediron Element. With little effort and expense you replace the coil, then drop the element back into place. It is just as easy and simple to replace the unit as it is to plug in your iron or toaster.

Quite different from any other type element. When a coil burns out in any other element you have to send for a service electrician. If the element is one of the open type the porcelain will probably be so badly cracked and broken that an expensive repair is necessary. If it is a solid iron or porcelain element with embedded coil, the whole unit is a total loss of several dollars, because the burnt out coil cannot be replaced.



Come and See It

If you have an Electric Range you will want to see this new, splendid improvement, because you know all about Electric Range troubles now. If you are going to buy an Electric Range you should see the Speediron Element in McClary's Electric Range—the trouble-proof Element.

Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma.

Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family.

Rheuma is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia.

It is a wonder-worker; it never falters, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body.

Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys and bladder all at once and quickly brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. WALLACE'S DRUG STORE and all good druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't satisfactory.

Teacher (to boy sitting idly in school during writing time)—"Henry, why are you not writing?"

Henry—"I ain't got no pen."

Teacher—"Where is your grammar?"

Henry—"She's dead."

WRESTLING WITH ENGLISH.

Joyous Course in Conversation in a Brazilian Handbook.

Occasionally are heard expressions of discouragement that the South Americans do not respond warmly enough to our efforts to win their confidence. Let the doubting pause the pages of a booklet published in the city of Para, a copy of which has been received by a merchant dealing with Brazilian lines. "Inglish For the Mass" is the title of it, translated by the author. Apparently the "mass" in Brazil, wherever it may be, need not be very fastidious in the matter of spelling, for the first ten or twelve pages, devoted entirely to columns of words, would not earn a very high percentage in a primary school examination.

"Conversations for the Daily" is the heading of the first round of this battle with English syntax. Then follows a sample of a "conversation" that should take place between two Americans meeting each other out walking.

"Good morning, sir, is I not the day fine?"

"Very pleasantly, thank you, and how are you?"

"Very goodly, with your permission, sir. Are you walking?"

"Yes, sir, for the health. Will you break some fast with me?"

"Gracious, yes. Shall we go to the coffee?"

"With pleasantness, sir. Let us eat meat and bread."

And so each lesson progresses until the mass is supposed to be so advanced as to be able to enjoy a more scholarly essay on "The American Selisman."

"The American Selisman," writes the author, "is typically of an energy which is to admire in the warmth of tropics. Of a youthfulness generally, he breathes lively and walks springly, searching the customer loyally for the firm his.

"To all he greets smiles, and one is to admire his frank. He is fresh of the cold northerly. Yet under the breast of the American selisman beats the heart warmness, therefor let us give greeting smiles with two hands open to him crying 'welcome to Brazil, Mister.'"

Need the United States business man be discouraged with such a greeting awaiting his commercial representatives when they sail south to capture the South American trade?

The Russian Moujiks.

After he had smashed a Russian army and overrun a province Napoleon collected the moujiks and told them that henceforth they belonged to him and France. They glared at him and gave him the lie. He shot some of them, but the rest were adamant. Then he had one moujik branded on the left arm with the letter N. "Now," he said, "you belong to me." The moujik lifted to the conqueror's face his bloodshot eyes under his shaggy mane of hair, and then, seizing a hatchet, lopped off the left arm and let the bleeding limb fall at Napoleon's feet. "That is yours," he growled; "but the rest of my body and my heart belong to holy Russia and the czar." And from that hour Napoleon realized what he was up against.

Holland.

Holland, known as North and South Holland, forms part of the northern part of the Netherlands. These provinces are composed of land rescued from the sea and defended by immense dikes. Holland was inhabited by the Batavi in the time of Caesar, who made a league with them. It became part of Gallia Belgica and afterward of the kingdom of Austria. From the tenth to the fifteenth century it was governed by counts under the German emperors. Holland was at one time a Dutch republic. It was created a kingdom in 1806, and Louis Bonaparte, father of Napoleon III., was declared king.—Exchange.

Actors in Retirement.

Many actors have lived long after retiring from the stage. Macready, retiring in 1851 at the age of fifty-eight, passed an honored leisure till his death at Cheltenham, England, in 1873. After Mr. Siddons' farewell appearance as Lady Macbeth in 1812, being then in her fifty-seventh year, she spent her remaining score of years in almost unbroken retirement. The record in this respect, however, is held by that famous Master Betty whom in 1804 London acclaimed as the Infant Roscius. His positively last appearance was made on Aug. 5, 1824, at the age of thirty-two. He died in 1837, a long "resting" of half a century.—London Standard.

CULTIVATE JUDGMENT.

Its Possession Is What Makes a Man Successful In Business.

It was one of the intellectual shocks of my young manhood to discover that an analytical chemist could often get only $50 a month. I had long looked with awe upon the accurate percentages and detailed reports of the analytical chemist. This water contains 2.341 grains of such and such substance per gallon. I wondered at the marvelous man who could get out such fine results, and to learn that he at times gets but $50 a month was a shock.

The explanation is this. The chemical analysis of ordinary specimens is a technical process of a perfectly definite character. If a work is definite and therefore capable of being reduced to clear cut instructions the pay that it commands is not likely to be high, even though the work itself is complicated. It requires good memory and painstaking obedience to instructions. Many persons have these qualities. The scarce attribute is judgment, that indefinable quality capable of meeting a new situation and handling it with common sense or gumption, to put it in a homely term.

Judgment is indefinite. We cannot lay out instructions in advance to tell the manager how to meet situations. To buy good raw material he must learn to know the raw materials, and many of the tests he applies are too fine for words to reduce to instructions. He must decide for indefinite reasons that now is a good time to enlarge or retrench; that here is a good place to open up business; that now is a good time to buy or to run low on stock; that this man needs to be hired; that this man needs to be fired.

It is in the making of decisions that successful management lies. And most of these decisions are beyond rule. They are indefinite. They are judgment.

SHE WAS SYMPATHETIC.

But Her Attempt to Be Chatty Brought an Embarrassing Moment.

This is an extract from a letter written by a woman who is willing to share a good joke, even if the laugh is at her own expense:

"It was a damp, windy day—the sort of day that turns straight, straggly blond hair like mine into a mass of strings and ends that stick out about the face and neck with frightful effect. I was downtown on a shopping expedition that was exceptionally trying, and I knew I looked so bad that I carefully avoided all chance of glances into mirrors, for I was sure I could not, under the circumstances, improve my appearance much. Recklessly I entered a tearoom with a friend whom I happened to meet.

"As I placed my shopping bag on the floor near the table at which we were to sit, another bag, exactly like my own, was put beside it. Quite naturally my glance followed the hand and arm up to the face of my neighbor, and as I met her look I said to myself, 'She has hair just like mine—sticking out in every direction—and she looks even worse than I do, poor thing!'

"Naturally, my heart went out to her in a great wave of sympathy. We smiled simultaneously as our troubled eyes met, and I said aloud and quite distinctly, 'If we are not careful we shall get our shopping bags mixed!'

"The moment the words were out of my mouth I wished very earnestly that the floor would mercifully open and let me through. It did not require the subdued snicker from the nearby tables to awaken me to the realization that I had been addressing the image of myself in the mirror of which the entire side of the shop was formed. Do you get the picture?"—Youth's Companion.

ENTERPRISE

November cannot boast of many sunshine days.—The young people and children of the United Church are practising for a Christmas Tree, to be held on Dec. 18th. A good programme will be given, consisting of dialogue, drills, etc.—The last week was a busy week in the Church circle. Beginning with Monday evening, Nov. 30th, the W. C. T. U. had a social evening, and heard a lecture from Mrs. F. Denison, of Selby. The meeting was opened with a hymn, "Blest be the Tie That Binds". Prayer was then offered by the President, Mrs. S. D. Lockwood, after which Mrs. Denison gave us some thoughts on the Convention at Pembroke. The young ladies of Miss Mellow's class gave us a chorus. Mrs. Denison resumed her address on the origin of the W. C. T. U. A woman went to a saloon to pray every day noon, where her husband was spending his time and money, and from this originated the W. C. T. U. A duet was sung by Mrs. W. Mellow and Mrs. H. Jackson, "Somebody Voted to Ruin My Boy", after which Mrs. Denison gave some thought on the work world wide. In those remarks she said the world bulletin gave the membership as the largest organization of women in the world. Lunch was then served. All enjoyed the evening. After interviewing the School Board, Mrs. Denison and Mrs. F. May, Superintendent, went to the school and organized an L. T. L. With the help of the parents, we hope to make it a success. Temperance boys and girls that they may make future temperance men and women.—On Tuesday evening the Ladies' Aid gave a social evening for the purpose of new members. They realized their anticipation. On Wednesday evening Rev. Mr. Bunt gave a lecture and showed some views of the work done by the Missionaries in Chemru, China, the wonderful work done by the W. M. S. in hospitals and schools; also the beautiful hospital by the Methodists, and churches by other denominations, which are now under the supervision of the United Church. Also the work of the natives that has been brought from darkness in the light of the Gospel. Through the Missionaries it is marvellous the work they are doing in the churches and schools. Also other views of the natives in their superstition and fear of the evil spirits.—On Thursday night was Prayer Meeting, followed by a meeting of the Board to arrange for the teamecting on Christmas night. Watch for mare particulars at a later date.—The Ladies' Adult Bible Class met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Kellar for a social evening and to present a quilt to Mrs. R. Hartwick. The evening was spent in music and singing, after which lunch was served, and all departed to their respective homes, voting it a very enjoyable evening.

How To Relieve Children's Colds

Avoid Serious Results by Using Baby's Own Tablets

When a child shows the first symptoms of a cold, such al sneezing, redness of the eyes, clogged or running nose, prompt measures for relief may avert serious results. Mothers should always have on hand some simple, safe and effective remedy for immediate use.

Baby's Own Tablets act quickly, contain no opiates or narcotics, are tasteless and harmless. Mrs. Joseph Cadieux, Holyoke, Mass., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and find them a very satisfactory medicine. When my little boy had a cold I gave him the Tablets at night and he was well next day. I give them to the children for constipation and they always do good. I think Baby's Own Tablets are much easier to give a child than liquid medicine. I recommend the Tablets to all mothers who have small children and believe they should always be kept on hand."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Miss Milling was the guest of Miss Mary Ham over the week end.—Mrs. Wannamaker and Mrs. Bongard, of Bellevilles, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. Cooper.—The pupils of S. Paul's Sunday School are holding their annual Christmas Tree entertainment on Friday, Dec. 18th. A new feature of the entertainment will be the presentation of the play, "A Christmas Carol", immortalized as Charles Dickens' masterpiece. — A number from this locality are planning to attend the re-opening of St. John's Church, Bath, next Sunday.—Miss Eleanor Ham, A.T.C.M., who has recently opened a studio in Kingston, has now a flourishing class of pianoforte pupils.

WHAT DID YOU GIVE LAST CHRISTMAS? Toys for the kiddies—most of them broken by now. "Something useful" for the grown-ups—now worn out or forgotten. Cash to your employees—appreciated but soon spent. Other presents—hurriedly bought and perhaps ill-chosen. Are they remembered now?

Suppose this year you give them each a Bank Book containing an initial deposit, and urge them to add to it regularly. Could anything be more suitable?

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every law-suit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

Old Camden East Boy Passes.

The death took place on Thursday, December 3rd, at his residence, 100 Evans Ave., Toronto, in his sixty-first year, of George Heman Hinch, eldest son of the late Nicholas Hinch, farmer. The deceased has been in the drug business since he was sixteen years of age. For the past fifteen years has been traveller for the wholesale firm of Ingram & Bell, of Toronto. In religion he was an Anglican. He was a Mason, also a member of Knights of Pythias Amicus Lodge. The funeral services were conducted at his home by two Anglican ministers. The Knights of Pythias took charge of the services at the grave in Park Lawn cemetery, Toronto. There were many beautiful floral offerings. He is survived by his widow, three sons, S. R., of Toronto; N. E., of Montreal; T. A., of Edmonton, Alta., and one daughter, brothers and one sister, W. J. and M. E., of Camden East; J. D., of Syracuse, N.Y.; N. E., of Ellensburg, Wash., and Mrs. P. H. Brady, of New York, N.Y.

HAWLEY

The heavy down pour of rain on Saturday last made it very disagreeable.—Miss Ellen Clement has been ill with la grippe.—Mr. and Mrs. Sid Parks and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Sam Parks.—A number from this vicinity were in town for the Poultry Days of last week.—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Schell and daughter, Helen, were in Kingston on Thursday of last week.—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Asselstine and Little Sam visited at W. G. Schell's, on Sunday afternoon.

BASKETBALL

On Monday, Dec. 7th, the N.C.I. Senior Girls' Basketball team defeated Deseronto H. S., before a crowd of 500 fans, by 20-19. The game was crammed full of excitement, as first one and then the other took the lead. N.C.I. scored first, Hilda Daly landing a beautiful basket from away out. Dorothy Richardson quickly duplicated, and then the play went up and down the floor. N.C.I. finally emerged victorious by 1 point.

The N.C.I. forwards certainly showed what stuff they were made of and their shooting was of a high order. Dorothy Richardson landed five beautiful baskets and one free throw while her side-kick, Hilda Daly scored four baskets and two free throws. Mildred Harrington and Ruth Irwin covered the centre of the floor well and were indirectly responsible for more than a few baskets. Grace Boyes and Kathleen Creighan paired up on the defence and guarded their men like whirlwinds.

The subs, Katherine Gleeson, Marion Douglas, Marion Grass, Eleanor Vourex and Helen Grange, didn't weaken the team in the least when they were on, and played real basketball.

For Deseronto Mary Collier, Jean Normile and Alma Gaulin were best. The defence played up well against the elusive Napanee forwards, while the centre players found it rather hard to follow Ruth Irwin and Mil. Harrington. Mary Collier and Jean Normile showed themselves to be real forward players, and their shooting was of a high standard.

Mr. J. L. Murray and Mr. McMaster Perry handled the game and gave complete satisfaction. After the game the visitors repaired to the auditorium, where eloquent speeches were delivered by prominent men of the county and province, including Dr. Seager, of Trinity College.

The school was then inspected by the visitors, and was declared by many to be second to none in the province.

HOCKEY.

The Gibbard Hockey uniforms have arrived. The Packers will wear a solid red with white cuffs and neck and an eight inch white band around the chest. The Finishers will sport a solid blue body with white neck and cuffs, while the Cabinet Makers will wear a green and white striped sweater. The Mechanics will sport a red and white striped sweater. When these teams take the ice there will certainly be no trouble in distinguishing the players.

The leading scorers of the Town League last winter were:—
Laurie Douglas (B. Co.)—6.
Claude Fraser (B. Co.)—6.
Ray Loucks (Gibbards)—5.

TRINITY CHURCH RECITAL

On Tuesday evening last a splendid musical was given at Trinity Church, the occasion being of great interest to the people of Napanee, as Miss Catherine F. Baird, daughter of Prof. Baird, organist of Trinity Church, was the piano soloist. Her selections were difficult, but Miss Baird is a young artist of great ability and she played with ease and technical finish.

Miss Eileen Law, of Toronto, delighted the audience with two groups of songs during the evening, and her beautiful contralto voice brought pleasure to all those who were fortunate enough to be present.

Mrs. Cameron Wilson, who is a favorite always, gave three numbers which were greatly appreciated and heartily encored. Prof. Baird opened the programme with Bach's wonderful Fugue in D Major and also gave a group of organ selections before the close of the recital. The piano used was a Nordheimer Concert Grand and Miss Baird did full justice to this beautiful instrument.

ODESSA

Mrs. Hodgson and Miss Hodgson, Toronto, were' week end guests of Dr. J. E. Mabee and Mrs. Mabee.—Mr. and Mrs. Archie Simmons and son, Russell, of Wilton, spent Sunday the guests of Mrs. Simmons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson.—Dr. Lake Fraser and Mrs. Fraser, Gananoque, accompanied by Mrs. William Calder, spent Wednesday the guests of the former's father, Mr. Stanley Fraser.—Mr. and Mrs. William Amey of Wilton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Pruk.—The annual fowl dinner held by the United Church in the church dining hall last Thursday evening, was a wonderful success. The long tables were laden with delicious eatables and an abundant supply of chicken was in readiness. After the dinner a concert was given in the auditorium by Kingsley talent. Mrs. Evans, soloist, and Miss Lee, elocutionist, gave a number of choice selections, and were repeatedly encored. The Y. M. C. A. Orchestra added greatly to the evening entertainment by their various numbers. Over four hundred people were served at the tables, and the proceeds amounted to over $200.00.—Mrs. S. J. Sproule has returned from spending the past five weeks with relatives in Port Huron and Toronto.—While in Port Huron she attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. D. M. Brace, formerly Miss Hackett, and known to many here as she visited Mrs. Sproule on different occasions. She passed away at her late home in Vancouver.

Last Monday evening the Joint Committees in charge of the Courses in Agriculture and Domestic Science to be conducted in Odessa during the month of February, met at the home of Mr. S. J. Sproule. It was decided to conduct a two weeks' course in Sewing and a two weeks' course in Foods and Cooking for ladies. The committee in charge of these courses are Mrs. S. J. Sproule, Mrs. James McFarlane and Mrs. Clark Boyce. Messrs. Roy Hartman, Cecil Denyes and Courtwall Snider are the committee in charge of the Courses in Agriculture for men. Suitable halls in which to conduct these courses are being fitted up over Lake's store. A number of applications have already been received. Other young men and women who intend being present at one of these courses should give their names to any member of the committees, or J. Laughland, Napanee.

UNITED CHURCH

The Ladies' Aid of the Tamworth congregation were unfortunate in that Saturday afternoon, Dec. 5th, the date of their annual tea and sale of luncheon, the weather man treated them to a continuous downpour of rain, which prevented their friends from coming in from the country, as well as making it difficult for the villagers to attend. In spite of this serious handicap, they succeeded in realizing $100.00 worth of goods. The remainder will be disposed of at private sale.

The weather was more propitious on the following Wednesday night, when some of the young people of the congregation, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, put on in the Town Hall the play entitled "Deacon Dubbs." They were greeted with a full house. The play was well put on and well received. With the small admission fee of 25c. and 25c. they had a $75.00 house.

The Ladies' Aid, of Marlbank, also held a bazaar and supper in the Orange Hall, at Marlbank, last Saturday afternoon, and took in $75.00, with not all their goods sold.

In the matter of the maintenance and Extension Fund there was in sight last Sunday the full allocation of $1400 at Tamworth, the full allocation of $180.00 at Marlbank, and $125.00 of the $180.00 at Redville. This makes $1705.00 toward the objective of $804.00. We are still hopeful of being able to raise the other $100.00.

The Redville Sunday School is adding its annual Christmas tree and concert to the church next Saturday, Dec. 19th.

Tamworth United Church extends Christmas Greetings in this issue of these notes.

The funeral service of Mrs. Sarah Jamieson was held in the church last Thursday morning. The body reached Tamworth by train from Watertown, N.Y., the night before, where for the last seven or eight years of her life Mrs. Jamieson had made her home. Previous to going to Watertown she had lived for many years in Napanee and vicinity. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church and a great enthusiast in all of the women's work of the church.

MOSCOW

The weather is somewhat colder, and with a little more snow the prospects are for a good sleighing for Xmas.—The annual school concert is to be held on Friday evening. A good programme is being prepared by the teachers. Also the Sunday School entertainment on Wednesday evening, in the church. A sale will be held at the home of Mrs. Pearson by the Women's Institute as a great success, financially and socially, it being well attended. At the close refreshments were served by Mrs. Huffman was taken to Kingston Hospital on Friday for an operation, which we were pleased to learn was quite successful.—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Huffman are visiting their former's father and mother and family.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, BATH, WAS CONSECRATED BY BISHOP BIDWELL.

Impressive Services at Re-opening of Church, Which Was Burned Last April — Unique Accomplishment in the History of the Church — Inspiring Sermons by Bishop of Diocese.

Sunday, Dec. 13th, was a day of very special rejoicing for the Rector and members of the Parish of Bath. It will be recalled that the old historic St. John's erected in 1793 was destroyed on April 4th by fire refused not as erroneously reported at the time from burning grass, but from the overheated and, as they were found to be, defective furnace pipes. A fire had been started preparatory for the Sunday services the day following, which fact was not known when the report was first made.

At a special vestry meeting on Easter Monday the congregation courageously determined to endeavor to erect a new church. No time was wasted. On Wednesday, July 22nd, the corner stone was "well and truly laid" with full ecclesiastical and Masonic ritual harmoniously blended. Sunday the faithful little band of workers saw the fulfillment of their hopes when they found themselves able not only to have the church 'opened' officially, but much more, to have it consecrated.

The Lord Bishop of the Diocese was present and promptly at 11 o'clock, according to ancient custom, knocked loudly at the main entrance and proceeded with the impressive service of consecration. This was followed by the celebration of the Holy Eucharist when a large number communicated. The church was filled to its full capacity, several having to stand, throughout the whole service. The musical portions of the services both morning and evening were especially well rendered by the Choir.

The Bishop's Sermon.

At the morning service the Bishop, preaching from Psalm 122 : 1, "I was glad when they said unto me; let us go into the House of the Lord," said that this was a day of great joy for every one concerned. It was only a little more than six months ago that the disaster occurred which laid their historic and beautiful church in ruins. Most people would have been discouraged and hopeless, but their Rector, in the very interview in which he informed the Bishop of the destruction of the church, said he was determined to start at once to build another in its place, and with an energy and perseverance worthy of the highest praise, and ably assisted by others, he had accomplished what the Bishop believed to be a record in the history of the church—namely, that eight months after the old church was destroyed the new church was ready for consecration. The Bishop rejoiced that he had the privilege of acting on so happy an occasion before his episcopate ended. He pointed out to the people that the old church, built by the efforts of the famous missionary, Rev. John Langhorn, over 130 years ago, was not merely an historic landmark, but stood as a silent witness for the presence of God in a world which easily forgot Him, and he trusted that this new and beautiful church would for many years become stand witness for God's presence in the same way. He urged them to make frequent use of it, and to allow nothing to stand between them and their obligation to Almighty God to attend Divine Service regularly every week. The House of the Lord should be the real centre and inspiration of their community life. He congratulated Rector and people most heartily upon what they had accomplished, and prayed that God's blessing might rest upon them all.

Evening Service

At the evening service the church was again filled to its utmost capacity, several of the congregation having to stand throughout. The Te Deum was sung at the commencement of the service. The first lesson was read by the Rev. The Principle, Rector of Adolphustown, and the second by the Licensed Lay Reader, Mr. G. W. Cuppage. The Bishop preached from 2 Thess. 2 : 15, "Stand fast, and hold the traditions ye have been taught." He spoke of the great power of a noble tradition, and urged his hearers to jealously guard that their beautiful church was a memorial of the self-denying and heroic work of the Rev. John Langhorn many years ago. It was their duty in every possible way to maintain that tradition. He also spoke of the great heritage that was theirs as members of a church as old as British Christianity which had maintained without break of continuity the Catholic and Apostolic traditions, creeds and sacraments. He urged them to be loyal to their church, and never to allow the great and noble traditions it possessed to be sapurged or destroyed. It had proved itself a church for which a man might live, and in which he could die with the full consolations of the faith that it was once delivered to the Saints.

While the present building and work has been consecrated, considerable yet remains to be done. The exterior has to be stuccoed in the spring to keep faith with insurance factors by making the church externally a replica of the old one.

CONSERVATIVES MET AT MOSCOW

A well attended meeting of the members of the Conservative Association of Camden Township was held at Moscow Tuesday night, at which the officers for the year were elected and candidates of the party in the coming municipal election were chosen.

During the evening Hon. Dr. Edwards, M.P., for Frontenac-Addington, delivered an address in which he dealt with the problems confronting Canada and the Conservative party just now and with the future of the country. The address was listened to with great interest.

The officers elected for the year were: President, Daniel McGregor; and Secretary, Hector Drew; and in addition there was a committee selected for each of the eleven polls in the municipality.

The members selected by the meeting to be candidates in the coming municipal election were: For Reeve, J. Fisher; Deputy-Reeve, J. Cousins; Councillors, John Judge, Henry Toner and Frank McLaughlin.

The meeting was a most successful one and there was the keenest interest taken in it by the large number in attendance.

Gibbard Firm Entertain Employees

Napanee's Progressive Furniture Factory Opens New Building

On Thursday night last the Gibbard Furniture factory from the outside looked more like a great entertainment hall than a manufacturing plant. The whole building was brilliantly lighted and pretty colored lights and banners hung from each window.

The occasion was the opening of the new finishing room, a beautiful work room 80x120 feet in dimension, with large windows on each of three sides, and a hardwood floor which would do credit to the most fastidious householder in Napanee.

This new building had been erected during the summer at a cost of twenty-five thousand dollars, is two stories high, and was erected by local labor entirely. It is to house the finishing department within the next two weeks. Last Thursday night it looked more like a ball room than a work shop. Across the ceiling had been strung wires from which dangled pretty bags of different colors; flags and bunting in profusion were draped around windows and girders, while in the centre of the floor was a huge Christmas tree or what seemed like a group of trees, covered with all sorts of gifts and toys and decorations.

Mr. Gibbard's Address.

There were about six hundred present, all employees of the factory and their families. Except the Clergy of the town and the Mayor, there were no invited guests. Sharply at eight o'clock the programme began, with a solo by Mrs. Valkman. This was followed by an address by the Chairman, Mr. Gibbard, the President of the Company, who welcomed the guests, and said that the great element in the success of any business was the human element. They might have the best organization and the best machinery in the world, but they must reckon finally with the relations which existed between all the parties to production, and on the influence of one on another. To keep business we must give service, and in order to get service we must learn to work together as partners in a great enterprise. The result will be that men will get to know each other better, and be apt to criticize the other man's position. Every man was seeking happiness and he can best find it in the environment, by becoming as far as possible a useful citizen. He expressed the hope that all would enjoy the evening.

Telegrams From Santa Claus

At this point a telegram from Santa Claus was read, in which he stated that he could not visit Port Hope and would try to make Napanee.

A male quartette composed of Messrs. Shannon, Caldwell, Waite and Vanderveort, then sang a humorous number, and demanded an encore. Mrs. Catharine Powell gave two humorous readings which were rendered in her usual capable manner, and added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Another telegram was then read from Santa that he was having difficulty getting to the storm, but was leaving Belleville then.

Santa Claus Distributes Gifts

After several numbers by the Gibbard Chaps, and the Walters' Orchestra, amid the blast of trumpets and the beating of drums, and the shouts of the whole crowd, Santa hurried into the room, and at once began to distribute gifts from the tree. The names of all the children of employees had been taken, and every precaution used to see that none were overlooked. There were dolls galore and Teddy Bears for the little folk, and before the close a little older, while there seemed to be an endless store of sleds, books, games and toys. The presents were all out of the tawdry kind as over two hundred dollars had been spent on them. Each employee was presented with a pound cake, and the whole thing was carried through these old timers, was a sight one sees only once in a life time.

Some Facts and Figures

Napanee has an institution in the Gibbard Factory which is of the greatest service to the town and is afraid the town doesn't half appreciate its worth. Listen to this: 165 employees are now with orders $3,000 a week in wages, a day shift from 7.30 to 5.30 o'clock, a night shift of forty-five men, 5.30 to 7.30, five days a week, and many other departments working until 9 o'clock every night. The relations between the employers and employees is more that of a family than of a business concern.

If a firm of the size of Gibbards was asking a location in London, the Chamber of Commerce and every Board of Trade and Town Council from Port Arthur to Coaticook, would be after it, offering all sorts of concessions. Well here it is in our midst, producing an article which is known Dominion wide, and giving employment to, nearly two hundred men, and contributing to the wealth and well being of the town in no small manner. Give Gibbards the credit; they are putting Napanee on the map.

THE SANTA CLAUS FUND

THE FINAL APPEAL. — NEXT WEEK WILL BE TOO LATE

The Beaver to-day makes its final appeal to the generosity and kindness of the people of Napanee. The response has been engouraging. One of the fine features about it has been the interest which many people out of town have taken in Napanee. Here's a sample sentiment :

"To The Beaver Santa Claus Fund"

Hoping the enclosed ten spot may help to bring a little Christmas cheer to some poor little Napanee young boy.

From a Napanee old boy—Toronto."

The Social Service Council has been as busy as the proverbial bee lately, and the room like the bee hive. A systematic survey of the town has been held, and a card index made with particulars, purchases have been made carefully and stockings filled and boxes packed economically. The women who compose the Council have given their time voluntarily, and are to be commended for the hours they have spent, the spirit they have shown, and the ability they have displayed. The only discouragement they have experienced is lack of finances to meet the need.

This is the last opportunity to help the deserving children of the town to enjoy a little bit of Christmas. By the time our next issue is out, it will be too late.

Please make your donation at once to the Beaver Office and make it as generous as possible.

At an early date a full statement of months and expenditures, with the number of persons assisted, will be published.

What's the Matter With Napanee?

PONZI AT LAST DISCOVERS OFFERS REMEDY

It happened like this, Mr. Editor. I went down the street one day last week when I was accosted by a bond agent who asked me if I wanted a sure thing, a manufacturing bond of a firm in St. Catharines, absolutely safe, and with a generous interest return, guaranteed by first closed mortgage? I thanked him for the honor, and passed on. But I met another of these men, who had a perfectly safe investment in an apartment house in Montreal. And, strange to say, still another accosted me with an equally safe investment in an office building in Toronto.

Now, Mr. Editor, I got to thinking about those three agents and decided to see them later on. To the question "How did you get along?" each one of the three answered: "Fine; sold lots of stock; Napanee's a great place to sell glit edge bonds.

Lack of Modern Buildings.

Now, at last, Mr. Editor, I have found out what is the matter with Napanee. While there are fifty people looking for small up-to-date houses in Napanee our moneyed men and investing public are sending it out to Toronto to build homes for the people there, while our own folk get along as best they can in places which were out of date fifty years ago; or to build handsome office buildings faced with marble and trimmed with rosewood or mahogany, while the lawyers in Napanee are housed in rooms that might have done service in the days of Dickens.

While our merchants are grouching about bad business they are allowing the savings from Napanee to go out of town and secure shares in Dominion Stores, National Grocers, Simpsons Limited, Bay Street Office Building, and a score of others.

Town Council and Chamber of Commerce.

I've listened to a debate in the Town Council over advertising in Heaton's Annual—or some such annual—and the debate, one would think, was on a real issue instead of the inserting of an advertisement in a magazine no one ever heard of. I've heard the Chamber of Commerce eat celery, drink soup, and sing, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," and "Mademoiselle from Armentieres," and congratulate themselves on what a fine medium the organization was for creating public opinion,—public opinion forsooth. I've heard them discussing ways and means of building up Napanee, and then every one of them will go out and buy bonds and mortgage certificates in some industry or building in Toronto or other city. The trouble with Napanee is that the business men haven't faith in one another, nor faith in the town, but they have faith in other towns and other men whom they neither know nor have seen.

Constructive Advice.

Why on earth doesn't some business men form a company, secure that strip of land on Thomas street near the Driving Park, sell first closed mortgage bonds on it, erect about fifty up-to-date dwellings and rent them at a modest rent and secure about six per cent. for the investor? The only man of initiative in the town in this direction is a woman, and the men might well call her in on such a company for advice. Too far out, you will say. Of course it's far out; if Napanee is to continue to be limited on the north by the National tracks, on the south by the river, on the west by the Driving Park, and on the east by the Newburgh Road. But how far is it from the Danforth to Sunnyside? Eh?

Dairying.

We have one of the finest dairying districts in Canada, and yet none has had the initiative to build butter factories in Napanee. It is true there is a little one built, out of outside capital. But that is only a bit of a thing. Why do not the men of ability in Napanee form a company, sell shares and erect a great big butter factory? Everyone eats butter. There is lots of money to build it, if we would only have the faith in our own town we have in St. Catharines or some other place.

Napanee is one of the best places on the line for shipping cattle; thousands of dollars worth shipped every week. We pay freight on the live stock to Montreal to have it killed, and then express on the bacon and beef back again for the table. Why do not the business men get together and erect a packing house, save freight, employ labor, and give Napanee investors a chance to invest in their own town. It can't be done, you say. Of course it can't if we send our money out to build a packing house in Montreal. Napanee has cheap power, plenty of water, on the main railroad, near the source of raw material—the first necessity in locating any plant. All that is needed is initiative and public interest.

Poultry.

We have in Napanee one of the best poultry markets in Ontario, but that market will not be retained unless there is modern methods introduced. Why not form a company, secure a large tract of land and go at the poultry business in a big way? Put Mr. Myron Mills at the head of it, give him a good salary, and a good staff, and raise fifty thousand turkeys and a couple of hundred thousand other kinds of birds, and then we wouldn't have one turkey day or two, but we would be having them all the time. Let there be in connection with this, an up-to-date storage plant, where citizens for a nominal fee could store poultry, eggs, etc., and where the company could store produce when plentiful, and from which they could distribute it as the market demands. Where is the money to start these things? you ask. Why in the Banks. But you answer, the banks wont lend it. Well, what are the bank managers for? Are they only rubber stamps? Let them bombard the head office every day until the head office sees that the people of Napanee mean business.

Financially Out of Date.

The trouble with Napanee is that our business men are fifty years behind the times in their financial arrangements, and are not using the money that is lying around waiting to be used, while the sharp up-to-date man from the outside comes in and with the aid of the very business man himself who is talking hard times, collects that money to build up some other place.

The merchants grumble because people spend their money out of town and yet they themselves send their money out in the form of mortgages and bonds and stocks to build up some other place. People will always go where they get service, and our people will continue to shop in Kingston and Toronto until methods are changed here. What on earth is the good of three stores trying to do the work of one? Why not get together and form a company, buy cheaply and distribute profits all over the country. With stockholders all over the county business will flow this way. No, Mr. Smith, a frightened of Mr. Jones, and Mr. Jones is afraid Mr. Brown will make a little more than his share. The consequence is everybody loses out but the bond agent and the outside interest. The business men needn't talk about people buying out of town until they stop buying outside securities and put their surplus capital in local industries or enterprises.

A Real Job for the Chamber of Commerce.

If the Chamber of Commerce instead of talking about the ways and means of building up the town, would show a little leadership and real initiative in this constructive way and spend their own surplus money in town they would soon find that others would follow. When a fellow finds three bond agents in town in one day and when one of them says he has remained for a week, and when they all report that they are well satisfied with their sales, one doesn't have to go around wondering what is the matter with Napanee. The matter is that our business men are sending out their money to build up other places and instructing the bond agents to their friends in order to assist the people of money to the any place but Napanee—and I don't mean maybe.

THE CURIOUS BANANA TREE.

A Plant That Will Practically Grow While You Wait.

If a good sized, healthy banana tree is cut off a few feet above the ground during the hot season, the tree will in the first nine-tenths of an hour send up a new shoot from the center of the trunk, and will grow to a height sufficient to make up for lost time, for within forty eight hours it will have waving green leaves considerably above the severed trunk.

The secret lies in the fact that the trunk of the banana tree is not hard and woody like other trees, but is really composed of undeveloped leaves wrapped tightly together in a spiral form. When the tree grows these rolled up leaves push upward and merely unroll. Thus no time is lost in forming buds and growing leaves as in ordinary trees. When the trunk is cut off it doesn't interfere with the growth of the leaves, because they are always pushing up from the center of the stalk. If you will roll a sheet of paper tightly and push against one end you will see exactly how the leaves are pushed up from the trunk of the banana tree and if you cut the roll in two you will find that it doesn't prevent you from pushing out the center of the roll as before.

Although the banana tree requires no injury so rapidly and well, the shoot formed from the cut stalk seldom bears fruit or flowers. As these shoots are taller and stronger than the original trees, however, they are much better adapted to withstand wind and storms, and the natives frequently cut the banana trees in order to force them to produce the strong, fruitless growth and to serve as windbreaks for other crops.

1925 Christmas Seals

The 1925 Christmas Seals, in aid of the Muskoka and Toronto Hospitals for Consumptives, have just been issued. These handsome seals are of ten different designs, put up in assorted packets of 10, 25, 50 and 100.

The National Sanitarium Association is dependent of funds to carry on the work of the Hospitals at Muskoka and at Weston. Every dollar received through the sale of Christmas Seals is used for maintenance of patients there.

Why not buy these seals in lieu of others? Not only will you get good value in return, but your money will be made to serve a greater end, for it will go to help someone in distress.

Look for the double-barred Red Cross on every packet. None others are genuine.

For sale by school children and banks, or direct from Xmas Seal Department, Gage Institute, Toronto 2, Ontario.

OBITUARY.

Miss Elizabeth M. Hoselton.

On Friday, Elizabeth M. Hoselton, who has made her home with the late John and Mrs. Hoselton for the past thirty years, passed away after a lingering illness of many years.

The deceased was a sister of the late Gaylord W. Hoselton, and daughter of Nancy and Hiram Hoselton, born at Chautauqua, N.Y., November 16th, 1836, and only lacked a few days of being 89 years of age. In early childhood she with her parents moved to Bath, Ont., from which place she moved to Drayton, N.D.

Miss Hoselton was a member of the Methodist Church, and also found peace with God through the Salvation Army.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. John Hoselton, and the high esteem in which she was held by relatives and friends was shown by the large number which attended to pay their last respects to the deceased. Rev. S. E. Fairbairn conducted the services. Interment was made in Drayton cemetery on Sunday afternoon. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Howe, of Winnebago, Minn., and a brother, Clarence. Others who will mourn her loss are Mrs. John Hoselton and family, who have taken care of and ministered unto her during the declining years of her life.

If you suffer from dry, hard Bronchial Cough, don't despair or experiment. Just get a bottle of Barko at Knight's Drug Store; its effect is quick and permanent, as it contains both stimulating and tonic properties. 39-13tf.

That's Different.

"Faint heart never won fair lady, you know."

"Nonsense! I know a man who's got $4,000,000 and a weak heart, and all the girls are just crazy to marry him."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Room Dust.

Dust is everywhere, but the worst kind of dust is that which is confined within the four walls of a room. The dust is always germ laden, because it is infested with effete matter thrown off by human bodies.

The Comforter.

"I understand Mrs. Green is very ill," "That's so? What's the matter?"

"The doctor thinks it's pleurisy."

"Oh, my, I must hurry right over to see! I know dozens of people who died of that."—Detroit Free Press.

Fable of Two Maidens.

Once there were two maidens who sought to catch a nice young man, and it was a false start in the eyes of the undiscerning, for the one was exceedingly fair to look upon and dressed stylishly, while the other was plain of countenance.

The pretty girl smiled sweetly on the nice young man and talked to him till she dazzled him with her beauty and charmed him with her wit. The plain one gazed wonderingly at him and made him talk to her of divers things, while she listened, entranced at his wisdom and learning.

He took the pretty girl out riding, to the theater and bought her chocolates and flowers, and all the knowing ones said she had struck a winner, when one day he married the plain girl and took her on the continent for their honeymoon.

The pretty girl had made him very much pleased with her, but the plain girl had gone one better and made him very much more pleased with himself.

Moral.—The people who read human nature as they run generally get first to the wire.—Pearson's.

Going Without Food.

Science says that if he can get drinking water an ordinary man can exist for about thirty days without food. At the end of that time the machinery of the body will not be ruined and can be entirely strengthened back to its old standard by careful feeding. About one-quarter of our body weight is fat, and it is mostly this fat which is absorbed as food during the period of starvation. We can absorb and burn up our muscles until 60 per cent of their weight has gone. We can do the same with from 20 to 40 per cent of our liver and digestive organs and 20 per cent of our lungs. Our hearts can lose 10 per cent, and our brains and nervous system can lose 5 per cent. It will thus be seen that the more vital organs, brain and heart, yield least of all the girls are just crazy to marry their valuable substance for the life of the body, while the less valuable substances—fat, muscles, and so on—are consumed first.—New York American.

Novel Methods of Warfare.

In ancient history there are two well authenticated instances of wild animals being used by attacking armies. The first is related by Appian when describing the siege of Themiseyra, in Pontus, by Lucullus in his war against Mithridates. Turrets were brought up, mounds were built and huge mines were made by the Romans. The people of Themiseyra dug open these mines from above and through the holes cast down upon the workmen bears and other wild animals, together with swarms of bees. The second instance occurred in England when the Danes and Norwegians were attacking Chester, held by the Saxons and some Gallic auxiliaries. After adopting stoning and boiling water defenses in vain against the besiegers the Saxons threw down all the beehives in the town upon the attackers, who were soon routed.

Powers of Sheik ul Islam.

The office of sheik ul Islam—literally chief or ancient of Islam—ranks second only to that of sultan in the Ottoman empire. Its holder is ecclesiastical head of the empire and supreme interpreter of the Koran, with absolute control over all imams, dervishes and religious institutions, but he has judicial and political authority also, being, indeed, first magistrate, privy seal and minister for education. In some respects the sheik ul Islam is superior even to the sultan, for his edicts are irrevocable. The sultan may dismiss him before he issues an edict, but the edict once issued takes automatic legal effect, even though, as happened in the case of Abdul Hamid, it decrees the deposition of the sultan himself.

Just by Good Luck.

A young man who had received the privilege of shooting over the land of a farmer got rather close once or twice to the home grounds. Late in the day he met the farmer.

"You've had pretty good luck," said the farmer.

"Well, no," said the young man hesitatingly. "I haven't had any luck at all."

"Yes, you have," repeated the farmer. "This morning you just missed my best Shorthorn."

Sufficient.

Him—Darling, I would ask you to be my wife, but I'm afraid my income of only $2,000 a year would not be sufficient for us to get along on.

Her—Oh, yes; it would. I can dress on $1,500 a year, and we would have all the rest for our living and household expenses.

Business Instinct.

The following epitaph may be seen in the cemetery of a parish in the environs of Paris:

"Here lies Mme. N., wife of M. N., master blacksmith. The railing round this tomb was manufactured by her husband."

Cold Snatchers.

Teacher—Johnny, can you tell me the function of the pores of our bodies?

Johnny—They are things we use to catch cold with.

Be Not Fearful.

You will never fear the trouble that comes your way if you are cheerful; neither will you enjoy the blessings of each day if you are fearful.

Gave Her Proof.

"Do you believe, sir, that the dead ever walk after death?"

"No doubt of it, ma'am. I have heard the dead march."

Content thyself to be obscurely good.—Addison.

How Limpets Stick.

Every one is familiar with the saying "to stick like a limpet," but there are not so many who know how it is that a limpet is able to stick as it does to the rocks upon which it passes its existence. The creature is able, by means of the central portion of its body, which can be raised independently of the edge or frill which surrounds it, to create a kind of vacuum, much in the same way that a piece of soft wet leather can be made to adhere to a smooth surface by pressing out all the air. This the so called "strength" of the limpet is largely due to atmospheric pressure. It is not entirely so, however, for if they are closely examined it will be seen that the shells accommodate themselves around the edges to the surface of the rock upon which the limpet is located, and if removed to another spot the edge of the shell will probably be found to be a very bad-fit and the creature's power of adhesion somewhat lessened. If taken by surprise with a smart sideiong blow even a large limpet is easily enough dislodged; but, given the slightest warning, its power of suction is instantly brought into play, and very often considerable force is then necessary ere it can be detached.—London Mail.

Taming the Mink.

The United States department of agriculture is making experiments in domesticating the mink. Well, here's luck to its efforts—but heaven help the poultryman who tries to rear his chickens near that experimental farm. The mink has for as fine a taste for comfort as any could desire, but his disposition is as bad as that of a Villista bandit, and he has at least as much cunning. He can dig his way into any inclosure not made of brick, stone or concrete. He loves blood as well as a weasel. He has a perfect genius for evading traps, and he can conduct his depredations so skillfully that for months and even years they will be laid to other marauders, and only the closest observers will know that there is a mink in the neighborhood. The man over the department—which undertakes to tame such a creature has a large self confidence.

Napoleon and a Submarine.

The idea of submarine navigation is not so modern as many people imagine. When Napoleon was banished to St. Helena a notorious smuggler named Johnstone conceived the idea of assisting the dethroned monarch to escape. In Scott's "Life of Napoleon" he says:

"A submarine vessel was to be the means of effecting this enterprise. It was thought that by sinking the vessel during the daytime she might escape the notice of the British cruisers and, being raised at night, might approach the guarded rock without discovery. The vessel was actually begun in one of the building yards upon the Thames; but, the peculiarity of her construction having occasioned suspicion, she was seized by the government."

Nelly Gray.

Almost every schoolboy of a dozen years or more ago knew somewhat of the rimes of Thomas Hood, especially the poem entitled "Faithless Nelly Gray," in which—

Ben Battle was a soldier bold
And used to war's alarms,
But a cannon ball took off his legs,
And he laid down his arms.

A correspondent of T. P.'s London Weekly calls attention to a stanza that is usually omitted in which Nelly puts her objection to the mutilated warrior in part after this fashion:

"Why, then," said she, "you've lost the feet
Of legs in war's alarms,
And all you can expect to wear your shoes
Upon your feet of arms."

A Shakespearean Problem.

A problem for Shakespearean antiquaries is propounded by a correspondent of a London paper. "Some years ago," he writes, "I was looking at the Shakespeare folios at Stratford on Avon, when an American visitor asked the curator the meaning of half a dozen words printed on the fly leaf of one of the volumes. For once that brief informed individual hesitated, seemed confused and then confessed that he did not know. I glanced at the words and at once recognized in them a familiar Welsh aphorism: 'Reh Duw, dim: Duw a digon'—'Without God, nothing; God and enough.' Now, how did that old Welsh aphorism come to adorn the dyleaf of the volume?"

Our First Railroad Train.

On Aug. 28, 1830, the first American built railroad train made its initial journey. The train carried passengers in its one little car, made a trip of fourteen miles in one hour and fifteen minutes, to the utter astonishment of the "natives," who predicted all sorts of dire calamities from such speed madness. This was the beginning of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, the oldest American road.

A Lasting Flower.

A common South African flower, the white star of Bethlehem (Ornithogalum lacteum), will keep fresh for two months or more after cutting. It can be sent as a cut flower from South Africa to Europe or Asia or America, and then will last for weeks in water.

Pruning Trees.

In pruning branches from trees cut them off close up to the origin. Never leave a stub of the portion removed, for the cut surface will never heal over, allowing the decay germs to enter and gradually work into the body of the tree.

Mrs. J. A. Vandewater attended the banquet given by the Eastern Star ladies in Kingston, last Friday evening.

Mrs. W. S. Herrington and Miss Helen Herrington were At Home on Friday afternoon to a number of friends. The house was gay with Xmas greens and bright red flowers, and the reception room was most attractive. Mrs. Herrington wore a gown of grey crepe, and Miss Herrington printed gold crepe with a pattern of orange and blue. Mrs. Harold Herrington, who received with the hostess, wore black georgette with jewels edged with metal trimming and a touch of blue at the shoulder. In the tea room the polished table was effectively arranged with centre of fruits and a real poinsettia bringing a cheery suggestion of winter countries. Mrs. J. H. Coleman and Mrs. F. F. Miller poured tea, while in the library Mrs. Wagar served the tea. The following ladies assisted, Mrs. Benjamin, Mrs. Pruyn, Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Grange, Miss Isabelle Benjamin, Miss Georgie Robinson, Miss Diana Miller, Miss Isabelle Wagar and Miss Marjorie Simpson.

Mrs. Duane R. Hall received on Friday last, at her home on East St., for the first time since her marriage. The reception was held from three to six o'clock, in the spacious drawing room, which presented a cheery aspect with a glowing fire in the open fire-place, softly shaded lamps, and tall jars of white chrysanthemums. The bride, who wore her wedding gown of white crepe satin excellant and lace, with pink roses fastened at her waist, received with Mrs. D. R. Hall, of Belleville, who wore black crepe. The tea-room, which opened out of the drawing room, was charmingly arranged with silver vases of pink roses, a dainty tea table in the centre of which was a silver basket of white mums shading to a delicate pink. Tea was poured during the afternoon by Mrs. F. F. Miller, Mrs. W. A. Grange, Mrs. Wellington Brown, and Mrs. H. E. Smith. Others who assisted in serving were Miss Diana Miller, Miss Loretta Hall, Miss Marjorie Simpson, Mrs. J. M. Simpson, Mrs. W. A. Templeton, Mrs. W. T. MacKenzie, Miss Georgie Robinson and Miss Isabelle Benjamin.

The United Church

UNITING THE THREE STREAMS.

Early Union.

The three Churches whose history we have so briefly sketched with their numerous off-shoots all planted branches in Canada. But in a new large country with a scarcely settled population, they soon realized that the things which separated in the old lands no longer existed. The consequence was they naturally grew together as they sought to meet the needs of the scattered settlements. The first Presbytery which was organized in Canada met in Halifax, 1770, and consisted of two ministers of the Associate Sessession Church of Scotland and two Congregational ministers. These four ordained Rev. Bruin Romgas Comingoe of the Dutch Reformed Church. In 1786 the first organic Union took place, when the Burghers and the Antiburghers, along with three ministers of the Church of Scotland, and two Congregational ministers, formed the Synod on the Presbyterian Church in Nova Scotia. Then followed eight other Unions, 1817, 1818, 1840, 1850, 1860, 1861, 1866, 1868 and 1875. So that from 1875 on, the Presbyterian Church in Canada was the result of nine former unions.

The same movement was proceeding within the Methodist Church in Canada. Altogether there were eight unions within that body, 1820, 1833, 1827, 1840, 1847, 1854, 1874, and 1884. And these unions included in all six-teen different bodies. The Congregational Church, too, was the result of two unions, which took place in 1906, and 1907. From 1770 until 1907 about forty different organizations belonging to the Methodist, Congregational or Presbyterian forms of church government were reduced to three, the Presbyterian Church in Canada, The Methodist Church in Canada, and the Congregational Church in Canada.

The Origin of the Movement.

In 1899 the Presbyterian Assembly asked the General Conference of the Methodist Church to arrange co-operation on the mission fields. In 1902 the Presbyterian Fraternal delegates to the General Conference of the Methodist Church suggested organic union, and committees were appointed by the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational Churches. The Anglicans and the Baptists were invited, but could not see their way to accept the invitation. In 1908, after five years, a Basis of Union was ready. In 1909-1911 it was accepted in principal by all churches, the Presbyterians declaring some amendments. It was revised in 1914, and the amendments accepted by Presbyteries. Then the whole basis was sent to Presbyteries under the Barrier Act and accepted. In 1916 the Assembly ratified the action of Presbyteries, notified the other churches, and the last of the three was committed to Union.

Canada Leads the Way.

In this rapid survey it will be seen that Canada has led the world in the matter of Church Union. The union of the Burghers and Antiburghers in 1817 was three years ahead of the union in Scotland. The union of the British Wesleyians and Methodist Episcopal in 1820 does not exist anywhere else. The union of the Free and United Presbyterian Churches in Scotland until 1901. The union of Free Presbyterians and the Church of Scotland, which took place in Canada in 1875, is only being discussed in Scotland now. And the different strands of Methodism in the Methodist Church in Canada are not united in England, the home of Methodism.

In 1917 the work of uniting the three Churches was interrupted by the war, but the way was gradually being paved by the union of churches in smaller places, so that in 1924 practically all overlapping throughout Canada had been eliminated.

The Consummation.

On June 10th, 1925, in the Arena, Toronto, the great consummation took place before seven thousand people, three hundred and fifty chosen delegates of the three Churches signing the Basis, and the whole parliament being in a celebration of the Lord's Supper. The Presbyterian members dedicated their church in given unto our fathers so witnessed to the Apostolic Gospel and standard bearers of the Church commissioned to make disciples of all nations, more especially in the manifestation of the Spirit in vigilance for the Faith of Kirk and Covenant, in care for the spread of education and devotion to sacred learning, receive ye our inheritance among them that are sanctified". The Congregationalists dedicated their Church in these words, "According to the grace given unto our fathers, as witnesses to the Apostolic Gospel and standard bearers of the Church commissioned to make disciples of all nations, more especially in the manifestation of the Spirit in evangelical zeal and human redemption, the testimony of spiritual experience, and the ministry of sacred song, receive ye our inheritance among them that are sanctified". The local union churches dedicated their members in these words, "According to the grace given unto our fathers and ministers of the Apostolic Gospel and standard bearers of the Church commissioned to make disciples of all nations, more especially in the manifestation of the spirit in the furtherance of community life within the Kingdom of God, and the principle, in things essential unity; and in things secondary liberty, receive ye our inheritance among them that are sanctified".

The First General Council.

For ten days succeeding this meeting the Executive of the Council wrestled with the practical problems of the new Church machinery. Boundaries were adjusted, and conferences were mapped out, and commissions appointed to meet during the year. The Presbyteries and Conferences which meets in Montreal in May, 1926, is the permanent organization of the church. Since then all Presbyteries have met, the Conferstituted, and have entered upon their task, to which the Church has been called, that of bringing four million dollars for missions and maintenance, is being satisfactorily accomplished.

Next of the series will appear next week.

—Mr. Will Rockwell, of Chicago, rendered two splendid solos at the Sunday evening service in Trinity Church. Mr. Rockwell, who was in splendid shape, sang "The Penitent", and "The Lord Is My Light".

—Master Glen Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lowry, Morven, who has been in the Kingston General Hospital for the past few weeks owing to injuries which he received by being hit by an automobile, has returned home, considerably improved.

—The Ladies' Aid of Empey Hill United Church held their annual bazaar at the home of Mrs. W. Pinney, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. The fancy work table was in charge of Mrs. M. P. Husband and Mrs. W. Waddingham, and the tea table was in charge of Mrs. W. T. Winters, and the fish pond in charge of Mrs. J. Mowers and Mrs. C. Pinney. A short programme was given, consisting of music and readings. A nice sum was realized by the sale.

—Mr. J. A. Tompkins and daughter and the Rev. G. E. Ross, of Bath, called one day recently at the home of Mr. F. W. Tompkins, Newburgh, to spend a little while with Mr. Tompkin's mother, who is in her 96th year, and is quite active as she comes from her room out into the kitchen, and has her meals. She is real bright for being that age, and there is nothing pleases her more than having a preacher call on her, as she is unable to get out to church. Her mind is on spiritual things, and one of her favorite chapters is St. John 14th.

—The Ladies' Aid and the W. M. S. of Empey Hill United Church held a united meeting at the home of Mrs. Andrew Pinney, on Dec. 9th. Mrs. Kimmerly, the President of the W. M. S., opened the meeting with a Hymn. Mrs. Kimmerly then told us how she had delivered a box made up by the W. M. S. to the Orphans' Home, Belleville, that afternoon. She also told how the home was run and the number of children sheltered, and of one girl, fifteen years old, who had been brought to the Home that week and who had never learned to read and who had never been to school or write. After telling of many more such sad cases, Mrs. Melburn, President of the Ladies' Aid, took charge of the meeting. After the usual business, Mrs. Melburn closed the meeting by the Benediction. Lunch was then served and enjoyed by all.

—A few days ago Mr. Wm. A. Jayne, South Napanee, employed a man to put a charge of dynamite in a well which was over 70 feet deep in order to loosen up the rock, so as to increase the flow of water. This loosened rock had to be removed by a drill, and when in operation the drill was caught by a projecting rock and held fast. After other ways were tried in vain, more dynamite was used; this time only cutting the cable off the drill. The drill is worth about $275, and a total loss. Mr. Chalk is now at work drilling another well near the abandoned well.

Hospital for Sick Children

67 College St., Toronto, 2, Ont.

Christmas, 1925.

Dear Mr. Editor:—

This is the fiftieth year—the semi-centennial of the Hospital for Sick Children. It is the Golden Anniversary of an institution which started out in 1875 with a limited equipment to care children medically of their sickness and to fit them surgically of their disabilities. Fifty years now passed and the tiny hospital has grown into one of the greatest institutions of its kind in the whole world.

The people of this province demanded this service — and they have made it possible by their Christmas Time gifts. They are rewarded by the knowledge that thousands of Ontario children will grow up into manhood or womanhood blessing the "little white cots" wherein they were restored and strengthened to play a full part in the battle of life.

To win back health for six thousand boys and girls was the measure of the Hospital's ward-service alone this year. Besides that there were over half a hundred thousand attendances in the Out-Patient Department, where the less serious cases are treated. All this costs a great deal of money, even though the doctors give freely of their skill and the nurses of their care. There is board and lodging and laundry to be provided, besides the best that can be procured in the way of all the medical and surgical supplies required to treat the myriad ailments and accidents to which children are subject.

In order to maintain its high standard of efficiency and also to widen the scope of its service through clinics conducted all over Ontario, the Hospital is compelled to borrow heavily during the year. On the occasion of its fiftieth Christmas an appeal is made to the public for the funds which will allow the Hospital for Sick Children to enter upon its second half-century of service with its courage renewed by a credit balance in the bank.

It is indeed a noble cause which I feel sure you will cordially commend to your readers.

Faithfully yours,
IRVING E. ROBERTSON,
Chairman Appeal Committee

Note—This Hospital does not receive an appropriation from the Federation for Community Service Drive.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Sober Brother—I've come to bail you out.

Intoxicated Brother (in jail)—You don't—hic—need to bail me—hic—out. I'm not full.

The foreman looked him up and down. "Are you a mechanic?" he asked.

"No, sorr," was the answer. "Oi'm a McCarthy."

Paring a corn is both risky and ineffective. It is much better to use Holloway's Corn Remover and eradicate them entirely.

Clara—Would you marry a man to reform him?

Cynthia—I suppose I shall have to. There isn't one of them suits me just as he is."

I said to Mr. Bottles the other day as low it must be pleasant to be married to a clever man. "Yes," she says, "but I've only been married once."

Complete in itself, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator does not require the assistance of any other medicine to make it effective. It does not fail to do its work.

Judge—Prisoner, the jury finds you guilty.

Prisoner—That's all right, my lord! I know you're too clever to be influenced by what they say.

It Testifies For Itself.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil needs no testimonial of its powers other than itself. Whoever tries it for coughs or colds, for cuts or contusions, for sprains or burns, for pains in the limbs or body, will know that the medicine proves itself and needs no guarantee. This shows why this Oil is in general use.

Wife—Percy, if a man were to sit on your hat, what would you say?

Husband—That he was a confounded silly ass.

Wife—Then don't sit on it any longer, dear, there's a dear.

Mother's Value This Of.—Mothers who know how suddenly croup may seize their children and how necessary quick action is in applying relief, always keep at hand a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, because experience has taught them that this is an excellent preparation for the treatment of this ailment. And they are right, for its various uses render it a valuable medicine.

An elderly examiner was questioning a young medical student.

"Suppose," he began, "there was a compound comminution, and a man was blown into the air, you, as the nearest medical man, being called in, what would you do first?"

"Wait for him to come down, sir," was the prompt reply.

Miller's Worm Powders are a pleasant medicine for worm-infected children, and they will take it without coaxing. When directions are followed it will not injure the most delicate child, as there is nothing of an injurious nature in its composition. They will speedily rid a child of worms and restore the health of the little sufferer whose vitality has become impaired by the attacks of these internal pests.

Two preachers met at a church service recently, and during a conversation one of them stated that when he first entered the ministry he delivered a sermon three hours in length.

"Weren't you tired before you had finished asked the other.

"Yes," was the answer, "but it would have done your heart good to see how tired the people were."

Asthma Can Be Cured. Its sufferings is as needless as it is terrible to endure. After its many years of relief of the most stubborn cases to suffer for even the perfect effectiveness of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Comfort of body and peace of mind return with its use and nights of sound sleep come back for you. Ask your druggist; he can supply you.

A professor of music was asked to decide on the relative powers of two twenty-year-old talents existed entirely in their own imagination.

After hearing them, the professor said to one: "You are the worst singer I ever heard!"

"Then," exclaimed the other, "I win!"

"No," answered the professor, "you can't sing at all!"

Ezra went to the doctor to learn what ailed him, and the doctor said: "You ought to take off flesh. Get a day and get out more."

"And, so I got a car and got out more," says Ezra. "I got out six times in one block and took off a little flesh in four different places. The last time I got out was through the windshield. That was the time I took off the most flesh."

VITAMINS A NEW NAME

BUT IT EXPLAINS MANY LIVE STOCK PROBLEMS NOT NEW.

It Is Important to Know How the Absence of Certain Elements of Food Will Affect Development of Animals.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Young animals reared in nature's way, where the mother was free to select and pick up the food plants that her instinct lead her to, did not suffer from the nutritional disease common to young animals reared under domestication. All men have not learned the simple lesson from nature, taught to those willing to observe the unrestrained young animal that instinctively banks in the sun and eats green plants. Man's way of herding animals and poultry together in dark yards and stables, and the use of fried feeds that do not carry the vitamins necessary to proper nutrition, have too often resulted disastrously for the young animal. Sunshine supplies something, dry feeds frequently fail to supply the necessary something, required for proper development.

Calves, pigs and chickens that are born apparently strong, fail to develop properly unless they get in their daily feed the mysterious food elements that we speak of as vitamins. Diseases due to improper feeding have been recognized for many years, but exact knowledge of the lacking elements have been known but a short time.

Vitamin A. is soluble in fat and is called fat soluble A. It is present in greatest amount in butter, yolk of eggs, green leaves, yellow corn, green alfalfa and cod liver oil. Young animals given feeds that are absolutely lacking in Vitamin A. develop a sore eye condition called Xerophthalmia. Chickens lose weight, the comb becomes pale, the feathers ruffled and show progressive muscular weakness. A white exudate collects in the eye. On post mortem, birds that have developed this nutritional disease show small white or yellowish raised nodules in the tissue about the size of a millet seed and irregular in outline. These lesions are scattered over the surface of the oesophagus. In addition to the nodules in the oesophagus, birds suffering from Vitamin A. deficiency may show characteristic changes in the kidneys. They are enlarged, pale in color, and streaked with a network of white lines. Occasionally there is a general distribution of urates throughout the body and the surface of the intestinal organs appear as if sprinkled with flour. The use of green feeds, yellow corn or cod liver oil prevents the condition.

Vitamin B. also known as water soluble B. This vitamin is present in green leaves, fruit, eggs, yeast, and the covering of most grains. Its presence in the feed prevents polyneuritis in poultry, and beriberi in man. In birds, the disease is characterized by nervousness and inability to co-ordinate muscular movements. Paralysis of the legs, frequent and sometimes paralysis of the muscles of the neck. The internal organs appear shrunken and darker in color than normal. The muscle tissue is also darker in color than normal. The free use of foods, such as milk, fruit, tubers, green plants, bran and germ meal, prevents the antineuritic condition.

Vitamin C. The lack of this vitamin in the food leads to the disease known as scurvy. It is usually called the anti-scorbutic vitamin. The main sources of Vitamin C are fresh green vegetables, citrus fruits and to a limited extent in fresh meat, tubers and fresh milk. In poultry, the deficiency is shown in a general unthrifty condition of the feathers. In man, the symptoms are too well known to need mention here.

Vitamin D. The presence of this vitamin in the food prevents the condition known as rickets or leg weakness in young chicks, children and young pigs. This vitamin is present in green leaves, milk and cod liver oil. One per cent. of cod liver oil added to the chick's ration will prevent leg weakness. Rickets may also be prevented by exposing the young to bright sunshine, the ultra violet may be absorbed by the skin and have its influence on body metabolism.

A mixed diet for man containing in addition to cereals and green vegetables, also some milk and fresh meat, is the best safeguard against the possibility of a vitamin deficiency, and, furthermore, insures an adequate supply of inorganic salts and protein of proper biologic. For animals, green feeds in season, well saved legume hay and roots for the rest of the year, and sunshine all the time. For poultry, green feeds, milk, yellow corn and sunshine all the time will keep nutritional diseases away.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. College, Guelph.

Ideal Apple Tree.

The ideal apple tree is one that has been so pruned from the beginning that its main limbs are well placed and form strong crotches that will carry the tree to maturity without breakages or injury, and enable the tree to bear annual crops of satisfactory proportions and quality at low cost and without the necessity for the use of props.

Tieing on Loads.

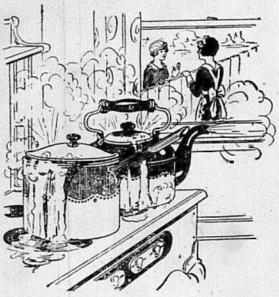
For tieing on loads, rope cannot be beaten. Any person who has had experience in drawing baled hay over rough roads knows how difficult it is to keep the top in place. A rope about fifty feet long, drawn tight around the top course of bales will hold them in one solid cluster. Each bale then helps to hold the other.

Self Feeder for Pigs.

Do not overlook the advantages of the self feeder in the case of fine pigs. By getting their feed from a feeder they eat more, thereby making larger gains, and come to marketable size at an earlier date. Less feed is required per gain gains and much labor is eliminated.

Congressman Cellar, of New York, a wet with a wet name, in proposing a Nation-wide referendum on prohibition, says that it has been asserted that the country is divided into two classes—those who still have a little and those who have a little still—and he calls for a show-down at the polls.

When the Pot Boils Over—Makes no Difference to the New Element—SPEEDIRON
PATD AND REG'D. 1923



NOTHING can damage a Speediron cooking Element, because nothing can get into or near the heating coil.

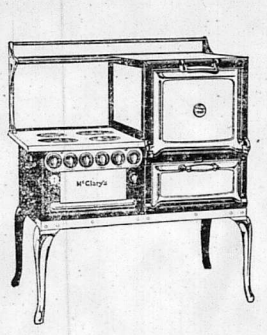
In the open element every time a pot boils over there is risk of a short circuit that will burn out the coil. That is why coils cannot last as long in an open element as they do in protected elements. Generally the porcelain insulation is just a bed of cracked and broken porcelain after a few months use.

It's Protected

The old style, solid porcelain or cast iron protected element was a long step in the right direction, but when a coil burned out, as coils must some time, the whole element was a total loss, because the coil was inaccessible or encased inside solid iron or porcelain.

McClary's Speediron Element has changed the whole structure of the cooking element—it is different from any other cooking element because it is removable and the heating coil can be easily and quickly removed.

The Speediron Element can be removed instantly—no wires, no bolts nor screws—the burnt out coil can be replaced almost as easily as you replace a burnt out light buib—and at little expense.



It's Removable

The Speediron Element removes the last worrying weakness from the Electric Range and puts in the hands of the housewife a cooking range as simple to operate and keep in repair, as durable and undamageable as the old-fashioned cook stove.

In short, the Speediron Element is removable, renewable, durable—trouble-proof and speedy.

Water or soap or boiling grease cannot damage a McClary's Electric Range—it can be washed and kept clean.

Come and See It

The Speediron Element was originated and patented by McClary's and is used exclusively in McClary's Electric Ranges—can be had in no other.

If you have an Electric Range you will want to see this new, splendid improvement, because you know all about Electric Range troubles now. If you are going to buy an Electric Range you should see the Speediron Element in McClary's Electric Range—the trouble-proof Element. The new Speediron Elements are now on view at all leading dealers. Come and see it—today.

Sorrows of an Author.

Many of the sorrows of the author in this living present are quite as active as 150 years ago when William Oldys lived and died in London. The "blue pencil" was as remorseless then, though under some name now forgotten. Oldys tells how he wrote some valuable article of nearly two sheets and how the bookseller, "for sordid gain and to save a little expense in print paper, got Mr. John Campbell to cross it and cramp it, and play the devil with it, till he squeezed it into less compass than a sheet." The book borrower of that time was the same neglectful person that many of us know today, and Oldys sighs over books he has lent which have never been returned., He was a keen antiquary, delighting especially in musty manuscripts, and, half in temper and half in good humor, tells of "Old Counselor Fine, who gave me a parcel of manuscript and promised me others, which he never gave me nor anything else besides a barrel of oysters."

An Early Ironclad.

Many people imagine that the first armored ship was the "iron cased frigate" Gloria, launched for the French navy in 1857, yet, according to the Popular Science Monthly, the Dutch built an armored vessel nearly 200 years earlier. That was in 1685, when Antwerp was besieged by the Spaniards. The Dutch took one of their biggest ships, cut her down and erected on the deck a battery with armored and sloping sides, within which they mounted eight of the heaviest guns the factories of the day could produce. The roof of the battery formed an armored breastwork for men armed with crossbows and shotguns, and there were gratings in the roof to provide ventilation for the battery below. A contemporary picture of the Fluis Beill, as she was called, bears a striking resemblance to the Merrimac, which was designed and built on precisely the same principles.

Tendency Is What Counts.

Of course there can be no such thing as perfection in this vale of tears, but the man who turns his back upon it on that account hasn't good common sense. The man who is low down and tending upward is nearer perfection than the man who is high up and tending downward. Tendency is the profoundest fact in life—in religion, education, society, politics. When an astronomer sees a comet for the first time he will ascertain its direction, even if its progress is only a minute or two, and will describe its course among the stars for weeks ahead. He simply studies the tendency, and one can tell where a man will be ten years from now by the same sort of mathematics. That tendency may reach human perfection if it is started right and the direction maintained

Superstition Still Lives.

Writing of medical superstitions which are the only reason for the persistent use of certain ancient drugs, Dr. Horatio C. Wood, Jr., of Philadelphia says in the Journal of the American Medical Association:

"Man, despite his education, is still a superstitious animal. Two or three years ago a well known psychologist made a poll of the faculty of Harvard university and found that a majority of these men, representing the highest type of intellectual development, were willing to confess to a more or less profound belief in some pet superstition as foolish as the old notion of a black cat or a broken mirror as the harbinger of misfortune."

Tuneful Sheep Bells.

Some wonderful sheep bells used to be made by a blacksmith at Pyecombe, a little village on the top of the Sussex down leading over the Brighton from the London road. To give a special tone to these bells the blacksmith beat a quantity of brass into the metal of which they were made, not melting the two together, but simply beating them, so that the brass lies in big flakes in the iron, and this gives a clear, rather metallic tone to the bell. A set of sheep bells numbered about twenty-one and ranged in tone from the big tenor bell, measuring five to six inches across, to quite small, highly pitched treble ones.—Country Life.

Recognition.

One morning on the street car I noticed a large negro woman, very much overdressed and, judging from her expression, much pleased with herself.

A negro girl of about seventeen came in and sat beside her, saying genially, "Howdy do, Missus Brown?"

The woman turned and, looking down upon the girl, said;

"Chile, yo' face looks now'ful similar, but Ah fails to organize yo'."—Exchange.

The Apocalypse.

There is no other book in the New Testament about which so much has been written and so little understood. Dr. South said of it. "It either finds a man mad or makes him so." It is said of Calvin that he showed his wisdom in not writing a commentary on this, as he did on other books.—Chadwick.

The Only Chance.

Old Gotrox—Can you draw me a will that cannot be broken?

Lawyer—er—I've never drawn one as yet, and— Old Gotrox—Then you doubtless could, for a bout it while legal.—Boston Globe.

Musical Note.

She—Every time a breecher, the grand opera tenor, gets a sore throat it costs him $1,000. He—Gee, his throat must be as long as a giraffe's!—Musical America.

During a Thunderstorm.

Do not use the telephone. The telephone wires may receive a heavy charge.

Keep away from stoves, radiators and the like. They are large metallic masses, likely to become heavily charged.

Avoid screen doors or other metallic bodies connecting with the exterior of the building.

Keep away from chimneys and open screened windows.

Out of doors the most dangerous places are under isolated trees and near wire fences in open fields.

Small sheds and other shelters are dangerous if isolated from larger buildings.

Thick timber is undoubtedly the safest place to seek out of doors, since a single tree in a forest is not so likely to receive a stroke as a single person or an object in an open space of equal area.

He Who Shirks His Work.

The man who shirks his work, who treats the service of labor with indifference, who sacrifices his efficiency on the altar of self indulgence, loafs on his job and plans to see how little he can do and not be caught, is to be the most pitied man on the face of the earth.

He thinks he is cheating his employer. But the employer is not the man he is cheating. Far from it. He is cheating himself. More than cheating himself, he is assassinating opportunity and paving the way to utter ruin and disgrace.

The man who cannot be trusted with labor for which he is honestly paid is just as despicable as the man who refuses to pay for labor honestly performed. The shirker is essentially dishonest. Unfaithful to himself, setting the bomb that will sooner or later send him to poverty, he is a menace and an abomination.

Why Coins Are Milled.

Did you ever look at the edge of a dime or quarter? They are different from pennies and nickels, for all silver and gold coin have what are called "milled" edges, while the edges of pennies and nickels are smooth. The reasons for this is that some dishonest persons used to clip pieces off the coins, especially the gold ones, and then sell these scraps of precious metal when they had saved a great many. Every year the nation lost large sums of money this way, and the thieves would smooth the edges off so well that it was hard to find out who was guilty. The best way of stopping this practice was found to be to "mill" the edges of the most valuable coins so that no one could pare them without letting it be seen at once.

Two New York Streets.

The following information as to the widest and narrowest streets from curb to curb and from property line to property line is for the old city of New York, now the borough of Manhattan.

Rachel lane, near Grand street, between Goerck and Mangin streets, is one of the narrowest streets, having a width of ten feet between property lines. Delancey street, east of Norfolk street, has a width of 200 feet between property lines and is the widest street. Rachel lane has no sidewalks. Delancey street has a width of 165 feet between curbs.

Shingle Roofs.

There is a definite record of an early use of shingles for roofing in England in pre-Norman times. At that time this method of making roofs was common. The shingles were thin pieces of split wood, usually oak. Many old examples still exist in England, especially on the wooden towers and spires of East Anglia.

Big Brazilians.

The average height of the Bororos, who live in the southwest of Brazil, is five feet four inches. They are the tallest people in the world.

"Yes, dear," responded the husband meekly. "I found you."

A Gift that Increases in Value

Presentation Covers are provided for Christmas Gift Books.

WHAT DID YOU GIVE LAST CHRISTMAS? Toys for the kiddies—most of them broken by now. "Something useful" for the grown-ups—now worn out or forgotten. Cash to your employees—appreciated but soon spent. Other presents—hurriedly bought and perhaps ill-chosen. Are they remembered now?

Suppose this year you give them each a Bank Book containing an initial deposit, and urge them to add to it regularly. Could anything be more suitable?

Add "Royal Bank Pass Books" to your list of Christmas Gifts.

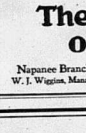
You need many things



LOOK forward! Some day you will need a new binder—a plow—a harrow—a tractor—or more stock. Your house and barns will need re-painting, your roofs must sooner or later be repaired. How will you pay for it all?

If you contemplate enlarging your live-stock holdings, consult our local manager. This bank is always willing to assist productive enterprise.

A savings account in our local branch is your best preparation for meeting expenses of this kind. Deposit a small part of your returns as they come in. The amount will quickly grow, and it will always be at your command when needed.

Kitty Danced—And Now She Pays

She is tall and slender, with coquettish blue eyes and hair that is very distinctly auburn, bobbed, of course, for Kitty is nothing, if not up-to-date. Yet her up-to-dateness didn't include the ability to guard her health. Dances and parties, cold and wet spells, then more parties and more sick spells brought on what her mother might have foreseen had she thought.

No, you can't blame Kitty. Her youth, her prettiness and her popularity, her gaiety, friends by the score, all these are things to be enjoyed. Another year in the kindly care of the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives, where expert medical attention and nursing are here, will perhaps see her restored to health and usefulness.

Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton, President, 123 College Street, Toronto 2, Ontario.

A Correction.

An article appeared in your paper some time ago, stating Dr. Harold Ward, from Englewood, New Jersey, had purchased from Mr. B. Charters the Islands in Hay Bay known as Wapcose and Nut. The correspondent was evidently misinformed as the Islands have been purchased by D. W. Young, Stirlville, and not Dr. Harold Ward.

OBITUARY

Vernon Windover.

The very untimely and tragicly sudden death of Vernon R. Windover cast a deep pall of sorrow and gloom over Selby and the whole community around. At seventeen years of age, in the very prime and promise of manhood to be snatched away by death, leaving alone the father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Windover, is one of the inscrutable mysteries of Providence. Vernon was a member of the Sunday School, the Y. P. League, and of the United Church of Canada at Selby. The funeral services were conducted in the United Church at Selby, on Thursday, December 3rd, by his Pastor, Rev. Jas. Batstone, assisted by Rev. T. H. P. Anderson. Among the many beautiful floral gifts was a beautiful wheaf from Vernon's class in the Sunday School and the members of the Y. P. League. The very large number that attended the funeral was a token of the very deep sympathy the whole community extend to the sadly bereaved parents. The boys of "The Lone Wreath" of the Sunday School carried the many floral tributes, and acted as pallbearers.

TOWN COUNCIL

The last meeting of the Council for the year convened on Tuesday night.

The members present were Reeve Graham, Councillors Dunbar, Howitt, Jewell, MacGregor and Roy.

Mayor Ming presided.

Coun. MacGregor, Chairman of Finance, submitted a summary of the receipts and expenditure for the year.

The total receipts up to Dec. 15th amounted to $191,625.92, and expenditure $194,547.56. Taxes paid to date $87,084.43. The taxes remaining unpaid amount to about $4000.

Reeve Graham, Chairman of Streets, said he had received complaints from residents along the line of the Mill Street sewer to the effect that water from the sewer was backing up into their cellars. The committee decided to have the sewer flushed and try and locate the trouble.

A By-law was passed authorizing the Mayor and Treasurer to borrow the sum of $20,000 from the Standard Bank to meet current expenses.

The usual By-law, fixing polling places and appointing Deputy Returning Officers and Poll Clerks for the Municipal Elections in January, was also passed. The location of the polling booths and names of deputies and poll Clerks will be found in another column.

A financial statement from the Department of Public Utilities for the year was read in Council. The receipts from water rates this year amounted to $16,956.15.

Accounts.

The following accounts were ordered paid :—

C. L. Maybee, coal	$27.00
Napanee Cemetery Co.	5.00
Webster's Grocery	1.39
W. A. Grange, Town Clerk, postage for the year	5.00
Madole Hardware Co.	6.78
T. H. Huffman	4.00
J. M. Graham	50.30

An account of E. J. Pollard, for printing, $175.50, was referred.

HOCKEY.

Now that cold weather has set in, the hockey-bugs will no doubt be going strong very soon. Already some of the boys have had a game or two on the old "steamshovel". It is doubtful whether there will be a Ray of Quinte League this season, but if there is or not, Napanee will have a hunger season with plenty of good hockey. Two more players have taken up residence here. These are Mr. Thompson, of Trenton, and Mr. Foxton, of Sydenham Juniors. Both are said to be classy players.

The teams of the Napanee Hockey League will all be very strong, and no doubt they will put up a good brand of hockey.

The Gibbard Industrial League will be comprised of some pretty strong teams. The Packers will doubtless line up with Harry Babcock in goal, Dougr. Fraser and Harold Johnston on the defence, and George Reid, Russell Wagar, Harry Vine, Jack MacPherson, and Tom Fox on the forward line.

The Finishers have a strong sextet in Gladwin Loucks, goal, Charlie Cornwall, Hugh Hicks, Dude Hearns, Bouze Welsh, Tompson, Gerald Johnston, Ray Loucks, Norman Dupont and Joe Deschene.

The Cabinetmakers will have a strong team, with Ray Huffman in goal, and Ralph Wilson, Arnold Rogers, Jim Naphin, Fred Bentley, Gilbert Fox, and a dozen others.

The Mechanics will trot out a strong team picked from the following : Billy Houle, Ted Harrison, Reg. Smith, Roy Moore, Garfield Thompson, Ted Bentley, Ward Wagar, Bud Fraser, Authmyre Pybus, Everett Fraser, Mr. Foxton, Claude Fraser, and a dozen others.

A plan is under way to have a Senior, Intermediate and Junior Town League. As there will be no Bay of Quinte League this season, the Quinte League players and other older players will be grouped into teams to form a Senior Town League.

One suggestion as to what team the players would play for would be to put the names of the players into a hat and each manager draw in turn. This would, no doubt, prevent any squabbling between managers as to what team the player belonged.

Some of the fans will doubtless recall the Town League of a few years back. The games then were as thrilling as could be wanted, but they will be even more so, as several well known players have entered the town since then. First there is Tommy Kirby. Kirby was noted as the fastest centre man in the Eastern Junior O. H. A. last year. Then there is C. A. Shoemaker, who played centre ice for O. A. C. last year, and was the mainstay of the team. Then Harry Thompson, one of the fastest players on the Trenton Intermediates, is now living here. Dick Foxton, of Sydenham Juniors, is said to be the fastest player in the Frontenac County League. He is now living here. Harry Skitch, who now runs a studio on Dundas St., was said to be a fast and accurate player. He hails from London and Cobourg. Then last, but certainly not least, there are our own boys. These players are well known to the fans and are known to be real classy players, Jim Naphin, Harold and Gerald Johnston, Fred Huffman, Harry Babcock, Brock Hudgins, Harry McNeill, Fred Bentley, Authmyre Pybus, Ray and Ross Loucks, Lawrence Douglas, Wm. Barrett, and a host of others need no introduction to the fans of the town.

The Intermediate League will be last year's Senior League. The N. C. I. have decided to enter a team in the League if they can procure afternoon hours for practice at the rink.

"B" Company, St. Pats and Gibbards will in all probability enter a team.

The Junior League will be composed of players under 16 years of age, and will be comprised of teams from the different churches.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY

The Library Board has just received a consignment of books fresh from the press. Among them will be found books to suit every taste. Among those for the young people are the following :—

"Stories of Grit".
"The Whip Hand".
"Gordon and His Friends."
"Alice in Orchestralia."
"The Little Lady in Green."
"Clearport Boys".
"Pretty Polly Perkins".
"Judy's Perfect Year".
"Barbara of Telegraph Hill".
"Daughters of the Dominion".

In the fiction class will be found the following :—

"Wild Geese", by Martha Ostenso.
"Queer Judson", by Joseph C. Lincoln.
"A Son of His Father", by Harold Bell Wright.
"The High Forfeit", by Basil King.
"Emily Climbs", by L. M. Montgomery.
"The Keeper of the Bees", by Gene Stratton-Porter.
"Broken Waters", by Frank L. Packard.
"Winners and Losers", by Alice Hegan Rice.
"Red Eagle Island", by Kenneth-Payson-Kempton.
"East in the Golden Gain", by P. F. Wisterman.
"Bobbie", by Margaret Piper Chalmers.
"Swedie", by Ethel Hueston.
"Treading the Wine Press", by Rsiph Connor.
"And They Lived Happy Ever After", by Meredith Nicholson.
"Belshazzar", by William Stearns Davis.
"The Love Rack", by Cecil Roberts.
"The Unhurrying Chase", by H. F. Prescott.
"Thunder on the Left", by Christopher Morley.
"The Teddy Expedition", by Kai R. Dahl.
"The Rim of the Prairie", by Bess Streeter Aldrich.
"Gabriel Samara Peace-Maker", by E. Phillips Oppenheim.
"Youth's Adventure", by Allan A. Hunter.

The non-fiction collection has been enriched by :—

"Scott's Last Expedition", a most inspiring little volume compiled from extracts from the Captain's journal.
"Life", by W. D. Maxwell. No one can read this book without knowing himself better.
"The True Story of Hiawatha", a forceful discussion of the origin of the Indian race.
"The First World Flight", a thrilling story of the adventures of the first airmen to fly around the earth.

The Board would like to remind the readers of The Beaver that the library is sorely in need of funds to carry on its work. Why not present your friend, neighbor, or servant with a membership ticket, a present that will provide entertainment and pleasure for 365 days.

DECEMBER ROD AND GUN.

The Christmas number of Rod and Gun just issued seems to be just the thing for the rest periods of the male members of the family during the Christmas holidays. A wealth of good reading for the healthy man loving the outdoors is to be found in this issue.

The stories and articles this month are not merely seasonable but cover all sporting activities and seasons. There are good hunting stories that are always good reading, while trout fishing in Nova Scotia is Bonnycastle Dale's theme and other fishing of all kinds is touched on in G. P. Sladen's Fishing Notes. A good article in the Guns and Ammunition Department this month is Sighting the Hunting Rifle by Major Townsend Whelan.

The series of articles In the Big Woods of Canada and Breezes from the West, are retaining their very fine quality and Frise has another winner in the January cartoon.

Would not be Without Zutoo Tablets At Any Cost

Mr. A. O. Norton, the millionaire Jack Manufacturer, of Boston, who recently died, was a great "booster" for Zutoo Tablets.

He suffered from headaches from childhood and when he found Zutoo Tablets stopped these headaches in a few minutes and left no bad effect, he began recommending them to his family and friends. In an unsolicited letter, Mr. Norton says in closing :

"My family use them when ever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from Headache and they never failed to give quick relief. I always carry Zutoo Tablets in my grip on the road and WOULD NOT BE WITHOUT THEM AT ANY COST."

HOCKEY.

A large number of hockey players staged a fast game on the "Steam-Shovel", on Saturday afternoon. Some of the boys showed real class and the onlookers saw some real hockey. Combination plays were numerous and several times the players of each side would sweep down the ice three abreast and their passing was real good. Harry Skitch showed himself to be a real player. He skates like a demon and his stick-handling is a treat to watch. Harold Johnston was also up and showed himself to be a real classy player. He breaks fast and certainly can handle his stick. Tommy Kirby has been getting into condition at the Armouries, along with Fred Huffman and Fred Bentley. Kirby is a real good stickhandler and can skate with anybody. He has a shot like a rifle bullet and certainly knows where to put it. Fred Huffman and Fred Bentley are rounding into shape. Huffman is getting back his old cannon-ball shot and is determined to be in the pink of condition as soon as he steps on the ice.

Jim Naphin is already in condition and no doubt is in for a fine season. Jim is a good fast skater, breaks fast and backs a shot that few goaltenders can see.

Fred Bentley is always in condition and expects to have his best season so far. Fred is a young player, but carries himself like a veteran.

Harry McNeill expects to don the Blue and White again this year. Harry is one of the finest players in this part of the province, and several O.H.A. teams have been after him for a number of years.

Harry Babcock, plucky goal-tender of the Blue and White, will probably don the pads again this year. Harry has been injured more than any other player in the game, but has always stuck to his job. Baldness the fans will recall the number of times Harry has been carried off the ice, but every time he has come back. Harry shows the crowd that he is no quitter, and that no injury can keep him out of the game.

Perhaps the fans will recall the time that Harry was slashed accidentally across the face. With his nose and upper lip terribly lacerated, Harry skated to the dressing room, and with that terrible pain in his face he returned and finished the game. The fans of the town owe something to this plucky net-guardian, and something should be done to show that they appreciate his efforts. "Hats off to Harry Babcock".

Mr. C. A. Shoemaker, of the N.C.I. staff, will be a candidate for the team. Shoemaker is said to be a fast and tricky player and a man who uses his brain a lot.

Mr. Thompson, a Trenton whirlwind, will also try out. Thompson is said to be a former O.H.A. player, and is a whirlwind.

Mr. Foxton, a Sydenham whirlwind, is a candidate for the forward line, and is said to be an exceptionally fast man, with a terrific shot.

It is said that Leon Spencer, Napanee's former stellar defence man, will get into action again. The fans will doubtless recall his famous rushes, his flashy stickhandling and his sure checking. A few years back Spencer stickhandled through the whole Point Anne team, and drew Pat Boland, the finest goal-tender in the league, out of the net, and shot the puck there for the only Napanee goal of the evening. The team always worked better with Leon behind them, and it is hoped he will return to the game.

It is rumored that our old friend, Brock Hudgins, is playing for Kingston. Brock is an excellent player, but perhaps will wear the Red, White and Blue of the Frontenac Regiment at Kingston. Vic Merrill is said to be trying out with the Kingston Intermediates and is said to be creating an impression on the rail-birds in the limestone city.

Merrill was one of the finest players who ever wore the Blue and White, and packs a terrific shot.

It is expected that the Bay of Quinte League will operate again this season with Napanee, Kingston, and Picton in the race. If Picton enters the league the fans will see our former net-guardian, Harry Campney, in action.

Last year, when Napanee defeated Point Anne 6-5, on their own ice, Campney stopped everything that could be stopped and then some. Campney would look pretty good in a Blue and White uniform this year.

Lawrence Doughas will likely be out again this year. Larrie is one of the finest players in this district, and ought to catch a place.

Another fast man, in the person of Harry Sagar, will be out, while Gerald Johnston may be prevailed upon to return to the game.

A host of other players will be trying out, and Napanee will have the fastest team in years.

Jail Visitor—"Are you in for life, my poor fellow?"

Bigamist—"Worse'n that, lady. I'm in for a double life, an' got two wives waitin' for me when I get out."

ANNA AMELIA JOHNSON PASSES AWAY

Grandma Storms, as she was called by all, passed away at the home of her son, W. P. Storms, in this city, on December 5th, 1925. Ann Amelia Johnson was born August 13th, 1831, in Addington County, Ontario, Canada, and was raised in that country with a family of four brothers and five sisters, she being the last surviving one. She was married to Mr. Nelson Storms, who died in 1880. She was again married to Silas Johnson, after visiting her old home in the east for a few years, coming to Pembina County in 1882, and has lived in the vicinity of Joliette ever since. She had two sons, one dying at the age of eighteen years. Since 1896 she has made her home with her son, W. P. Storms. On August 13th last she celebrated her 94th birthday surrounded by her friends in Pembina and Joliette. She retained her happy disposition, her bright mental faculties and fairly good physical strength until the Friday before she passed away, when she was taken critically ill, which terminated in her death last Wednesday.

Funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon at one o'clock. Interment in the Hamilton cemetery.—The Pioneer Express, Pembina, North Dakota, Friday, December 11th, 1925.

The Terror of Asthma comes like a thief in the night with its dreadful throttling, robbing its victim of breath. It seems beyond the power of human aid to relieve until one tried is made of that remarkable preparation, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Then relief comes with a rush. Life becomes worth living, and, if the remedy be used persistently, the disease is put permanently to rout. Take no substitute.

"You have turned very industrious lately, Jim," said one man to another.

"That I have," replied the other. "I was up before the magistrate last week for assaulting Jones, and the magistrate said that if I came back on the same charge he would fine me two pounds."

"But," said the first speaker. "And you're working hard so as to keep your hands off Jones?"

"Don't believe it," said the industrious man. "I'm working hard to save up the forty shillings."

The Perfect Christmas

By John A. Cooper.

Tommy Scott's mother died when he was only two years old, and his father, who had served overseas, had come back to Urbanville, their home town, a physical wreck. Contracting pneumonia shortly after his return, he also had passed away leaving Tommy, then a boy of five, alone in the world.

After the funeral Tommy had been taken away to a squalid, downtown back street to live with people who, in every sense of the word matched their surroundings. The consequence being that Tommy had been ill treated, ill clad and beaten from pillar to post from that day on. By his tenth birthday he had become just a waif of the street, commonly known by his nickname "Tatters".

It was only about two weeks until Christmas, and stores were beginning to decorate their windows with all the splendid array which is symbolic of yule-tide.

"Tatters" and Mary Bain, a child of nine, his constant companion, were standing gazing longingly at one of these windows.

"I wish Santa Claus would bring me that big doll", said Mary, "what are you going to ask Santa Claus to bring you, Tatters"?

"Pshaw ! What's the use of asking him to bring me anything; he never does it; but, gee ! Mary I would like that box of soldiers over there", said that boy of soldiers over there", said "Tatters", pointing to a large box at the back of the window. Then with a look of hopelessness, he exclaimed, "Oh, Mary ! if only my daddy were here we'd get everything we wanted; he would make Santa Claus come and see us".

Snow, which had threatened all afternoon, began to fall, and the two unfortunate children wended their way homeward. "Tatters" opened the door and went into the broken-down, dilapidated house that he called home.

He quietly slipped into the little room off the kitchen and prepared for bed. His little mind was revolving with the injustice in the world. He was puzzled to know why some children could get so much, and others like Mary and he could never get anything. As sleep began to overpower him he prayed "Oh ! dear Daddy, please send Santa Claus to see us kids this year."

Several days after "Tatters" had offered up that childish prayer, John Urban was sitting in his spacious drawing room in company with his only child, Winnie. He had started work at an early age in the big steel factories at the east end of the town. Working hard, aiding help from none, he had climbed in the business until now he owned the factories and controlled nearly every other business of importance in town. He had grown stern and morose from his years of scheming and hard work. When his wife died he had become a crafty, hard old man, seemingly without sympathy for his fellowmen. The only time he seemed cheerful and happy was when in company with Winnie, who was the apple of her dad's eye.

They talked of many things, and finally Winnie said, "Daddy, I've got my list made up of the presents I want to give at Christmas. Will you go with me and help me pick out some?" Certainly, my child, and by the way, what would you like for Christmas?" "There's only one thing, daddy, that is, please arrange a big treat and invite all the poor and needy folks in town, and give them a happy Christmas for me."

John Urban had never given anything away without expecting some return, and while he would do almost anything for his daughter, this was one thing he had steadfastly refused to do. "Now, Winnie", John Urban became again the stern, hard man and he said these words, "we have discussed this subject before, and I told you I would never give money to treat these people. Let them work and earn the same as I had to do." "But, Dad," Winnie pleaded, "just think how much they would appreciate—"

"Bah !" her father cut in, "they have no sense of appreciation. Anyhow, I absolutely refuse to help them so we will close the subject. Please do not refer to it again."

He got up, and going into the hall, put on his overcoat, cap and gloves, and leaving the house he climbed into the racy-looking car standing outside and drove away. As he drove down town his thoughts were centred on Winnie and her pleadings for the poor.

His mind pictured again those early days of his life when he had struggled for existence, then he saw his steely eye, and a smile hovered around the corners of his mouth as he contrasted those days with his present position. Then again he saw Winnie pleading with him only a short time before. "I don't think it is expensive", he soliloquized, half-aloud, "but they can work for their own comfort as I did." He turned down a side street near the steel works, his mind still away in the past, when crunch !

"My God ! What was that," John Urban exclaimed, as he applied the brakes and stopped his car a few yards away from a little huddled up heap in the roadway.

Running back, he nearly collided with a policeman who, seeing the accident, had dashed across the street.

The constable knelt down and turned over the boy, for so it proved to be. He was clad in rags and an ugly cut showed on his forehead. "God ! It's little "Tatters" Scott", said the constable. "I often see him on this beat." A moan issued from the boy's lips, and they picked him up and carried him gently to the car.

John Urban took off his overcoat, although the night was bitterly cold, and made a pillow in the corner of the seat to rest "Tatter's" head on, and climbing in himself he drove like a man demented, to the hospital, which was only a short distance away.

The following day "Tatters" recovered consciousness, and looking up he exclaimed, "Where am I?" "You are in the hospital, sonny, but be quiet and you'll be alright soon", said John Urban, who had steadfastly refused to leave the boy's bedside since he had been brought there.

"Tatters" dozed most of the day, and as the doctors seemed to think this a good sign, John Urban went home for a much needed rest.

Most of the following day he spent at Tommy's, or, as we have known "Tatters" bedside, and a great friendship seemed to spring up between them. Mr. Urban had told Tommy about his big steel works and Tommy was busy telling him about life he he had known it, when Winnie came in to see her dad and his patient as she called Tommy Scott. She sat quietly down beside her father and waited till the boy had finished his story. He told them of the poverty and want of people in the slums and, as he mildly put it, "You see we are just out of luck."

Tears were in the eyes of both listeners when he finished, and John Urban leaned forward and said, his voice husky with emotion, "Winnie, I've been wrong terribly wrong in my estimation of the poor folks in this town, and I'm going to give you your wish. You make all the arrangements and get all the names of the needy and give them a real Christmas and I'll meet all the expenses."

Winnie jumped up and kissed her dad. "Oh, daddy, you've made me so happy. I'll go right now and get some of the girls together and we'll form a committee and make the arrangements." "Good-bye, Tommy and daddy," she called, as she rushed through the door.

"I suppose you are wondering what is the matter, Tommy," John Urban's voice broke the silence which had existed for a few minutes following Winnie's departure. "Well, the fact is that my daughter wanted me to help the poor folks and I, blind fool that I was, refused. However, that is over and done with. They will have a real Christmas this year, thanks to Winnie and you, and Tommy," his voice became very gentle as he looked at that wan little face on the pillow, "you are never going back to the slums. I have more than enough for the wants of my daughter and myself, so I want you to come and live with us. Will you ?"

"Yes, but gee whiz, what luck," was all that the astonished Tommy could utter.

The day before Christmas saw Tommy, now convalescent, sitting before a cosy fire in the hospital ward, snugly wrapped up and apparently perfectly happy. His wound had been extremely painful, but was now healing nicely, and the boy felt nearly alright again, but a trifle weak. He was looking eagerly forward to the next day, as he had heard that Santa Claus was coming to the hospital.

The same afternoon found Winnie and her friends at the Urban home, putting the finishing touches to their plans.

Well, girls, we've got all the inviting done, the Christmas tree is here, and everything is ordered, but will Santa Claus be here ?" asked Marjory Woods, one of the committee.

"He certainly will," said a deep voice from the doorway.

The girls turned around quickly to see John Urban standing there, attracted by the voices already, and he continued, "Now, kiddies, I'm going to give you all a present, but I don't worry about him."

"Yes, but do you mean, daddy ?" asked Winnie.

"I've arranged for someone to take that position already, and he will have settled everything about the giving of the toys."

"You dear," came from the girls in chorus.

That evening John Urban went into an uptown store and came out carrying a large parcel. He motored to the biggest grid handed in the parcel requesting that it be put at the foot of Tommy Scott's bed after he was asleep. Turning his car he drove leisurely home, turning over in his mind the events of the past few weeks and wondering how to-morrow would turn out.

Christmas morning dawned crisp and clear, and shortly after eight the sunlight streaming into Tommy Scott's bedroom woke him. He rubbed his eyes and looked down to the foot of the bed where his stocking hung. His stocking was empty, but beside it lay a big parcel. Letting out a yell of delight, Tommy reached down and, dragging the parcel up beside him, commenced tearing off the outer cover. The first thing he drew out was a box of candy, then came a big box of crackers, and there was still another box to come out of the wrappers. "What could be in this box ?" was Tommy's thought, as he pulled off the last of the wrapping. Raising the lid he gave a gasp and sat looking at the most beautiful box of soldiers he had ever seen.

There was a card on top, and, picking this up, Tommy read slowly, "From Santa Claus to Tommy, with love and best wishes."

Mr. Urban and Winnie drove down to the hall early that morning and found most of the girls already there. Greetings were exchanged, and all hurried inside to make preparations. The hall was beautifully decorated, but here and there a finishing touch was needed. The Christmas tree stood in the corner and Santa Claus, alias Mr. Dawson, was standing on a pair of steps tying presents to it. Marjory Woods sat at a table marking a name on each gift. The rest of the girls were placing seats and doing little jobs necessary for the occasion, whilst Mr. Urban, as haggly as a school boy, stood perched on a step ladder fixing a Christmas bell in place. In the downtown district excitement ran high. It seemed as though everybody was going to the Urban's party. Washing dirty faces and combing unruly locks seemed to be the order of the day.

The dinner was arranged for noon and as the time drew nigh a little girl came out of a house and hurried away in the direction of the hospital. She was taken to Tommy Scott's ward, and as the door was opened she cried, "A Merry Christmas, Tat—I mean Tommy". "A Merry Christmas, Mary", came the reply, for it was indeed Mary Bain. Tommy was sitting at the fire, his soldiers spread out in front of him, and Mary walked over and sat down beside him.

"Gee ! Tommy, I was to go to the party, but I thought I'd rather come here. Can I stay for to-day?"

"Sure you can, Mary. Besides I want you to stay."

Mary and Tommy had dinner together, and then they indulged in games with other children there until the afternoon was far spent.

Noon saw Winnie Urban and her girl friends terribly busy showing people to their seats at the different tables in the hall. When finally everybody was seated, John Urban rose to his feet and said, "Friends all, it is with a feeling of joy that I, on behalf of my daughter and her splendid committee, welcome you here today. This is the first time that these young ladies have arranged a party of this kind, but, please God, it will not be the last, as we have decided to make it an annual event."

Loud cheering broke out, and for several minutes John Urban found it impossible to talk. When quietness reigned he continued, "I have one more thing to announce, namely, Santa Claus will be with us this afternoon."

Howls of delight followed this statement, and children eagerly turned their faces to the door to see if there was no signs of the esteemed visitor.

Turkey and potatoes were served first; then came pie, cakes, jelly-rolls, and in fact nearly everything that tastes good. After the pie, etc., had followed the turkey and potatoes, in their disappearance, candies, apples and oranges were served. Tables were then cleared back, and the children were in the midst of games, when a loud voice boomed across the hall. "A merry Christmas, boys and girls". Deafening cheers went up all around the hall, and games were forgotten, for there stood Santa Claus in the doorway. He marched briskly up to the tree, and said, "Now, kiddies, I'm going to give you all a present. I didn't get around your way last night, because I was so busy. However, when I call your name come forward, and I'll see that you get the present you should have got last night."

Santa commenced calling the names, and when he had finished the children were too happy to do more than hug those precious toys and chatter among themselves. One had a teddy-bear, another a box of soldiers, there someone had a doll; it seemed as though they had got just the thing they had prayed for.

"There is still a present on the tree", said Santa. "Will Mary Bain come forward?" There was no response, and Winnie, a light breaking on her, went forward and took the gift.

That night in the downtown section one could hear these words oft repeated, "God bless John Urban and his pretty daughter."

Mary and Tommy were sitting at supper, when the door opened, and John Urban and Winnie came in. "A merry Christmas, kiddies", they cried. "Here is your present, Mary," said Winnie, and held out a lovely doll. Mary rushed forward, her little face beaming with delight and received the gift, which she had wanted more than anything else.

"Now, Tommy", said John Urban, "we are not going to stay. We just dropped in to tell you that we are coming to take you home with us tomorrow, and we are glad to see that you have had such splendid company to-day."

As Mary was preparing to leave she said, "Oh ! Tommy, I'm awfully happy. This has been the best Christmas that ever was.

"You are right, Mary, it has been a perfect Christmas."

We will now leave those children happy, after so many years of hardship, and look into the drawing-room of the Urban home.

"Dad," said Winnie, "have you enjoyed yourself to-day ?"

John Urban was silent for a moment, and then he said, "Winnie, Tommy and you have completely changed my outlook on life. I never spent such a happy day before; I am going to call it the perfect Christmas, and from now on I am a firm believer in that good old text : "Do ye to others as ye would have them to do unto you."

"The Star Shines in the East Again--- A Great Light Radiates from Locarno"

As the little town of Bethlehem attracts again the wondering gaze of the nations, a new day of hope has dawned and a new world's order has begun.

At Locarno, on October 16th, a new hope in the hearts of men was kindled. It is hailed everywhere as a sure salvation for the ills of a war-weary world. Two great countries have pledged never again to resort to war with each other, while three other equally great nations are joint guarantors of the security of the peace-pact. The great nations of Europe have pledged a lasting friendship, a brotherhood which places their peoples in a new atmosphere of faith and good-will. Surely a new great light of hope, brilliant in splendor, is shining in Europe,—a wonderful Christmas gift to all nations of the world.

Energies and monies expended on war will now be devoted to the Arts of Peace. The Spirit of Good-Will is abroad as never before, and we will continue to seek new Bethlehems for the promise of the fulfilment of the divine ideals for human lives.

This Store, the management and all its employees, have had a good year. They feel kindly to the public who have dealt so kindly by them. So why shouldn't we, particularly so at this season, wish our great host of friends

"A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS"

Again we join you in the peace and joy of Christmastide, saying, with Tiny Tim, "God bless us every one."

Again let us join with the Heavenly Host in singing the first Christmas Carol:

"Glory to God in the Highest,
And on earth Peace, Good-Will toward men!"

The United Church

Doctrine.

The interest in church doctrine or belief never wanes. Contraversy has marked the path of religious thought ever since men began to reflect on the "ways of God to man", and always bitterness, and often bloodshed has accompanied the struggle of men to uphold some particular form of belief or doctrine.

During the past year the changes have been rung on belief and doctrine in Canada to an extent hitherto unknown, at least in the memory of men now living. Words like Calvinism and Arminianism have been freely used in the secular and religious press, while people who had never heard them before, and who wanted to be well informed have had to look up their meaning, while those who once had known them had to refresh their memories.

Calvinism.

One or two facts are necessary to a correct understanding of the situation. Calvinism is a form of belief formulated by the great French reformer of Geneva, the outstanding theme of which is predestination. This Calvinistic doctrine was the accepted priestcraft belief in all the churches of Europe for many years. But at the beginning of the seventeenth century, a Professor of Divinity at Leyden, James Arminius, who had for a long time been an associate of Calvin, and a great friend, repudiated Calvin's views regarding predestination, and summed up his views in five points, which contraverted the five points of Calvin.

Arminianism.

This more liberal interpretation of church belief soon found a large following in Holland, from whence the views spread to England and Scotland and other European countries. So serious did the situation become that a General Council of all the protestant churches was called to meet at Dort in 1618 to settle the issue. This was one of the most learned councils that ever met, and was composed of eminent divines from Holland, England, Scotland, Switzerland, Bremen, Hessia, and the Palatinate. The debate over the belief went on for many days, and the result was that Arminius and his followers were declared heretics and banished from the church. This was a triumph for Calvinism, but the finding of the council was not popular with the church at large. The people began to take sides, some upholding the Council, and others repudiating its decision. As usual Scotland and England took opposite sides, Scotland upheld the decision of the Council of Dort and remained Calvinistic, while the Church in England repudiated the decision and embraced instead Arminianism.

The Methodist Church originating as it did as a revival within the Church of England, never had a creed of its own. Wesley being an Anglican, was an Arminian, and did not depart from the thirty-nine articles. His friend and partner, Whitefield, however, differed from Wesley on this point, and a voluminous correspondence went on between the two. Though firm and restrained, the correspondence was never bitter. But among the more unstrained followers of the two men bitterness was engendered, with the result that the two men were finally forced apart, Whitefield going Calvanistic, and Wesley Arminian.

The Presbyterian Church has continued to found its belief on some form of Calvinism, usually on that embodied in the Westminster confession, while the Methodists have followed an undefined Arminianism of Wesley.

Five Points of Calvinism.

The five points of Calvinism, as given in his own language, are as follows:

1. That God hath chosen a certain number of the fallen race of Adam, in Christ, before the foundation of the world, unto eternal glory, according to his immutable purpose, and of his free grace and love, without the least foresight of faith, good works, or any condition performed by the creature, and that the rest of mankind he was pleased to pass by, and ordain to dishonour and wrath, for their sins, to the praise of his vindictive justice.

2. That though the death of Christ be a most perfect sacrifice and satisfaction for sins of infinite value, and abundantly sufficient to expiate the sins of the whole world, and though on this ground the Gospel is to be preached to all mankind indiscriminately, yet it was the will of God that Christ by the blood of the cross, should efficaciously redeem all those, and those only, who were from eternity elected to salvation and given to him by the Father.

3. That mankind are totally depraved in consequence of the fall of the first man, who being their public head, his sins involved the corruption of all his posterity, and which corruption extends over the whole soul, and renders it unable to turn to do anything truly good, and exposes it to his righteous displeasure, both in this world and that which is to come.

4. That all whom God hath predestinated unto eternal life he is pleased in his appointed time effectually to call by his word and spirit, out of the state of sin and death in which they were by nature, to grace and salvation by Jesus Christ.

5. That those whom God hath effectually called and sanctified by his spirit shall never finally fall from a state of grace. That true believers may fall partially, and would fall totally and finally but for the mercy and faithfulness of God who holpeth the feet of the saints; also that he who bestoweth the grace of perseverance, bestoweth it by means of reading and hearing the word, meditation, exhortations, threatenings, and promises, but that none of these things imply the possibility of a believer falling from a state of justification."

Five Points of Arminianism.

The five points of the Arminians are as follows:—

1. "That God from eternity, determined to [illegible] salvation on them who he foresaw would persevere unto the end, and inflict everlasting punishment on him who should continue in his sin and unbelief, and resist the divine succours; that election and reprobation are conditional.

2. That Jesus Christ by his suffering established a new covenant for the whole mankind, and particularly for every individual; however, those who believe in Him, can only be partakers of its benefits.

—A pretty but quiet wedding took place at St. Mark's Church, Deseronto, on Tuesday, Dec. 15th, 1925, in the presence of many relatives, when Miss Peter Murian, of Shannonville, was married to Miss Lydia M. Brant, of Tyendinaga, by the Rev. E. S. Radcliffe, B.C.L., Rector. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Nathaniel Scero as best man, and the bride, smartly gowned, was assisted by Miss Rona Brant. The happy couple left on their honeymoon trip with the best wishes of numerous friends.

—At Camden East, on Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Geo. Black entertained about eighteen of her lady friends to dinner, it being the first anniversary of their wedding day. She treated them to an excellent dinner, which all enjoyed very much. After dinner was over, the health of the bride and groom was given, and was drunk, and also drank the health of the couple by drinking and ringing their cups and wishing them many happy years to enjoy life, and singing, "They Are Jolly Good Fellows". They all returned to the parlor, where there were several selections of music given on the piano by the different ladies, and also two recitations by two ladies, which was enjoyed very much by the guests until the o'clock, when they all wended their way home thanking Mr. and Mrs. Black for the nice time together.

CAMDEN EAST

The past few days has been fine weather for motoring.—All the employees of the Camden East Paper Mills left for their different homes to spend Xmas with their families.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Youmans left on Tuesday last to spend the Xmas holidays with their son, Hubert, and family, in Dayton, Ohio.—The Public School concert in the school house on Monday evening last, was a decided success. The sum of $12.00 was realized from a silver collection.—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Amey entertained some of their friends to tea on Sunday evening last.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Youmans and Mrs. J. W. Amey, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Amey and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Amey attended the funeral of Mrs. Hiram Emberley at Harrowsmith, on Tuesday afternoon last. The late Mrs. Emberley was a sister of Mr. J. W. Amey, of this village.—The schools are closed for the Xmas holidays, and the teachers left for their homes to spend Xmas with their parents.

"You have turned very industrious lately, Tim," said one man to another.

"That I have," replied the other. "I was up before the magistrate last week for assaulting Jones, and the magistrate said that if I came back on the same charge he would fine me two pounds."

"Did he?" said the first speaker.

"And I'm working hard so as to keep your hands off Jones's."

"Don't believe it," said the industrious one. "I'm working hard to save up the forty shillings."

The Terror of Asthma comes like a thief in the night with its dreadful throttling, robbing its victim of breath. It seems beyond the power of human aid to relieve until one trial is made of that remarkable preparation, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Then relief comes with a rush. Life becomes worth living, and, if the remedy be used persistently, the disease is put permanently to rout. Take no substitute.

OBITUARY

Morley L. Bell.

On Friday, Dec. 4th, Morley L. Bell, barrister, late of Medicine Hat, Alta., passed away at the home of his mother, Mrs. Annie Bell, Baldur, Man. Funeral services were held on Monday, Rev. G. S. Curtis officiating.

The late Mr. Bell was born at Tamworth, Ont., in 1883. He came with his parents to Baldur, Man., in 1891, receiving his early training in the schools of that district. After passing through Normal, and teaching school for a period, he entered upon the study of the Arts Course at Wesley College in the autumn of 1905. As a student his record was one of remarkable distinction. In each of the first three years he won a University Scholarship, and in the final year crowned these fine achievements by capturing the silver medal given to the student showing the greatest proficiency in the general course of the University of Manitoba.

On completing his Arts Course he entered upon the study of law in the office of Taylor & Bowles, Winnipeg. In the spring of 1913 he received his call to the bar of the Province of Alberta.

He practised his profession in Medicine Hat, and his ability and personal qualities quickly won for him a prominent place among the members of the Alberta bar.

In 1917 he married Margaret Stewart, of Medicine Hat, who, together with three children of the union, survive him.

Deceased was a member of a highly respected pioneer family of the Baldur district, where his untimely death is widely mourned.

Besides his widow and three children, Douglas, Aileen and Hazel, aged respectively 8, 6 and 4 years, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Annie Bell, of Baldur; five brothers, Samuel and James, of Baldur; Albert, of Winnipeg; E. D., Chinook, Alta.; J. F., of Plunkett, Sask., and two sisters, Mary, of Baldur, and Mrs. Royal Leslie, of Saskatoon, Sask.

Mrs. Richards.

Mrs. James Alexander Richards, who had been a resident of Napanee for a number of years, passed away on Saturday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Geale Daly, after an illness of but a few days. Mrs. Richards, during her residence here, endeared herself to a large circle of friends, who will regret her passing. Her maiden name was Ann Cameron Cassie. She was born in Aberdeen, Scotland. Her parents were pioneers of Canada and settled at Pickering, Ont., where she resided until her marriage, after which she went to live on a farm at Utica, Ont., later moving to Uxbridge, where she lived until the death of her husband, eleven years ago. Since that time she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. Geale Daly, at Napanee. A family of five daughters and three sons survive. They are: Mrs. Chrysler, of Yorkton, Sask.; Mrs. J. D. Walker, Toronto; Mrs. A. J. Tait, Yorkton, Sask.; Mrs. J. H. Johnston, Toronto, and Mrs. J. Geale Daly, Napanee; William G. Richards, of Akron, Ohio; John A. Richards, Weston, Ont., and James G. Richards, of Cleveland, Ohio. Funeral services were held at her daughter's home, on Monday evening, by Rev. J. H. H. Coleman and the remains taken to Uxbridge, to be placed in the family plot on Tuesday afternoon. Friends from far and near sent beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Laura L. Gunn.

Not being able to withstand the shock of an operation, Mrs. Laura Louise Gunn, beloved wife of Geo. Gunn, of 22 Everett St., passed away at the General Hospital this morning. The late Mrs. Gunn had been in failing health for some time and this operation was used as a means to the betterment of her condition. She was the second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whyte and was born in Napanee 54 years ago. Mrs. Gunn had resided in this city for the past twenty-seven years.

The deceased was a member of Holloway United Church and was active in all the work of that church, and her demise will be deplored by a wide circle of friends.

The late Mrs. Gunn leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Weese, London, and Miss Myrtle, at home; one son, Douglas, also at home; two sisters, Mrs. James McFarlane, of Odessa, and Mrs. Albert Martin, of Corbyville, and one brother, Mr. Robert Whyte, of St. Louis, Mo.—Belleville Ontario, Dec. 19th, 1925.

Mr. W. A. Rockwell.

The death of Mr. W. A. Rockwell, who suddenly passed away on Oak Harbor, Ohio, cast a gloom over his relatives and friends. He spent forty years in the piano business, and was widely known in the vicinity of Napanee and Kingston. He was a member of the Methodist Church, also Choir Master in the Methodist Church, Kingston and Napanee, bringing before the public the best sacred music by the best composers. He is survived by three sons, Ferdin and, Jackson, Mich.; William, Detroit, Ohio, and Aiverson, Demoines, Iowa; and one brother, O. N. Rockwell, Napanee, and one sister, Mrs. James Lapum, Scranton, Pa. His remains were taken to Napanee for burial.

For Scalds or Burns.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a standard remedy for the prompt treatment of scalds and burns. Its healing power quickly soothes the pain and aids a speedy recovery from the injury. It is also an excellent remedy for all manner of cuts, bruises and sprains, as well as for relieving the pains arising from inflammation of various kinds. A bottle in the house and stable saves many a doctor's and veterinary's fee.

Recognized as a leading specific for the destruction of worms, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has proved a boon to suffering children everywhere. It seldom fails.

Cromwell's Way.

In the days when Oliver Cromwell was lord protector of England there was no fine discrimination to favor members of an embassy. When such members committed crimes against the law of the land they were held to the same accountability as though they had been natives. So it was that on July 10, 1653, Don Pantaleon Sa, a Portuguese nobleman, brother of the ambassador from that country to England and a knight of Malta, was beheaded on Tower hill. He had killed an Englishman, mistaking him for another. The Portuguese took refuge with his brother, the ambassador, who claimed that by the law of nations his house was as inviolable sanctuary for all his countrymen. Cromwell sent a messenger to state that if the criminal was not given up to the civil authorities the soldiers would be withdrawn from guarding the embassy and the mob left to do as it pleased. Every effort was made by the Portuguese and other ambassadors to save Don Pantaleon's life, but without avail. Cromwell made no other reply than, "Blood has been shed, and justice must be satisfied."—

Thackeray at Oxford.

An old story of Oxford and Thackeray is recalled by Thomas Plowman, who vouches in the Cornhill Magazine for the accuracy of his version. Thackeray had to apply to the vice chancellor for permission to lecture and found that gentleman ignorant alike of his name and fame.

Still, he had a trump card left, which he had been accustomed to consider would carry all before it wherever the English language was spoken. So, with a quiet smile of supreme confidence, he simply ejaculated, "'Vanity Fair,' you know!" Then at last, to his relief, a look of awakened intelligence manifested itself upon the vice chancellor's countenance, and Thackeray awaited the effusive outburst which would make amends for all. It came in the words, "Yes, yes, I have heard of 'Vanity Fair,' of course; it is mentioned in the 'Pilgrim's Progress.'"—Westminster Gazette.

To Make Copper Oxide.

An excellent way to make copper oxide for use in batteries is as follows: Take a quantity of copper filings or fine copper shavings and heat them in a cast iron container or in a crucible till they are red hot. Stir them with an iron rod, and while still stirring sprinkle a little water over the filings until they become ocher red. You will then have a good quality of copper oxide.

Copper oxide plates may be made as follows: Mix the granulated or coarse copper oxide with 5 per cent or 10 per cent of magnesium chloride and heat the heavy mass in forms made of iron sheeting, the forms being of the size of the wanted plate. The more porous the plates will be. The coarser the copper oxide the better will be the results.—Popular Science Monthly and World's Advance.

The Dog Rose.

The "dog rose" has provoked as much ingenious explanation of its name as the "horse chestnut." The solution is that the "dog" is really "dagga," a dagger, in allusion to the prickles, a drawback from which the Alexandra Day rose is free. Unfortunately for this explanation, the flower bears a similar name in countries where it will not apply. The Germans, for instance, have "Hundsrose," and Pliny tells how a Roman mother was moved in a dream to boil some roots of the wild rose to her soldier son in Spain. They arrived just after he had been bitten by a mad dog. He took them and was preserved from hydrophobia, as were others who adopted the same treatment. And from that time the wild rose became the "dog rose."—London Chronicle.

Gates in Norway.

A curious feature to travelers in the highroads of Norway is the great number of gates—upward of 10,000 in the whole country—which have to be opened. These gates, which either mark the boundaries of the farms or separate the home fields from the open lands, constitute a considerable inconvenience and delay to the traveler, who has to stop his vehicle and get down to open them.

Magnet the Thief of Time.

The magnet is responsible for a great deal of trouble with watches, as any jeweler will tell you. Never go near a dynamo with a watch in your pocket unless you are sure that it is made of nonmagnetic material. This applies especially to the hair spring.—Farm and Fireside.

A Blessed Barrier.

"How did you like that interior setting?" asked the realistic producer. "For a real room, except that it had only three walls, could you best it?"

"Well," said the morose critic, "I'd have been more contented during the play if you had added the fourth wall." ;

Wild Hogs as Watchdogs.

In some parts of Mexico the wild dogs, which the natives call jabalis, are used as watchdogs. If they are caught young and brought up with goats they will go out into the hills with the herd and fight coyotes or other wild animals. If they are raised with chickens they will protect them. They are as useful as any dog around a house at night and can be trained to follow their master like a dog.

CARE OF PIGS IN WINTER

SUBSTITUTES FOR GREEN FEED OF SUMMER ARE NEEDED.

Diet Is an Important Factor In Preventing Rickets—Also Something About How "Thumps" Are Caused and Combatted.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Considerable effort has been expended in attempts to discover suitable winter rations for young pigs. During the summer when pigs are at pasture, rickets and osteoporosis are quite rare occurrences. Mature grass yields an abundance of all the recently studied vitamines, and so as part of the ration supplies the needs in metabolism and prevents the condition known as rickets. Winter pigs need a winter substitute for pasture or a feed that resembles green growing grass and can be fed in a practical way. This is usually supplied by a leafy legume as well cured second cut alfalfa hay. If the leaves of the alfalfa are well preserved, full of green color, then feed a quantity equal to five per cent. by weight of the grain ration. Minerals such as ground limestone, ground phosphate rock, and ground bone meal should also be fed in total quantity not exceeding two per cent. per cent. of the total ration. The alfalfa and the minerals will be very efficient in preventing lameness, rickets and paralysis in winter pigs.—L. Stevenson, O. A. College, Guelph.

"THUMPS" IN YOUG PIGS.

Caused By the Round Worm, Ascaris Lumbricoides.

The term "Thumps" is used by most farmers to describe a lung disease of pigs. There is a quickened breathing and rapid heart action. Many little pigs become unthrifty and others die as a result of the infestation. It is during the first few weeks of the pigs' life that the round worms do most of their particularly destructive work. Older pigs seem more resistant to the effect of worms.

Infestation.

The pens and yards in which the brood sows and their young are kept are frequently well supplied with worm eggs, particularly so if they have been used by pigs for any length of time. The worm eggs lying on the floor or in the yard are picked up by the pigs, either while rooting or nursing. The sow's udder is frequently wet and is contact with the floor, thereby gathering the eggs, if present, on the train, readily to be passed on to the little pig during the next feeding.

How the Worms Cause "Thumps."

Soon after the eggs are swallowed by the young pig they hatch if ripe, and the young worms are liberated in the stomach and intestine. These very minute young worms burrow into the wall of the bowel and thence the blood stream, eventually reaching the heart and lungs. This takes about twenty-four hours from time of hatching. Once the worms reach the lungs they grow and develop quietly for about a week, then they burrow their way into the large air passages. This causes an irritation, with coughing. The coughing brings up mucous and worms, which are swallowed by the pig. The worms pass on to the intestine, where they become mature and remain until they reach maturity. On maturity the females lay millions of eggs, which are passed from the intestine and eventually infest the yards and pens. The presence of the worms in the heart and lungs is responsible for the disordered breathing and heart action seen in the condition that we call "Thumps."

Prevention.

Cleanliness is the keynote in prevention of ascarid or round worm infestation. Get the sow and her family out on the green grass away from old buildings and pens if possible. If necessary to use pens scrub the floors with hot lye solution and clean up generally. See that the sow is clean outside and in. Arrange for the cleaning of the pen and a supply of clean straw every day. Sunshine and clean ground to range over are great aids to the prevention of "thumps."—L. Stevenson, O. A. College, Guelph.

Varieties of Fall Turnips.

There is a limited acreage of fall turnips grown in Ontario each year. Roots of this class usually yield more per acre than the Swede turnips, but they do not keep so late into the winter. Other names for fall turnips are Soft turnips and White Flesh turnips.

Two varieties of fall turnips have been grown under test at the College in each of the past seventeen years, and the following gives the average annual results in tons per acre of tops and of roots for each of the varieties: Red Top White Globe, 4.0 and 26.3, and Cow Horn, 5.7 and 19.7. In 1918, the Red Top White Globe gave 21.2 and the Cow Horn 15.5 tons of roots per acre. In comparison with these in the test of the past year the Sutton's Purple Top Mammoth gave 30.8, the Sutton's Imperial Green Globe, 28.8, and Kelway's Green Globe, 16 tons per acre.

Buttermilk for Chicks.

Chicks fed buttermilk until they are 48 to 72 hours old will give them a better send off than water alone. When the chicks are first placed in the brooder they should be given all the fresh buttermilk they care for. It is better than water because it gives the chicks more strength and allows the digestive system to get in better working order.

The Home Orchard.

The ideal home orchard should contains several kinds of fruit, represented in many cases by a considerable number of varieties of each, and after another over a long period. Large yields, good shipping quality, and attractiveness in appearance all may be made secondary to high dessert quality or special excellence for cooking purposes.

Sofia, the Bulgarian Capital.

No city in the east has undergone such a magic transformation as Sofia. Prior to the emancipation of the Bulgars it was a small Turkish town of 20,000, with narrow, dirty streets. There was practically no trade, and the people were in a hideous state of poverty. The city which has now risen up has a population of about 125,000 and is rapidly becoming one of the best in eastern Europe. Architecturally it has far more claim to respect than is at first apparent. The streets, which are well paved and beautifully clean, are too narrow for the adequate display of the fine proportions of the czar's palace, the National theater, the general postoffice, the war office, the Bulgarian National bank, the Willing Gladstone High School For Boys, the Grand Hotel de Bulgarie, the National Agricultural bank, the Sobranje and many other public buildings which are of fine sandstone. The ecclesiastical edifices are of remarkable beauty, especially the new cathedral.—Review of Reviews.

Soy Beans a Human Food.

Soy bean flour may be used much the same way as cornmeal. Although this crop has been grown in America for a quarter of a century, says the Farm and Home, it has been used only for stock feed, while in China and Japan it has been used for human food for many centuries.

Practically all the flour made of soy bean flour so far in this country is in certain types of illness where it is desirable to limit the amount of starch fed the patient. Flour made from ripe soy beans, although rich in protein and oil, contains little or no starch. This, mixed with wheat flour, therefore increases the protein content and lowers the starch content, while the bread is very similar in appearance to ordinary wheat bread. When more than 25 per cent soy bean flour is used the character of the bread or cakes is materially altered.

Wanted the Test.

A western professor said one day that he could tell good soil by tasting it, and a man in the east end who saw the statement promptly packed a box and sent it to him by parcel post. He also inclosed this note:

"Dear Professor—I saw what you said about tasting soil and am sending a sample selected haphazard from my back yard. I wish you'd give it the palate test and tell me frankly what you think. I don't seem to have any luck with it myself. My cabbages came up without heads, my potatoes have been mistaken for elements, my onions are scentless, and my corn looks like bird shot. Bite off a chunk and let me hear from you. Never mind about returning the balance. Keep it for dessert. Write soon."

Mystery of the Egg.

An egg for one thing is a succession of logs lugged up in one another, a series of envelopes enveloped in one another, bags and envelopes without joints, seams or openings. Puzzles, baby dolls up and full rigged in boxes, flies in amber, are simplicity itself as puzzles when it comes to how these bags wrap one another up. And in log, in a hen's egg there are eight or nine or ten of the sacks to sacks ensacked. Everybody thinks he knows what an egg is, but after weary reading and study in many languages he begins to learn that nobody knows a tiny fraction of all the world of secrets and mysteries hidden in an egg. "As full of meat as an egg" is not the true comparison, but "as full of mystery as an egg" is nearer the truth.—Exchange.

Burns and Fame.

It is amusing to learn that Burns when most encouraging from obscurity jocularly anticipated that his birthday would come to be noted among other remarkable events. In a letter to his early patron, Gavin Hamilton, in 1786 he says, "For my own affairs I am in a fair way of becoming as eminent as Thomas a Kempis or John Bunyan, and you may henceforth expect to see my birthday inscribed among the wonderful events in the Poor Robin and Aberdeen almanacs along with the Black Monday and the battle of Bothwell Bridge."

A Norfolk Coast Garden.

Unique among English parishes is Wingland, on the Norfolk coast. Rich with soil producing almost unbelievable amounts to the acre, it has no school, constable, police house or tax collector. Wingland has a church yard, and in it lies one grave, that of a boy thrown by the sea. Along the north coast of the county, where the cliffs are chalk, sand, clay and loam, the incessant sea is making inroads. Once happy and fruitful villages now lie seven fathoms deep below the waters. The land is practically all reclaimed and only a few feet above the sea, but is one great garden. An acre has produced more than $1,000 worth of flowers, fruit and vegetables in a year. Here bulbs of hyacinth and narcissus as good as if not better than those that come from Holland can be bought. Here they grow millions of flowers that grace the tables of Lancashire and Yorkshire.

In a Queer Town.

Margaret Illington was making a coast to coast tour as the star in a new play. She had reached the land of the one night stands, and to break a long jump she was to play in a new community that expects to have 50,000 inhabitants some day.

As the actress, in the early morning, dismounted from the through train, with her maid and her manager and the supporting company, an aged darky laid hold of her hand baggage and led the way, bowing and scraping, to where the hotel bus waited. Following him, Miss Illington emerged from the station shed on an expanse of cane sugar stores flanking each side of a dusty road.

"Uncle," she asked, "is this the principal street?"

"Dis yere one? No'm," he said. "Dis yere town ain't got no principal street."

The Beaver's Tooth.

No carpenter's chisel can do more effective work than is turned out with ease and neatness by the beaver's tooth. This is the principal tool with which these patient, clever builders construct their dams. The outer surface of the tooth is a scale of very hard enamel, while the body of it is of softer dentine. As the softer substance wears away in use the end of the tooth takes a chisel-like bevel, leaving a thin, slightly projecting edge of hard enamel as sharp as any carpenter's tool fresh from the grindstone. The thin scale of enamel gives keenness, the softer dentine supplies strength, and thus the combination makes a tool, constantly whicb actually sharpens itself by use.

Overtime Pay.

"Pa, what is meant by overtime pay?"

"Overtime pay, my boy, is the reward for doing a little extra labor, and there are two kinds."

"That so? What are they?"

"Well, some men insist on collecting their overtime pay, and at a specified rate, and others are willing to work overtime and take their reward in a successful future. I recommend the latter course for you."

How's Business?

"Business is poor," said the beggar.

"Failing off," said the riding school teacher.

"Oh, vill!" said the druggist.

"It's all write," said the author.

"Picking up," said the rag-picker.

"My business is sound," said the bandsman.

"I'm kept on the jump," said the athlete.

"I make both ends meet," said the butcher.

"It suits me," said the tailor.—Exchange.

Seasoning Cast Iron.

In the manufacture of the higher types of machinery care is taken to lessen the cooling strains in castings by annealing or some other means in order to make the iron homogeneous and less liable to breakage or distortion. This process is known as "seasoning." It has been found in the case of engine frames, where one inch square in section that there was a gain in strength of about 20 per cent due to the seasoning, and that a bar bent once in a tumbling barrel as compared with companion bars from the same ladle not so treated.

Public Opinion.

The single snowflake—who cares for it? But a whole day of snowflakes—who does not care for that? Private opinion is weak, but public opinion is almost omnipotent.

The slander of some people is as great a recommendation as the praise of others.—Fielding.

Mrs. Botts (hopefully)—"John, the baby is awake."

Botts—"I'm not."

Only the uninformed endure the agony of corns. The knowing ones apply Holloway's Corn Remover and get relief.

What is Good Rope.

Rope is sold by the pound, so there is always the temptation for a dishonest manufacturer to "load" his product with an excess of oil or other material or to make the coil a trifle short. The customer then pays the full rope price for oil, etc. Then, too, much so called manila contains a percentage of inferior fiber such as sisal and his neither the strength nor wearing qualities that it should. Tensile tests do not tell the story, for some of the adulterants are almost as strong as manila, but the strength of poor rope falls off rapidly with use.

Open the strands and look at the inside of an old rope for signs of wear, as it wears faster there than on the outside. When a rope passes over the sheave of a block or around a cleat the strands slide a little on each other, and the loser fibers gradually pulverize.

Good manila fiber is light colored, fine, silky and strong. Rope made from it is smooth, with few ends of fiber sticking out.—Outing.

Missed a Sale.

"It seems to me," said a Main street stationer, "that everybody's writing or dictating letters these days. Nine customers out of ten who come in here ask for postage stamps.

"This morning a woman was here browsing around. She looked over the entire stock. I thought I had a customer. After she finished the rounds she remarked: 'Oh, I nearly forgot. Have you any postage stamps?' I said yes and asked her how many she wanted. She handed me a wrapped newspaper and asked how much I thought it ought to have to carry it to its destination. I weighed the darned thing and told her a cent would be sufficient. Is that all?' she said. 'Well, I have a one cent stamp in my pocketbook. I thought it would come to more. Thank you very much.'"

Elusive Zeppelins.

In his book "Zeppelins and Super-Zeppelins" R. P. Hearne points out the little known fact that it was a Frenchman named Spiess, an Alsatian, who about 1870 drew up a clever design for a rigid airship and made an attempt to have it built. In 1870 Count Zeppelin was a dashing soldier in Alsace, and Mr. Hearne thinks it more than likely that he saw Spiess' plans and annexed the idea.

The Zeppelin is a most elusive object despite its size. It can leap upward in the air at astonishing speed. It can drop rapidly. It can climb at a steep angle. It can dive wonderfully, and it can nose from side to side with no mean agility. To reckon its altitude at night is most difficult, and to find its range is a matter of much nicety.

How a Snake Swallows a Frog.

The method of swallowing is a very simple one, although if the frog be large more than half an hour may be consumed in the process. The two bones of the lower jaw are separate and capable of independent movement, so the reptile loosens its hold upon one side of its jaw, and, pushing that side forward as far as possible, it drives the teeth in again and draws the jaw back to its original position. The result is that the prey is drawn down by the movement. The process is then repeated by the other half of the jaw, thus inevitably forcing the victim inward. The snake's teeth slope enormously, and the jaw is, of course, dislocated, but the extensible ligaments hold the bones together.

Gladiators.

The gladiators were originally malefactors who fought for their lives or captives who fought for freedom. They were first exhibited at the funeral ceremonies of the Romans, 263 B. C., and afterward at festivals about 215 B. C. When Dacia was reduced by Trojan 1,000 gladiators fought at Rome for 123 days in celebration of his triumph. It is said that in the triumphs of Pompey the Great 10,000 fought through a series of many days. These combats were suppressed in the east by the Emperor Constantine about A. D. 325 and in the west by Theodoric in A. D. 500.

The Treadmill.

The treadmill was invented thousands of years ago by the Chinese to raise water for the irrigation of the fields. The invention was subsequently introduced into England and other European countries and used in prisons as a mode of punishment. One was erected at Brixton in 1817 and soon after ward in other prisons. Toward the end of the century, however, it fell into disuse.

Impertinent.

YOUTH MISSING FROM BATH FARM

Employer Afterwards Missed $41.00. Had Worked a Week.—No Trace Up Till To-day.

Sunday morning a youth named William Davis, who had been employed about the home of Mr. Anthony Hagerman, near Bath, for about a week, suddenly disappeared and shortly after he was missed a search in the Hagerman home revealed the fact that the sum of $41 which Mr. Hagerman had in a supposedly safe place, was also missing. A search was made in the neighborhood, and when no trace of the youth was turned up, Chief Barrett of Napanee was notified. He went to the Hagerman home and instituted a search for the missing Davis youth, but up till this forenoon nothing had developed. The search is being continued.

Little is known of the antecedents of Davis except that he applied at the Hagerman home a little over a week ago for work and was given it. When Chief Barrett was given a description of the man yesterday he stated that a man answering the description had received shelter at Napanee police headquarters more than a week ago, presumably just before Davis had started to work at Hagerman's.

The missing youth is described as being of fair complexion, about five feet three inches in height, and wearing a blue serge coat, blue overalls and rubber boots with white soles.

WEDDING BELLS.

Graham—Dowdle.

A very interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Dowdle, on Wednesday, Dec. 16th, 1925, when their eldest daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to Arthur, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham, of Richmond. Promptly at 11 o'clock, the bride entered the parlour on the arm of her father, and was made man and wife by Rev. R. W. Spencer, by the beautiful and impressive service of the Anglican Church.

The bride looked sweet and beautiful in a dress of sand colored satin backed crepe, trimmed with gold embroidery on blue, and wore the groom's gift, a string of pearls.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Dowdle, who was dressed in sand crepe, while James Dowdle, brother of the bride, ably supported the groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold pendant, and to the groomsman a gold tie pin, and a bar pin to Mrs. Spencer, the pianist. After congratulations were offered, all repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to about fifty guests. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents, among them being a box of real orange blossoms direct from California. The afternoon was spent in music and singing, the happy young couple leaving later in the afternoon for a trip to Toronto, Orangeville, and other Western points. The bride travelled in a pansy poiret twill dress, with grey trimming and pansy suede cloth coat with fox trimming and grey hat and gloves. Upon their return they will settle on their farm in Richmond, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Wasted Motions.

Our life is peppered with motions that fly wide and wild. It begins on awaking. We stretch our arms—waste motion! We ought to utilize that gesture for pushing our shoes. We rub our eyes—more foolishness. We should rub our eyes on Sunday for the rest of the week.

But it is in processes like shaving that scientific management is really needed. Men flatter themselves that they shave with the minimum of gesture. They believe that they complete the operation under five minutes. But, excusing their inaccuracy, do they know that under the inspection of the scientific manager their performance would look as jagged as the razor blade under the microscope? The day will probably arrive when a superman will shave with one superb motion as delightful to the soul as the uncoiling of an orange skin in one long unbroken peel.

Sheep's Two Perquisites.

The sheep is a clumsy, ill-disguised animation which is afflicted with a perpetual cold in the head and has the appearance of always needing its nose wiped, but it has the distinction of being the only animal, man not excepted, which can afford to wear strictly all wool clothing the year round.

Probably the greatest accomplishment of the sheep is getting itself lost in a snowstorm, at which it is such a success that a number of famous painters have put in a lot of time painting pictures of sheep working at this.—Farm and Fireside.

All False.

Mr. Grimes (with great indignation)—I've finished with that fellow Skinner, absolutely finished with him. He's a bad one. He has a lying tongue in his head. Mrs. Grimes (sympathetically)—Dear me! And only yesterday his wife told me that he had false teeth.—London Tit-Bits.

Speech and Writing.

"Many people talk much more agreeably than they write," said the literary person.

"Yes," replied Mr. Owington. "My tailor does that."—Exchange.

Nothing New.

Wife—Don't you like my new hat, dearest? Husband—Yes-s, its all right. Wife—Well, I bought it on your account, dear. Husband—Yes, you usually do!

How She Managed.

Mabel—If your grandma has lost all her teeth how does she manage? Willie—I heerd pa say she had a biting tongue.—Boston Transcript.

By the faithful plying of the shuttle of daily duty we weave white raiment for the soul.—Stafford.

An Early Airship.

We are told by Peter Farley, who wrote as an eyewitness, that in August, 1835, the airship Eagle was officially advertised to sail from London with government dispatches and passengers for Paris and to establish direct communication between the capitals of Europe. This early type of airship was 100 feet long, fifty feet high and forty feet wide, and she lay in the dockyard of the Aeronautical society in Victoria road, near Kensington gardens, then quite a rural spot. Built to hold an abundant supply of gas, she was covered with oiled lawn and carried a frame seventy-five feet long and seven feet high, with cradle secured by ropes to the balloon. An immense rudder and wings or fins on each side for purposes of propulsion completed her fittings. The deck was guarded by netting. After all this preparation and advertisement the Eagle never got beyond Victoria road, for Count Lennox and his assistants failed to provide the necessary motive power. — London Standard.

A Peruvian River of Horror.

There is a river of mystery and horror in Peru, and the legends of rich rubber regions and untold wealth in gold are accompanied by tales of those who went up it never to return. Casement Watkins, a naturalist, who has traveled extensively in South America, tells of the stream:

"This river," he said, is the Colorado river, the richest river in Peru. Great groves of rubber trees lie along its course, and gold has been found in it. But the Mascos, a tribe of cannibals, infest it. They still practice cannibalism and will kill a man on sight. Expeditions have been fitted out and been heavily armed to go exploring for rubber and gold, but none of them ever has returned. The savages have killed the men and eaten them and turned the canoes adrift. They have come down the river empty, bottoms up, or filled with supplies which the savages did not care to remove."

Fish That Sing.

There is a fish called the butterman, which is found off the Scottish coast. This fish, which is fat and comfortable looking, shoot a foot long as a rule, makes a distinct hooting noise from the back of his throat when landed in a net or caught on a long line. A net full of these fish, though they are rather rare, is sometimes caught, and when they are hauled in the chorus of sharp, siren-like hoots is very startling to a stranger.

But in Ceylon there is a shellfish, a kind of mussel, which positively sings. In still weather when the water has ebbed away from the mussel beds for a few hours these shellfish can be heard producing a long, low, fluty sound. How they do it no one knows, but they make a quite distinct attempt at singing, and as they have no throats they must produce the sound by some manipulation of their double shells.—London Globe.

"When I put the coat on for the first time and buttoned it up, I burst the seam down the back!"

"Yes, that shows how well our buttons are sewn on!"

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every law-suit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

Prize Winners for 1925.

The "U. E. L." Chapter, I.O.D.E., is very pleased to announce the names of the two successful students obtaining the highest marks in history for the Entrance examinations, for which the Daughters of the Empire give two prizes annually. Congratulations are extended to Miss Dorothy Spraggett, of Hay Bay, and Master Henry Spearing, of Bath. The prizes will be awarded at the Commencement Exercises on the evening of January 7th, 1926.

Klu Klux Klan.

A ripple of excitement passed over Napanee on Monday night when the hillside on the south of the town was illuminated by a fiery cross, the emblem of the Ku Klux Klan. This is the third burned here and is said to signify that the Klan have signed 600 members. Figures, robed in white, were seen moving about the cross at 10.30 p.m. The remains of the cross were still burning at 7 a.m. Reports from Deseronto, Picton and Kingston say that crosses have been burned there also, so evidently the Klan is well established in this district.

Trinity Xmas Entertainment.

Trinity School Hall was crowded to capacity on Thursday evening of last week, when the Christmas Cantata, "Santa Saves the Day", was presented by the junior and senior members of the Sunday School. The choruses were splendidly taken by the young people, and the solo parts well rendered by the seniors. Much credit is due to Mrs. F. Herrington, Miss Beatrice Bingham and Mr. C. Vanderwoert, for the way in which they trained the young people. After the Cantata there was the usual Christmas Tree for the little ones.

Boxing.

The fight fans of the district will receive a special treat at Odessa next Tuesday evening, when Jack Williams, of Verona, meets Smylie Smith, of Odessa. Williams is well known around here, as he was a well-known pitcher until he jumped to the "pro" ranks. Barney Davey, of Verona, will take on Andy Lemon, of Bath, in a wrestling bout. Lemon is the boy whom Joe de Marshall, of San Antonio, Texas, was unable to throw. Lemon more than stood his ground at the Napanee Fair against Marshall, but was on the offensive. A good programme is looked for.

The Mayor's Supper.

On Monday evening Mayor E. Ming entertained the members of the Town Council, the Town Officials, a number of ex-Mayors, and the press. Supper was served at 8 o'clock in Caton's restaurant, followed by a couple of hours of short addresses by the assembled guests. Mr. W. A. Grange, Town Clerk, ably filled the position of chairman. Messrs. A. MacGregor, M. P. Graham and J. M. Simpson spoke for the members of the Council; Dr. Cowan and Dr. Hall for the Board of Health; Mr. George W. Gibbard for the Board of Education, and Messrs. Chas. Stevens, G. F. Ruttan and W. T. Waller gave short but interesting addresses concerning the years when they occupied the Mayor's chair. Mr. Ryan, of London, Eng., also briefly addressed the gathering. The evening closed with a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Ming for the lunch and enjoyment of the evening.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Dowling, of Enterprise, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, Nov. 22nd, 1925, at their home, where about twenty-five of their near relatives were entertained. Among the guests was Mr. Michael Spratt, who was groomsman fifty years ago. The principal event in the day's celebration was a bountiful three-course dinner. The table was prettily trimmed with gold and white, having for centrepiece a three-storey wedding cake frosted a gold color, and supporting fifty white candles. The house throughout was artistically decorated, the color scheme being gold and white. Mr. and Mrs. Dowling were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, besides a well filled purse of gold presented to each of them. Mrs. Dowling is seventy-four years old, and Mr. Dowling seventy-seven, and both are enjoying fairly good health, particularly Mrs. Dowling is very active and attends to all her household duties. Sixteen children were born to this couple, nine of whom are living. They are John, Joseph and James, of this vicinity; Wilfred, of Winnipeg, Man.; Mrs. Frank Burnes, Lockport, N.Y.; Mrs. Herbert Sofield, Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Michael Heffernan, Read, Ont.; Mrs. Daniel Geiger, Rochester, N.Y., and Mrs. James Furlong, Enterprise. They have ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Botts—"I'm not."

CURLING.

BONSPIEL, JANUARY 12th

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Napanee Curling Club, arrangements were perfected for the holding of a bonspiel at Napanee, beginning January 12th. Invitations were sent to Kingston, Brockville, Belleville, Port Hope, Cobourg, Oshawa, Peterboro', Picton, and other places, and a big time and a successful bonspiel is anticipated.

Messrs. C. I. Maybee and M. P. Graham were chosen Tankard Skips, and Messrs. Frank Bell and Fred J. Vanalstine were chosen Skips for the District Cup games.

The Napanee Curlers have every promise of a most successful and enjoyable season.

Ice and weather permitting, it is the intention to open the season on Christmas Day with the President vs. Vice-President games.

NAPANEE TOURIST CAMP

Dear Editor,—I would like to take up a little of your valuable space in an endeavor to interest our citizens in this matter.

In the late issues of the Kingston Whig I have noticed the energy of H. C. Nickle and the Kingston Board of Trade in advancing the motor camp at Kingston, and would like to see the same energy displayed by our Board of Commerce and Town Council towards our motor camp.

I had the pleasure last summer of visiting our camp on several occasions and talking with our guests, and every one of them were unanimous in saying our site was the best they had seen in all their travels; one party in particular from the Southern States, were staying five days in order to give one of their party, an artist by profession, time to paint the falls and surrounding scenery. They were enraptured with everything around them, and drew my attention to many things I have always known and seen, and did not really see the beauty of, until pointed out by a stranger,—the mountain for a background, with the stately elms, oaks and maples; the wonderful railway bridge and embankment; the river and falls from above, and the placid water and green banks and trees below; as one lady expressed herself it is simply magnificent. And then the best of all the quiet privacy of the spot, with the beautiful spring water and bathing pool close by.

Now, Mr. Editor, when nature has done all this for us, why not help her a little to make this camp the very best in Ontario. A little money judiciously spent would make some wonderful improvements, and would be the means of inducing many of our guests to stay over for a few days, and as Mr. Nickle estimates, each guest spends at least five dollars per day while in camp, it would be a good thing for our merchants, and a wonderful advertisement for our town.

Thanking you for your valuable space, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
C. W. VANDERVOORT.

THOSE WHO WON FREEMAN PRIZES

Miss C. McNeil, Napanee, Won Handsome Auto as First Prize for Securing Subscribers.

For some time past a canvassing campaign has been conducted by The Canadian Freeman of Kingston, throughout the Province, and the contest for the prizes closed last night. The following awards were announced by the committee which made the final summing up of the votes.

First prize, a Ford Sedan, Miss Carmel McNeil, Napanee, 14,341,000 votes.

Fifth prize, $100, Miss May Brennan, Erinaville, 7,294,000 votes.

Tenth prize, $25, Mrs. T. B. Breen, Enterprise, 5,669,000 votes.

Miss Carmel McNeil, who won the first prize, is well known in this town, and her many friends extend congratulations. Miss McNeil was for some years a school teacher, and later gave up that profession and took a course in the Kingston Business College, from which she graduated.

Solvay Coke
Pronounced the Best

Not a substitute for anthracite coal, but a better fuel in every respect.

It does not require the tedious adherence to special rules for firing that other cokes require. Simply load up your furnace, give it a little less draft than hard coal fire and you will find that you have discovered a fuel that disposes of your heating problem.

SOLVAY COKE is a clean fuel, with the result that the ash is a negligible factor, fifty per cent less than the best hard coal. Think of the labor saving in disposing of the ash alone as compared with anthracite ! Add to that the saving in initial cost of Solvay Coke over anthracite, and if you place any value on the satisfaction you are bound to experience when burning Solvay Coke in your home, you will order it immediately.

HEAT FOLKS
THE TRIUMPHANT CHARGE OF THE HEAT BRIGADE

Christmas wouldn't seem like Christmas without warmth and comfort.

But there is no necessity for your being uncomfortable.

The Heat Folks are ready to furnish you with Burnside Coal and Solvay Coke, which can be used anywhere that anthracite can be used.

We will have your favorite grades as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, if you run short, you will find this Coal and Coke a satisfactory substitute.

Call the HEAT FOLKS for good, clean coal

Burnside Coal

The ideal fuel for the dwelling equipped with hot water or steam heating plant.

BURNSIDE COAL is a firm, well prepared bituminous (smokeless) fuel, similar in appearance to anthracite, but with much greater endurance.

BURNSIDE COAL is positively the lowest ash content mined and relatively higher in heat units than any other known fuel.

BURNSIDE COAL has been used extensively in the Middle West States for years solely for domestic purposes, and is a proven success. You don't need to experiment with this fuel. Simply fire it as you are accustomed to firing anthracite, and note the lessened consumption and smaller ash yield.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

TOWNSHIP OF ADOLPHUSTOWN

At the election for the Municipality of the Township of Adolphustown, on Monday, January 4th, 1926, the following Subdivision No. 1 will meet at the Town Hall, and Polling Sub-Division No. 2 at Chalk's hall.

By order,
J. DAVIS,
Township Clerk.

1a

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTH FREDERICKSBURGH

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Thanking the electors for their support last year, and asking for their aid and influence for councillor for 1926.

Wishing you all a Happy New Year.

1a FRANK SAGER.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTH FREDERICKSBURGH

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I am a candidate for councillor for the 4th Ward, and as it will be impossible to see each one personally, I ask your vote and influence.

Thanking you, and wishing you the compliments of the Season.

Your obedient servant,
1ap C. JAMES WINDOVER.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I solicit your vote and influence for Reeve for the year 1926.

Having served on the Council Board for seven years, I feel I am qualified to fill the above office.

Wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year.

Your obedient servant,
1ap W. J. GOLLINGER.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

If my services at the Council Board during the past three years have met with your approval, I would ask you to give me a renewal of your confidences for 1926.

Wishing you the compliments of the season,

Yours very truly,
1ap ELIJAH A. McQUAIG.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Having served you one year as Councillor, I am in a position to give you better service for the year 1926.

I would solicit your vote and influence, with Compliments of the Season.

Yours respectfully,
CHRISTIE HARTIN,
1ap Roblin.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF NAPANEE

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I am a candidate for Reeve for the Town of Napanee for the year 1926.

I do not purpose making a personal canvas, and take this opportunity of soliciting your vote and support.

My past record as a servant of the town is well known and I am prepared to give my best efforts for another year, if elected.

Wishing you all the Compliments of the season.

1a MARK P. GRAHAM.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF NAPANEE

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I am a candidate for Reeve for the 1926.

Owing to the large debenture debt, and the free and easy way our past representatives have been spending our money I think it is time we had a halt, so I think it my duty as a business man to put my name on the ballot.

If I am elected I will give my best for the town.

Yours truly,
WILLIAM GEORGE PAUL.

Having served for two years on the Council, I again solicit a continuance of the generous support of the electors as in past years.

RE-ELECT
J. M. SIMPSON
FOR 1926 COUNCIL.

VOTE FOR
ALEX. MacGREGOR
FOR COUNCILLOR FOR 1926

Having again been nominated for the office of Councillor, I have consented to be a candidate.

Therefore I solicit your votes and influence.

Wishing you the Compliments of the Season.

1a A. MacGREGOR.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF NAPANEE.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I have been nominated as Councillor for 1926, and offer my services, and according to the custom I solicit support any and all measures which will curtail all unnecessary expenditures and lower taxation.

Wishing you a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

1a J. H. FITZPATRICK.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF NAPANEE.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I have been nominated as Councillor for 1926, and many friends have induced me to allow my name to go before the electors. I will be pleased to receive a measure of your support, promising to work for the best interests of the town in all questions coming before the Council.

Wishing you all the Compliments of the Season.

Respectfully yours,
1a WM. M. HOWITT.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF NAPANEE

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I am a candidate for the office of Councillor for 1926.

I have tried to serve the town faithfully for the last two years.

Will greatly appreciate a renewal of your confidence.

Yours truly,
1ap W. H. DUNBAR.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF NAPANEE

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I hereby respectfully solicit your vote and influence for Councillor for the year 1926.

If elected I promise to fulfil the duties imposed upon me in a strictly business manner, having in view solely the welfare of our town.

Wishing you all the Compliments of the Season, I remain,

Yours faithfully,
1a WM. J. JEWELL.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ERNESTTOWN

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I, as a candidate for Deputy Reeve for the year 1926, ask your support.

Thanking you, and wishing you the Compliments of the Season.

Your obedient servant,
1a R. J. BRETHEN.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ERNESTTOWN

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Your vote and influence is respectfully solicited for Reeve for the year 1926.

Wishing you the Compliments of the Season.

1a DELBERT SEXSMITH.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Having served you faithfully last year as your Reeve, and accumulated a large surplus of money available for work next year, by good business ability and strict economy, I will be in a position if elected to serve you better than last year.

Therefore, I solicit your confidence, vote and influence for Reeve for the year 1926.

Thanking you in advance, and extend the Greetings of the Season, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
ALFRED McCUTCHEON,
1ap Richmond Township, Roblin P.O.

Here's Hoping the New Year brings Twice as much Prosperity and Happiness as You ever dreamed of!

What's the Matter With Napanee?

PONZI HAS ANOTHER BRAIN STORM!

Dear Mr. Editor,—The more I think about that outflow of money from Napanee the madder I get, until sometimes I get mad all over. And the bond agents who find Napanee a happy hunting ground aren't the only offenders. Just think of four Banks in Napanee all occupying good corners, block enough looking institutions in the daytime, but as drab as King Tut's tomb at night. Banks indeed—collecting agencies one might rather say—whose doors are open six hours a day to collect the savings of the people, and are closed the rest of the time to count the money and send it off to help build up some place which is already suffering from erroneous pains. The only time Napanee needed money from the banks this year was on turkey day, and it wasn't there, and a hurried call had to be sent to headquarters to recall some which had been deported the week before. The bankers prate about the elasticity of Canadian Banks. Well even elastic has its limitations and if stretched too far will snap, and we have seen enough of these snaps lately. There is a good deal to be said for the American system of local banks built up out of local capital and with a local interest. Why don't the business men in Napanee start a trust company, where local savings could be deposited and with proper safeguards used for local needs. Why? Because the people wouldn't trust the business men any more than they trust one another. We leave the bank here at 4 o'clock suspecting everybody but the man we don't know, who comes from the outside and makes a coup every week or so.

Will someone with more brains than I have, please tell me, through the columns of The Beaver, why there are four hotels in Napanee, every one of them doing business, doing it without help from the town or anyone else. And I suppose they are all making a living for the owners. Well men that can make money out of the hotel business in Napanee today under present conditions are wizards, and are worthy of a bigger and better chance. They ought to get together, erect a fine edifice, and keep the business that now goes to Kingston and Belleville. Will, why don't they? Because they haven't got the money, and those who have won't "ante them." But I venture to say they have money in the King Edward Construction Company, the Mount Royal, or the Drummond Apartments, hotels run by men the names of which not a person in Napanee can name off hand.

And there is another side to it all. If money flows out of the town the young men of brains flow after it; so that Napanee loses both men and money. Bill Caton, the pioneer radio fan in Napanee, who made the first set in the town out of old wire and tin cans, and was listening in when the rest of us were dreaming about it, and the hardest time in the world to get a couple of hundred dollars to finance himself in the radio business. The result was that he got discouraged and left. He is now a recognized expert in the employ of the Dominion Government.

The young men of ability leave the town, and make good in business and the professions. Then when they have become well known and their ability recognized, we have an old boys' re-union, in order to give the business men of Napanee a chance to slap them on the back with a "well glad to see you old boy". Old boy, forsooth—old boys who might just as well have been building up Napanee if their elders had only a little faith in their ability and given them a start.

But the town hasn't lost all its ability. There are brains enough going to waste around the town to build up a real city. Think of young men in the prime of life, with energy, ability and training, standing behind a counter selling powder, puffs, and paint,—a job any girl can be taught to do in a month,—while they kick the counter with nerves anger half the time waiting for customers who never come. Money flows out of the town, and brains after it. And what brains are left are not half used. Why there are enough brains around this burgh to make a success of any undertaking. But let the owners of them start a boot and fuel for twenty factory, a paint works, or a pickle factory, and undertake to operate them, and they would be pan-handled by the men with the money. No! but let someone come from British Columbia or Newfoundland, or Man for that matter, with a proposition to make pallies for pet poodles, crutches for canaries, toothpicks for crocodiles, or wafers for sick gold fish, or some other far fetched scheme, and the Town Council will erect a building and advertise it as a growing concern even if it only employes two men and a boy on half time.

The young men in Napanee have the brains and the pep, and want the work to do, and the older men have the money and the experience. Why cannot the two get together and develop the means of building up the town?

Read about a fellow once who took a lantern and went looking for a man. Well Napanee wants a man today. Isn't there some business man with faith in his town, and isn't afraid to say so?

Come on, a New Year's resolution,—no more bonds and stocks in small denominations, and no more brains in Napanee going to waste, until the old town booms.

—PONZI.

CAMDEN EAST

The first part of the week was very cold weather, registering 16 below zero on Sunday last.—Mr. Chas. Riley and wife, of Guelph College, and Miss Marion Riley, of Ottawa, spent the Xmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Riley, and their two sisters, Misses Jean and Marjory Riley.—Mr. Arthur Hinch and sister, Helen, of Toronto, spent Xmas holidays with their mother, Mrs. Anna Hinch, also their aunt, Miss Sarah Amey.—Miss Lucy Hinch of Napanee spent Xmas week with Dr. Youvex and family and with other friends in the village.—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hinch and little son, of Kingston, spent Xmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bargeyne and other friends.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snider entertained a number of their friends to Xmas dinner.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hinsted took their Xmas dinner at Desoronto, with their son-in-law, Herbert, and family.—Mrs. Ted Allore and two boys spent Xmas holidays at Tweed, with friends.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Black took Xmas dinner at Tamworth with his daughter, Mrs. Mandley Basford Close and little daughter.—Mr. and Mrs. Drew, of Napanee, took their Christmas dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Macdonald.—Mr. R. TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

Beginning next Sunday the Tamworth congregation will observe the Week of Prayer. The subject for next Sunday will be "The Task and the Resources of the Church." Monday will be the Young Peoples' night. The services will continue every night, except Saturday, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. Programmes for the week will be distributed at the Sunday night service. The session and choir have promised to stand by which we take to be the attitude of the whole congregation.

The Christmas programme, given under the auspices of the Maribank Sunday School, was deserving of the good hearing which it received from a crowded hall, where standing room was at a premium. The Brooks family, from Roblin, did masterfully to the interest of the programme, as did also a reading from Miss Janet Alp, and a guitar solo by Paul Toomley. Even though the juvenile members of the Sunday School were admitted free of charge, the door receipts at a nominal charge of 25c. and 15c. amounted to $60.00.

The Christmas of 1925 has become a memory instead of an expectation. To the children it will be one that the memory is warm, sweet, tender, like the One whose birth it commemorates, and will continue on down through the coming year. It is not given to every home with a grown up family to have its inmates all around the hearthstone at this yuletide. With a family of 13 born and fuel for twenty below zero weather only added pep and zest to the occasion.

Death has no respect even for the Christmas season. He knocked with appalling hand at the door of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Trumper's home, and took away their little great grandson, the 18 months' old son of their grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, who were Christmas guests in their home. A cold, rapidly developing into pneumonia, snuffed out the little life last Tuesday morning.

West Ward—Dr. J. B. Willoughby, nominated by T. B. Wallace and J. E. Robinson.

There being no other nominations, Messrs. Craig, Woods and Dr. Willoughby were declared elected.

UTILITIES COMMISSION.

J. E. Robinson—Nominated by M. P. Graham and Alex. MacGregor.

J. E. Robinson having no opposition, was declared elected for the term of two years.

PUBLIC MEETING.

At the close of nomination a public meeting was held to give the nominees an opportunity to address the electors, and members of the Council of 1925 a chance to render an account of their stewardship.

The attendance at nomination this year was not up to standard, probably on account of the extreme cold weather. The hall was only partly filled.

Mr. W. A. Grange, Town Clerk, acted as Chairman, and called upon the gentlemen nominated to address the meeting.

Alpine Woods, Chairman of the School Board, was the first speaker. He dwelt principally on matters connected with the building of the addition to the Collegiate Institute, which was badly needed. The teachers and students now have ample accommodation. This was necessary, he said, for efficiency in the education of our youth.

J. E. Robinson, Public Utilities Commissioner, spoke next, and reviewed matters in connection with the waterworks department. The system has been under municipal operation for five years now, and is fast paying for itself. The town purchased the old plant for $70,000. Since then $56,000 has been expended on repairs and new equipment, making it 100 per cent efficient for household supply and fire protection. The plant is in shape now, he said, to pour all the water the firemen can handle. In the matter of receipts it has given a surplus every year, and for the past two years the surplus has been in the neighborhood of $6,000.

Mayor Ming, in addressing the meeting, paid his respects to J. E. Robinson as Utilities Commissioner, and said his place could not be filled by any other in Napanee. The Dr. said he had been a member of the Council Board at periods for many years, but he found the past year's Council the best for harmony and businesslike methods. It has been customary, he said, to give the Mayor a second term, and he thought his past record would entitle him to the same privilege that his predecessors had.

E. J. Roy declined the nomination for Mayor, but would be in the field again for Councillor. Mr. Roy said he headed the poll last year, and would like to repeat the offence again this year, provided the people could see it that way.

W. J. Jewell was also nominated for Mayor. He was not partial towards the executive chair, but would accept a seat as Councillor if the electors chose to confer that honor upon him.

Mark P. Graham, Chairman of Streets, reviewed the work done in his department for the year—oiling of streets, construction of cement walks and sewers, and general repairs. Among the items of expenditure were, for oiling $4525.00, cement walks $7776.24. The walks in the town were now practically all cement and in good shape. The Reeve said it was rumored that the Council needed some new blood, that the expenditure should be kept down, and a lower tax rate struck—the latter practically impossible, he remarked, on account of certain fixed expenditures. There would be no lowering of the taxes for several years, or until certain debenture debts were paid off. The Reeve was not sure whether he would be in the field again. He had served in the Council for years, and it took up considerable of his time.

Alex. MacGregor gave a resume of the town's finances. There was a balance for the year of about $1500 in receipts over expenditures. This is, the first time, he said, the Council has had a balance on the right side for a number of years. He was nominated for Reeve but would not oppose Mark Graham, whose experience in municipal affairs fitted him for that office—the right man for the right place. Mr. MacGregor thanked the electors and solicited their vote as Councillor for 1926.

Geo. W. Paul was the next speaker. He thought the past year's Council was putting too much expense on the people, and it was time to call a halt. If he decided to run for Reeve his slogan would be economy.

J. M. Simpson, as Chairman of Fire, Water and Light, gave some information concerning the new fire truck. He said it had a test through the snow and did good work, and was a valuable addition to the fire department. In the matter of economy he figured that the fire truck is costing the individual taxpayer 25 cents over a period of ten years.

OBITUARY.

John Coburn

Another pioneer citizen of Port Arthur, John Coburn, who came here in 1884 to be employed with the Marks-Mackie Co., the nucleus of the Marks-Clavet-Dobie Co., Limited, died at his home, 67 South Court Street, Sunday, Dec. 6th. Mr. Coburn was seventy-seven years and nine months old. Although he had complained of rheumatic pains during last week and was confined to his bed, his death was unexpected by his daughters, Miss Bertha Coburn and Mrs. A. E. Nicklin, who, aroused from sleep Sunday morning, noted his condition. A doctor, being called, pronounced life extinct.

Mr. Coburn was a resident of Port Arthur forty-one years, coming here in 1884 to enter the employ of Marks-Mackie. He remained with that firm until 1888, when he embarked in business for himself, conducting a grocery and confectionery store on the site of the present Merrick block, between Pearl and Ambrose streets. Because of ill health he retired from business in 1905, and a year later entered the employ of the Dominion Government in H. M. Customs, Port Arthur, as a landing waiter, which position he held until 1921, when he was superannuated. His position brought him into daily touch with the sailors of the Great Lakes, and because of his good nature and love of the waterfront there was bestowed upon him the sobriquet of Captain, although he had never himself commanded a craft. In his early life he was an ardent sportsman and was the possessor of several trophies of the hunt. He loved fishing, perhaps, best of all the outdoor sports. Mrs. Coburn died seven years ago. He is survived by two daughters, (Celia) Mrs. A. E. Nicklin, and Miss Bertha Coburn, supervisor of the municipal telephone exchange, and two grandaughters, Patricia and Geraldine Nicklin, A sister, Mrs. Carrie Lockwood, resides at Newburgh, Ont.

Many old time residents and pioneer citizens were present at the funeral, which was held on Wednesday, Dec. 9th. The pallbearers were: Ald. John O. Hourigan, J. F. Hodder, Ambrose Ferguson, R. T. R. Boyce, W. J. Schwigler and H. Walmsley.

Rev. J. A. Tuer, pastor of St. Paul's United Church, officiated, and read as a passage of scripture the twenty-third Psalm. He also read two favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "On the Resurrection Morning." Mr. Tuer gave a short address on the words, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." Many beautiful floral tributes were laid on the casket. — Port Arthur News-Chronicle, Monday, Dec. 7th, 1925.

Mrs. Iolene Raymer.

The death occurred on Tuesday, December 8th, 1925, at her home, on Mathers Ave., Hollyburn, West Vancouver, of Iolene Raymer, widow of the late Willis Rayner, who predeceased her thirteen months ago. Mrs. Raymer had been seriously ill during practically the whole time of her residence in West Vancouver, but her bright disposition and great patience in the face of her disease has won for her many devoted friends who sincerely regret her early demise. Two and a half years ago her mother left Napanee and was in attendance on her daughter to the last. Mrs. Raymer leaves one child, Marjorie, aged 3 years, besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Herrington, Napanee, and one brother, Seldon, of Toronto. The funeral was held on Thursday. The service was held in St. Stephen's Church, and was conducted by the Rev. A. H. Priest and the Rev. A. M. O'Donnell, and interment made in the North Vancouver cemetery. The pall bearers were six members of the G. W. V. A., of which Mr. Raymer had been a member, Messrs. Archer, Gracey, Lawson, McTavish, Turner and McPherson. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved parents and brother and little Marjorie, in their loss. Mrs. Herrington and granddaughter expect to leave for the East soon.

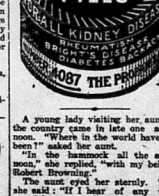
Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.



A young lady visiting her aunt in the country came in late one afternoon. "Where in the world have you been?" asked her aunt.

"In the hammock all the afternoon," she replied, "with my beloved Robert she replied."

The aunt eyed her sternly. Then she said: "If I hear of any more scandalous goings on, I shall certainly write to your mother."

A Useless Advertisement.

An old man, well past sixty, entered the publication offices of the Book and Life and asked to be directed to the lost and found counter. At the proper department, he requested the insertion of the following "liner ad.:"

LOST—About forty years ago—an opportunity. It is probably worthless now, but I will reward the honest finder who brings it to me, as I am curious to know what it might have done for me had I not been careless with it.

The clerk read the advertisement and then looked pityingly at the old man.

"We'll insert your ad.," he said, "but it is my duty to inform you that there is hardly any use in putting it in. We have no records of any lost opportunities ever having been found."

The old man thought for a few minutes, then he said:

"Well, insert it anyhow. People will read it and start to thinking."

Then he went away.

Cross Eyed Mentally.

Do you ever start to say something and find yourself using the word you hadn't the faintest idea of using? Just a little cross eyed mentally, aren't you? Did you ever mean to jam your foot on the accelerator and slam it down on the brake instead? Have you ever put salt twice on the same plateful of food when one of the applications should have been pepper? Did you ever laugh at the wrong time at the theater, or sneeze unnecessarily at a funeral, or fail to sleep quietly in church, or solicitously inquire where So-and-so is nowadays when the poor chap has been dead six months? Sure you have. Everybody does it. We're all just a bit mentally cross eyed sometimes, and we don't look where it seems that we are looking. What we really need to look out for is not doing queer things too often. If we do there's no telling what may happen to us. We may get into the papers!

Men Who Wear Feathers.

Among the strange tribes of men about whom little is known are the Chamacocos of the region about the upper Paraguay river.

Although the Chamacocos wear but little clothing, they excel in the art of making personal adornments from the feathers of birds. Their country abounds with birds of the most beautiful plumage, including parrots, toucans and trogons, whose feathers are dazzling in color; rheas with gray plumes, musk ducks of a glossy black color, egrets with feathers of pure white and spoonbills of a delicate pink.

All this wealth of color and grace-ful plumage is combined by the Chamacocos in a most artistic manner. Some of these savages walk their forest glades in colors more brilliant, if less ample, than any woman's dressmaker could produce.

His Elaborate Efforts.

"One should be aware of beginning his speech in too loud a voice," said Grout. "If you start off with a yell, when the time comes to roar demonstration or shout hosannas you will have no wind left with which to be emphatic. I knew a man whose wife exhibited more than 300 love letters in court, which he had written her during a brief courtship of eleven weeks. He often wrote her six or more in one day, and his shortest epistle contained four pages. And yet before they had been married two months he had shipped her jaws so far around that when she wanted to talk into the telephone she had to back up to it. His excuse was that he had exhausted his affection in the course of the correspondence."

Robbery!

He was old, gray, unkempt, unshaven and tottering. His toes protruded from his shoes. He crawled up to an old well curb by an orchard entrance and clung there exhausted. Suddenly a man in furs dashed angrily forward. "Hey, gimme them rings!" he shouted. The old man removed three diamond rings from his fingers and gave them to the brute.

"All right. Now go on," he ordered to a man turning a handle. "How'd you s'pose them rings would look on the counterfeit, you poor idiot? You're supposed to be broke!"

Perils of Tropical Waters.

Raising a vessel submerged in tropical waters is dangerous business, according to an account in Shipping Illustrated of the salvage of a pearler that had been sunk in the harbor of Progreso, Yucatan. The sailors were in constant danger owing to the attacks of "voracious fishes, some of which are more ferocious than sharks and tend to make determined in their methods of attacking human prey."

Valley of the Jordan.

The valley of the Jordan constitutes the deepest depression on the face of the earth, the sea of Galilee itself being over 700 feet below the level of the Mediterranean, while the Dead sea is over 1,200 feet below the level of all the oceans of the world.

The Distinction.

"Pa," asked Willie, "what's the difference between an invalid and a sick person?"

"An invalid, my son," answered pa, "has money."

Geranium Oil.

Geranium oil is largely used in perfumery and is known as rose geranium owing to the common practice of adding rose petals to the plants before distillation.

If you will not hear Reason she will surely rap your knuckles.—Franklin.

A Remedy for Earache. — To have the earache is to endure torture. The ear is a delicate organ and few care to deal with it, considering it work for a doctor. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil offers a simple remedy. A few drops upon a piece of lint or medicated cotton and placed in the ear will do much in relieving pain.

Earthquake Shocks.

It is a little more than 150 years ago that English people had a lively interest in earthquakes. There had been several shocks in various parts of the country, and then, in February and March, 1750, two shocks were felt in London. Something like panic ensued. People fled into the fields, in some cases going ten miles out. The clergy preached on the subject, and special prayers were said. There has been no serious earthquake shock in that country, however, since 1854, and experts say that England is practically immune from them, largely because of the coal mines which honeycomb so much of the country.

A Female Bellringer.

Mrs. Arthur Shurtleff, of Boston, is said to be the only native American woman bellringer who has succeeded in ringing a "peal." On a recent visit to England Mrs. Shurtleff astonished veteran bellringers there with her perfect mastery of the bell ropes.

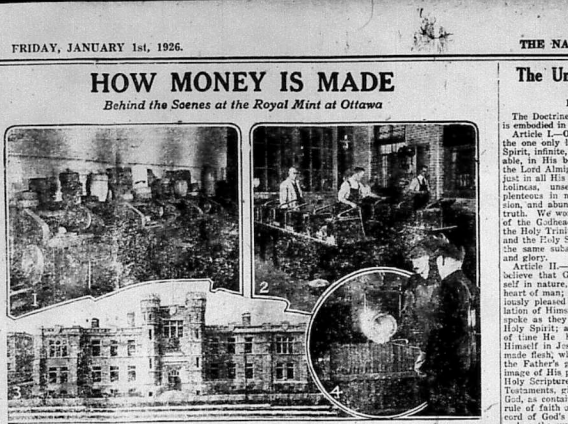
HOW MONEY IS MADE

Behind the Scenes at the Royal Mint at Ottawa



1—Melting furnaces—These blast furnaces burn oil and are charged under air pressure. A series of screens in a combustion chamber at the back of each furnace catch any escaping metal that is blown up the chimney.

2—The weighing room—these machines are operated from dry electric cells and weigh each coin to the seventieth part of a postage stamp.

3—Pouring molten metal into ingot moulds. A gas jet is played on the lip of the crucible as the metal is being poured as the heat keep it in liquid form, otherwise it would run thick and set.

4—The main entrance to the Canadian Branch of The Royal Mint at Ottawa.

THERE is a vast difference between making money and coining money. Anyone who is clever enough may make money, either in the literal or figurative sense. But the privilege of coining money belongs to the Sovereign. The only place in Canada where money is actually made is at the Canadian branch of The Royal Mint at Ottawa, which was opened early in 1908. Since then it has been the manufacture of all Canadian coins and all English sovereigns. To-day the Canadian branch has charge of all the work at the mint. A certain quantity of metal is given out in certain numbers of coins to be minted. If one is found to be needed for full found. Then the coins which accumulates is collected and melted to recover the precious metals.

The process through which the raw material passes in being transformed from the rough metal into the finished coin are numerous. They include melting, refining, rolling, annealing, blanching, cleaning, cutting, testing.

Casting Moulds

The ingots, as received from the refiner, are cleaned in a machine with the proper amount of acid added. The mottled appearance of the ingots after cleaning is due to the fact that the copper and silver do not combine when the metals are melted together. The ingots are then rolled out in a rolling mill to the proper thickness, which is 1 inches wide, and 6 inches long.

The bars are not passed on till a person has been received from the refiner. Office that they are of the right standard.

The Rolling Mill

In the rolling process the bars are thinned by thirty-nine passes through the rolls, which are set seventeen or eighteen feet long and of a thickness equal to that of the coins to be made from them.

Punching Discs

Next the fillets are taken to the punching machines, where a sample blank is punched out. If this is found to be the right weight the whole strip is passed as standard, but if too light, it is returned to the rolling room. Three blanks in copper and two in silver or gold are cut at each stroke, and each machine can produce three hundred gold or silver, and four hundred and fifty bronze blanks in a minute. The fillets from which the blanks have been cut, known as scrieel, go back to be remelted.

The blanks then are passed through the marking machine, where a protecting edge is raised. This machine can mark six hundred blanks in a minute.

The rolling and cutting process makes the metal hard and brittle, so the marked blanks are softened by passing them through an annealing furnace, are cleaned in a weak solution of sulphuric acid, and washed and dried, the drying being done in a centrifugal drying machine.

Stamping Coins

Coining or stamping is the next process. The press, of which there are six, have a capacity of 100,000 coins a day. The top and bottom dies, which make the impression on each side of the coin, screw up and down, the collar, plate in which the blank is enclosed, remaining stationary. The blanks are placed in a feed tube, and fed one by one by steel fingers, which move one at a time and place it in the collar. The dies come together and form the impression on both sides at once. The milled edge and the final polish are also put on at this one operation.

Examining and Weighing

The next step is the testing and examining of the coins. In the case of gold, and fifty and twenty-five cent silver coins, each is weighed on an automatic machine. The ten-cent and five-cent pieces are weighed in groups against a standard dollar weight, the one-cent pieces against a pound of avoir-du-pois. One hundred and forty of the small one-cent pieces should weigh exactly one pound. The electrically operated weighing machines are so accurate that, when loaded, the beam will turn to the seventieth part of a postage stamp. Each machine will weigh twenty coins a minute.

The coins passed by the automatic scales are being of the correct weight are taken to the examining machine, where they are spread on two travelling belts and carefully examined. One operator examines one side and another the other side, so that both sides can be inspected at once. Any that are discoloured or imperfect are picked out. The perfect coins are dropped singly on an iron block to see that they have the correct ring; 40,000 such coins can be sounded in a day. Any found to be imperfect are put through the defacing machine, which cuts notches around the rim, and then they are sent to be remelted.

The coins that have stood all these tests are then weighed into certain fixed amounts and forwarded to the mint office, where they are counted into bags by the telling machine. The coins are then ready for circulation as small change.

An old gentleman said to some girls who were talking very loud at the opera, "My dear young ladies, please talk a little louder; the music makes such a noise I can't hear half you say."

The United Church

Doctrine.

The Doctrine of the United Church is embodied in the following articles :

Article I.—Of God.—We believe in the one only living and true God, a Spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable, in His being and perfections; the Lord Almighty, who is love, most just in all His ways, most glorious in holiness, unsearchable in wisdom, plenteous in mercy, full of compassion, and abundant in goodness and truth. We worship Him in the unity of the Godhead and the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, three persons, of the same substance, equal in power and glory.

Article II.—Of Revelation. — We believe that God has revealed Himself in nature, in history, and in the heart of man; that He has been graciously pleased to make clearer revelation of Himself to men of God who spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit; and that in the fulness of time He has perfectly revealed Himself in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, who is the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person. We receive the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, given by inspiration of God, as containing the only infallible rule of faith and life, a faithful record of God's gracious revelations, and as the sure witness to Christ.

Article III.—Of the Divine Purpose.—We believe that the eternal, wise, holy and loving purpose of God so embraces all events that while the freedom of man is not taken away, nor is God the author of sin, yet in His providence He makes all things work together to the fulfilment of His sovereign design and the manifestation of His glory.

Article IV.—Of Creation ind Providence.—We believe that God is the creator, upholder and governor of all things; that He is above all His works and in them all; and that He made man in His own image, meet for fellowship with Him, free and able to choose between good and evil, and responsible to his Maker and Lord.

Article V.—Of the Sin of Man.—We believe that our first parents, being tempted, chose evil, and so fell away from God and came under the power of sin, the penalty of which is eternal death; and that, by reason of this disobedience, all men are born with a sinful nature, that we have broken God's law and that no man can be saved but by His grace.

Article VI.—Of the Grace of God. —We believe that God, out of His great love for the world, has given His only begotten Son to be the Saviour of sinners, and in the Gospel freely offers His all-sufficient salvation to all men. We believe also that God, in His own good pleasure, gave to His Son a people, an innumerable multitude, elected in Christ unto holiness, service and salvation.

Article VII.—Of the Lord Jesus Christ.—We believe that our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, the only Mediator between God and man, who, being the Eternal Son of God, for us men and for our salvation became truly man, being conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary, yet without sin. Unto us He has revealed the Father, by His word and Spirit, making known the perfect will of God. For our redemption He fulfilled all righteousness, offered Himself a perfect sacrifice on the cross, satisfied Divine justice and made propitiation for the sins of the whole world. He rose from the dead and ascended into Heaven, where He ever intercedes for us. In the hearts of believers He abides forever as the indwelling Christ; above us as our ever us all He rules; wherefore, unto Him we render love, obedience and adoration as our Prophet, Priest and King.

Article VIII.—Of the Holy Spirit. —We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who moves upon the hearts of men to restrain them from evil and to incite them unto good, and whom the Father is ever willing to give unto all who ask Him. We believe that He has spoken by holy men of God in making known His truth to men for their salvation; that, through our exalted Saviour, He was sent forth in power to convict the world of sin, to enlighten men's minds in the knowledge of Christ, and to persuade and enable them to obey the call of the Gospel; and that He abides with the Church, dwelling in every believer as the spirit of truth, of power, of holiness, of comfort and of love.

Article IX.—Of Regeneration.—We believe in the necessity of regeneration, whereby we are made new creatures in Christ Jesus by the Spirit of God, who imparts spiritual life by the gracious and mysterious operation of His power, using as the ordinary means the truths of His word and the ordinances of divine appointment in ways agreeable to the nature of man.

Article X.—Of Faith and Repentance.—We believe that faith in Christ is a saving grace whereby we receive Him, trust in Him and rest upon Him alone for salvation, as He is offered to us in the Gospel, and that this saving faith is always accompanied by repentance, wherein we confess and forsake our sins with full purpose of and endeavor after a new obedience to God.

Article XI.—Of Justification and Sonship.—We believe that God, on the sole ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Christ, pardons those who by faith receive Him as their Saviour and Lord, accepts them as righteous and bestows upon them the adoption of sons, with a right to all the privileges therein implied, including a conscious assurance of their sonship.

Article XII.—Of Sanctification. — We believe that those who are regenerated and justified grow in the likeness of Christ through fellowship with Him, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the persevering grace of God. And we believe that in this growth in grace Christians may attain the maturity and full assurance of faith whereby the love of God is made perfect in us.

Article XIII.—Of Prayer.—We believe that we are encouraged to draw near to God, our heavenly Father, in the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and on our own behalf and that of others to carry our hearts humbly yet freely before Him, as becomes His beloved children, giving Him the honour and praise due to His holy name, asking Him to glorify Himself on earth as in heaven, confessing unto Him our sins and seeking of Him every gift needful for this life and for our everlasting salvation. We believe also that, inasmuch as all true prayer is prompted by His Spirit, He will in response thereto grant us every blessing according to His unsearchable wisdom and the riches of His grace in Jesus Christ.

Article XIV.—Of the Law of God. —We believe that the moral law of God, summarized in the Ten Commandments, testified to by the prophets and unfolded in the life and teachings of Jesus Christ, stands forever in truth and equity, and is not made void by faith, but on the contrary is established thereby. We believe that God requires of every man to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God; and that only through this harmony with the will of God shall be fulfilled that brotherhood of man wherein the kingdom of God is to be made manifest.

Article XV.—Of the Church.—We acknowledge one holy catholic Church the innumerable company of saints of every age and nation, who, being united by the Holy Spirit to Christ their Head are one body in Him and have communion with their Lord and with one another. Further, we receive it as the will of Christ that His Church on earth should exist as a visible and sacred brotherhood, consisting of those who profess faith in Jesus Christ and obedience to Him, together with their children, and other baptized children, and organized for the confession of this name, for the public worship of God, for the administration of the sacraments, for the upbuilding of the saints, and for the universal propagation of the Gospel; and we acknowledge as a part, more or less pure, of this universal brotherhood, every particular Church throughout the world which professes this faith in Jesus Christ and obedience to Him as divine Lord and Saviour.

Article XVI.—Of the Sacraments. —We acknowledge two sacraments, Baptism and the Lord's Supper, which were instituted by Christ, to be of perpetual obligation as signs and seals of the covenant ratified in His precious blood, as means of grace, by which, working in us, He does not only quicken, but also strengthen and comfort our faith in Him, and as ordinances through the observance of which His Church is to confess her Lord and be visibly distinguished from the rest of the world.

(1) Baptism with water into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is to be sacramental by which are signified and sealed our union to Christ and participation in the blessings of the new covenant. The proper subjects of baptism are believers, and infants presented by their parents or guardians in the Christian faith. In the latter case the parents or guardians should train up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and should expect that their children will, by the operation of the Holy Spirit, have the benefit of the new covenant in designed and fitted to convey. The Church is under the most solemn obligation to provide for their Christian instruction.

(2) The Lord's Supper is the sacrament of communion with Him and with His people, in which bread and wine are given and received in thankful remembrance of Him and His sacrifice on the cross; and they who in faith receive the same do, after a spiritual manner, partake of the body and blood of the Lord Jesus Christ to their comfort, nourishment and growth in grace. All may be admitted to the Lord's Supper who make a credible profession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and of obedience to His law.

Article XVII.—Of the Ministry. — We believe that Jesus Christ, as the Supreme Head of the Church, has appointed therein a ministry of the word and sacraments, and calls men to this ministry; that the Church, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit recognizes and chooses those whom He calls, and should thereupon duly ordain them to the work of the ministry.

Article XVIII.—Of Church Order and Fellowship.—We believe that the Supreme and only Head of the Church is the Lord Jesus Christ; that its worship, teaching, discipline and government should be administered according to His will by persons chosen for their fitness and duly set apart to their office; and that although the visible Church may contain unworthy members and is liable to err, yet believers ought not lightly to separate themselves from its communion, but are to live in fellowship with their brethren, which fellowship is to be extended, as God gives opportunity, to all who in every place call upon the name of the Lord Jesus.

Article XIX.—Of the Resurrection, the Last Judgement and the Future Life.—We believe that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust, through the power of the Son of God, who shall come to judge the living and the dead; that the finally impenitent shall go away into eternal punishment and the righteous into life eternal.

Article XX.—Of Christian Service and the Final Triumph.—We believe that it is our duty as disciples and servants of Christ, to further the extention of His kingdom; to do good unto all men, to maintain the public and private worship of God, to hallow the Lord's Day, to preserve the inviolability of marriage and the sanctity of the family, to uphold the just authority of the State, and so to live in all honesty, purity and charity that our lives shall testify of Christ. We joyfully receive the word of Christ, bidding His people go into all the world and make disciples of all nations, declaring unto them that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, and that He will have all men to be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. We confidently believe that by His power and grace all His enemies shall finally be overcome, and the kingdoms of this world be made the kingdom of our God and of His Christ.

Holland.

Holland, known as North and South Holland, forms part of the northern part of the Netherlands. These provinces are composed of land reclaimed from the sea and defended by immense dikes. Holland was inhabited by the Batavi in the time of Caesar, who made a league with them. It became part of Galila Belgica and afterward of the kingdom of Austria. From the tenth to the fifteenth century it was governed by counts under the German emperors. Holland was at one time a Dutch republic. It was created a kingdom in 1806, and Louis Bonaparte, father of Napoleon III., was declared king.—Exchange.

Actors In Retirement.

Many actors have lived long after retiring from the stage. Macready, retiring in 1851 at the age of fifty-eight, passed an honored leisure till his death at Cheltenham, England, in 1873. After Mrs. Siddons' farewell appearance as Lady Macbeth in 1812, being then in her fifty-seventh year, she spent her retaining score of years in almost unbroken retirement. The record in this respect, however, is held by that famous Master Betty whom in 1804 London acclaimed as the Infant Roscius. His positively last appearance was made on Aug. 5, 1824, at the age of thirty two. He died in August, 1874, a "resting" of half a century.—London Standard

Epsom Salts as a Dimmer.

Five cents' worth of Epsom salts dissolved in a teaspoful of water provides the neatest and most efficient "headlight dimmer" for automobiles so far proposed, according to the Scientific American. The solution is used on the inside of the headlight glass where it is allowed to evaporate. The result is a beautifully frosted lens, the frosting on which lasts for several months.

A Large Field to Draw From.

The Many-Purpose Oil. — Both in the house and stable there are scores of uses for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Use it for cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, the pains of rheumatism and sciatica, sore throat and chest. Horses are liable very largely to similar ailments and mishaps as afflict mankind, and are equally amenable to the healing influence of this fine old remedy which has made thousands of firm friends during the past fifty years.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of J. L. P. Gordanier, who passed away on December 27th, 1917.

We often think of the days gone by,
When we were all together;
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
A loved one gone forever.

Sadly missed by Wife and Family. 1ap

THANKFUL APPRECIATION

The Old Year is just closing; a new fiscal year lies just ahead. Now is the time when all of us are "taking stock" of ourselves and of our friends, looking backward even as we look ahead, in order that we may draw from our experiences of past years whatever profit they may hold to guide us in the new. Into your thoughts now must come thoughts of us, —even as into our thoughts and plans you come.

It is Customary for a Store to publish a gracious note of thanks at New Years time, but no such statement could adequately convey the full measure of our gratitude. Without your help, your confidence, your encouragement, we could not put this Store, as it is, in the limelight as one of the greatest merchandising Stores of the Province.

Only by seeking out new ways to serve you, added ways in which to further our usefulness to our community, can we possibly convey the fullness of our appreciation. To show this appreciation is our promise for the New Year. Whatever shall be within our power we shall do to continue to deserve your enthusiasm and your support.

Service to Co-Workers, to Patrons, to the Community at large, is The Robinson Company Store dedicated. Service and Stocks, for, without the latter the former is impossible. Large stocks, rich stocks, that have all the variety and resources of a great Store. And its prices are the same as any other store; often lower, but never higher, for equally good merchandise.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Chas. D. Markle, who passed away December 23rd, 1923.

Two long years passed since that sad day
God called the one we loved away;
Forget him? No, we never will,
As years roll on we love him still.
It is hard to lose the one we loved,
But God who knows best.
Held wide His loving arms and said,
"Come unto me and rest".

Sadly missed by Wife, two Daughters and Son.

The December meeting of the Morven Young People was held in the Brick Church, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 23rd. A large crowd gathered, representing the "Hustlers" and the "Busy Bees". The outstanding feature of this meeting was the Xmas programme, and tree, which was beautifully decorated with presents brought for the occasion. When the first part of the programme was nearly completed, a telegram was received from Santa Claus, saying he would be at Morven in good time to distribute the presents. At the close the pastor thanked the Morven friends, through the kind agency of Mrs. Charles Wilson, who carried out a very kind mission on behalf of herself and a number of kind friends, and brought to the parsonage a magnificent gift of a large goose and a sum of money to bring cheer and gladness to the pastor and family at this happy season of the year, for which the pastor expressed their united thanks for such an expression of goodwill and confidence and practical remembrance. Apples and candies were distributed to all, bringing to a close a most enjoyable evening.

HOCKEY.

The ice at the Arena was in very good condition for the opening on Saturday, Dec. 26th, and a large crowd was on hand. Before the skating began, a number of the boys engaged in a light hockey practice. Besides those mentioned in the previous edition, there are many other good players in the town. Billy Houle has obtained a position at Gibbard's, and will doubtless don the Blue and White this year. Houle is a fast, tricky player and shoots either way.

Clifford Cowle and Andrew Cavanaugh will doubtless be out this year, Cowle is a fast skater and a good stick-handler. Cavanaugh is a fast skater, a good stick-handler and has the necessary weight for a defence man. Both are young players and should make good.

A valuable prospect was lost to the town when Horace Lucas was transferred to the Royal Bank at Enterprise. Lucas was one of the finest prospects the town has had in quite a while. He is a fast skater, a good stick-handler and packs a wicked shot.

Evidently Queen's University has a fine Junior Hockey player they don't know of. Harold Northmore is the young man in question, and it is a mystery to local fans why he is not out with the Tricolor Juniors. Northmore was the sensation of the N.C.I. in the Interscholastic three years ago. He scored seven goals in two games against Deseronto, and four against Belleville in one game and one period of another.

Another player, in the person of Bill Barrett will leave town soon for Kingston. Barrett starred for a number of years with the N.C.I. and with "B" Co. last year. He is a fast, tricky player and can hold up his end of the defence.

On Tuesday evening an official practice was held, and Manager Graham put the boys through a half hour workout. Harry Babcock, Jim Napin, Doug. Fraser, Dick Foxton, Billy Houle and McGarry formed one team, and were opposed by Jack Stewart, Andrew Cavanaugh, Aubrey Garrison, Tom Kirby, Harold Johnston and Fred Huffman. Billy Houle surprised the rail-birds by his rushes and scored two goals.

Tommy Kirby showed himself to be a real player, but evidently finds some difficulty in becoming used to the small rink. He has speed to burn and certainly knows how to backcheck.

McGarry, of Perth, a new man, is a pretty fair player, but couldn't get away soon enough. However, he showed flashes of stick-handling ability at times.

Harold Johnston and Fred Huffman put up a real game, and their boring-in tactics delighted the rail-birds.

Jim Napkin was there, large as life. His rushes were as strong as ever and his stick-handling seemed even better than usual. His old cannon-ball shot is harder than usual and usually finds the corner of the net.

The younger players, Dick Foxton and Doug. Fraser, showed real promise of developing into future stars.

Harry Babcock turned in a very creditble performance in goal, making many fine saves, and showed that the old eye is still there.

Jack Stewart guarded the other net and seems to be a real good-tender. He handles himself well and can stop nearly anything.

Andrew Cavanaugh played a real good game on the defence, and his rushes were really thrilling.

Aubrey Garrison seems to lack confidence, but he will doubtless come around.

Fred Bentley, Harry Skitch, C. A. Sheaver and several others were absentees, but will no doubt be out soon.

Skitch was out on Monday and showed himself to be about as fast a player as there is around this district and if he isn't grabbed by the locals soon, some other team will avail themselves of the opportunity to secure a fine puck-chaser.

NOMINATION MEETING

H. J. Fitzpatrick, W. H. Dunbar, Wm. Howitt, and Thos. Huffman addressed the meeting and solicited the support of the electors as Councillors.

As the meeting was drawing to a close Dr. Ming took occasion to inform those present of the serious illness of Mr. E. S. Lapum, Town Treasurer. He had been a faithful and efficient public official for the past twenty-five years, and he thought it opportune that this meeting should give expression to its gratitude and sympathy. A motion was made by Alex. MacGregor, seconded by Mark P. Graham, and unanimously carried, that these expressions of gratitude and sympathy be conveyed to Mr. Lapum.

NEWBURGH

The municipal nominations in Newburgh this year were somewhat reminiscent of an Irish "wake". Pipes and tobacco were in evidence, and a solemnity marked the average countenance.

The number present indicated an interest in municipal affairs that would put the City of Toronto to shame. All sat with covered heads awaiting the movement of the Clerk, whose appearance indicated that he felt the burden of his responsibility. When he arose to declare the time for nominations closed, and to read the list of nominees, had it been summer time one could have heard the grass grow in the back yard, so great was the tension.

Two candidates were nominated for Reeve, viz., Geo. Anson Aylesworth and Thos. McNeely. These men were called upon for speeches in the order named. One spoke of what he might do and the other of what he had done. The most striking contrast in their speeches was that one wished his hearers the Compliments of the Season at the opening of his speech and the other at the closing of his. There were seven nominated for Council to fill four seats, and in some ways it would take them all to do it. They were all afforded an opportunity to address the electors, and each and all gave the stereotyped promise of willingness to do his best, leaving, of course, to the citizens the duty of appraising the values.

Whether the citizens will rise to the occasion or not is another thing. They are often apt to undervalue the work of the past and to set store by something that is more or less in the clouds, and in small communities, like ours, personal matters are too apt to find their way into public affairs. Anyway, we hope that we may have a good Council for 1926.

Mrs. E. Boyce was in Colebrook on Dec. 14th, attending the funeral of the late Joseph Boyce, aged 84 years, who passed away after an illness of three months. Deceased was a brother of the late James Boyce, and frequently visited in Newburgh with Mrs. Boyce. He was a Methodist and a life-long Orangeman. Seventy-five Orangemen in procession attended the funeral. The Rev. Mr. Wright, of Sydenham United Church, conducted the services, and the remains were laid to rest in Yarker cemetery. His wife died sixteen years ago.

Mrs. Bailey, of Belleville, is on a short visit with her brother, Mr. Simpkins, and her nephew, Mr. H. Snider.

Mr. Clare Paul, L.L.D., has returned from the west, where he visited his brothers, Bruce at Govan, Sask., and Frank and Edmund at Prince Albert, Sask.

Other visitors: Miss Addie Baker with her sister, Mrs. Courtney; little Mary Ross at the hotel; Miss Essie Johnson, of Ottawa, with her mother and sister; Mrs. Garrison and daughter, Marie, of Toronto, with Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Hogan.

Miss Mabel McNeely and Miss Mary Breeze, of Peterboro' Normal School, are spending the Christmas recess at their respective homes.

Mrs. Jarrell and children have returned to Chatham, after spending a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Shorts.

Little Mac Switzer, who has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia, is some better at time of writing.

Mrs. Lucas is on the sick list. Her mother, Mrs. Roland, is with her.

The Young People's meeting on Monday evening was taken by the Mission Band, a short programme was given, as follows: Chorus by the Mission Band, recitation by Jean Shorts, duet by Rena Patrick and Lorna Shorts, recitation by Lorna Shorts, duet by Francis Shier and Hazel Winter, recitation by Wilhemina Files, chorus by six little girls, Christmas story by Miss H. Paul, chorus by Mission Band. Then followed Santa's distribution of the Christmas story. Rev. Mr. Anderson and Mrs. Shier were in charge of the meeting.

Mr. Joseph Paul spent Monday afternoon with his sisters, Misses H. M. and Eliza Paul.

Rev. C. V. Fairbairne, of Kingston, was the preacher at the Mission Hall on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Hazel Winter is spending part of her holidays with her aunt, Mrs. W. Wade, Selby.

Miss Ella Yeomans and Mr. L. Dack spent Christmas with Mrs. H. Embury and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Embury, Napanee, also were with Mr. and Mrs. Embury for Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wagar and Mr. Frank Tompkins and family, also his aged mother, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins and Mrs. Ferris, Napanee Road, on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Dunwoody and Miss Mitchell were at Mrs. Sexsmith's and Mr. Delbert Sexsmith's for Christmas.

Mr. E. Gandier and son, Stewart, were in Napanee for Christmas.

Howard Thompson, of Napanee, visited with his cousin, Stewart Gandier, over Sunday.

Miss Rook, Napanee, has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jos. Ramsay.

Mr. J. H. C. Anderson, B.A., returned to Toronto on Monday, after spending Christmas holidays at home.

Last Sunday night a good congregation gathered in the United Church when the Pastor spoke on "The Year Text". Miss Ramsay's appropriate solo, "Just for To-day", was well given, and all were interested in J. C. Anderson's address on "The League of Nations".

At the Sunday School service Mrs. Geo. Paul, who was visiting at Mrs. Shorey's, sang very acceptably.

We are sorry to know that Mrs. Lucas is quite ill.

Mr. Ross Mounce spent Christmas with his parents.

Mrs. Geo. Quaile is visiting her daughters in Utica.

Mr. and Mrs. Orison Benn, of Sillsville, were with Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman, over Sunday.

Mr. James Weese, of Centreville, visited for a few days with his son, William, and family, of Wesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Yeomans and family were visitors at Mr. Will Weese's, Wesley, on Sunday.

Mrs. Pellar and family are spending the holidays at Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. McGillvary Aylesworth and Mr. Jack Aylesworth, of Toronto, were in Newburgh for Christmas.

Mr. Will Files returned to Point Anne on Tuesday, after spending the holiday at his home here.

Miss Marjorie Sutton is spending part of this week with Miss Mona Graham, Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moore visited during the week with Mr. and Mrs. Perry VanVlack, Deseronto Road. They will return to their home at Windsor the end of the week.

Love and a Cathedral Altar.

The high altar of the Freiburg cathedral, with its matchless carvings, tells a story not only of love, but of love's triumph through the sharp wit of the bride. Some of the bosses of this Hans Lefrink, who had been the early protege of Maximilian I., 200 years before, Grace was captured by the French, had dared to love the daughter of a rich man, and she was foolish enough to love him in return. The illigant parent, when the youth had received the commission to carve the high altar, and on the completion of this honor asked for the hand of his love, received the haughty response, "When you carve an altar as much higher than the church is which it stands, as my daughter is higher than you, you may lead her to that altar in marriage." It was an impossible condition, but nothing is impossible to love. When the altar had been installed it was observed that the topmost point of it was bent forward, extending in a curve, and was actually about fifteen inches higher than the church. It merely stooped a little in order to conquer.

When Gasoline Runs Low.

In Farm and Fireside is an ingenious suggestion for autoists whose gasoline has run so low that they have trouble in hill climbing.

One sometimes is caught out with a low supply of gasoline through having to make long detours to avoid bad roads or from other causes. The supply can be made to go several less emergency by adding denatured alcohol or kerosene. Occasionally there is sufficient gasoline for the ordinary level road, but not enough for an unexpected hill.

In this case the principle of pressure feed can be applied. Screw the cap down tight on the gasoline tank and then sharpen a match to fit the ventilating hole in the cap. Blow into this hole as hard as possible and immediately plug with a sharpened match. Usually this will enable the driver to make the hill without further trouble. But if not he can turn the car around and back uphill.

Doctors' Bills.

Your doctor's bill, in a general rule reads, "For professional services rendered." That means that you are to pay for work done and not for mistakes performed. If you hire a doctor to attend you in sickness you enter a contract to pay for his expert services, whether he succeeds in curing you or not. It would be unfortunate for both parties in the contract if the terms were otherwise.

Two things are not yet clearly understood by some people—first, a doctor's fee is collectible, and, second, a doctor is not legally bound to attend any one under any circumstances unless he wants to. You can't make a doctor work for a certain number of hours you can't make him work at all if he chooses to refuse his services.

One of Nature's Show Places.

Ogden canyon, a deep cleft through the towering Wasatch mountains, over looking the Great Salt lake, is one of nature's show places, cut in the solid rock by the river which runs through it, the rushing water, from prehistoric times, carrying quantities of sand and gravel which simply filed out the gres eat wonderful canyon. Ogden river was flowing west about its present course before the lofty Wasatch mountains came into existence. The raising of the mountains went on slowly for ages, so slowly that the river kept its place by cutting down its ever rising bed. In no other way can we explain rationally account for a river rising on one side of the range and flowing directly across it.

Magnetic Storms.

Contrary to the general belief, magnetic disturbances do not begin at the same moment all over the globe. Instead of that they progress around the earth. In the case of storms distances, which are usually comparative, by minute in their effect on the compass needle, the complete passage around the earth requires from three to four minutes. For the bigger effects or for the greater magnetic storms the rate of progression is slower, so that it would take them half an hour or more to pass around the earth completely.

Festival of Minerva.

The most noted festival at Athens was in honor of Minerva. All classes of citizens on this day marched in procession. The oldest went first, then the young men, the children, the young women, the matrons and the people of the lower orders. The most prominent object in the parade was a ship propelled by hidden machinery and bearing at its masthead the sacred banner of the goddess.

Curious Lake.

In the center of Kildine, an island in the German ocean, is a curious lake. The surface of its waters is quite fresh and supports fresh water as ship propelled by hidden machinery and bearing at its masthead the sacred banner of the goddess.

"Dear Old Ladies" and Other Kinds.

There are as many kinds of old ladies as there are girls, men, automobiles, books and remedies for a cold. There are kindly old ladies, ill natured old ladies, sharp old ladies, witty old ladies, stupid old ladies, musty-fusty old ladies, dainty old ladies, dear old ladies, silly old ladies. Whistler's mother old ladies, Betsy Trotwood old ladies, white spatted old ladies, tangoing old ladies and old ladies who don't wish to be called old ladies at all.

Nowadays most of them are so busy working in public causes that they have not time to protect their own interests as they should. But let us hope that after awhile they will organize a new association, to be called the Society For the Promotion of Distinctive Characterizations For Old Ladies, and that it will have displayed prominently on its banners the slogan "Down With the Word 'Dear!'"

Celts Discovered Soap.

Soap appears to have been discovered by the Celts, for the name is derived from the Celtic word "sebon." It seems strange that such early wanderers should have been familiar with soap, but if they had the name they must certainly have had the article it stood for. Moreover, it is quite conceivable that manufacturing word fires could accidentally discover soap. All woods have a certain amount of mineral salts, chiefly those of potash, in their fibers. After burning these are left in the form of carbonate, which a heavy shower of rain would dissolve into a liquid lye, washing out the grease from an overturned caldron of brush to form soap. A dash of natural curiosity on the part of the woman who cleaned up the mess would reveal the cleansing properties of the new substance.—London Mail.

Chateaubriand a Lover of Cats.

Many famous men have loved cats—Cardinal Richelieu and Victor Hugo among others—but probably the animals' most eloquent defender was Chateaubriand, the French writer.

"I love in the cat," he said, "that independent and almost ungrateful temper which prevents it from attaching itself to any one, the indifference with which it passes from the salon to the cemetery. The cat is not alone, has no need of society, does not obey except when it likes, pretends to sleep that it may see more clearly and scratches everything it can scratch."

And the great writer on another occasion went so far as to say that what he had by way comradeship with cats he was acquiring some of their characteristics!"—London Times.

Pasteur's Gift to Society.

The normal death rate of civilized countries before the days of Pasteur was almost thirty to a thousand of the population. Today it is about fifteen to a thousand in the more progressive nations. Think what a saving of fifteen lives a year for every thousand of population means when applied to all the earth! It means the saving each year of 12,000,000 untimely deaths annually. It means more than 25,000,000 cases of illness avoided. It means both more happiness in 20,000,000 homes rather than disease and distress.—Bulletin of National Geographic Society.

Crabs and Lobsters.

There are many curious points about crabs and lobsters. Every one of ei ther genus is provided with a big claw for crushing and usually claw adapted by its shape for cutting as scissors do. With these two claws they tear the food they capture into fragments and feed themselves literally from "hand to mouth." But there is every reason to suppose that the claws are intended quite as much for fighting as for eating purposes. Inasmuch as such powerful hands are not needed for devouring the soft food they prefer.

His Idea of It.

"How did you like the opera, Uncle Jerry?"

"Lot of bellowin', that's what it was."

"Why, Uncle Jerry, that's art. Those seats cost $50 apiece."

"And what do you call it?"

"Grand opera."

"Your wrong. It's grand larceny."—Exchange.

His Drawback.

"Girl, ain't you making a mistake in marrying a football hero?"

"But, mother, consider how he is admired on all sides."

"I do, and I should think that would make it very difficult to endow him to a point of lufullity desirable in a good husband."

Cinnamon Bark.

It is a seeming paradox that the best flavored cinnamon bark is produced on poor, white, sandy soil. It must, however, have an abundance of moisture, the choicest growing in a temperature of 80 degrees, where the rainfall is about one inch for every degree of temperature.

Postponed Wisdom.

"It's never too late to learn."

"That's right. Sometimes it's an advantage to be slow and get a lot of information you'd have been better off without."—

Caught the Habit.

"Why were you late?"
"My watch was slow."
"I know it. That's from going with you so much."

Industry is the right hand and frugality the left hand of fortune.—Old saying.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Barbara—"Billy and I are to be engaged this Christmas."

Mr. Tite—Wouldn't it be cheaper if I tell you what's the matter?

Magistrate—"You certainly committed this burglary in a remarkably clever way—in fact, with quite exceptional cunning."

Prisoner—"Now, your worship, if there's one thing I hate it's flattery!"

Reduced by Asthma. The constant strain of asthma brings the patient to a dreadful state of hopeless exhaustion. Early use should by all means be made of the famous Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which more than any other acts quickly and surely on the air passages and brings blessed relief and comfort. No home where asthma is present in the least degree should be without this great remedy.

Young Isaac had become engaged to a country girl. As he was about to leave London for a visit to her home, his father took him aside for a bit of advice.

"My boy," he said, "you know I've got your welfare at heart. I want you to make a good marriage. But you must be businesslike. The girl's father must come down with something handsome. If he is an honest man he ought to put down £1,000. If he is bankrupt, say £2,000. And if, which ve hopenge, he is in prison, den you should ask £5,000, no less."

With filial respect for the old man's suggestion the boy departed, and the next day telegraphed his father:—

"He was hanged six years ago. What amount do you advise?"

Mr. Whately, a commercial traveller, is a very light sleeper. One night he was to stop at a small hotel, and after much tossing about he finally succeeded in getting into a sound sleep. In answer to loud, repeated knocks on his door, he nervously sat upright in bed.

"What's wanted?" he grumbled.

"Package downstairs for you, sir."

"Well, let it stay there; it can wait till morning, I suppose."

The boy shuffled down the corridor, and after a long time the query fell into a sound sleep again. Then another knock came at the door.

"Well, what's up now?" queried Mr. Whately.

"Taint for you, that package!" said the boy, peeping round the door.

Wonderful.

It was in the Boston Museum of fine Arts. The little man with the tunted look on his face was standing before the mummy of an Egyptian princess. "Isn't it wonderful," he sighed, "to think that any one could make a woman dry up and stay that way?" And silently wiping away a tear he hurried out and caught a car, for it was only twenty minutes to dinner time.

Young Efficiency Expert.

Caller—So your son Willie has got a job as office boy. How is he getting on? Fond Mother—Splendidly! He already knows who ought to be die-hard, and he merely waiting to get promoted so that he can attend to it.

Well, Well.

"Did you ever aim at a deer in the Adirondacks and bag a guide?"

"I did more than that. I aimed at a bear in a drawing room and bagged a bride."

Experience.

"Experience would be a wonderful asset but for one thing."

"What's that?"

"You can never sell it for what it cost you."

Fortune has often been blamed for her blindness, but Fortune is not blind as men are.—Samuel Smiles.

The Grand Teton.

The view of the Teton peaks from Ashton, Ida., is superb and doubtless has been the inducement for many a tourist and sportsman to leave the main line for the Teton canyon and the Jackson Hole country in pursuit of elk, sheep, trout and unsurpassed mountain scenery. Owen Wister's "Virginian" was glad to get out of these mountains because, as he exhibited, "they're most too big."

The average American, who has only a vague conception of the natural beauties of the Rocky mountains and imagines that rarest alpine forms are found only in Switzerland, must be surprised when he first sees the lofty peaks of the Tetons. Even a man who has climbed the Matterhorn would think twice before daring to try Grand Teton. Accordingly, a small party of this type has been ascended only twice, in 1872 and 1894. As the snowclad mountains along the Alaskan archipelago, rising to cloud reaching heights, stand with their feet bathed in the ocean, so from a viewpoint near Ashton the Tetons, towering to the sky, rise from the billowy surface of a sea of golden grain.—Geological Survey Bulletin.

Howard and Prison Fever.

Typhus, which under the name of "prison fever" was once rampant in England, held no terrors for John Howard, the prison reformer. While in a cell he would hold to his nose a vial of aromatic vinegar and on going home would wash and change his clothes, though not to the present day he later abandoned. People thought his powers bordered on the magical, pressed him for his secret and refused to be satisfied with explanations that his immunity was due to fearlessness, cleanliness and temperance. He ate no flesh and very little of anything; he drank neither wine nor spirits and went to bed early and rose early. And his resolution enabled him to let light into the most noisome dungeons and to live to the age of sixty-four.—London Graphic.

Deal in Trousers.

The village innkeeper had been persuaded to lend a customer a pair of black trousers for funeral solemnities. The sad occasion was long gone, weeks had passed away, and still Mr. J. looked in vain for the return of his garments. They became urgently necessary, and he sent a messenger to demand them back again.

Said the messenger to the wrongful detainer of the goods: "Mr. J. must have 'em. He's going to a funeral."

"They won't do for a funeral," was the reply. "I've been workin' at the quarry in 'em."

"What will Mr. J. do, then?" asked the messenger.

"Why, borrow a pair," replied the other, "same as what I did."—London Tit-Bits.

Largest Hydraulic Lift Lock.

The largest hydraulic lift lock in the world is at Peterborough, Canada. It consists of two great steel boxes or pontoons, moving up and down between guiding towers. When a boat moves into one of the two pontoons the lock gates are closed behind it, and water is pumped in from above and soon until it becomes heavier than that containing the boat, which then, being overweighted, rises lightly into the air until it reaches the level of the upper canal. The boats are lifted a total distance of forty five feet, the gates and capstans being operated entirely by hydraulic power. The time of locking for boats is about twelve minutes, the actual time of the vertical lift being one and one-half minutes.—St. Nicholas.

Be Prepared.

Daniel Webster once told a friend that his great speech in reply to Hayne, which is the high water mark of modern eloquence, but which at the time was supposed to have been delivered without preparation, had been substantially prepared long before. When called upon suddenly to reply to the fiery Carolinian's attacks, which so alarmed the New Englanders at the capital, he was entirely at ease and ready for the fray, for, as he said, he had "only to turn to his notes tucked away in a pigeonhole" and make his recollection. "If Hayne," he said, "had tried to make a speech to fit my notes he could not have hit them better. So I was inspired by the occasion. I never was."

Ending the Argument.

"There are always two sides to a question."

"Quite so. And I don't like a fellow who insists on expounding both of 'em."

Help and Hope.

Enlarge your vision and grasp of worldly affairs by silent communion with the immensity of the star-strewn universe—you will find the heartaches of life's disappointments, the ephemeral glitter and tinsel that seem so essential to your happiness, are but passing phrases of an existence to be dealt with serenely and intelligently, and that cannot be done wisely and well if one eternally grovels in the clay of earth without moments of silent withdrawal to the starry solitudes of thought.

Richest Pearl Fisheries.

Although most of the bays and inlets of the remote island groups of the South Seas have been stripped of their pearl-bearing bivalve mollusks by venturesome world-wayfarers, there continues to be found occasionally small areas of these waters that have been untouched by pearl divers and which often yield wealth to the explorers. The richest pearly waters in the world are those adjacent to the picturesque beach town of Broome.

Custom Had Origin Long Ago.

The absurd universal habit of turning aside the head and suppressing the sneeze or cough has an interesting origin. It is derived from human experience. In the middle ages (and probably much earlier), when frequent plagues of various diseases swept away whole populations in Europe, it was suspected and even believed that infection was conveyed by coughing and sneezing. Hence the adoption of the precaution.

Keep Troubles to Yourself.

Life for the vast majority of us is none too carefree. This trouble, or that disappointment, makes our world very cheerless at times; but dwelling upon our problems, elaborating upon our difficulties, or longing to share those unpleasant realities with others will not aid us one iota. We, each, individually, must stand our own ground, and, if we are wise, refuse to be influenced by any unprofitable moods.

Peculiar "Adornment."

Widows in the Hawaiian islands, up to very recent years, had the names of their dead husbands tattooed on their bonnets. Egyptian women today have their lips pricked blue for beautifying. And in Yezo, the northernmost island of the Japanese archipelago, the fashion demands that girls shall greatly enlarge the apparent size of their mouths by a tattooing in red about the lips.

Matters Not to Be Discussed.

Of this fact we may all rest assured: The quieter we keep about ourselves, our affairs, physical or otherwise, the better it will be for us. Time is at a premium these days, and if we hope to surmount our difficulties in matters that concern us, we must wisely learn to keep each and every one of those problems in the background.

Fruit That Produces Oil.

A fruit containing a large percentage of oil has been discovered in the region of Torreon, Mex., and is known by the name of chichenzapote. Experiments show that 25 per cent of its contents consists of oil of great value in industrial pursuits requiring a lubricant of high quality. It is proposed to introduce the cultivation of this fruit upon a large scale.

Rests With Man to Accomplish.

The door of opportunity is never closed to the man who has the desire to realize his ambitions and the will to do so. And to the one who believes that the world is in fair field, there is no closed door. But it awaits the man who will lift the latch and walk through without questioning what awaits him.

Miniature Railroad.

The smallest passenger-carrying railway in England is to be found on the estate of S. P. Derbyshire, at Ilkeston. The gauge of the roadbed is only seven inches. The engine, a perfect model of the Midland railway 1,000 class, is three-quarter-horse power and will haul four adult passengers of the miniature truck.

Substitute for Platinum.

Palladium furnishes a substitute for platinum in the dental industry, there by relieving the latter metal of war. It is nearly as hard as steel, and has the curious property of swallowing hydrogen. A piece of palladium will absorb 650 times its own bulk of hydrogen.

YARKER.

Christmas passed off quietly, and as usual was a reunion of many family re-unions. The lovely weather which crowned the day made those family gatherings all the more delightful. The fall of snow during the Christmas Eve and the early morning dispelled the fear of a green Christmas, and made all hearts bound with gladness, for although the automobile predominated in carrying in necessary travel, the horse-drawn sleighs were not, with merry jingle of the bells bringing back thoughts of the old time Christmas when this was considered an essential part in a real Christmas.—Christmas visitors were: Mr. Erwell Bolton, Rochester; Mr. Andrew Warner, Rochester; Mr. Kenneth Smith, Rochester; Mr. Melvin Bush, Rochester; Mr. Ellwood Holland, Rochester; Mr. Tom Warner, Colborne; Mrs. Leonard, Hartington; Miss Vivian Brown, Kingston.—The concert held in the League Hall, by the Public School, was a decided success.—Mr. Brock Leonard, of Marmora, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Leonard.—We are all glad to see Mr. Manly Foster around again, after a severe illness.—Mr. and Mrs. F. O'Neil spent Christmas in Napanee. — Mrs. Cambridge, a respected citizen, passed away Friday morning, Dec. 18th, after an illness of a few days. She leaves to mourn her loss two daughters and three sons. Miss Jessie Bell spent Christmas at her home in Bellville. — Wishing The Beaver and staff a Happy New Year.

REIDVILLE

The weather has turned very cold, with just enough snow for sleighing. —Christmas passed over in old time style, for with plenty of cold weather and snow always makes you feel jubilee.—The pupils of Reidville school stazed a grand entertainment in Knox Church on Dec. 19th, which was much enjoyed by young and old. Miss Manderald is to be congratulated at having the children so well trained. The Christmas tree was loaded to the topmost branches, and Santa Claus himself was present and distributed the presents personally. Everybody agreed that this was without doubt the best Christmas tree entertainment ever held at Reidville. —Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Pringland and family spent an evening recently at R. J. Wilson's.—Mrs. Geo. Kennedy and daughter, Mrs. Haggerty, and two sons, of Chatham, are spending the holidays at Mrs. Hilson Hyland's. —Elmer Hyland has his new wood saw running full blast. Anyone who wants a good job done had better give him a call. — Messrs. Geo. Pringland and Edward Hannah finished shipping Christmas ice on Dec. 21st. They loaded four cars in all at Long's and Mrs. J. Hannah and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Milligan spent an evening last week with Warren Hawley.—Will Wood is taking a carload of horses West, and will leave about March 1st. — Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McLaren were in Kingston last week.—Mr. and Mrs. Leamon Campbell, Kingston, spent Christmas at John Reid's.

ELMBROOK

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Welbanks and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Welbanks and children took tea one night last week at Mr. and Mrs. Branscombe's, Picton. —Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leavitt and children Sundayed at Mr. Harold Walter's, Sobastian.—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Blakely, called at Mr. D. Clark's, on Sunday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. R. Randle Sundayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friar, Picton. — Mr. and Mrs. C. McDonald and family, Hickson, spent Sunday with Mr. Brooker, Mr. Fred Dodge, and family. — Mr. and Mrs. Marcy Brickley, of Greenbush, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Sills, of Picton, took dinner on Thursday last at Mr. and Mrs. Orval Upper's. Mr. Henry Blakely called at Mr. Fred Dodge's, on Sunday night. —Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mountain View, visited at Mr. Welbanks', one day last week.—Miss M. Goodmurphy, of Bloomfield, spent a few days the week with her friend, Mrs. R. Randle.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hagar and daughters spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sills, Picton.—Mrs. Ella Lemon returned to her home on Tuesday after the Xmas holidays.—Mr. and Mrs. Wills Sills and family, also Mr. and Mrs. John Mastin, East Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sills, Picton, took dinner on Tuesday at Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Unger's.

Now Laugh!

Smile.
Don't think about it.
Probably won't happen that way, anyway.
And, if it does, 'twon't be as bad as you fear.
There's the real trouble—being afraid.
We take a little trouble about the size of a great and look at it through the magnifying glass of fear until it looks as big as an elephant.
Then we are afraid of our own creation.
Thing to do is to squash it while it is still no more than a gnat.
We don't hate squirmy things because of what we know they will do to us, but because of what we fear they might. Our reason tells us they are harmless, but our fear contradicts. Men are just as bad.
No need to tell a woman in what way.
Smile.
There's so much joy for the least of us.
There's so little pain for the most of us.
It seems funny to me that any of us
Can't smile all the time at the rest of us.

Now laugh!

Historic Rose Tree.

The most venerable rose tree in existence is said to bloom against the ancient church of Hildesheim, in Germany. Notwithstanding the many parties which at different times have been in the ascendancy, they all seem to have respected and tended the rose tree, which, it is said, was planted by Charlemagne. The trunk is now almost as big as a man's body. There are five principal limbs trained against the church, the tree being protected by iron railings inclosing an area of about twenty-six square feet. The German soldiers in early ages tended the tree; Catholics and Protestants, in turn masters of the town, drained the ground; the soldiers of Turenne fastened up the branches with clamps, and those of Napoleon, a century and a half later, erected the railings.

For the Visitors.

In full view of the crowd in a very busy street two vendors of berries were busy with piles of thin wooden boxes, each neatly filled with immature fruit. Emptying box after box, the vendors deftly punched up one layer of the box bottom to a sharp angle pointed in the middle, propped it there with paper and then refilled the receptacle, taking great care that the finest and freshest looking berries should make a showy top covering.

One of the spectators grew indignant. "How in the world," he demanded, "do you expect to sell your wares when you openly show that they are not what they seem to be?"

"Aw, gwan!" said the vendor addressed. "This is New York, and there are more trains coming with more people."

First Steam Press.

On Nov. 29, 1814, a newspaper for the first time was printed by steam. Although the application of steam power to printing machinery had been successfully experimented with some years previously, the hostility of the working printers rendered it unthinkable for the masters to introduce such a startling innovation into their printing houses. Towards the end of 1814, however, the growing circulation of the Times made a change of some kind necessary, and in the face of fierce opposition the second John Walter set up a steam printing press. So on the morning of Nov. 29 the leading article of the Times announced to its readers that they held in their hands that day a copy of the first newspaper to be printed by steam.—London Answers.

Wood Engraving.

It is still a mystery whether wood engraving came to Europe from the east or was rediscovered by some European artificer. There is a like uncertainty regarding the precise date of the first European woodcut. It is only known that European wood engraving was going on as early as the first quarter of the fifteenth century. It has been proved that a woodcut in the Paris library was printed in 1400. The very earliest wood engraving consisted of outlines and white spaces with smaller black spaces, but shading is rare.

Woeful Lack.

Laundry Marks in Europe.

Laundry marks vary greatly in Europe. Those used in Britain consist of certain small letters or figures stitched in red thread. Not all continental laundries are so considerate. In some parts of France linen is defaced by having the whole name and address of the laundry stamped upon it and an additional geometrical design to indicate the owner.

In Bavaria every piece has a number stamped on in large characters. In other parts of Germany a small cotton label is attached by means of a waterproof (hot) adhesive. In Bulgaria each laundry has a large number of stamps engraved with designs, and in Russia the laundries mark linen with threads worked in artful shapes.

In some Russian towns the police periodically issue regulations for laundries, while in Odessa books of marks are furnished annually to the laundry proprietors, and these marks and no others may be used. By this system criminals and revolutionary agitators are often traced.—London Mail.

The Bulldog.

The bulldog, unlike the majority of dogs, very seldom barks. In fact, owing to the construction of his throat his attempts at barking are more like a burlesque of the real thing. He wades into a fight without any vocal warning, and the only sound he emits is his heavy breathing. His courage is astonishing, and the largeness of his opponent never acts as a deterrent when hostilities are imminent. Still, as he is not a quarrelsome dog, he very rarely indulges in street brawls, and, as he is exceedingly good natured, it takes a lot to rouse him.

The modern bulldog is undoubtedly a different looking animal from his bullfighting ancestors. The most conspicuous "improvements" introduced by the present day "fancy" are largeness of head, width of chest, heaviness of bone and more typical tail.

What the Peruvians Believed.

A unique idea of the future state was that of the ancient Peruvians. As the disembodied soul winged its way to eternity it encountered two rocks, upon one of which it must needs rest. The choice was determined by the morality of the life in the flesh. If it rested upon the left hand rock it was instantly translated to "Pu," or oblivion, a state analogous to the Nirvana of the orient. If these early misdeeds, however, the unhappy spirit was guided to the right hand rock it entered into a purgatorial hell where fiends grated away the flesh from all the bones in succession, after which the skeleton was reclothed and sent back to earth for another try. There was no haste about this grating process. It took something over 10,000 years.

Antiquity of Soap.

In spite of the antiquity of soap, as evidenced by a soap shop still to be seen in the ruins of Pompeii, the chemistry of soapmaking was not understood by us until about a century ago. Since then soap and armaments hate become intimately associated with each other. For a long time soapmakers made no profit out of their "lyes." Now they extract from these byproducts glycerin, which, besides being a drug, food and "toilet requisite," enters into the manufacture of nitroglycerin and is the basis of dynamite and other high explosives.—London Spectator.

Mucilage to Stick on Tin.

Whosoever has tried to stick a paper label on a piece of tin knows how difficult it is. Here, however, is a recipe for a mucilage especially designed for this purpose and published by Nature: In 150 cubic centimeters each water dissolve twenty grams of gum tragacanth and add a paste made of sixty grams of flour and ten grams of dextrine dissolved in forty cubic centimeters of water. Dilute the whole with 200 cubic centimeters of boiling water and add ten grams of glycerin and ten grams of salicylic acid. Boil for five minutes, stirring constantly.

Cutting Up Old Furs.

There is a knack of cutting up old furs with which all women are not familiar. The pelt should be turned wrong side up and the skin slowly and carefully cut with a sharp penknife, the blade penetrating the skin only and not touching the long hairs. Cutting fur with scissors destroys the pelt that might be saved by the penknife process.

Not All For Love.

Little Florrie—Oh, aunty, dear, don't you go yet, please, Aunt—But I must, darling. I should like to stay longer, and it is sweet of you to love your aunty so. Florrie—Oh, please, aunty, don't go yet. Mamma said she'd whip me as soon as you went.

Turkestan Lovers.

In Turkestan every wedding engagement begins with the payment of a substantial consideration to the girl's parents. If a girl jilts her lover the engagement gift has to be returned unless the parents have another daughter to give as a substitute.

Greek Fire.

"Greek fire" is a mixture of naphtha, niter and sulphur, highly inflammable and very destructive. In the Greeks' wars it was tied to an arrow or discharged through a tube.

The Rhinoceros.

A rhinoceros rolls in the mud because little insects get between the folds of its skin and worry it. If it gets its body covered with mud they are unable to reach the skin.

Dreams.

One reads some so very silly articles upon the subject of recurrence of dreams that it is necessary to repeat that our dreams are nothing more than a continuation of the state previous to sleep when we lie with no bodily or mental occupation beyond following out whatever train of thought happens to have been suggested.

Two common dream experiences frequently recurring are those of the sensation of flying and of the uneasy impression of being about in public in insufficient attire. The first is caused by the physical fact that we are at the moment without noticeable pressure actually suspended in space; the second by the equally physical fact that few people in these days go to bed in their boots.

It is beyond question that dreams are started or suggested not only by these personal hints, but by external events, usually a noise.—London Observer.

Legend of King Marko.

King Marko, who ranks as the Servian King Arthur, was the son of King Vukashin, whom he denounced for usurping the throne, which rightly belonged to Urosh, son of Dushan. Vukashin cursed him and prayed that he might have neither tomb nor peace in life, and be doomed to serve "the czar of the Turks." But Urosh blessed him and prayed that he might know no end to the wisdom or prowess that he remembered as long as the earth endured.

"Thus they spake and thus it came to pass," says an old Servian ballad. Marko fought for the sultan, but "the sultan feared him, for his wrath was terrible," and, though he knew no sepulture, he lived, say the legends, for 300 years. He still lives in the hearts of patriotic Servians, many of whom believe that one day he will awake and come forth to restore the glories of the former empire.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Athenian "Liturgy."

One of the most interesting cases of voluntary taxation is the ancient Athenian "liturgy," which meant something very different from the liturgy of today, the etymological meaning of the word being "public work." The liturgy was a special contribution made to the state by a wealthy citizen or group of citizens. There were ordinary liturgies, such as the provision of the chorus for a great tragedy, and extraordinary ones, such as the equipment or maintenance of a warship. The liturgy was fundamentally a tax, and it was often evaded by all sorts of shifts. But in the palmy days of Athens it was considered disgraceful for those upon whom it was imposed to do no more than the law exacted, and sometimes rich citizens would volunteer a liturgy from public spirit or to win popularity.—London Chronicle.

Keen on the Cash.

Shrilling loudly in the silence of the night, the chemist's bell aroused him from slumber. With reluctance he wrapped himself in a dressing gown and went downstairs, muttering. He met at the door by a placid looking man who merely wanted a bottle of soda water.

The chemist's feelings were strong, but he resolved to do business.

"Twopence extra on the bottle," he murmured blandly, "which will be allowed on return."

Then he returned to bed.

Two hours later the bell rang again. Once more he went down. Again it was the placid looking man.

"There's your bottle," he said calmly. "Gimme my twopence."—London Answers.

Power of Ocean Breakers.

Experiments made at the Bell Rock and Skerryvore lighthouses, on the Scottish coast, have shown that, while the force of breakers in the German ocean may be taken as about a ton and a half on every square foot of surface, Atlantic breakers fall with a weight of about three tons to the square foot. On one occasion during a heavy gale huge blocks of granite were washed about like pebbles at the Plymouth breakwater, carried 200 feet up its inclined plane and scattered beyond it in all directions. One of the blocks weighed two tons.

Motions of the Earth.

The time occupied by the earth in its circuit of 580,000,000 miles is 365 days, 6 hours, 9 minutes, giving an average velocity of about 66,000 miles an hour. The earth wabbles as it spins, just as a top will wabble if it is prevented from spinning upright. One wabble takes about 20,000 years.

Imagination.

It is imagination rather than reason that makes us sympathetic beings, and no person who is devoid of imagination can know extremes of happiness or misery. Happiness in a great measure depends on the faculty for forgetting.

Reason For It.

Wilfer—These are hard times. Why, I heard of a man the other day who couldn't raise money even on government bonds. Silmwit—Indeed. What was the reason? Wilfer—Well, you see, he didn't have the bonds.—Exchange.

A Substitute.

"What is a picayune?"

"A picayune is what a man says he can't afford to give, because he doesn't wish to use stronger language."

Polite to Her.

"This is a fine cook you have. Do you treat her as one of the family?"

"Oh, dear me, no! We wouldn't dare to."

The salesman was doing his best to dispose of a motor cycle and sidecar outfit, but the prospective customer hesitated. So the salesman enlarged upon the "pay-as-you-ride" plan of instalments.

"Take the outfit," said the other; "but, remember, I'm a very slow rider."

Naming a Town.

An interesting story is told as to the origin of the name "Moosejaw" as applied to a town in Canada. Some fifty years ago, so the story runs, a pioneer with his team of oxen and "prairie schooner," passing along the banks of the river, was obliged to ford it at this point in Saskatchewan on account of an accident to his cart.

A spoke had fallen out during the day, and the wheel was failing apart. He looked about for something to insert for a temporary brace for the week, while his wife busied herself with the evening meal.

The pioneer's child, while romping around, found the jaw bone of a moose, which she held up to her father, who by this time almost despaired of finding anything with which to repair his cart. He was delighted to find that the jawbone exactly fitted the place of the missing spoke. The Indians thereafter named this district the "Place Where the White Man Found the Moosejaw." This, it is said, accounts for the town's queer name.—Washington Star.

Message of a Banknote.

Writing on a banknote once freed an English slave. The note came into the hands of a Liverpool merchant's cashier. He examined it, noticed some red marks on the back and by the latest use of time and ingenuity deciphered the message. It ran: "If this note should fall into the hands of John Rent of Lenghill, near Carlisle, he will learn thereby that his brother is languishing a prisoner in Algiers." John Rent was found, and he applied to the government and interested the prime minister, who stirred the foreign secretary into action. Inquiries were made, and the dey, by golden arguments, was persuaded to release him. For eleven years he had been a galley slave, and he had written the message in blood with a splinter of wood. His release came in time to allow him to die at home.—London Telegraph.

Neighbors.

Occasionally a writer makes a big hit by a very simple device. He discovers his neighbors. Most of us live next door to people for years and visit with them on the front porch and once in awhile call on them. But we rarely get really acquainted.

And then a McCutcheon comes along or a Webster, or a Briggs, or a George Ade, or a Fatty Lewis and finds out that a neighbor is a human being. It is revealed that he gets peevish when the buttons aren't sewed on, and that his children have the croup, and that the baby keeps the family awake all night, and that in general he is a romantic character.

It is possible that your own neighbors might be as interesting as those of the gentlemen just mentioned if you would take the pains to know them.

Scolds Gagged With Iron.

In the seventeenth century erring inhabitants of Newcastle used to undergo far more trying ordeals than that of the drunkard's cloak.

Ralph Gardner in a work entitled "England's Grievance In Relation to the Coal Trade," published 1655, records having seen "in Newcastle six months ago one Ann Bridlestone drove through the streets by an officer of the said corporation holding a rope in his hand, the other end fastened to an engine called the branks, which is like a crown, it hath four bits, of which was muzzled over the head and face, with a great gag, of iron forced into her mouth, which forced the tongue so that is the punishment which the magistrates do inflict upon chiding and scolding women."—London Express.

An up-country magistrate, while on the Bench, had to refer to a legal notice in the local newspaper. He called to the newly-appointed Court messenger, "Please bring me the local rag." In marched this official with dignity and offered the "book" an inkbespattered cloth duster.

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every lawsuit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

REIDVILLE

The weather has turned very cold, with just enough snow for sleighing. —Christmas passed over in old time style, for with plenty of cold weather and snow always makes it ideal yuletide.—The pupils of Reidville school started a grand entertainment in Knox Church on Dec. 19th, which was much enjoyed by young and old. Miss Macdonald is to be congratulated at having the children so well trained. The Christmas tree was loaded to the topmost branches, and Santa Claus himself was present and distributed the presents personally. All present agreed that this was without doubt the best Christmas tree entertainment ever held in Reidville. —Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fingland and family spent an evening recently at R. J. Wilson's.—Mrs. Geo. Kennedy and daughter, Mrs. Haggerty, and two sons, of Chatham, are spending the holidays at Mrs. Wm. Hyland's. —Elmer Hyland has his new wood saw running at full blast. Anyone who wants a good quick job done had better come him a call. — Messrs. Geo. Fingland and Edward Hannah finished shipping Christmas trees on Dec. 21st. They loaded four cars in all at Lonsdale.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannah and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Milligan spent an evening last week with Warren Hanley.—John Wilson intends taking a carload of horses West, and will leave about March 1st. — Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McLaren were in Kingston last week.—Mr. and Mrs. Leamon Campbell, Kingston, spent Christmas at John Reid's.

Thing to do is to squash it while it is still no more than a gnat.

How often a hate mystery things because of what we know they will do to us, but because of what we fear they might. Our reasons tells us fears are harmless, but our fear contradicts.

Men are just as bad.

We need to tell a woman in what way.

Smile.

There's so much joy for the least of us, There's so little pain for the most of us. It seems funny to me that any of us Can't smile all the time at the rest of us.

Now laugh!

Historic Rose Tree.

The most venerable rose tree in existence is said to bloom against the ancient church of Hildesheim, in Germany. Notwithstanding the many parties which at different times have been in the ascendancy, they all seem to have respected and tended the rose tree, which, it is said, was planted by Charlemagne. The trunk is now almost as big as a man's body. There are five principal limbs trained against the church, the tree being protected by iron railings inclosing an area of about twenty-six square feet. The German soldiers in early ages tended the tree; Catholics and Protestants, in turn masters of the town, drained the ground; the soldiers of Turenne fastened up the branches with clamps, and those of Napoleon, a century and a half later, erected the railings.

For the Visitors.

In full view of the crowd in a very busy street two vendors of berries were busy with piles of the wooden boxes, each scantily filled with immature fruit. Emptying box after box, the vendors deftly pushed up one layer of the box bottom to a sharp angle pointed in the middle, propped it there with paper and then refilled the receptacle, taking great care that the finest and freshest looking berries should make a showy top covering.

One of the spectators grew indignant. "How in the world," he demanded, "do you expect to sell your wares when you openly show that they are not what they seem to be?"

"Aw, gwan!" said the vendor addressed. "This is New York, and there are more trains coming with more people."

First Steam Press.

On Nov. 29, 1814, a newspaper for the first time was printed by steam. Although the application of steam power to printing machinery had been successfully experimented with some years previously, the hostility of the working printers rendered it inadvisable for the masters to introduce such a startling innovation into their printing houses. Toward the end of 1814, however, the growing circulation of the Times made a change of some kind necessary, and in the face of fierce opposition the second John Walter set up a steam printing press. So on the morning of Nov. 29 the leading article of the Times announced to its readers that they held in their hands that day a copy of the first newspaper to be printed by steam.—London Answers.

Wood Engraving.

It is still a mystery whether wood engraving came to Europe from the east or was rediscovered by some European artificer. There is no like uncertainty regarding the precise date of the first European woodcut. It is only known that European wood engraving was going on as early as the first quarter of the fifteenth century. It has been proved that a woodcut in the Paris library was printed in 1406. The very earliest wood engraving consisted of outlines and white spaces with smaller black spaces, but shading is rare.

Woeful Lack.

"Although Chugson has had a car for almost six months, he still seems to think a pedestrian has some rights."

"How do you account for that attitude?"

"It's very peculiar. It certainly shows a woeful lack of self confidence."

Single and Double Flowers.

The petals of a single flower fall sooner than do those of a double one for the reason that the inner petals are transformed more slowly and retain the power of adherence they need when performing their original function.

Bulldog.

The bulldog, unlike the majority of dogs, never seldom barks. In fact, owing to the construction of his throat his attempts at barking are more like a horrible parody of the thing. He wades into a fight without any vocal warning, and the only sound he emits is his heavy breathing. Its courage is astonishing, and the largeness of his opponent never acts as a deterrent when hostilities are imminent. Still, as he is not a quarrelsome dog, he very rarely indulges in street brawls, and, as he is exceedingly good natured, it takes a lot to rouse him.

The modern bulldog is undoubtedly a different looking animal from his bullfighting ancestors. The most conspicuous "improvements" introduced by the present day "fancy" are largeness of head, width of chest, heaviness of bone and more typical tail.

What the Peruvians Believed.

A unique idea of the future state was that of the ancient Peruvians. As the disembodied soul winged its way to eternity it encountered two rocks, upon one of which it must needs rest. The choice was determined by the morality of the life in the flesh. If it rested upon the left hand rock it was instantly translated to "Po," or oblivion, a state analogous to the Nirvana of the orient. If through early misdeeds, however, the unhappy spirit was guided to the right hand rock it entered into a purgatorial hell where fiends grated away the flesh from all the bones in succession, after which the skeleton was reclothed and sent back to earth for another try. There was no haste about this grating process. It took something over 10,000 years.

Antiquity of Soap.

In spite of the antiquity of soap, as evidenced by a soap shop still to be seen in the ruins of Pompeii, the chemistry of soapmaking was not understood by us until about a century ago. Since then soap and armaments have become intimately associated with each other. For a long time soapmakers made no profit out of their "lyes." Now they extract from these byproducts glycerin, which, besides being a drug, food and "toilet requisite," enters into the manufacture of nitroglycerin and the bases of dynamite and other high explosives.—London Spectator.

Mucilage to Stick on Tin.

Whosoever has tried to stick a paper label on a piece of tin knows how difficult it is. Here, however, is a recipe for a mucilage especially designed for this purpose and published by Nature: In 150 cubic centimeters of boiling water dissolve twenty grams of gum tragacanth and add a paste made of sixty grams of flour and ten grams of dextrine dissolved in forty cubic centimeters of water. Dilute the whole with 200 cubic centimeters of boiling water and add ten grams of glycerin and ten grams of salicylic acid. Boil for five minutes, stirring constantly.

Cutting Up Old Furs.

There is a knack of cutting up old furs with which all women are not familiar. The pelt should be turned wrong side up and the skin slowly and carefully cut with a sharp penknife, the blade penetrating the skin only and not touching the long hairs. Cutting for with scissors destroys the beauty of the hair and wastes much of the pelt that might be saved by the penknife process.

Not All For Love.

Little Florrie—Oh, aunty, dear, don't you go yet, please. Aunt—But I must, darling. I should like to stay longer, and it is sweet of you to love your aunty so. Florrie—Oh, please, aunty, don't go yet. Mamma said she'd whip me as soon as you went.

Turkestan Lovers.

In Turkestan every wedding engagement begins with the payment of a substantial consideration to the girl's parents. If a girl flits her lover the engagement gift has to be returned before the parents have another daughter to give as a substitute.

Greek Fire.

"Greek fire" is a mixture of naphtha, utter and sulphur, highly inflammable and very destructive. In the Grecian wars it was tied to an arrow or discharged through a tube.

The Rhinoceros.

A rhinoceros rolls in the mud because little insects get between the folds of its skin and worry it. If it gets its body covered with mud they are unable to reach the skin.

Legend of King Marko.

King Marko, one of the rulers of the Servian King Arthur, was the son of King Vukashin, whom he denounced upon seizing the throne, which rightly belonged to Urosh, son of Dushan. Vukashin cursed him and prayed that he might have neither lands nor posterity and be doomed to serve "the czar of the Turks." But Urosh blessed him and prayed that he might know no equal in wisdom or prowess and be remembered as long as the earth endured.

"Thus they spake and thus it came to pass," says an old Servian ballad. Marko fought for the sultan, but "the sultan feared him, for his wrath was terrible," and, though he knew no scripture, he lived, say the legends, for 300 years. He still lives in the hearts of patriotic Servians, many of whom believe that one day he will awake and come forth to restore the glories of the former empire.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Athenian "Liturgy."

One of the most interesting cases of voluntary taxation is the ancient Athenian "liturgy," which meant something very different from the liturgy of today, the etymological meaning of the word being "public work." The liturgy was a special contribution made to the state by a wealthy citizen or group of citizens. There were ordinary liturgies, such as the provision of the chorus for a great tragedy, and extraordinary ones, such as the equipment or maintenance of a warship. The liturgy was fundamentally a tax, and it was often evaded by all sorts of shifts. But in the palmy days of Athens it was considered disgraceful for those upon whom it was imposed to do no more than the law exacted, and sometimes rich citizens would volunteer a liturgy from public spirit or to win popularity.—London Chronicle.

Keen on the Cash.

Shrilling loudly in the silence of the night, the chemist's bell aroused him from slumber. With reluctance he wrapped himself in a dressing gown and went downstairs, shivering, to be met at the door by a placid looking man who merely wanted a bottle of soda water.

The chemist's feelings were strong, but he resolved to do business.

"Twopence extra on the bottle," he murmured blandly, "which will be allowed on return."

Then he returned to bed.

Two hours later the bell rang again. Once more he went down. Again it was the placid looking man.

"There's your bottle," he said calmly. "Gimme my twopence."—London Answers.

Sick Woman Injured On Way to Hospital.

On her way to Kingston to undergo treatment, on Sunday, Mrs. W. H. Harvey, of Deseronto, was possibly fatally injured in a smash-up of the car in which she was being taken to Kingston Hospital. When about a quarter of a mile from Kingston on the York Road, the car skidded and went into a ditch, crashing into a telegraph pole. The force of the impact sent Mrs. Harvey forcibly against the top of the car and she sustained serious injuries. The car was badly damaged.

BOXING

On Tuesday, December 29th, the Village of Odessa was awakened from its peaceful slumbers, when a boxing and wrestling bout was staged in the Town Hall at that place. The hall was crowded to the doors, and the first bout was started at 8 o'clock. Jack Williams, of Verona, and Fred Bentley, of Napanee, put on a exhibition of the manly art of self-defence, and kept the crowd on their toes for three fast, gruelling rounds. The first round was a draw. Williams took the second, and the third was a draw.

The second bout was put on by Mac O'Neil and Ed. Buck, of Odessa. Both mixed it up freely and were quite ready to call it quits at the bell.

Steve Watson, of pugilistic fame at Napanee and elsewhere, refereed the fights.

In the wrestling match Andy Lemon, of Bath, and Barney Davey, of Verona, tried everything they knew but without result. They even resorted to chewing each others ears, biting their toes and tickling, but they seemed irresponsive to these treatments.

Jack Williams gave a very finished exhibition of refereeing.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Annabella Grange.

In the passing away on Tuesday last of Mrs. Annabella Grange, in her 73rd year, Napanee lost a half century's leader in philanthropic and social welfare work; Trinity Church lost a great teacher, a wise counsellor and a devoted worker, and her surviving family of six children lost a wonderful mother. Her death was the result of a fall at her residence, John Street, three weeks before. She was unable to rally from the shock and injuries, and knew that life's task was done. "I have done what I could", she said in one of her last conscious hours. "God is Love and Life is Service". Love and service were ever her guiding principles throughout life. She gave unsparingly of her time, her talents, and her energy to every good work. She has left an enduring memory of love and service. Her life in Napanee for the past half century was a continuous record of unflagging work for others. For three decades she was the inspiring teacher of the Adult Bible Class of Trinity Church, rising usually at five o'clock each morning and studying for two hours before domestic tasks claimed her time, the story of God's plan for mankind and its working out in history. For nearly thirty years she was a leader in the Women's Missionary work of the Methodist Church, a member of the Dominion Executive and President of the Bay of Quinte Conference branch. She was a pioneer in the organization of the Children's Aid Society of Napanee and of Lennox and Addington, and for many years was its chief executive officer.

In the Red Cross work of the town during the war she was a guiding and energizing spirit. She was long a Vice-President of the Napanee Historical Association, Treasurer of the Ladies' Aid of Trinity Church, and a directing influence in every church activity. Her mind was a full storehouse of all that was best in literature, ever keen and alert until she lapsed into unconsciousness a few days before the end.

To her children, and to her husband, the late Alexander W. Grange, who predeceased her six years ago, she was all that could be idealized in the words "Wife and Mother". To cherish her memory are six children, Mr. Edward W. Grange, of Ottawa; Miss Helen and Miss Constance Grange, of Napanee; Mrs. H. A. Morin, of Bath, Mrs. Mrs. O. S. Lailey, of Toronto, and Mr. George R. Grange, of London, Ont. Two surviving brothers are Mr. F. W. Daly, of London, Ont., and Dr. R. A. Daly, head of the Geological Department of Howard University. Mrs. F. S. Richardson, of Napanee; Mrs. Clifford Sweetzyde, of Regina, and Mrs. Arthur Pepler, of England, are sisters.

The funeral service was on Thursday afternoon at the family residence and then at Trinity Church, where Rev. W. R. Tanton conducted the service.

Many floral tributes testifying to the sympathy and esteem of various organizations with which the late Mrs. Grange was connected, covered the casket. They represented the last tokens of grateful remembrances from the Official Board of Trinity Church, from the Sunday School, from the Ladies' Aid, from the Red Cross Society, from the W. C. T. U., from the staff of the Collegiate Institute, and from the Children's Aid Society. A telegram of sympathy was sent by the Prime Minister of Canada, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

Mrs. Benjamin Foote.

On Wednesday, Dec. 16th, at her home, near Violet, there passed away to her eternal reward, Emma Derby, aged 65 years, wife of Mr. Benjamin Foote, after an illness of about a year's duration.

Deceased was the daughter of the late Wm. Derby, and was born at Morven. The late Mrs. Foote was first married to Daniel Perry, and lived at Violet. To them were born two children, William Malcolm, of Syracuse, who predeceased his mother about eight years ago, and Ida A., wife of Mr. Eber Sager, Violet.

The late Mrs. Foote was a kind wife and loving mother, a very thoughtful and obliging neighbor. She was very ambitious, never ceasing from her labors until her Lord said: "It is enough, come up higher."

The funeral, which was held at her home, was largely attended. The minister in charge emphasized the necessity of preparation.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and daughter, one sister, Mrs. Annie Merrifield, Denver, Col., and one brother, Mr. E. Derby, Napanee.

Her body was laid to rest in Riverview cemetery, to await the happy reunion with loved ones on the last great day.

Mrs. E. J. Cambridge.

An old resident, Yarker passed away in the person of Mrs. E. J. Cambridge on Friday, Dec. 18th.

The late Mrs. Cambridge was born at Moscow, in 1845, being the eldest daughter of the late J. W. Patterson, Moscow. Her husband, Hugh Cambridge, predeceased her some twenty-five years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss one brother and sister, J. W. Patterson, Moscow, and Mrs. M. Parks, Napanee, and two daughters, Mrs. Sidney McKim, Napanee, and Mrs. M. V. Lake, Yarker, and three sons, W. M. Cambridge, Toronto; H. A. Cambridge, and J. V. Cambridge, Detroit, Mich.

Her funeral was conducted by her Pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie, and was assisted by the Yarker Choir. Mr. George Wagar rendered a solo, "Rock of Ages", very effectively. The remains were placed in the family plot at Yarker.

Mrs. W. H. Cadman.

On Thursday, Dec. 17th, 1925, after a brief illness of about six days, Mrs. W. H. Cadman passed peacefully away at her home, one mile east of Napanee. Though in her seventy-sixth year, she had been for many years a sufferer from rheumatism, but had been driving out and cheerfully going about the house. Mrs. Cadman was for many years an active member in the U. E. L. United Church, at Adolphustown, but later became a member of Trinity Church, Napanee, and was connected with the Women's Missionary Society of that church. Besides a sorrowing husband, she leaves four daughters, Mrs. W. Bloomfield, Kingston; Mrs. F. Allison, Adolphustown; Mrs. W. Fretts and Mrs. T. Asselstine, of Napanee. The funeral services were held at her late residence, by Rev. W. R. Tanton, when a large number of friends and acquaintances bearing testimony of their love and esteem followed the remains to its last resting place, the Riverview cemetery. The friends from far and near sent beautiful floral tributes.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

OBITUARY

James Martin-Rose

James Martin Rose, whose death occurred at Napanee, on Saturday, Dec. 26th, was a native of Ernesttown, and lived there the early years of his life. He was first married to Hattie McKim, second daughter of the late J. N. McKim. They moved in 1888 to Manitoba, where she died in the spring of 1917. In the fall of 1919 he again married to Mrs. Clara Martin, widow of the late Sidney Martin.

In 1922 he leased his farm and they returned to their native town to retire, hoping to have many years of quiet life, when he was suddenly taken away, at 69 years of age.

He loved his home and his church and was a faithful member of Trinity Church. Although quiet and unassuming, was always ready to do the little he could for the Kingdom of God. He well remember the quiet work he did to help sustain the Temperance Act while he lived at Deloraine, Man. He was many years on the Quarterly Board of the Methodist Church, sang in the Choir for some time, and was always helping as a pioneer of the place.

The funeral service was held at his late residence, East Street, where his Pastor, the Rev. W. B. Hunter conducted the service.

He leaves to mourn his death, his sorrowing widow and two brothers, Nelson and George Rose, of Deloraine, Man., where interment was made.

The sympathy of all goes out to the sorrowing widow and relatives in their sad bereavement.

Mrs. Benn, of Napanee, spent New Years with her mother, Mrs. Shorey.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday will be "The One Who Never Failed."

Our week of prayer, being held in the Religious Educational building, in Tamworth, was well attended on Monday night, but owing to flu, fog, ice and rain the attendance was not so good on Tuesday. We are looking for better health, weather and attendance the rest of the week.

By a unanimous vote of the Reidville congregation, taken last Sunday, a week of prayer will be held next week, each evening except Saturday, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. We will use the subjects suggested by the Board of Evangelism of the United Church. Beginning the New Year with a week of prayer will mean much, for more things are wrought by prayer than we think. Plan your work so you can come.

The epidemic of colds has visited many of the homes on our pastoral charge. Quite a number have been confined to their beds and under the doctor's care, but so far as we know all are making a good recovery. It is very important that we care for the health of our bodies, but how much more so that we care for the health of our souls. "Is there no balm in Gilead, is there no physician there? Why then is not the health of the people recovered ?"

MORVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mills spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummings.—Mrs. C. W. Miller spent the Christmas holidays visiting friends in Kingston.—Mrs. P. Bell visited Mrs. J. S. THE ELECTION RETURNS

The Personnel of the 1926 Council is as follows :—Dr. Ming, Mayor; Mark Graham, Reeve; E. J. Roy, J. M. Simpson, A. MacGregor, J. H. Fitzpatrick, Wm. Howitt and W. H. Dunbar, Councillors.

The Municipal Election on Monday passed off very quietly in Napanee, there being a smaller vote than a year ago. The day was not ideal for the electorate, rain falling part of the time and the walks being very slippery.

For the Reeveship, Mark Graham again defeated George Paul, his majority being 165.

Councillor Roy again headed the poll for a seat at the Council Board, followed closely by Councillor Simpson. The defeated Councillor was W. J. Jewell, whose place will be taken by J. H. Fitzpatrick.

There will be several changes in the personnel of the County Council this year. In North Fredericksburgh James Clark turned the tables on J. A. Yeomans this year, and won out by a small majority. A three-cornered fight was staged in South Fredericksburgh this year between three new aspirants, and Jonas Garrison was the victor. In Ernesttown, W. C. T. Loyst and Andrew Miller will replace Ross Peters and Delbert Sexsmith as Reeve and Deputy Reeve respectively. In Newburgh George Anson Aylesworth was returned over Thomas McNeely. In Richmond, Alf. McCutcheon defeated W. J. Gollinger; in Adolphustown, J. S. Johnson won out over C. F. Allison, and Bath returned M. H. Mellow.

Following are the returns :—

NAPANEE

	West Ward		Centre Ward		East
For Reeve,—	No. 1	No. 2	No. 1	No. 2	Ward	Total
Mark Graham	109	116	94	106	104	529
George Paul	80	85	58	78	63	364
Majority for Graham						165
For Councillors,—
E. J. Roy	85	119	88	115	93	500
J. M. Simpson	77	96	94	112	97	476
A. MacGregor	85	94	76	87	96	438
J. H. Fitzpatrick	103	96	68	86	73	426
Wm. Howitt	78	92	86	89	78	423
W. H. Dunbar	49	96	68	99	91	403
W. J. Jewell	64	85	76	98	68	391
V. Cowling	118	77	45	59	38	337

The first six Councillors are elected.

Mayor Ming thanked the electorate for giving him the office of Mayor for a second term by acclamation. He was pleased that the old Council was being returned, and looked forward to a successful year.

Reeve Graham said he had never been through a campaign such as that of Monday, and was surprised at the means that were used to endeavor to defeat him. He assured the electors that he would carry on as he had done in the past, and thought that after this year he would step down and let some of the other members of the Council step up.

Councillor Roy expressed great pleasure to know that he held the confidence of the ratepayers, and assured them that he would endeavor to do his best. There had been a great deal of work done at the Council Board during the past year, and he thought that the 1926 Council would have it easy. He referred to Springside Park and hoped that something would be done this year to put the park in good shape.

Councillor Simpson said the fates had been kind to him again. He appreciated the generous support given him and trusted his conduct during the coming year would meet with the approval of the electors.

Councillor MacGregor said he had made a fairly good run, and extended thanks for the support given him. He thought that a Council should always be striving to bring along something new for the benefit of the town.

Councillor Fitzpatrick felt that it was difficult for him to make a speech at the present time, but was happy to know that the town had confidence in him by giving him such a handsome vote.

Councillor Howitt thanked all who supported him and also those who did not. He had done his best for the town during 1925, and would continue to do so.

Councillor Dunbar was proud of the Town of Napanee and also proud of his own record. He would do his best for the town during the coming year.

Mr. Cowling thanked all for the support given him and wished them all a prosperous New Year.

George Paul said he was beaten, but couldn't help it, and thanked all for the support given him. He would like to see a good man run who would try and keep expenses down, and if he had been elected he would have tried to do so.

OBITUARY

James Martin Rose

James Martin Rose, whose death occurred at Napanee, on Saturday, Dec. 26th, was a native of Ernestown, and lived there the early years of his life. He was first married to Hattie McKim, second daughter of the late J. N. McKim. They moved in 1888 to Manitoba, where she died in the spring of 1917. In the fall of 1919 he again married to Mrs. Clara Martin, widow of the late Sidney Martin.

In 1922 he leased his farm and they returned to their native town to retire, hoping to have many years of quiet life, when he was suddenly taken away, at 69 years of age.

He loved his home and his church and his Bible class, of which a faithful member of Trinity Church. Although quiet and unassuming, was always ready to do the little he could for the Kingdom of God. We well remember the quiet work he did to help sustain the Temperance Act while he lived at Deloraine, Man. He was many years on the Quarterly Board of the Methodist Church, sang in the Choir for some time, and was always helping as a pioneer of the place.

The funeral service was held at his late residence, East Street, where his Pastor, the Rev. W. R. Tantow conducted the service.

He leaves to mourn his death, his sorrowing widow and two brothers, Nelson and George Rose, of Deloraine, Man., where interment was made.

The sympathy of all goes out to the sorrowing widow and relatives in their sad bereavement.

NEWBURGH

Miss Lulu Fluke visited at Yarker for a few days with Miss Hazel Freeman.

Mrs. Hill, Miss Gertrude Hill and Waldemar Hill spent New Years with Mrs. Hill's sister, Mrs. Switzer, at Switzerville.

Miss Jean Wartman spent part of her holidays with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Moscow.

School reopened on Monday, with all the teachers at their places as usual. Several new pupils from Enterprise are in attendance at the High School.

Miss Margaret Mitchell returned to Queen's on Wednesday morning to resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McGill, of Centreville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. Mitford Baker during the week.

Rev. and Mrs. Anderson visited at Mr. Haycock's on Tuesday, and attended the Strathcona prayer meeting.

The congregation and Sunday School of the Anglican Church held their annual "at-home" in the Bank Hall on Tuesday evening of this week.

The Young People's League had a splendid meeting on Monday evening—one of the best since its inauguration a few months ago. Next Monday night views on the life of Paul will be given.

A large number attended the United Church on Sunday evening, when the pastor gave an interesting discourse on "Tithing."

As a result of the election on Monday, Mr. G. A. Aylesworth becomes Reeve for the year 1926.

Miss Bray, of Toronto, is on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. G. Bray.

Word comes from Centreville of a burglary on Tuesday night, when $70.00 in cash and stamps were stolen from the postoffice.

The first quarterly services for 1926 are being held at the Free Methodist Mission Hall this week, with services on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, and on Sunday morning at 9.30.

Wilfred Files and Livingstone Miller left this week on a trip to Oshawa and Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sampson have returned to their home at Flint, Mich., after having enjoyed their holidays in the vicinity of Newburgh.

Miss Essie Johnson returned to Ottawa on Monday to resume her duties as teacher.

Hamel Benn, of Napanee, was a social caller in the village during the week.

Mrs. Benn, of Napanee, spent New Years with her mother, Mrs. Shorey.

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday will be "The One Who Never Failed."

Our week of prayer, being held in the Religious Educational building, in Tamworth, was well attended on Monday night, but owing to flu, fog, ice and rain the attendance was not so good on Tuesday. We are looking for better health, weather and attendance the rest of the week.

At the congregational vote of the Reidville congregation, taken last Sunday, a week of prayer will be held next week, each evening except Saturday, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. We will use the subjects suggested by the Board of Evangelism of the United Church. Beginning the New Year with a week of prayer will mean much, for more things are wrought by prayer than we think. Plan your work as you can come.

The epidemic of colds has visited many of the homes on our pastoral charge. Quite a number have been confined to their beds and under the doctor's care, but so far as we know all are making a good recovery. It is very important that we care for the health of our bodies, but how much more so that we care for the health of our souls. "Is there no balm in Gilead, is there no physician there? Why then is not the health of the people recovered ?"

MORVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mills spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummings.—Mrs. C. W. Miller spent the Christmas holidays visiting friends in Kingston.—Mrs. S. P. Bell visited Mrs. J. S. Fralick recently.—Rev. W. R. Merrick, who has been confined to the house for several days, with a severe cold, is improving.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lake spent the week-end with friends at Gretna. — Mrs. Irwin Sharp and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lake, recently.

ODESSA

Among the Christmas visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and two children, and Joseph Mahan, of Watertown, with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahan; Miss Zita Kenyon and Max Kenyon, Kingston, at B. L. King's; Miss Lillie Venton, Rochester, N.Y., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Venton.—Mrs. C. Caton, of Kingston, was the guest of Mrs. Sidney Snider, last Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watts and daughter, Doris, Manitoba, and Mrs. George Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Ettinger, of Kingston, spent New Years the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith. —Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vrooman and sons, Joseph and Jack, spent Christmas with Mr. Vrooman's father, Mr. William Vrooman, Kingston. — Mrs. Lewis Snider with her brother, Mr. George Vrooman, Kingston. — Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Etsinger, Kingston.—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Graham are spending the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Marshall, Toronto. They were accompanied by Miss Bertha Graham.—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Davy left Sunday to spend the winter months with their son, Harry Davy, Toronto.—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Snider have returned from Shelbourne, where they attended the funeral of the latter's grandfather, Mr. Samuel Jelly.—Orange Babcock has purchased the B. J. Oswald building on Main Street, to be used as a barber shop and pool room.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson, Miss Doris Anderson and Mrs. Charlie Anderson, Napanee, and Miss Helen McRae, Kingston, spent New Years the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Holmes. —The Masonic ball held last Friday night in the Town Hall, was a very brilliant affair, over one hundred couples in attendance. The handsome gowns worn by the patronesses and others, gave the appearance of fairyland.—The excellent music was furnished by the Christmas five-piece Orchestra, Kingston, and a large number from Kingston attended. Delicious refreshments were served at the midnight hour and reflected credit to the ladies in charge. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Burk, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Sproule, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dougherty, Mrs. Alfred Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham and Mr. A. L. Davis. — The Municipal election was held Monday, in the Town Hall. The following were elected: A. Loyst, Reeve; A. Miller, Deputy Reeve, and John Kenny, Frank Smith and D. O. Frink, Councillors.

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

CENTREVILLE

The weather is very mild for this time of year, and almost all kinds of conveyances are seen on the roads, there being very little snow so far. The play, "Deacon Dubbs," presented by the Tamworth people in the Town Hall here on New Year's night, was a decided success.—There seems to be epidemic of colds around here lately. — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor left on Tuesday night for their home in Regina, Sask., after a very pleasant holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Mallett and family.—Mr. G. A. McGill has been suffering from the effects of a bad tooth, but is able to be out again. — Mr. Louis Rombough left on Tuesday for New York City, where he has secured a position.—Mrs. F. C. Perrow, Newburgh, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. W. J. McGill. — Miss Effie Wood, who went to Buffalo, N.Y., after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Briden Weese.

THE ELECTION RETURNS

The Personnel of the 1926 Council is as follows :—Dr. Ming, Mayor; Mark Graham, Reeve; E. J. Roy, J. M. Simpson, A. MacGregor, J. H. Fitzpatrick, Wm. Howitt and W. H. Dunbar, Councillors.

The Municipal Election on Monday passed off very quietly in Napanee, there being a smaller vote than a year ago. The day was not ideal for the electorate, rain falling part of the time and the walks being very slippery.

For the Reeveship, Mark Graham again defeated George Paul, his majority being 165.

Councillor Roy again headed the poll for a seat at the Council Board, followed closely by Councillor Simpson. The defeated Councillor was W. J. Jewell, whose place will be taken by J. H. Fitzpatrick.

There will be several changes in the personnel of the County Council this year. In North Fredericksburgh James Clark turned the tables on J. A. Yeomans this year, and won out by a small majority. A three-cornered fight was staged in South Fredericksburgh this year between three new aspirants, and Jonas Garrison was the victor. In Ernesttown, W. C. T. Loyst and Andrew Miller will replace Ross Peters and Delbert Sexsmith as Reeve and Deputy Reeve respectively. In Newburgh George Anson Aylesworth was returned over Thomas McNeely. In Richmond, Alf. McCutcheon defeated W. J. Gollinger; in Adolphustown, J. S. Johnson won out over C. F. Allison, and Bath returned M. H. Mellow.

Following are the returns :—

NAPANEE

	West Ward		Centre Ward		East Ward	Total
For Reeve,—	No. 1	No. 2	No. 1	No. 2
Mark Graham	109	116	94	106	104	529
George Paul	80	85	58	78	63	364
Majority for Graham						165
For Councillors,—
E. J. Roy	85	119	88	115	93	500
J. M. Simpson	77	96	94	112	97	476
A. MacGregor	85	94	76	87	96	438
J. H. Fitzpatrick	103	96	68	86	73	426
Wm. Howitt	78	92	86	89	78	423
W. H. Dunbar	49	96	68	99	91	403
W. J. Jewell	64	85	76	98	68	391
V. Cowling	118	77	45	59	38	337

The first six Councillors are elected.

Mayor Ming thanked the electorate for giving him the office of Mayor for a second term by acclamation. He was pleased that the old Council was being returned, and looked forward to a successful year.

Reeve Graham said he had never been through a campaign such as that of Monday, and was surprised at the means that were used to endeavor to defeat him. He assured the electors that he would carry on as he had done in the past, and thought that after this year he would step down and let some of the other members of the Council step up.

Councillor Roy expressed great pleasure to know that he held the confidence of the ratepayers, and assured them that he had endeavoured to do his best. There had been a great deal of work done at the Council Board there the past year, and he thought that the 1926 Council would have it easy. He referred to Springside Park and hoped that something would be done this year to put the park in good shape.

Councillor Simpson said the fates had been kind to him again. He appreciated the generous support given him and trusted his conduct during the coming year would meet with the approval of the electors.

Councillor MacGregor said he had made a fairly good run, and extended thanks for the support given him. He thought that a Council should always be striving to bring along something new for the benefit of the town.

Councillor Fitzpatrick felt that it was difficult for him to make a speech at the present time, but was happy to know that the town had confidence in him by giving him such a handsome vote.

Councillor Howitt thanked all who supported him and also those who did not. He had done his best for the town during 1925, and would continue to do so.

Councillor Dunbar was proud of the Town of Napanee and also proud of his own record. He would do his best for the town during the coming year.

Mr. Cowling thanked all for the support given him and wished them all a prosperous New Year.

George Paul said he was beaten, but couldn't help it, and thanked all for the support given him. He would like to see a good man run who would try and keep expenses down, and if he had been elected he would have tried to do so.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor of The Beaver.

Dear Sir, — Your correspondent "Ponzi" in his recent cerebral cyclone appears to have stuck the real ticket on Napanee, as the seat of a disease, which is unfortunately epidemic throughout the Dominion.

His letter suggests many points worth consideration, and some remedies, though I do not see how he can blame local capitalists for putting their money into bonds. The bonds spread the risk of investment, having the support of communities with greater energy and breadth of vision, and the income from them will enable the bondholders to pay taxes, and so contribute towards the cost and upkeep of that artistic pile of bricks and mortar, erected as a monkery kitchen for foxes who know well enough how to get their own living.

The foxes should feel grateful to a community generous enough to supply means for providing them with lunch biscuits, and no doubt look up on the production of dainty biscuits as a "basic industry", and Napanee as a little paradise to which all good foxes will go when some unscrupulous hunter cuts short their earthly career, and strips their carcass to provide trimmings for my lady's fur, thus making them like some other "foxy" individuals, worth more to their neighbours dead than alive.

An old Bluenose Scotchman once told the writer that Canada was only fit for Indians and foxes, as it was too hot to work for six months in the year, and too cold the other six months, and the foxy spirit seems to be an obstacle to progress.

God made the country, and man made the town, and in many ways Providence has endowed Napanee with great liberality. Situated at a junction on lines that connect three of the most important cities in Canada, with good passenger and freight service, it possesses natural attractions, a beauty of setting and neatness that would attract attention in any locality.

Admiring these attractions, and the possession of brains, (and no one who reads "Ponzi's" letter will deny there are brains there), some other cause must be sought for an explanation as to why the town has a smaller population than several decades ago.

It has been said there are "statesmen who are pedlars, and pedlars who are statesmen", and it will be left to the reader to decide in which category he will place "the powers that be" in Napanee.

Without respect to political parties or their policies, the small town, the city, and the country generally seems to be suffering from "statesmen who are pedlars, and who fear the financial hi-jackers will steal their packs, and who, like the four-legged foxes would see their hides on the fences if there were more brain storms among the "Pomties" of the country. The trouble is, the brains do not storm, and it is refreshing to see one get a whirl on.

We listen to all sorts of bunk, about the boundless resources of Canada, about getting emigrants and population to make the railroads pay, about the inimitable qualities of our banking system, our elastic tariff, and our general superiority as a nation over less favoured peoples, which has enabled us to claim a large part of the land in this world, and the Kingdom of heaven in the here, and yet we cannot keep the cream of our native and adopted sons at home, while our neighbours to the south cannot keep them out.

Is not the explanation of the problem confronting Napanee and the whole country to be found in the fact that brains are appreciated across the border, as a means of producing wealth, while here, money alone is appreciated. The super-idiots appear to be the politicians at Ottawa, with their elastic tariffs, elastic banking systems, and elastic consciences. As "Ponzi" says, elastic is liable to break, and it is certainly better to depend on a rope, even if only one wish to suspend a politician.

A close examination might prove that our elastic tariff is the cause of the "boom boom" as it has a habit of contracting just as soon as an investment is made in a new industry, and the elastic banking system immediately acts in sympathy, with the result that the pioneer of an industrial enterprise is generally regarded as a poor deluded fool, and probably rightly so, for being such an ass as to believe it possible under present conditions to make a success of a medium sized industry that would employ a lot of labour, and do him self, the working men and community some permanent good.

Within the last few years there have been many examples of the pernicious effects of the operation of this lauded model banking system, and many banks have had to close their doors, and others amalgamate to save the day. A few years ago, an orgy of ill-advised railway building gave us a period of fictitious prosperity, and when it was over the government had to come to the aid of rapacious railway contractors to save one of our largest banks, and thereby laid the foundation of the present railroad tangle, with its appalling deficits entailing staggering taxation.

Another instance was the very friendly co-operation of the banking system with the sugar interests, when prices were being boosted to the consumer to twenty-five cents a pound. Then came the "big" bank was stung, and many will remember how they all whined like a lot of whipped pups when an unsympathetic government refused to make the taxpayers hand over their paper profits or take the blame for their losses. In another instance a now defunct bank took so much interest in the prosperity and development of Canada, that while they had millions to pour into a Montreal bucket shop, they could not spare a dollar for industrial enterprise, while in a more recent case real estate speculation and foreign investments contributed toward another crash, and again the public are asked to bear the loss.

The bankers and politicians would probably reply that contractors must live, that sugar refiners must have a sweet time, that bucket shops like other hardware business should be encouraged, and that a magnificent castle is a necessity to a good real estate speculator, but are we not paying a little high for our hero worship.

"Ponzi" seems chagrined because there was a shortage of money to pay for turkeys and chickens, but there seems to be no good reason why Montreal or Toronto bankers should provide this, as these things are not necessities, and anyway what do hayseeds want with money? If you pay money to a farmer he might buy a car, for which, living in the country he has no use, as he has always plenty to do, though his town brother needs one to keep him busy Sunday mornings—doing repairs. The bankers must have forgotten that the poor rube might receive a visit from a peregrinating bucket shop in the form of a Stock salesman, whose stock would not need feeding, and would have enough water to last till the stock evaporated.

Now, Mr. Editor, about that man with a lantern looking for a man with faith in the town, to whom Mr. Ponzi makes reference. What does he expect to find? You know the good book says, "faith without works is dead," and a man to have the faith and do the works he describes would need the charm and voice of a siren to command the attention of the kings and princes of this mammoth banking system, and wring from them a few of the dollars which rightfully belong to the railway magnates, sugar refiners and when he had successfully overcome their resistance, and obtained their backing to his enterprise to the extent of one hundred dollars, he would need an armoured suit and nerves of steel to withstand the attacks to which he would be subject in the good old town, by the rival claimants for a locomotive works and a pulp and paper mill, in proof of which there are in your last issue "Ponzi's" sarcastic references to that great and flourishing industry which an aggressive public spirit has already established in the town. Well may the City Fathers exclaim with Kipling, "If aloud be the price of admirality, Lord God we have paid in full".

The situation calls for action, and "Ponzi" is the man to get out with a lantern, and try and find a new Napoleon, a Cromwell or a second Washington, and when he has found the super-man get him busy. His first job might be to find the Prime Minister a seat, (a thing he does not have to go to the House he professes to lead as a "Nationer". The spectacle of the First Commoner meandering around the country in search of a seat, begging for a status, is about as pitiable as that of Bonnie Prince Charlie when in 1745, after the rebellion, he presented himself at a house in the Highlands and said, "The son of your king comes to beg a little bread and a few clothes. . . . I bring your present attachment to my adversaries, but I believe you have sufficient honour not to sell your presence, or take advantage of my distressed condition".

In return for a seat, W. L. M. K. would no doubt consent to make Napanee a Divisional Point on the National Railways, and the superman could then go to Ottawa and kick out of the Cabinet those pinheaded idiots, who imagine that by spending a few millions on fifteen dollar immigrants, these immigrants will make enough trade to enable the waterlogged railways to pay their way.

Having made a clean up at Ottawa the superman might have a little recreating by taking the financial magnates of the elastic banking system, with their friends on inter-locking directorates, for an excursion to the Banks of Newfoundland, and leaving them on an iceberg, where they could fish for deep sea suckers, on which they should be successful, considering their aptitude with the land variety.

The magician could then return and get the Premier to placate the Progressives and other disgruntled westerners by a pool for marketing not only their grain, but also meats and dairy products for export, to put an embargo on the raw material which goes to make up the "boundless resources" build a tariff wall as high as the Woolworth Building, establish a system of County and City Banks with an efficient Federal Reserve system, which would furnish adequate liquid capital for agricultural, industrial and development purposes, and then "Ponzi" might see the country advance instead of marking time on marching boards, the brain and brawn of his young friends would find plenty of activity at home, in Napanee, making the old town boom.

Guard the Baby Against Colds

By Keeping Baby's Own Tablets in the House at All Times.

To guard the baby against colds nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a mild laxative that will keep the little one's stomach and bowels working regularly. It is much and bowels are in good order that colds will not exist; that the health of the little one will be good and that he will thrive and be happy.

Thousands of mothers have become convinced through the actual use of the Tablets that there is nothing to equal them in banishing constipation and indigestion; breaking up colds and simple fevers; expelling worms and making teething time easy. Among the thousands who praise Baby's Own Tablets is Mrs. Alex. J. Perry, Atlantic, N.S., who says:—"I always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house as I know of no other medicine for little ones to equal them."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A South American Hobo.

Santiago, capital of Chile, is the home of the roto Chileno, or broken Chilean, most picturesque and unique of bolocos. The name is a byword in South America, and as far as that continent is concerned he is a unique type. We find this people everywhere real poor people everywhere, but in no other South American country but Chile do we find this good natured, serviceable, deceitful, ragged, drunken, crimson species of tramp. He earns a livelihood by begging, doing odd jobs and thieving. The last is his mainstay. In his hands stealing has become a fine art. The Chileans have a saying that he will steal your socks without touching your boots. A long, jointed wire with a hook at the end is his favorite tool. If a window on the street is left unguarded he will with this simple contrivance successfully remove from the interior everything but the heavy furniture.

Due's For Poets.

Arthur Guiterman in a recent interview gave a list of negative commandments for would be poets. "Don't think of yourself as a poet and dress the part," he says. "Don't frequent exclusively the company of writers. Don't complain of lack of appreciation. (In the long run no really good published work can escape appreciation). Don't speak of poetic license or believe that there is any such thing. Don't use 'e'er' for 'ever,' 'o'er' for 'over,' 'when as' or 'what time' for 'when' or any of the 'poetical' commonplaces of the past. Don't say 'did go' for 'went,' even if you need an extra syllable. Don't—don't write hymns to the great god Pan. He is dead; let him rest in peace! Don't write what everybody else is writing."

What Held Her.

Dinah Snow was a colored cook in the home of Smith. One morning on going to the kitchen Mrs. Smith noticed that Dinah looked as if she had been tangled up with a road roller.

"Why, Dinah," exclaimed she, "what in the world has happened to you?"

"Was me husban'," explained Dinah. "He done went an' beat me ag'in, an' jes' for nothin' too."

"Again!" cried Mrs. Smith, with increasing wonder. "Is he in the habit of beating you? Why don't you have him arrested?"

"Been thinkin' of it seberal times, missy," was the startling rejoinder of Dinah, "but I hain't nebah had no money to pay his fine."—Exchange.

India's Hoarded Gold.

For many years London has been steadily drained of her gold by India. In ten years India has absorbed from circulation 150,000,000 gold sovereigns and hoarded them, away. The coolie has learned that silver rupees are a poor investment, especially if he melts them into anklets or a nose ring for his wife, as over 20 per cent of the silver is lost in the melting and then the gold sovereign preserves its value whether he keeps it as a coin or melts it down into jewelry. When a coolie collects 15 rupees which he finds to be temporarily surplus he buys a sovereign with it. He has some to wear himself and a dowry of boarding away only the gold coin, which he knows he can always realize on at its original value.

African Fashion Notes.

The prettiest dress of the Mpongwe woman is a cloth drawn up under the arms, a scarf on the shoulders and a handkerchief folded over the coiled hair in a high stiff fold set well up on the head, rather like a child's idea of a crown. There is a great fancy for purples and lavenders set off with shades of rose and red and a sudden keen note of gilt. With black there will be a touch of most delicious bright green. A cloth and a scarf worn by a woman of beautiful gesture—and a Gabounaise is always that—have a certain notable charm; for movement of the body, the wind that blows from the sea—these renew and display the folds of the garment so that the eye is intrigued.—Atlantic.

But None For Him.

"Any letters for me?" "What name?" "Jason Howlet." "Um-m-m. None." "That's strange." "Expecting any?" "No, but Israel Pubbleton was reading the other day that there was enough letters sent through the postoffice last year to give every man, woman and child twenty-three each, an' I thought I'd come in for my share."

An Oversight.

"What do you think of his nerve?" exclaimed the old man, who was notoriously tricky in business. "He called me a barefaced robber!"

"Oh, well," replied the man who knew him, "probably in his excitement he didn't notice your mustache."

Another Reason.

"They call her the human graphophone."
"Just because she harnes a bit?"
"It's on account of the airs she puts on."

Great Knowledge.

"Does he know anything about a car?"
"He certainly does. He knows how to sell it after it gets worn out."—Puck.

Where Are They?

Where are those musical children of yesterday whose musical education was complete when they had learned to play "The Maiden's Prayer" and "Monastery Bells?"—Life.

Stopped Anyway.

While motoring with four girls my clutch got out of order and it was necessary for the girls to get out and push in order to get the car in motion. On the way back it was arranged that when we got to the home of the girl who they were all staying they would jump off while the car was moving slowly, thus to prevent my stopping and being stalled again. Imagine my horror when they all jumped off backwards and falling over in a bunch rolled into the ditch. I surely had quite a time explaining my seemingly ungentlemanly act to the girls' parents, who had witnessed the incident from the porch.—Exchange.

Brazil Seeks Experts.

According to advice from Commercial Attache J. E. Phillipi, at Rio de Janeiro, the government of the state of Minas Geraes, Brazil, has sent to the United States to contract for the services of one expert in the cultivation and production of cotton; two experts in fruit culture, including vineyards; three grain experts, one expert in tobacco culture, two live stock experts, including one veterinarian, and one dairy expert. These men will be employed as traveling teachers in the interior districts of the state of Minas Geraes.
